—Charles Gerrard of Monroe has purchased the Duffy printing plant that has been stored in this city for a few years, and moved it Saturday to Elba, Howard county, Nebraska, where he will start a paper.
—Mary, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. Cleveland aged 1 year, died Sunday morning. The funeral will be held this Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the United Brethren church, Rev. Lohr officiating.
—According to a decision rendered by the United States district attorney of Kansas, metal checks issued by business firms or individuals, are illegal, and there is a heavy fine attached. We print the above for the benefit of JOURNAL readers.
—Officials of the Union Pacific were in Cedar Rapids looking up the country with a view to extending the road from that place to Spalding. There would be fourteen miles of road to build, and it is altogether probable that it will be done this fall.
—WANTED 5 YOUNG MEN from Platte county at once to prepare for positions in the Government Service—Railway Mail Clerks, Letter Carriers, Customs House and Departmental Clerks, etc. Apply to Inter-State Correspondence, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
—Abbe & Calto recently purchased a half section of Sherman county land. Mat Calto says the land there is very much like that in Sherman township, this county, the soil fully as rich, though not quite so rolling. He reports immense crops there this season.
—The High school orchestra returned Thursday evening from their western tour, having given concerts in Grand Island and Broken Bow. They report having enjoyed the trip and more than pleased their audiences at both places with the music rendered.
—B. J. Briggs of Idaho Falls, Idaho, after a few days' visit here, started for his western home Monday noon. Bert tells us that while out he visited with his father in Council Bluffs, Iowa, the old-time friends of whom will be sorry to learn that he is sadly afflicted with cancer of the tongue and his condition considered serious. He is over 70 years old.
—The St. Edward Sem contains a good portrait of Rev. D. T. O'Leary of this city, who conducted an old folks' service in St. Edward on the 10th. The Sem says that the house was crowded, many of whom were aged people. Rev. O'Leary was a former pastor of the M. E. church there, and after his sermon the congregation presented him with $22 as a token of appreciation.

—Rev. H. A. Shannon, formerly of the Westville congregation, recently of Hing, has been transferred to Burdett, Neb. His new charge was last Monday, driving across the country. He says crops in Polk and Butler counties are something enormous.
—Mr. Crow, a resident of Madison, says he has a patch of potatoes that will yield the rate of 600 bushels per acre. A fine tuber of the Early Ohio variety was taken from the lot that was large enough to make two meals for five persons, or ten meals for one. Next!
—The Schuyler Quill has been turned over to four different men who will edit it one week each. Editor Schuyler says "the object in allowing others to edit the paper is for the purpose of getting ideas of how they would run a paper and to determine what pleases the reader most."
—The county supervisors met in special session last Tuesday to hear the report of the surveyors in connection with the Carrig and Jewell ditch, but finding that all parties having land near the ditch had been notified as to the extra meeting, they adjourned to the 23d.
—Examination for entrance to the High school, and for promotion in the High school will be held at the High school building, Friday and Saturday, August 29th and 30th. All students desiring admission or advancement are requested to be present. By order of the board, M. Bruggar, secretary.
—W. G. Staley, of David City, will be sent here in a few weeks by the Foster & Smith company to take charge of their lumber business in this city, in place of J. B. Gietzen who resigned several weeks ago. Mr. Staley has been in the lumber business for several years past and understands it thoroughly.
—The Catholic Knights with their wives, in all numbering about sixty people, gave Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Calto an old-fashioned surprise Wednesday evening as a kind of home warming at their handsome new home. Refreshments were brought by the guests and a pleasant evening passed by all present.
—The Boone County Agricultural association will hold their Eighteenth annual fair in Albion September 24 to 28, for which they have issued a premium list. Boone is one of the few counties who have kept up the good old fashioned fair, and have not only kept it up, but have made a financial success of them.
—The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Hagerty, ten miles south of Columbus, died Sunday morning from cholera infantum. The child was four months old. The funeral service was held Monday afternoon, Rev. Williams of Bellwood officiating, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Bellwood cemetery.
—Andy Thomas and sister, Mrs. J. E. Monney, of South Bend, Indiana, will be in town and wife of El Paso, Texas, arrived here the first of the week, called by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Martha J. Thomas, who lives south of the Platte river. At last accounts, we are pleased to note, Mrs. Thomas was somewhat better.
—Duke de Boris, son of Grand Duke Vladimir and a nephew of the czar of Russia, accompanied by three military and two civilian Russian officers, passed through Columbus Thursday evening going east on a trip around the world. The party occupied five compartments in the observation car and carried a large amount of baggage.
—Poultry raisers will take notice that Easton sells a full line of poultry fencing 1 inch, 1 1/2 inch and 2 inch mesh, close enough to turn the smallest chick. I can have a fence that will stand up without a top and bottom rail that I sell for a slight advance over the common poultry fence. Try me for prices. I will save you money.
—The city of Columbus brought suit against the Adams Express Co. to compel them to pay the usual occupation tax of $15. The company offered to settle by paying $10; this was refused by the city, and the company have appealed the case to the district court. The case was up for trial last Tuesday before Justice Hendon.
—F. N. Stevenson was in town Thursday on his way home to Omaha from a trip to Albion. Mr. Stevenson says his family are well pleased with Omaha and that their creamery business is flourishing. W. K. Ley is no longer book keeper with the company, having severed his connection there to start a grocery store, in which he is prospering.
—Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Stillman were in Omaha last Wednesday and Thursday to attend the commencement exercises of the Omaha College of Pharmacy. Bert Stillman was one of the class of nineteen graduates and has successfully passed his examination before the state board of pharmacy. He will probably remain in Omaha to accept a position there.
—The Seed company are going to ship about 500 bushels of clematis to the Hermann pickle company of Omaha for pickles, as an experiment. A member of the Omaha firm was here Wednesday and made the arrangements. Should this first shipment prove satisfactory no doubt many more will follow, as about 1,500 bushels a week could be furnished.
—Monroe Republicans.
—A one flower stalk measuring 15 feet 4 inches was on exhibition the past week at Decker's stands, which tied to the corner post, stands higher than the porch. The plant was taken from the vacant lot east of the electric light plant. A stalk of corn measuring 12 feet 6 inches was another sample, showing what Platte county's soil can produce with favorable conditions.
—R. F. Monroe of New York City, who is the possessor of several farms near Columbus was in the city a few days, returning east Thursday noon. Mr. Monroe owns the land west of the Long river wagon bridge, a farm near Pat. Monney's and other land near Creston. He has been interested in Nebraska's farm lands for many years, and still has faith in the future greatness of this section.
—The Murray school building, which was destroyed by fire a few weeks ago, will be rebuilt upon the same site. Legal arrangements have been completed with the district will erect a building worth about $200, and will probably build in the same place. Miss Ruby Riechy had been engaged to teach this school, but was elected Saturday by the Columbus board to a position in the city schools.

—Columbus, Neb., Aug. 19th, 1922.—Baker Post G. A. R. of Columbus, Nebraska, this city invites all ex-Soldiers, Sons of Veterans, Spanish War Veterans and all their friends to join us and spend a couple of days at the Platte Valley Reunion to be held at Genoa August 25th to 30th. Free tents to all. Reservations must all next week. Applications for tents see E. H. Peak this week at his store on Eleventh street. By order of committee.
—Ulrich Langenueger has purchased the Lindell hotel property on Eleventh street of Mrs. Nancy Hult, taking charge of the business last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. August Marx, who have been the lessees of the hotel the past three and a half years, moved last week to their newly built home west of the court house. The Lindell has been a well patronized hotel and will continue to be under the new management. Mr. Langenueger expects to get repairs on the building some time soon.
—James Hennessey of Platte Center, on Monday last week, was putting up a black board in the school building, when it broke, the rough edge cutting a deep gash in his left wrist, which in a few days turned to blood poisoning and on Friday he died. The remains passed through this city Saturday on the way to Chester, Pa., his mother accompanying the body east. Mr. Hennessey was about 40 years old and not married. He has two sisters living in this city, Mrs. O'Neill and Mrs. Ed. Flynn.
—Mike Connor, supposed to have been about 75 years old, living alone in his home south of St. Mary's hospital this city, died Saturday night after a long illness. Nobody seems to know that he has any living relatives. He was the owner of the property where he lived and it is not known yet what other moneyed interests he possessed or what his wishes with regard to his disposition. The funeral will be held from the undertaking rooms of Henry Gass this Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.
—The school board held a meeting Saturday evening. Miss Hohl was transferred from the room assigned her in the High school building to the West End school which she taught last year. Miss Luth was transferred to the Second ward and Miss Jacobson will teach in the First ward. This left the third and fourth grade rooms of the High school vacant and Miss Ruby Riechy was elected as teacher of this room. The place of music teacher was not filled, a majority of the board deciding that for the present, at least, the teachers could give the instruction necessary in their rooms.
—Numerous citizens have interested themselves and announced that on next Monday evening a farewell benefit entertainment will be given in the North opera house complimentary to Prof. E. A. Garlick, who soon leaves for his new field of labor in Broken Bow, Neb. In this manner all Columbus citizens will have an opportunity of attending and show their appreciation of the excellent work the professor has accomplished in musical circles in this city. We learn that all organizations with which he has been associated will take part besides others, and a varied and interesting program will be rendered.
