—Two different lots of corn picked from two fields on September 15, one field being planted early in May and the other later, give altogether different results. On being weighed when picked, and again on Nov. 7, the late corn sprang fifty-three per cent while the early planted shows a shrinkage of but twenty-five per cent and there is no doubt that for feeding purposes the early corn, pound for pound, will go much farther than the later.
—Miss Cunningham, for three years a teacher and having charge of an orphan home in Cuba, will give an address in the Methodist church this Wednesday evening. Miss Cunningham will tell of the customs and habits of the people in that interesting island. There will also be a good musical program under the direction of Miss Ethel Galley. A small admission fee of 15c for adults and 10c for children will be charged which will be given to the orphan fund. All are invited.
—William Hoefelman of Oldenbush postoffice, who has read THE JOURNAL continuously from the first year of its existence, was in the city Monday. Mr. Hoefelman has lived to see the country grow from a rugged pioneer condition to a thriving prosperous state. In the Oldenbush neighborhood two lines of telephone are supported, one to Platte Center, the other to Humphrey. Very many conveniences and luxuries are enjoyed by the country people in these years of progress.
—Miss Nellie Cunningham, for three years past a teacher in Matanzas, Cuba, is here the guest of Mrs. Phillips, at the home of G. W. Phillips. Miss Cunningham speaks for a short time in the Methodist church, telling of the work done in that country. She is in America to appeal for help for their orphan home. She will no doubt interest many here by helping the distressed in the southern land. The following is taken from the Christian Herald: "In Matanzas the work is less severely established and unless new friends are found for the children there the little ones may have to be turned adrift. Miss Cunningham, the first one to respond to the call for teachers, and who is in the Junta Tripartite Home at Matanzas, is a woman of unexampled devotion and self-sacrifice."
