

HULST & ADAMS.

Refrigerators.

The kind that cuts your ice bill down below the luxury point. When buying a Refrigerator, get a good one, that's the kind we handle, they cost no more than the inferior makes.

Ice Cream Freezers all sizes at very low prices.

Lawn Mowers

The kind that makes it a pleasure to mow your lawn at prices that will interest you.

Bring us your Butter and Eggs, we guarantee you the highest market price. We have what you want and you don't have to bother with coin or orders.

HULST & ADAMS,

11th Street.

Telephone 26.

GRAYS'.

THE APPROACHING Spring & Summer Season

FINDS US IN THE BEST CONDITION TO SERVE OUR CUSTOMERS.

OUR CLOTHING

Is of the best and we carry a larger stock than ever before. We guarantee lowest prices.

OUR GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS

Here you will find the newest and best the market affords the coming season.

OUR SHOES

Are acknowledged the best in town. We carry only solid goods; no paper, shoddy or self-worn goods is here to be found in our shoe stock. We have our shoes made especially for us in the foremost factories of the country. We sell them at prices lower than ever. Call and be convinced.

Frischholz Bros.

411 Eleventh Street.

COLUMBUS CREAM CO.

Creamery and Dairy Depot.

Creamery Butter
Sweet Cream
Fresh Milk
Butter Milk
Cottage Cheese.

Agents for DeLAVAL CREAM SEPARATORS.

Columbus Journal.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1910.

—Dr. Paul, dentist.

—Midland for best photos.

—Dr. Walker, Oculist, Barber block.

—Dr. Gietzen, dentist, over Pollock's drug store.

—Famous gold medal coffee. E. R. London & Bro.

—Born, to Mrs. Wm. Roth, Tuesday, August 4, a son.

—Dr. Chas. H. Plate, physician and surgeon, postoffice building.

—The Bachelor girls' club gave Miss Lillie Deegan a surprise Friday evening.

—Headquarters for fine coffee. E. R. London & Bro. sell the celebrated gold medal.

—Easton & Co. have the agency for the Champion binder, mowers and reapers.

—They tell us they have the best goods at the Thurston Annex. Any doubt? Ask Kelly.

—Piano for sale at reasonable price. Gene Gordon, corner Twelfth and Lincoln street.

—Mrs. Marya, Evans, Gear & Hanson, office three doors north of Friedhof's store.

—The Methodist Sunday school will hold their annual picnic at Stevens' lake this Wednesday.

—Farmers, why don't you thresh with R. S. slack or brush with your choice? We have what you want. C. A. Spieck.

—Farmers, why don't you thresh with Butter slack or with any other good coal? We have what you want. C. A. Spieck.

—Easton & Co. are headquarters for choice groceries and hardware. We take country produce at highest market prices.

—The "Lone Tree" tailor shop, S. E. Baker proprietor, has been moved to the front rooms, up stairs in the Newmarket block.

—Wm. Schilke makes boots and shoes in the best style, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market.

—The burnt pea coffee fadist argues health and talks false. Drink the best of the original, the celebrated gold medal coffee. E. R. London & Bro.

—Buy the Best. The Tryber Piano leads them all in construction, finish, durability and price. Sold on monthly payments. Auditorium Music Co.

—Farmers, why don't you thresh with Kommerer slack, or suit yourselves and select some other way-up coal? We have it. Come and see. C. A. Spieck.

—Lost, at or near the Union Pacific depot, a lady's pocket book containing gold lock with "Eva" engraved on back. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward.

—Prof. Huff, the short hand and typewriting instructor for the new business and normal college, is expected here the latter part of this week. The school will begin September 1.

—The school board met on Wednesday evening and hired L. H. Oster as principal for the coming school year. Mr. Oster was present and accepted the school. Bellwood Gazette.

—Farmers, why don't you thresh with Cherokee slack, or some other top-notch fuel? Please yourselves by taking your choice out of our slack. We have the best. Come and see us. Let's smoke. C. A. Spieck.

—The Business Men's Carnival under the direction of the Collins Carnival Co., begins today (Tuesday) in Schuyler, continuing to Saturday. Many people from Columbus will probably visit the city during the week.

—Henry Beggs sold his 900-acre ranch near Cedar Rapids last week to F. E. McKillip. The deal was made through F. T. Walker's real estate agency. Mr. Beggs cleared over $2,000 on his investment since March 1.

—Rev. Munro and family returned Friday from McPherson's lake where they spent three weeks in camp. Miss Velma Covert also passed part of the time with them, and many visitors from town made trips out to spend a day.

—John Neumark returned Friday for a month's visit at home before continuing his studies at Ann Arbor, Michigan. John has been canvassing for a chemical company in southern Canada during the summer and comes home for recreation.

—Thursday's Omaha World-Herald contained a cartoon by Spencer of the surveying gang at work on the Platte canal. The surveyor is presumably lost in the corn field which is a forest with stalks as large as the man's body. The subject of the sketch is "Who said poor corn crop?"

—A souvenir postal card was received at this office from E. von Bergen who is at Lake Geneva, Wis., stating that fishing, bathing, base ball, tennis, ping pong, golf, gymnastics, etc., are some of the sports in vogue at that beautiful summer resort, and Emil is evidently enjoying it all.

—Mrs. Erskine of St. Paul, Nebraska, is visiting the family of J. E. Erskine. Mrs. Erskine has the distinction of being one of the few lady commercial travelers in the state. A few years ago she took up the work of her husband's business, and was so successful that she has since been retained by the company.

—Donald McAllister entertained Monday evening of last week for Misses Marjorie Stevenson, Eva Walker and Beattie Townsend. The honors of the evening were won by Miss Dora Babcock and John Hoffman. Pictures representing boys' and girls' names were displayed for the guests to decipher.

—Among the visitors from out of town who attended the wedding of Miss Lola Jones and Mr. Milton Powers were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Denver, Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Jones of Ogden, Utah, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Lincoln, Nebraska, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Omaha, Nebraska. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Jones of Omaha, Nebraska.

—Wm. Gibson of Cedar Rapids was in the city Sunday to meet his wife and children who had been visiting relatives in Detroit. The family were guests of Mr. Gibson's aunt, Mrs. Susan Lloyd, over Sunday. Mr. Gibson was one of the early settlers of Platte county, his parents living four miles northwest of town and later taking a homestead in Boone county.

—Dr. Hensmann, dentist.

—Investigate Osteopathy; its cures are permanent.

—Dr. L. C. Voss, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.

—Platte county republican convention at Platte Center next Saturday.

—For watches and clocks see the Eleventh street jeweler, Columbus.

—A drink that always pleases—gold medal coffee. E. R. London & Bro.

—Best Creamery Butter 20¢ at the Dairy Depot. Columbus Cream Co.

—Do not fail to see our 8-foot galvanized steel mill for $22.00. A. Dunsell & Son. 11

—Mrs. Herman Stewart, living across the river, is very sick with inflammation of the bowels.

—Dr. McKean's method of making aluminum plates places them on an equality with gold.

—The coffee that sells. Why? Because it pleases. The celebrated gold medal. E. R. London & Bro.

—The Orphan society have had built a high board fence to the west of their hall, enclosing their park.

—Rev. Mueller of this city has been elected pastor of the German St. John's church at Yutan, Nebraska.

—Ladies of the Methodist church will give an ice cream social on the lawn of the church Wednesday next week.

—John Truelove, an old settler of this county living at Monroe, is very sick, being threatened with typhoid fever.

—Delegates to the republican county convention from Joslin township are: Arthur Lamb, Owen Jones, John Williams, Joe Joseph.

—All bowlers will have free lemonade these hot days at Hagel's alley. The coolest place in town—fans of all kinds running day and night.

—For sale, residence and two lots belonging to Mrs. C. E. Young on Thirteenth street, occupied by L. J. Lee. Enquire of A. Haight.

—Miss Dot Allen of Albion, one of the teachers in that place, was in town Thursday on her return from a vacation spent in the Colorado mountains.

—Mrs. R. T. Page goes the latter part of this week to Kearney where she will instruct the teachers of the county in music during the county institute.

—Mrs. Leah Lightner, who lives west of Monroe, was attended upon by Columbus physicians last week. Her illness was a very severe attack of neuralgia.

—J. R. Smith, an old settler in Platte county who lives near Monroe, has been very sick for some time. He is 84 years old and his recovery is considered very doubtful.

—Carpenters Union No. 1501. Regular meetings every Saturday night. Visiting brothers invited. E. J. Scott president; Chas. Wurdeman, financial secretary.

—Weldin has removed his photograph gallery to Tenth street south of Hulst & Adams'. All work in photographic line. Negatives developed and prints finished for amateurs.

—Your breakfast is not complete without a cup of the celebrated gold medal coffee. We sell it. E. R. London & Bro.

—The Columbus State Bank building is undergoing a thorough renovation. New steel ceiling in the president's office, new paper, painting, both inside and out, will be among the repairs projected for the present.

—Farmers, do you want to get the best thrashing slack in the market? R. S. slack, Butter slack, Kommerer slack, Cherokee slack or any kind of lamp or oil not in this market, always on hand. C. A. Spieck.

—We have removed our office from North opera house to the second door south of Newmarket's jewelry store. Just received a new line of machines and invite you to call and inspect them. Frank Schram.

—P. A. Barrow, deputy county clerk of Boone county, passed through the city last Thursday on his way home from Boston where he visited his mother, having gone with the teachers to the national convention.

—E. O. Studley, who lives on the farm of W. E. Cole east of Monroe, has purchased from Dr. Hansen the 120-acre farm known as the Babcock place, five miles northwest of Columbus to which he will move next spring.

—Miss Lee Ormsby, who attained considerable distinction abroad as a singer, has returned from London to her home in Central City for a six weeks' visit. Miss Ormsby has a number of acquaintances here, and sang in Columbus a few years ago.

—A. Dunsell had a very narrow escape from being run over Friday evening on Olive street when passenger train No. 3 was pulling out. A special freight train came in from the west at the same time and in the confusion Mr. Dunsell could not manage his horse.

—Norman Parks is taking a vacation. Last Thursday morning while feeding the job press at the Argus office he got his left hand caught in the press, badly bruising the flesh but not breaking any bones. Norman went to Omaha Friday to spend part of his vacation there.

—Two Polish women known as Mary Jumbo and Blind Annie were brought before the police judge last Wednesday and given a good lecture for quarreling the previous day. Annie was given a blow on the head with a hammer which required the attendance of a physician.

—The order of Sons of Herman gave a picnic for members and friends at the Nish Spieck grove in the southeast part of the city Sunday last at which a good sized gathering enjoyed the pleasant day. The City Band was in attendance and furnished music during the afternoon.

—William Sidenburg, Edward Graft and Oscar Schmeider, boys from 13 to 15 years old, were arrested and had small fines imposed upon them last week for jumping on and off trains in the city limits. These boys were merely made examples to stop that very dangerous custom of a number of youngsters.

—Rev. H. Brown of Lincoln, made of Rev. Brown, formerly pastor of the Methodist church here, has been endorsed by the Nebraska G. A. R. for chaplain-in-chief of the national convention of the G. A. R. Another Nebraska candidate for national honors will be Dr. Brother of Beatrice who aspires to become chief medical director.

—General Miles, retired command er of the army, passed through Columbus some time between 6:30 and 7 o'clock this Tuesday evening on his way to California.

—Fred Baker returned last week from attending on eight weeks' term at the Fremont normal. He will be engaged the next few weeks in "making hay while the sun shines" at his father's meadow south of the river.

—Rev. G. A. Munro is in Lincoln attending the Epworth assembly. He writes that he will be home to hold church services next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Halsey is also attending the assembly there.

—Rev. Minister and J. E. Kaufman will go next week to Hampton to attend a convention of ministers of the German Lutheran church. There will be about 250 visitors present and the convention will be in session one week.

—D. E. Giffen, who for the past three years has been proprietor of the Park Livery barn, sold his interest to O. G. Staab and Clyde Scott who took possession Monday. Mr. Giffen does not know yet just what business he will engage in, but expects to remain in Columbus.

—The membership of the Lutheran church of this city were invited to attend the mission festival of the Lutheran church fifteen miles north of town last Sunday, which Rev. Holm is pastor. Rev. Minister did not hold services here in order to allow his congregation to visit the festival.

—A large porch to the south of the Second ward school building adds greatly to the appearance of the property and will be appreciated by the children who spend so many hours on the premises. The lawn has been neglected this summer and weeds high enough to hide a horse have been allowed to grow undisturbed.

—The German Lutheran church members here have engaged Prof. Karnatz of Chicago to teach the school north of town, on the farm of D. Bartels. Mr. Karnatz will be installed as teacher, and as assistant to Rev. Minister, August 30, the services being held in the Lutheran church. The school will begin September 1.

—A picnic party was given at McPherson's lake Thursday by Miss Nettie Gondering and Grace Fitzpatrick, in honor of Miss Burdett of Lincoln. Besides those mentioned, the following ladies composed the party: Misses Bertha Stauffer, Emma Kosenbrook, Edna Beardsley, Blanche Niewohner and Madeline Gelfek, Nancy and Bertak.

—Mrs. Katharine McCabe, who was brought to the hospital from Greeley Center on the 25th of April, died last Saturday evening. The deceased was born in Ireland 67 years ago. She had lived in America five years. The funeral services were held this Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Catholic church and interment made in the near-by cemetery.

—Miss Marjorie Stevenson and Eva Walker entertained friends Thursday evening on the lawn at the home of the former in honor of Miss Townsend of Omaha. A guessing game, "things found in a grocery store," was the amusement. Gilbert Anderson and Miss Townsend carrying off the prizes. The booty prizes were won by Donald McAllister and Miss Dorothy Post.

—Miss Beulah Wheeler left Wednesday for Plains, Montana, after several weeks' visit with the Watkins family. Miss Wheeler has a good position in the public schools there for the coming year, as principal of the building in which she will teach. She was an assistant teacher in the Wesleyan university last year and graduated from the pedagogical course of that institution last spring.

—Marriage licenses were issued the past week to Charles E. Bangston of Geneseo, Ill., and Miss Ida C. Swanson of Newman Grove; Carl E. Strompelt of McPherson, Kansas, and Miss Cordelia E. Swanson of Newman Grove; Milton H. Powers of Cheyenne, Wyoming, and Miss Edna Jones of Platte county; Gus Bartholomew of Oronoda and Miss Hattie Rutherford of Shelby; John Zondia of Columbus and Mary Taberna of Bismell.

—Several tracts of land have changed hands the past week, among them the 161-acre farm four miles northeast of town to John Mohlman from Grand Prairie township, for $500 an acre. F. F. Clark sold his 200-acre two miles east of the city, which is known as the Stuart place, to his brother A. W. Clark, also for $500 an acre. Mr. F. F. Clark in turn purchased a farm east of Oreston paying $55 an acre for the place.

—Coffee that is coffee. The celebrated gold medal. E. R. London & Bro.

—A handsome locomobile on the street Monday attracted a good sized crowd at the Buchanan restaurant while the owner, Mr. De Roy Austin of Omaha, was selling his dinner. Mr. Austin was returning home from Albion and had left that town at 11 o'clock, arriving in Columbus at 2:30. From Albion to Geneseo the vehicle kept pace with the passenger train. In going to Albion Saturday, Mr. Austin came from Omaha to Columbus, a distance of ninety-two miles in five hours. The locomobile is valued at $3,000.

—Mr. C. Callahan of Greenview, Connecticut, has been in the city for a few days looking to buy a large farm. Mr. Callahan sold his 200 acre farm near Greenview for $40,000 cash, $200 per acre, and the purchaser has yet to clear it of rock before he can farm it. Mr. Callahan is highly pleased with Nebraska and especially Columbus and vicinity and says he had not visited a town west of New York that indicated as enterprising business men as we have here. He has about concluded to locate near this city.

—James Pearson of this city has submitted plans which have been accepted for a $5,000 dwelling house for Alexander Macquinn who lives a mile out from our neighboring village of Silver Creek, which, when completed, will be one of the largest and best structures of the kind in this section. Mr. Pearson and his force of eight to ten men will soon begin the work which he calculates will consume three months time to complete. The building will be finished with all modern conveniences including hot water heating, etc. Mr. Macquinn is a large dealer in sheep and can well afford to have the very best in the building line that money can purchase.

—Anton Wam, aged 60 years, died

Sunday morning after an illness of about three weeks from a tumor, at his home in the southeast part of town. The deceased was born in Austria and came direct from there to Columbus twenty years ago; his family following four years later. He leaves his wife and nine children, the youngest still in infancy.

—Little Charlie Baker entertained Wednesday afternoon in honor of his two young cousins, Ethel and Geo. Conroy of Omaha. The little folks were entertained on the lawn. A great bag and "pinning the tail on the donkey" were the amusements. Master Arthur Gray won a toy donkey and Mary Pearson of Omaha a bottle of perfume for prize in the game. Refreshments were served.

—John Ahrens has sold his 80-acre farm in Bismark township to Gerhard Loebs for $5,000, just $70 per acre. Five years ago this land could have been bought for $35 an acre and fifteen years ago could have been purchased for $12 per acre. The land is nine miles from town, but is located in the famous Shell creek valley. This is said to be the highest price yet paid for farm land in this vicinity.

—Prof. D. Ross Cunningham will leave Columbus about September 1, to continue his study of music. He expects to spend one year in Chicago and from there go farther east. Prof. Cunningham has a very large class of students for the piano and voice in Columbus and Geneseo, having nearly every hour of the day and evening engaged. The musical people will regret his departure and hope that at some future time he may return to this city.

—Tony Comstock, a passenger on an east bound train last Wednesday, whose home is at North Bend, jumped out of a car window, while the train was moving at full speed, near Silver Creek. He was picked up unconscious, with his head and shoulders badly bruised. When the train arrived in Columbus Dr. Martyn was summoned but the man was not considered seriously injured so was carried on to his home. Why he jumped from the window is not known.

—Walter Borowick returned home last Tuesday from Solomon, Kansas, where he had been working for the Union Pacific company. About six weeks ago Walter had a narrow escape from death while working with the gang on a steam and shovel. Without warning, the hill through which they were cutting the grade, gave way, covering men and machinery. Walter suffered broken ribs, broken leg and bruised on the head, from which he suffered severely for several weeks.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reader and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sullivan returned home Sunday from their trip to Hot Springs, South Dakota. Mrs. Howard and children and Miss Florence Kramer returned Monday. Dr. and Mrs. Hansen, who have been in Hot Springs several weeks, are now in Iowa with relatives. While the Columbus people were in Hot Springs J. T. Cox went out from Alliance to visit over Sunday with his old friends. On the return home the Readers and Sullivans visited the Goodfells and Gullman families in Lead, where they found all of them enjoying prosperity. Charles Stillman is reported as having a splendid trade and one of the finest drug stores in the country. James Naylor, Mr. Stillman's father, is now in Lead visiting the Stillmans.

—The republicans primaries were held last Saturday and in the city and township were well attended, Columbus township having a larger attendance than ever before, thirty-eight voters being present. The city of Columbus registered 90 voters, 27 in the First ward, 30 in the Second and 33 in the Third. The delegates elected to attend the county convention Saturday are: First ward—Garrett Hulst, G. W. Viegut, F. T. Walker, Ed. Early and O. C. Shannon. Second ward—Hugh Hughes, John Brock, Mr. I. Gluck, Dr. C. H. Gietzen, John Meier and D. Newman. Third ward—G. H. Sheldon, W. A. McAllister, E. H. Chambers, R. S. Dickinson, Frank Mills, C. C. Gray and C. Kramer. In the township the following delegates were chosen: H. E. Read, D. D. Bray, Henry O. Rhodesthorst, T. Allen and W. W. Brown.

—Two of the prisoners confined in the county jail decided to leave that place for pleasure quarters, Sunday. Mike Moske, from Humphrey, who is accused of assault upon a woman in that town, and George Rubeenthaler, one of the men held for making a serious disturbance in the saloon of Otto Metz July 4th, both being held for the district court, are the prisoners who escaped. Deputy Sheriff Rositzer took the men their breakfast at 8 o'clock, and as is the custom during the warm weather, left the men in the corridor. In less than thirty minutes after he had gone the prisoners were missing, having escaped through a window. Bolts fastening the window had been loosened from the outside, presumably the night before by friends of the prisoners. Rubeenthaler was captured upon the R. & M. bridge Sunday night while he was attempting to cross, but Moske is still at large. Both men failed to give bond and had been held in jail to await action of the court.

—Mrs. Frank Matthews died this Tuesday morning after an illness of but a few days, from complications of bowel trouble. She was taken sick last Thursday and from that time until death came was a great sufferer. The death of Mrs. Matthews is particularly sad as she leaves five children, the youngest of whom is five years old. Mrs. Matthews was born April 7, 1862, near Ft. Finley, Hancock county, Ohio. Her parents moved in 1869 to Tipton, Indiana, and to Schuyler, Nebraska, in 1872. She was married in the last named city November, 1881, to Frank Matthews. She leaves besides her husband, five children, Eleanor, Stanley, Leola, Charlotte and Homer. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wilsh, five brothers and two sisters all reside in Schuyler. Definite arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made aside from the fact that the remains will be taken to Schuyler for burial. U. S. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilsh and Miss Lizzie Wilsh all came up from Schuyler today, called by the death of their relative. Mrs. Matthews was an active member of the Methodist church and was a kind, affectionate and loving wife and mother. The family have the deepest sympathy of many friends in their great loss.

Groceries, Crockery, Glassware.

Canned Goods of all Descriptions,

VEGETABLES, FRESH FRUITS

in their season, and the many other necessary articles which make a first-class grocery store, will be found : : at

HENRY RAGATZ & CO.,

NEW STORE ...Columbus, Nebraska... 13TH STREET.

Your Summer Coat

Yes—linen, crash or pongee, will be found just right for the purpose. A U G U S T STANDARD PATTERNS of Coats will give you the style required.

Our Pattern Department is stocked with suggestions for Accordion Pleated, Shirred and Smocked Garments.

When you come in, buy the The Designer for August 10 cents a copy, 80 cents year.

J. H. GALLEY, Agent.

Millinery Clearance

No wonder there is talk about our Hats; Why shouldn't there be a stampede after such bargains as we are offering? No such values were ever heard of before. Everything in our store is included in this sale, such as Hats, Caps, Underwear, Hosiery, corsets, Handkerchiefs, etc.

J. C. FILLMAN.

We are now ready to supply the market with good Horses for general purposes. More than forty head of young horses, all broke and ready to work as farm horses, roadsters, saddlers, and single drivers, weighing from 1,000 to 1,500 pounds.

Come and See Our Stock Before Buying. BRANIGAN & HENDRYX, Opposite Orphans Opera House. Columbus, Neb.

DR. J. E. PAUL, DENTIST.

Ninth and Olive streets, Columbus, Neb.

Gas administered for pain less extraction of teeth.

Residence Telephone L. 61. Office Telephone A. 4.

STUDY TO PLEASE!

That's what the proprietor and attendants at the PARK BARBER SHOP do—study to please their patrons and that's the magnet, so to speak, that draws new customers and holds fast the old ones. It is not already among the latter you are invited to drop in and give us a trial. One of our famous Pompadour Manages will make you presentable at any court in the world.

L. G. ZINNECKER, Prop'r.

—We have a bargain to offer our former subscribers. We can give you THE COLUMBIAN JOURNAL and Nebraska Farmer, the two papers one year for $1.75. Now is the time to subscribe. Don't wait, as this offer may not be of long duration. The JOURNAL will give you the city and county news while the Farmer is valuable to every one who is interested in agriculture.

—Do you appreciate a good cup of coffee? Drink gold medal. E. R. London & Bro.

HULST'S PHARMACY.

One door west of Hulst & Adams. Having purchased the C. F. Hoeber stock of Drugs, Wall Paper, Paints, etc., at a great reduction we are making every low price. Call and see us.

Wall Paper

At 30 to 40 per cent. discount.

The Best Ice Cream Soda in Town

All prescriptions carefully compounded by an experienced registered pharmacist. Hulst's Pharmacy. LOUIS SCHREIBER, Jr., Manager.

ROOM AND BOARD

At reasonable rates at Grand Pacific Hotel, Tenth Street.

ERNST & BROCK.