Columbus Journal.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1901.

For Sale or Rent.

80 acres four miles east of Columbus. Enquire of B. McTEGGART.

—Cool weather.
—Dr. Paul, dentist.
—Mietzes for best photos.
—Blanke's Coffee at Grays'.
—Dr. Neumann, dentist, Thirteenth street. tf
—Fresh milch cows for sale at H. D. Holden's.
—Try Hoehen's soda water and be convinced.
—Ambros Brunner was on the sick list last week.
—Hoehen's soda water is the coldest, purest and best.
—Ground oyster shell for chickens at Duffy's feed store. tf
—Band concert this week Friday instead of Wednesday night.
—Born, to Mrs. Garrett Hulst Tuesday, August 5th, a daughter.
—Dr. Hans Paulsen, physician and surgeon, office Olive street. tf
—Dave Shaff bought last week a fine farm of 160 acres in Boone county.
—C. B. Tomlin is brightening up his dwelling with a fresh coat of paint.
—Dr. Charles I. White has moved to Norfolk where he expects to locate.
—Drs. Martyn, Evans & Geer, office three doors north of Friedhof's store. tf
—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $32.00. A. Dussell & Son. tf
—Joseph Ryan, who has been working at Schuyler for a month, returned home last week.
—We sell the single-row and two-row Badger cultivator, the best in the market. Louis Schreiber. tf
—Dr. McKean's method of making aluminum plates places them on an equality with gold.
—Born, Friday morning August 9, to Mrs. Albert Stenger, a son. All well and Albert the happiest man alive.
—Nels Johnson of Lincoln is here, the guest of his brother, O. Johnson. He may remain and go into business.
—Prof. Cunningham gave a song and piano recital in Genoa, Monday evening, assisted by his pupils of that city.
—Easton's line of gasoline stoves and coal oil stoves are the most complete of any in the city, and prices are right.
—Piano tuning. Mr. Earl C. Brink, the reliable piano tuner, will be in Columbus Sept. 15th to 30th to tune pianos.
—Ed. Coolidge is working on Dr. Hanson's ranch near O'Neill, where Homer Martyn met with his severe accident.
—Wm. Schilz makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market. tf —Winter wheat must be an excellent crop in Butler county as the Bellwood Gazette says it is yielding 35 to 40 bushels per acre.
—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Prevert of Platte Center, were in town Saturday. Joe tells us that he expects to go to farming in the spring.
—Theo. Friedhof made a trip to Logan county last week to look after some land. He reports an immense crop of grass in that section of the state.
—Lute North has been loosing by theft some of his fine Plymouth Rock chickens from his farm near Monroe. Out of 700 he has missed 250.
—Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Jorgensen and Mrs. Rector will serve ice cream Friday afternoon and evening of this week on the lawn of Mrs. Davis.
—The twins, John Early and John Neumarker were at Lincoln one day last week looking over the grounds before entering the University next month.
—Tom Branigan brought in another car load of horses from the west last week. The train that hauled him took 36 hours from Kimball to Columbus.
—The Kaufmann nine of this city played a game of ball with a Silver Creek team in that village Sunday last, the score being 13 to 0 in favor of Silver Creek.
—James G. Reeder and Elmer Smith made a trip to Silver Creek Wednesday. They carried a surveyor's transit and were told that they were looking for lot corners.
—Miss Emma Hoppen was operated on Thursday for appendicitis and is doing as well as could be expected. For several days prior to the operation Miss Hoppen was seriously sick.
—Two well improved farms for sale. One in Sherman township, one in Monroe township. These are both bargains considering location and improvements. Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers.
—Nebraska soil is producing wonderful crops of all kinds this season. A potato taken from the garden of Charles Johnson and brought to THE JOURNAL office Monday evening weighed 2 pounds 5½ ounces.
—Prof. Garlichs took his High school orchestra of twenty people, including Miss Ethel Galley to Grand Island Monday, where they will give a concert. They also appear in Broken Bow and return home Thursday.
—F. A. Harrison now of Omaha, formerly of Lincoln, the fearless republican who made life miserable for some of the disreputable members of his party, through his paper, the Record, was in the city Friday between trains.
—Saturday last while feeding a job press in the office of the Elliot, Will Wagner had the misfortune of having two fingers of his right hand caught between the bed and platen of the press causing a painful though not dangerous wound.
—Herman Loseke wants a business caller at THE JOURNAL office Saturday. Like many other farmers he is in need of farm hands to help take care of the grain and hay crops. Mr. Loseke says he never saw corn look better than it does at this time.
—"Friday's Platte Center Signal says: "A gang of workmen arrived here yesterday and this morning commenced putting in the second wire on the telephone line between here and Humphrey. Judging from the number of men at work on it the job will be quickly completed."

—Mrs. E. Schontag is quite sick.
—Geo. Hagel made a trip to Lincoln Monday.
—Mrs. E. H. Chambers is quite sick with lumbago.
—For the coldest and best soda water go to Hoehen's.
—Hoehen serves Balduff's ice cream with soda water.
—The county supervisors are in session today, Tuesday.
—Dr. L. C. Voss, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.
—W. A. McAllister is in Fremont today, Tuesday, on business.
—Duffy has ground oyster shell for chickens at his feed store. tf
—The Episcopal Sunday school picnic will be enjoyed next Thursday.
—The office of the Hotel Meridian is receiving a new hard maple floor.
—Pillsbury's Best XXXX Flour, the best in the world, at Grays'. tf
—Ladies' shirt waists 85c, 70c and 60c at 50c until Aug. 15, at von Bergen's.
—Wanted, a good girl for general house work. Enquire at J. H. Galley's store.
—J. E. North and E. H. Chambers took a trip into central Nebraska last week.
—All hats below cost at Mrs. M. J. Rodman & Co., Miss Bruner's old stand.
—H. I. Murdock and Wm. Sipple will drive overland to Springfield tomorrow.
—Small, choice farm for sale, under irrigation, joining town. H. E. Babcock.
—For fine watch repairing, call on Carl Froemel, 11th St., Columbus, Neb.
—Rural mail routes 1, 2 and 3, began running July 1st. Buy your mail boxes of C. S. Easton.
—Special shirt sale, $1.25, $1.00, 75 and 65 cent shirts go at 49c until Aug. 15th, at von Bergen's.
—P. Chatfield moved his family today to Monroe, where he will be engaged with the Emerson Seed Co.
—The rain of last Friday evening amounted to .50 of an inch and was a steady fall of several hours.
—A. Berger left Monday for Valley where he will serve as watchman at the U. P. bridge across the Platte.
—O. G. Hickok began work at Oehlrich's Monday after a several days' enforced vacation from lumbago.
—Misses Jennie and Clara Weaver entertain friends Wednesday morning to a Kensington, from 10 to 1 o'clock.
—The Sunday school of the Saint's church will have their annual picnic in M. Watkins' grove this Wednesday.
—The Presbyterian Sunday school picnic will be held in the grove near the Loup river bridge today (Wednesday.)
—Charles A. Gerrard of Monroe, this county, has been granted a pension of $6 per month. He served in the war with Spain.
—A cement crossing is being laid at Eleventh and Olive streets between Asche's grocery store and Wiggins & Lewis' office.
—The annual picnic of the Congregational Sunday school was held in the grove west of the Loup wagon bridge last Thursday.
—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sheets of Pittsburg, Pa., are here visiting Mrs. Early, who is a cousin. They had not seen each other for thirty years.
—Roy Coffey, who lives three miles north of Monroe, drove to Columbus Monday morning. He reported seeing frost in the valley at 7 o'clock.
—The annual meeting of the north Nebraska M. E. conference will be held at Grand Island beginning Sept. 24. Bishop C. H. Fowler will preside.
—Rev. Olcott conducted an "old peoples" service Sunday evening in the St. Edward Methodist church, where he was pastor prior to his removal to Columbus.
—The roof and front to George Hagel's building on Thirteenth street have been put in place since last week and the structure now makes a fine appearance.
—The Coolee City Review, Douglas county, Washington, has been sent us. We notice that the local manager of the paper is an old time Columbus boy, F. C. Gibson.
—Elenor, Katharine and Louise Rusche gave a lawn party to about fifty of their young friends last Tuesday afternoon. A delightful time was passed in out-door sport.
—Mrs. B. M. Halstead, mother of Mrs. M. C. Stevenson of this city, and O. B. Halstead of Schuyler, died at her home in Ocean Springs, Miss., Aug. 24, at the advanced age of 89 years.
—Frank Strother has moved his family from Monroe to Columbus, and will make this their home. Mr. Strother is interested in the real estate business and will make this city his headquarters.
—E. R. Bisson, who lives several miles north of town, reported frost in his neighborhood Monday morning. Other farmers from near Platte Center and across the river made similar reports.
—The political friends of Hon. W. H. Thompson notify the management of the Central Nebraska Assembly at Fullerton that they will furnish an escort and band for their candidate, Wednesday, Aug. 13.
—G. T. Adams of Dowagie, Mich., a brother of genial Tom, was visiting here a few days last week. He is a traveling salesman for a stove house, and reports some way ahead of last year, which was a banner season.
—The Columbus ball team made a trip up the branch the latter part of last week. At Fullerton Thursday they were defeated in a well played game by a score of 4 to 2. Friday they won the game played at St. Edward by the score of 10 to 3.
—The Assembly at Fullerton commences today (Tuesday) and will continue to the 22d. This is a good place to spend your vacation and at the same time add to your stock of knowledge. No prettier natural park can be found in the state.
—WANTED 5 YOUNG MEN from Platte county at once to prepare for positions in the Government Service—Railway Mail Clerks, Letter Carriers, Custom House and Departmental Clerks, etc. Apply to Inter-State Corres. Inst., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
—J. B. Drinnin started Monday for Wyoming, Illinois, where he will visit his mother and other relatives for about two weeks, and attend the annual meeting of the old settlers association. Mr. Drinnin's mother is 94 years old and he has not seen her for twenty years.

—Miss Lyda McMahen went to Silver City, Iowa, Friday, where she has a position as cashier for a stack of goods purchased by Elliott, Speice & Co., of this city.
—Maurice Mayer, a former Columbus clothing merchant, now of St. Joe, Mo., arrived in the city Monday and will remain a few days greeting old-time friends and making new ones.
—Roy Stires got the second finger of his right hand badly torn Sunday at O. L. Baker's farm from splinters while playing a game in which he was throwing a large stick of wood.
—H. D. Shaff, formerly a teacher in the High school of this city, also brother of D. Shaff, will succeed O. G. Smith, resigned, assistant superintendent of the Kearney Industrial school.
—Miss Esther Rossiter is taking E. G. Hockenberger's place as book keeper at Hulst & Adams' during his absence. They will, within a few weeks, put in a cash carrier's system and Miss Rossiter will then do the cashier's work.
—Hank Moore caught a fish on his hook near the Loup wagon bridge a few days ago that weighed 50 pounds. It pulled him down stream about a quarter of a mile before he landed it. And this was not told as a fish story either.
—The Gray Mercantile Co. employes have challenged the Hulst & Adams boys to a game of ball which will be fought out either this Thursday or next week Thursday. Mort Murphy says the banner carried by their nine will be "You-need-a-ginger wafer."
—Bert Briggs, a former Columbus boy, now of Idaho, passed through the city one day last week on his way to Washington, D. C. Mr. Briggs is now an influential man in his state and those who saw him at the station say that he was looking remarkably well.
—Attorney General Prout has just written an opinion holding that church parsonages or rectories are not exempt from taxation. This will necessitate another circuit of the contribution box and a few more suppers by the ladies' aid societies.—Fremont Tribune.
—Owing to the absence from the city of Director Garlichs and other members of the City Band on account of the concerts to be given by the High school orchestra at Grand Island and Broken Bow this week, the park concert will take place Friday instead of Wednesday evening.
—Misses Katharine and Lettitia Speice entertained friends Thursday evening to a six-handed euchre party, in honor of D. J. Woods and Miss Louise Matthews of Schuyler. Mr. Elmer Smith won the gentlemen's prize, a match box, and Miss Florence Whitmoyer the lady's prize, which was a cup and saucer.
—Examination for entrance to the High school, and for promotion in the High school will be held at the High school building, Friday and Saturday, August 29th and 30th. All students desiring admission or advancement are requested to be present. By order of the board. M. Brugger, secretary.   2
—The subjects to be discussed on Farmers Day, Tuesday August 19, at the Central Nebraska Assembly at Fullerton are: "Progress in Agricultural Practice"; "Prevention of Animal Diseases"; "The Study of Agriculture in Our School" and "Beautifying Farm Homes." This will be a big day at the Assembly.
—Theophile Walter arrived here Thursday from Giswyl, Switzerland, and expects to make this his future home. His father is still a citizen of Austria, and in order to avoid being obliged to serve in the army of that country, he comes to America to make his home with his mother who came to Columbus several months ago.
—In Atchison, Kansas, the other day at a roasting-ear eating contest one young lady won a prize by putting out eight for good-sized ears and thought she had performed a wonder. That's not so many. We heard of a Columbus girl the last week ate nine big ears and then declared it wasn't a very good day for roasting-ears, either.
—Poultry raisers will take notice that Easton sells a full line of poultry fencing 1 inch, 1½ inch and 2 inch mesh, close enough to turn the smallest chick. I also have a fence that will stand up without a top and bottom rail that I sell for a slight advance over the common poultry fence. Try me for prices. I will save you money.
—Mike Cassin lost his slaughter house one mile east of town, Wednesday morning about 5 o'clock, by fire. Two droved beeves, also two hogs were burned with the building, but the live stock in the pens escaped. It is not known how the fire originated. As the insurance companies do not insure slaughter houses, the loss will be entire, amounting to about $200.
—Bert Galley, Sam Gass, Jr. Charles Segelka, Werner Schupbach and Clyde Ward represented Columbus at the Fireman's State tournament held at Grand Island last week. They report having had a good time. The Fremont team passed through here Friday en route home feeling jubilant because of their having won the state championship race twice in succession.
—The Bellwood Gazette says that a man named A. D. Garrison, formerly of Columbus issued the Home Record at David City the beginning of last week; but his stay was short, as next day he and the keys over to Mr. Wolfe, the proprietor, and lit out for a better field. He evidently made up his mind that there wasn't room for two republican papers at David City.
—The Assembly at Fullerton will be well attended by Columbus people this year. Thursday morning the following named persons went to camp to be present during the entire ten days: Prof. and Mrs. Britell and his family—Misses Maggie, Tena and Emma Zinnecker, Miss Emma Ragatz, Mrs. E. H. Eisenach, Mr. George Randall, Misses Ethel and Jessie Boyd, Misses Lillie and Olga Ragatz and Grace Kyle. Many more expect to spend a short time at the grounds. Hon. W. H. Thompson will speak on "Good Citizenship" this Wednesday afternoon, and Hon. John H. Mickey comes that same next week will give a lecture.

—Frank Fugard is in the city. He is now employed in a creamery at Washington, on a process butter maker, but is now taking a vacation. It has been reported that he was married three or four weeks ago to Miss May Thurston, a former Columbus girl and sister of Mrs. Lee Draper, who is a stenographer in Scribner, but Mr. Fugard denies the allegation.
—Lee Draper and John Gondring left Sunday evening for the west. They expect to visit Denver, Colorado Springs, Canon City, Salt Lake, Los Angeles, San Francisco and Portland. They fortified themselves with numerous addresses before leaving, of persons living in the west from this neighborhood, also many letters of introduction to parties living in that section and they doubtless will have an enjoyable time.
—At a special meeting of the school board last Wednesday, Miss Katharine Greene was elected to teach Miss Ada Graham's classes in the High school for a few months, until the latter has recovered her health. Miss Greene is from Lincoln, and highly recommended to the board. Prof. Britell was authorized to designate August 29th and 30th as days for examination of pupils. The schools will open Monday, September 1st.
—Henry Hockenberger and A. Luth of this city and Isaiah Lightner and daughter, Miss Lightner, of Monroe, went from this county to attend the state convention of prohibitionists at Lincoln last week, and report a good meeting. Mr. Lightner was nominated for lieutenant governor; Mr. Davis of Nebraska City for governor; and C. C. Beverege of Fremont, who several weeks ago held a temperance meeting here for congressman from this district.
—Bixby says in the Lincoln Journal: "If the prohibitionists want to name one of the best men in Nebraska for governor we would modestly suggest that they thrust the honor upon Henry Hockenberger of Columbus. There is a man who has lived in an atmosphere of beer and pretzels and gesundheit for twenty years and has never touched a drop of anything stronger than a lime phosphate. In every respect he is a mighty good man, and no foolishness about it."
—Columbus is growing and that is very evident. Last week L. F. Gottschalk with his helpers was surveying in the north portion of the city ten acres of the forty-acre tract belonging to C. W. Pearsall which is soon to be placed on the market to accommodate numerous parties who have been inquiring for building lots in that part of town. The tract lies about eight blocks due north of the Union Pacific passenger depot and adjoins Becher Place addition on the north.
—Mrs. Emma C. Wagner has filed a damage suit in the district court against the Union Pacific company et al for $5,000. She claims that her husband received injuries last October on account of the car coupler not being in first-class condition, and that the frog in the track had not been properly blocked, and that these injuries were the cause of his death.—Marine Anderson asks for a divorce from Soren C. Anderson on account of extreme cruelty. She asks for alimony and the custody of four children.
—Frederick William, the young son of Mrs. John Lehmann, died in spasms Saturday evening. The child was taken sick at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and died at 9:40, and during that brief time suffered twenty convulsions. He was born June 18, 1890. Mrs. Lehmann has been sadly afflicted, having lost her husband by death July 29. Little Frederick had never been a healthy child, but was a bright, handsome boy, and the pride of his relatives. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from the home, Rev. Miessler conducting the service. Mrs. Lehmann has an infant son left her. She has the sympathy of the entire community.
—Miss Ethel Henrich entertained about forty of her friends Wednesday afternoon in honor of Miss Marjorie Williams and Miss Rasmussen. The young ladies found much amusement in tracing cords that had been wound about the yard and even to the house top. At the end of each cord a toy was found. Each guest also carried a knife and spoon full of peanuts across the lawn, Miss Helen Hoyt receiving a prize of a Columbus souvenir spoon as the expert to convey the most nuts to their destination. After this refreshments were served on the lawn and the guests bade farewell to their hostess who had given them so pleasant an afternoon.
—The ball game at the park Sunday between Columbus and Wahoo was witnessed by a large crowd. As usual of late Columbus won by the nice score of 4-5. When it was announced that "Dad" Lohr was to pitch that seemed to settle the matter as a sure winner for the Columbus team. The Fremont team named him Friday on route home feeling jubilant because of their having won the state championship race twice in succession.
—Daniel Fey, a traveling veterinary surgeon, was found dead at 9 o'clock Thursday morning at the foot of an embankment, four miles south of Creston, this county. Sheriff Byrnes was telephoned for and taking Henry Gass, jr., as an undertaker, the two went to Creston. Fey had evidently been thrown from his buggy and in the confusion the harness had become so entangled that neither horse nor man could escape. The animal was unhurt and the dead veterinarian had evidently been dragged some distance. Evidently the accident had occurred several hours previously. Two brothers, one from Dodge and one from Pilger arrived and funeral services and burial took place in Creston Friday.
—When you wish good, neat, clean handsome work done in the line of printing, call at THE JOURNAL office.