W., has been in the city for several days, doing special work for one of the best beneficiary organizations we know anything about. He reports the institution as being in a very healthy condition and growing rapidly, there being now a membership of 37,000 in Nebraska.
—John W. Curtis and Miss Fannie Mowery were married at the home of Frank Van Alstine Saturday evening, Justice Wagner officiating. Miss Mowery is the daughter of Dave Mowery and was born in Columbus. Mr. Curtis is employed with the Independent Telephone company. The Journal wishes a long and happy life for the young couple.
—Rev. Halsey went to Omaha Monday to attend the spring meeting of Presbytery of the Presbyterian church and will remain until Thursday. He expects to be installed, during this meeting, as the regular pastor of the church at this place. The members of his congregation are well pleased with him and every indication of a prosperous time is before them.
—W. E. Wells, who for the past two and a half years has been employed in the Argus office, left Columbus last Tuesday and will in a few weeks go to Missoula, Montana, and engage in the printing business with his father-in-law, Carl T. Seely, formerly of Madison. Mr. Wells and family are now visiting relatives in Plattsmouth before leaving for the west. The good wishes of their many friends will go with them to their western home.
—The Carr-Nichols brick yard company are progressing rapidly with their buildings and expect to be in working order in a few weeks. A 45-horse power boiler and a 40-horse power engine are expected to arrive here any day and as soon as these are placed, the company will begin operations. The B. & M. are now putting in their side track. There will be about twenty-five men employed to begin work.
—Mrs. Mary H. Williams has written from Palo Alto, California, that she will return to Columbus soon after the school year. Her mother, Mrs. Alexander, and daughter, Miss Ethel Henrich, will return with her. The family have not decided if they will make Columbus or some other Nebraska town their home, but will spend the summer in Indiana. Mrs. Gould and daughter of Indiana have been in California through the winter months.
—The wonderfully rich ore which has been taken from the North Pole mine near Sumption, Oregon, has caused a boom in that neighborhood. The South Pole mine, which is adjoining this, has a number of stockholders here, O. C. Shannon having sold over 10,000 shares for the company. Shares in the North Pole mine sold not long ago for 25c each, and now investors are refusing $100 a share. One carload shipped recently to the smelter, netted the company $102,000.
—Mrs. J. M. Covert of Norfolk, a relative of A. M. Covert of this city, has had a patent pending for a year in the government patent office on a cover for drying pans and has recently been notified that the patent was granted the latter part of February, but that final papers would not be made out for about six months. The Norfolk News says: "The cover is planned to admit of the escape of steam from a covered frying pan, and is likewise contrived to catch the spattering grease and return it to the meat. It is a convenience that should be in demand by housewives generally. Her attorneys in New York, who secured the patent, are negotiating for its sale and hope to secure for her a nice sum, besides a royalty."

—The revival services which have been held in the Methodist church the past two weeks, will continue during this week, Rev. Benedict of Sioux City having charge of the services. During the two weeks between forty and fifty people have expressed a desire to live a christian life, and on Sunday thirty-two united with the church. A great deal of interest has been manifested in the services.
—The Humphrey Leader says that J. W. Maher and family will leave for El Reno, Oklahoma, Tuesday and will make their home in the future.
—Mr. Maher has position as general agent of the Oklahoma Industrial Association. Mr. and Mrs. Maher have been residents of Humphrey for the past ten years and during this time have made many friends who will join the Leader in wishing them prosperity in their new home.
—Tuesday morning of last week J. M. Everly, foreman at the Union Pacific coal chutes, met with a very painful accident. He was running a car down the grade from the chutes, the brakes on the car being defective he was unable to check its speed until it bumped into some loaded cars throwing him to the ground. His knees were badly bruised and face scratched considerably but no serious results are anticipated, although it will be several weeks before he will be at work again.
—The sale of the buildings, horses and every thing connected with the sheep ranch just north of town, last Saturday was attended by hundreds of people, many buyers coming from western states. A. J. Knollin, the owner, was present to conduct the sale. Many things were sold for much less than cost, however. As mentioned elsewhere in the items from Route No. 3, the sale amounted to upward of $4,000. The farmers regret the sale of the ranch, as the demand for grain had made an excellent market for several years past.
—A close analysis reveals the cause of the wonderful popularity of Lewis Merion's version of Goethe's "Faust" which has been presented in the theatres of this country for twenty seasons past. Since Goethe gave "Faust" to the world more than a hundred years ago, "Faust" has been translated into every language in Europe, and even penetrated into China. Johann Wolfgang Von Goethe is beloved and admired by his own countrymen and by the entire literary world. At North opera house Wednesday evening, April 22.
—The new M. E. parsonage is being built by out of town labor. The force of carpenters consist of Methodist ministers who are here from different parts of the state. Presiding Elder Simpson is here and fills the office of contractor and Rev. Hughes is boss carpenter. They are assisted by Reverends Antrim, St. Louis, High and another minister from Norfolk. The ministers are also mindful of the spiritual welfare of the community and are holding meetings at the church every evening which are well attended.—Leigh World.
—Mrs. J. G. Reader and Elmer Smith were in Grand Island Sunday where they attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. L. W. Haywood. Mr. Haywood has been living in Lincoln of recent years, where his daughter Miss Lucy is a teacher of music. He had been ailing the past month and on Saturday morning remarked that he was feeling unusually well. A short time after he fell from his chair and before relatives reached him, was dead. Mr. Haywood was 77 years old. The family have a number of acquaintances in Columbus.
—Mrs. J. C. Frydick entertained the members of the musical department of the Woman's club Tuesday afternoon, at their regular meeting, when an excellent program was rendered, only one member of the department being absent. Mrs. Frydick and Mrs. McAllister each gave violin solos. At the close of the program the hostess served an excellent supper. Next Tuesday afternoon will be the last meeting of the department for the year, and the election of officers for the ensuing year will take place. The meeting to be held at the home of M. Whitmore.

—Prof. E. A. Garlich was down from Broken Bow over Sunday, returning home Monday evening. He was here to assist in the rendering of the cantata "The Crucifixion" by Fetzer, which was given in the Episcopal church Sunday evening. The chorus choir is composed of twenty-three voices and were assisted by Prof. Garlich and Prof. Poole as violinists, Miss Bertha Stauffer cellist, and Mrs. Lulu Gietzen organist. A large congregation was present to listen to the program. Prof. Garlich is contemplating returning to Columbus in the near future.
—Carl Berger, for many years a resident of this vicinity, died after an illness of two days of kidney trouble, at his home in the south part of the city last Friday morning. Mr. Berger was born in Germany 78 years ago the 25th of September. He came to America about 1852 and settled in Michigan, where he resided six years. From there he came to Nebraska, locating in Butler county; ever since that time his home has been in or near Columbus. His wife preceded him to the spirit world about 9 years ago. He was the father of eight children, three sons and one daughter surviving him. Mrs. Clara Puschel and Adolph Berger residing in this city, the other two sons residing in Michigan. Mr. Berger also leaves twenty-nine grand-children and seven great-grand-children. The funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at the German Reformed church, Rev. Newman officiating.
—Sup't. Leary was kept busy Saturday examining teachers for certification. The following named persons were in to take the examination: Misses Mary and Margaret Dames of Osceola, Misses Ella Dunn, Frances Hughes and Rose O'Callahan of Platte Center, and Martin Apper of Woodville. Wm. Reese, treasurer of the Bobest school was in town Friday to secure a teacher for his district, H. W. Louke the present instructor resigning to accept a position as cashier in the Cruston bank. Miss Grace Hoffman will probably take the place of Mr. Louke. Miss Gertrude Pellers, one of the Monroe teachers, has been compensated to resign her position on account of the serious illness of her mother, and Miss Inez Nash, from district 55, has taken her place. The change leaves district 55 without a regular teacher. Sup't. Leary will issue his circulars next week, giving plans for the institute week, which will convene in this city beginning June 8.

—Miss Julia Fox entertained about thirty-five of her young lady and gentleman friends Wednesday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wm. Ragatz. The gathering was given in honor of her nephew, Mr. F. E. Bean of Petersburg, Illinois, who left Saturday for his home. The evening was spent with cards and music and a very pleasant time passed. Miss Ruby Rasmussen won the lady's prize, a fine handkerchief, and Mr. Herman Kersbrook the gentleman's favor, a cigar holder. The rooms were decorated in roses and carnations. Refreshments were served by the hostess.
—Mrs. D. C. McKillip of Seward entertained the literary department of the Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bener by invitation of Mrs. Rameba. Mrs. McKillip gave her talk on "Character and School room," and after the lecture read the character of several present through the art of palmistry. The ready wit and charming manner of Mrs. McKillip won for her many friends. The Federation of Women's clubs have chosen her as one of their lecturers for the state. Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Darlington served refreshments to the guests.
—The Albion Argus says: "L. Hohl returned from his excursion to South Dakota and is well pleased with his trip. He says that he and his daughter Clara each filed on a homestead within three miles of Pierre, the state capital. Each of their farms has a small stream of water running through them. Only 7½ miles from Hayes post office. Won't it sound funny to address a letter to farmer Hohl at Hayes, S. D.?" Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Lura Vasey and Roy Stumpton at the Congregational church this Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. [Mr. Stumpton is a brother of Mrs. Wm. Benham of this city.]
—The city council held a meeting last Friday evening. J. B. Gietzen having qualified as councilman for the Third ward is now an official member. Mayor Becher announced the committees for the ensuing year as follows, the first named of each committee being chairman: Judiciary, Clark, Greisen, Sheldon. Public Property and Water Works, Galley, Philippa, Gietzen. Finance, Greisen, Clark, Galley, Streets, Sidewalks and Bridges, Philippa, Clark, Gietzen. Claims, Sheldon, Gietzen, Greisen. Police, Gietzen, Galley, Philippa. Printing, Clark, Philippa, Sheldon. Fire, Philippa, Greisen, Sheldon. Steam Boiler Inspector W. B. Stark of Omaha, submitted a report of the satisfactory condition of the city's engines. After a number of bills were allowed the council adjourned to meet May 1.
—The following cases were filed in the district court during the past week: William Loske, plaintiff, vs. Ignatz C. Niemoller as administrator of the estate of Louis J. Niemoller deceased, et al, defendants. The plaintiff brings suit to regain $229.46, money loaned to Louis Niemoller. The First National Bank brings suit against William O'Brien for $700 with interest. The defendant it is alleged, gave promissory notes at various times which have not been paid. Cheryl M. Edwards vs. The Lindsay Creamery Co. et al. The plaintiff claims that she owns 16 and her husband, F. W. Edwards, 9 shares in the insolvent company which has a total of 48 shares, and that at a recent meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of disposing of the property F. W. Edwards, who was authorized to represent the plaintiff, was not allowed to vote for her. A temporary injunction was served to keep the defendants from disposing of the property.
—A state organization of bowlers was effected in Lincoln Wednesday last at a meeting held in that city, when bowlers from all over the state were invited to meet at a tournament lasting two days. Among the officers elected were D. C. Kavanagh, vice president, and G. J. Hagel as one of the board of directors, both gentlemen from this city. The tournament was opened by the Columbus team playing a series of three games against the Fremont bowlers. The team from here was composed of George Hagel, Jasper Nichols, Will Baker, D. C. Kavanagh, J. W. Fambie, Will Gregorius and Dr. Gietzen. Columbus won three prizes. Gregorius and Baker securing second prize in the two men team, which was a purse of $15. George Hagel captured the third prize, a Stearns hat, in the individual contest and Will Gregorius won a box of 10c cigars in the same class. The meeting was a success in every way, and those from Columbus think that our city made a good showing, and expect to secure the tournament here some time in the near future.

—The funeral of A. P. Swearingin who died Monday last week was held Wednesday morning at the home of James Kinsman eight miles south of this city. Services at the home were conducted by Rev. Irvin Lemon of the Shelby Methodist church, who preached an excellent sermon. The body was then taken to the Wesleyan cemetery near Osceola for burial. Those from Columbus who attended the funeral were Henry Gass, R. S. Dickinson, L. Hahn, Mr. Myers, John Wiggins, Jonas Welch, G. A. Schroeder, Thomas Dack, H. Ragatz and J. E. Erskine. The six last named gentlemen acted as pall-bearers, representing the Masonic order from Columbus. The Osceola Democrat had the following to say of the deceased: "Probably no man in Polk county was better known in an early day than Mr. Swearingin. His home was the stopping place for all travelers from south of the Platte river who were on their way to Columbus, which was the most important station on the railroad west of Omaha for many years. He was a genial neighbor and friend, a hard worker and in his later years was looked upon as a man of considerable means."
—The raising of fancy chickens is an industry which has, within the last few years, become quite popular among people of this vicinity. Some of those who exhibited birds at the show here last December and who are now selling eggs for setting are L. G. Zinnecker, Wm. J. Kersbrook, Dr. Slater, Wm. Mitchell and W. T. Ernst. The poultry houses and yards owned by Wm. Kersbrook are among the very best improved and convenient in this part of the country. He has four incubators each with a capacity for one hundred eggs. Last year these hatched a large per cent of the eggs, the lowest at any one setting being 80 per cent. The brooder is a room 20x24 with three glass sides and a shingled roof. It is divided into five
