—Mrs. Maryn Evans, Geor & Francis, office three doors north of Frischo's store.
—We sell the single-row and two-row Badger cultivator, the best in the market. Louis Schreiber.
—George Swartzley took a lay-off from his work last week and visited relatives at Harlan, Iowa.
—Dr. McKen's method of making aluminum plates places them on an equality with gold.
—Fox RUST, about 25 acres choice land one mile north of town; cash rent. Inquire at this office.
—J. G. Engel has purchased a 240-acre farm in Merrick county and expects to move onto it some time in March.
—A. Haight last week sold his 100-acre farm near Platte Center, known as the Sullivan farm, to Irvo Spieco for $50,000.
—Wm. Schils makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market.
—C. S. Easton, who has just returned from Marengo, Illinois, says that farm land is held as high as $150 an acre in that locality.
—Miss Lulu, daughter of Rev. Crawford, who at one time resided in Columbus, has located in Central City as a music teacher.
—The city council will meet Friday evening in special session. A meeting was called for last Friday evening but there failed to be a quorum present.
—The Monroe Looking Glass says the bridge builders commenced work on the county bridge across Looking glass creek south of that town Tuesday morning.
—The Eastern Star celebrated their 27th anniversary in the Masonic lodge rooms last Thursday evening. A social evening was passed and refreshments served.
—Warwick Saunders, who for a number of years published papers in Platte Center and Columbus, is now at Des Moines, Iowa, engaged in the printing business.
—The quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held Saturday evening in the church, when Rev. Millard will preside. The regular quarterly meeting will be held Sunday morning.
—Jesse Rector returned home Friday from Missouri where he has been employed on the Missouri Pacific R. R., and will make his parents a visit of some length before returning to work.
—Will Zinnecker expects to leave this Wednesday for Denver. He has not yet decided in what line of work he will engage, but goes west for a change of climate on account of poor health.
—The Independent Telephone company began their 24-hour service last Thursday. Misses Ruby Zimmerman and Julia Fox are the day operators, while Alfred Anderson will be the night man.
—Rolla and Ray Baird of Cedar Rapids were in town Thursday and Friday on their way to Omaha. The Baird family of brothers are publishers of the Cedar Rapids Outlook and Spalding Enterprise.
—William Ayers, an old-time Columbus boy, arrived in town Sunday from California where he has been engaged as hotel cook. He has not been in this city for ten years and is now on his way to New York.
—Dr. E. A. Vallier, Osteopath, has located in Columbus for the practice of his profession. Those who have failed to be cured by other methods will do well to try Osteopathy. It's cure is permanent. Office, Barber Building.
—Wm. H. Robinson of Norfolk, who is connected with the best sugar factory at that place, was married Wednesday evening at the Methodist parsonage in this city to Mrs. Rose L. Kirkpatrick of Atlantic, Iowa, Rev. Leao officiating.
—Frank Terrell was tripped up on the ice one day last week by one of his schoolmates and in the fall suffered the fracture of his collar bone, which will necessitate the injured member to be kept tightly bandaged for several weeks.
—The Argus office will be moved this week from the L. J. Lee building to rooms just south of Friedhof on Nebraska avenue. Editor Barrans has ordered a new paper press and gasoline engine and intends putting his plant in first-class shape.
—Half rates to Lincoln, January 18 to 24, 1933. On the above dates the Burlington will sell tickets from any point in Nebraska to Lincoln and return at one fare for the round trip. Tickets good returning until February 3. Ask the Burlington agent.
—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Stevenson, northeast of town, died Wednesday and was buried Thursday, Rev. Neumark conducting the services at the home, after which the body was interred in the Columbus cemetery. The child was two days old.
—The Columbus Milling Co. made a shipment of three cars of flour to England last week, going from here to New Orleans. This company has been sending flour occasionally to European countries which speaks well for the product turned out by this outstanding firm.

—The members and congregation of the Presbyterian church are asked to meet in the church Friday evening at 7:30, as business of importance will be considered.
—We have a 200 acre farm in Sherman township for sale at a bargain. This is one of the best improved farms in the county and is a snap for somebody. Becker, Hocksburger & Chambers.
—F. A. Beard has moved his barber shop one door south of his former location on Olive street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth. He has engaged Charles Jones to assist him in his shop, and solicits a share of your patronage.
—Harry Kaufman pled guilty and was fined $2 and costs in Justice Wagner's court last Saturday for assault and battery on complaint of Ed. Tachud. Complaint was filed in Wagner's court (Tuesday) by John Kruhanski against Harry Engel for assault and battery.
—Mrs. George W. Stevens, a former Columbus resident now of Miramar, California, writes a business letter to THE JOURNAL sending her yearly subscription. Mrs. Stevens has been a reader of this paper for many years, probably since the first issue.
—A meeting of the Nebraska millers is being held in Lincoln today (Tuesday). The object is to further the organization of the flour makers of the state, especially in advertising their mills outside of this state. A Jaeggi of this city is one of the board of directors.
—The school board held a special meeting last Saturday afternoon, called to elect a teacher in place of Miss Clara Hoch, who has resigned to accept a position in the Albion schools. Several ballots were taken on applicants for the position, but no election was made.
—H. O. Rodenhorst, the enterprising farmer three miles north of town, is increasing his stock farm to good proportions with first-class animals. Mr. Rodenhorst is one of the Platte county farmers who believes in progression, and conducts his place in a business like way.
—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollenbeck entertained about fifteen of their friends Friday evening, the occasion being a surprise to the host and hostess. A good part of the evening was spent in trying to find who had sent the invitations for the occasion but the question still remains unsolved.
—The Union Pacific time table has been changed, the new card going into effect Sunday. The passenger to Albion and Spalding will hereafter leave at 2:10 p. m., and arrive here at 12:55 p. m. Other slight changes have been made on the main line which appear in our corrected time table.
—Schuyler has had another bad fire. One week ago Sunday the McCord hotel was found to have fire under the kitchen floor and before the seat of trouble was discovered by the firemen the building was well drenched by water. The damage to the building is estimated at $2,000 and to the furniture $1,000.
—Fred Plath last Friday received a hit on the head with a piece of iron which might have been a serious accident. While repairing a wind mill on the farm of Mr. Kuneman north of town the iron fell from the mill striking Mr. Plath on the head, causing him considerable pain but no fracture of the skull.
—Probably the largest audience that has patronized the North opera house at any performance was that of Wednesday night last at the performance of Raymond's comedy "The Missouri Girl." The house was comfortably filled from request to gallery. Quite a few people from neighboring towns were noticed in the audience.
—Jacob Swank living north of town on Shell creek, has recently completed one of the largest stock and grain barns in the county. He can shelter 100 head of cattle, 25 horses, besides calves and hogs. He has a hay rack that will lift a half ton of hay into the barn at one time. Rudolf Miller is also building a large modern barn.
—Mr. and Mrs. McLaughlin of Omaha, representing the Methodist hospital at that place, were in the city Monday. Mrs. McLaughlin a few weeks ago spoke in the M. E. church here in regard to the work of the hospital, and solicited funds for the new building which will be built there the coming year. The new structure is to cost $50,000.
—We have just received a car of Pennsylvania hard coal, nut size, and still have on hand some Pennsylvania stove size. Call now and get your coal while you can. This is the third car and will soon be sold. We have also a supply of high grade soft coal. Better put in some before the coming coal famine overtakes you. C. A. Spieco.
—The surprise of the season to most Columbusites was the marriage of Police Judge J. M. Curtis, last Wednesday evening. The lady is Miss Hattie A. Smith of Elkader, Iowa, and the acquaintance of the couple dates back many years. The ceremony took place at the newly-fitted up home, the Elliott residence on east Fifteenth street, Rev. G. A. Lane of the Methodist church officiating. The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis will extend to them a hearty wish for their life long happiness and prosperity.
