The professor has a large class of pupils, some seventy-five in all, besides he is director of a brass band in an adjoining town, also directs a high school orchestra, and is getting along nicely.

—The Schuyler Quill says that South Bend, with of Adelphi block of East land precinct, was criticized in some of the columns from that county Friday, and was sent to the asylum at Lincoln Saturday. Mrs. Hink's affliction was the result of a surgical operation and her mind has been affected but a short time.
—H. J. Alexander has sold his mill business to Fred Goodfield, who will move his family to Columbus from Stuart, Neb., this week. The Goodfields will move to the farm home with Mr. Alexander, north of the city. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Goodfield will welcome them to our vicinity again after a few years absence from the city.
—Prof. Sherman, superintendent of the Schuyler schools, and his mother, who lives with him, were in town during the association meetings last week. Mr. Sherman was the guest of Mrs. H. P. Coolidge while in the city. Many of our readers will remember Rev. Sherman, father of Prof. Sherman, as pastor of the Congregational church here in the pioneer days.
—A grocery department has been added to the store of C. S. Easton & Co., the new department being ready for customers Monday morning. The new stock has been placed on the west side of the building and is in charge of Frank Matthews formerly of Columbus, who came up from Schuyler Wednesday to take charge. Mr. Matthews will not move his family here until after school is out this spring.
—The Literary department of the Woman's club meets the afternoon of Tuesday, April 14, by the invitation of Mrs. Raabe at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. C. Bann, on Fourteenth street. To this meeting all members of the club are invited when Mrs. D. C. McKillip of Seward, Nebraska, speaks on "Character Reading; its Benefits in the Home and School." Addie E. Campbell, leader of department.
—The Sun says the current rumor is that J. C. Sprecher expects to start a new paper in Schuyler some time this month. It is said that the name will be the "Free Lance," and the politics independent. Mr. Sprecher was in Omaha last week and informed some of his friends on his return that he had purchased a complete newspaper plant and would open his office in the rooms over the Folsa bank.
—The A. O. U. W. lodge of this city held an open meeting Monday evening when about 125 people were present. Music was furnished by the Auditorium orchestra. Grand Master Workman Jackalak of South Omaha gave an address, and Deputy Grand Master Workman F. F. Miller of Norfolk entertained the audience with lantern pictures. Refreshments were served and all present enjoyed the evening's program.
—A careful theatrical manager who has a genius for statistics has calculated that in the past twenty years Lewis Morrison's "Faust" has appeared before nearly nine million people. Everything is new this season and "Faust" has had a triumphal tour so far. Lewis Morrison's new version has been equipped with new scenery and effects costing many thousands of dollars and will be seen here at North opera house, Wednesday evening, April 22.
—The Nebraska Experiment Station has just issued Bulletin No. 79 entitled "Experiments in Orchard Culture." It gives the results of tests conducted at the Experiment Station during the past two years, showing the effects of various methods of culture on the growth and winterkilling of young orchard trees. Residents of Nebraska may obtain the bulletin without cost by writing to the Agricultural Experiment Station, Lincoln, Nebraska.
—James Pearsall the Columbus architect was up here Monday. Mr. Pearsall is at present working on plans for the new First National Bank building, which will be erected as soon as the plans are perfected. Willie Gietzen went to Columbus Wednesday to visit a few days with friends and relatives. Mrs. Frank Lachnit returned to Columbus Saturday after a visit with relatives here; she was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Peter Smith.—Humphrey Democrat.

—Last Wednesday afternoon the team of bronchos belonging to Pat Murray, which he was driving, became frightened at bicyclists while passing on west Fifteenth street and becoming unmanageable, ran away, overturning the buggy, completely wrecking it, and throwing Mr. and Mrs. Murray and their three children to the ground. All were more or less bruised and the oldest child, a girl 10 years old, was seriously hurt, causing concussion of the brain. On Thursday the child had improved sufficiently to be taken home.
—Mr. Fritz Jaggi who has been in Columbus for several months past visiting his uncle, A. Jaggi and L. Jaggi, and who was accompanied by Dr. Kaiser, left Wednesday for New York, and later will sail for Switzerland, their home. The gentlemen took a southern route in order to visit that part of the United States. H. E. Babcock will leave in a few days for New York to join Messrs. Jaggi and Kaiser and also Omaha men who are interested in the power canal project. In New York a renewed effort will be made to finance their scheme.
—The Schuyler Sanitarium the condition of political affairs and lack of unity in that city, and refers to the situation in Columbus circles where the republicans have elected a mayor two years in succession and this year endorse the complimentary expression will be appreciated by Columbusites. "Columbus is pushing ahead and growing rapidly and soon promises to become one of the leading cities of the state. A town can never grow rapidly or acceptably unless it has its own good utility and city patriotism."
—The Genoa Leader says that E. M. Spear was circulating a petition the first of the week asking the county board to call a bond election for the purpose of voting $25,000 to build steel bridges across the Loup at this place and at Fullerton. As far as we heard no one refused to sign it. Two young men, farmer boys, living in the vicinity of Fullerton, were in the city Tuesday looking for work, who claimed that they had never before been in any town save Albany and St. Edward, and that their trip here was the first time they had ever been on the case. They were from twenty to twenty-five years old.
