RINGSIDE, SAN FRANCISCO, July 26.-After fighting a battle of eight rounds that was fraught with brilliant and courageous work, Robert Fitzsimmons last night forfeited his last claim upon the heavyweight championship. He was knocked to the floor by James Jeffries and counted out after he had so hadly nunished the champion that it was a foregone conclusion among the spectators that the Cornishman must win. Bleeding from a number of gashes in the face, apparently weakening and clearly unable to cope with Fitzsimmons' superior skill. Jeffries delivered two lucky nunches as Fitzsimmons naused in his fighting to speak to him and turned the tide. The battle tried once to rise from the mat but sank down again in helplessness and heard himself counted out where but a moment before he had apparently all the better of it.

"I will never fight again," said the battle-scarred veteran of the ring when he had sufficiently recovered to talk. "The fight was won fairly and to the best man belongs the laurels

"You are the most dangerous man alive," said Jeffries in return, "and I consider myself lucky to have won

Fitzsimmons had been fighting at a furious rate cool and deliberate, and chopping the champion to pieces with the terrific rights and lefts that have made him famous.

It was the draught horse and the racer from the tap of the gong. When the men came together Fitzsimmons anneared rather worried but on the fought with the deliberation of the general that he is. As early as the second round Fitzsimmons had Jeffries bleeding profusely from mouth and nose. Again and again he landed on his bulky opponent, getting away in such a clever manner that it brought down the great house in cheers. It seemed indeed that Jeffries could scarcely weather out the gale. Then the eighth round came, and under a series of hot exchanges Fitzsimmons naused with his guard down and spoke to the champles. The latter's reply consisted of two terrific blows that brought back to him the fleeting championship and farever removed the vetteran Fitzsin mons from the fistic arena. Fitzsimmons took his defeat with amazing good cheer. He walked to the center of the ring and, raising his hand addressed the multitude, say-

"The best man has won. Had beaten Jeffries tonight I should have conceded him the championship and forever retired from the ring. I retire just the same now, but without hav-

After the fight Champion Jeffries was seen in his dressing room. He was jubilant over his success, despite the terrific scars of battle. He said to the Associated Press:

"Well I have won, just as I expect ed to. It was a fierce fight, the fiereest I ever had, but I won. Yes, I got a good beating as far as the marks of battle count, but then I rather expected that. I knew Fitzsimmons had a cutting nunch and would land it at some time of the fight. But the few marks and the loss of a little blood wont hurt a man. I took them and
