—Ignatz Gebhart, a widower 49 years old, who had made his home at the hospital, died there Monday morning of dropsy. The deceased was born in Germany. He was a laborer.

—Myron Wilson was out riding last Thursday, the first time he had been able to leave the house since June, when he was so badly hurt by being caught in the belts of an engine at Poesch's.

—Harry Lawrence, who has been away from home for some time, writes to his grandmother, Mrs. Warner, from Niles Center, Illinois, that he is enjoying good health. He expects to go soon to St. Louis to remain.

—Esther, the twelve-year-old daughter of Henry Lubker, fell from a horse which she was riding Monday evening and the horse stepped on her right ankle breaking several bones. Dr. Evans was called and attended to her wounds.

—We regret to learn that The Columbus Telegram has decided it can't hold in any longer, but feels it must say ugly things about Judge Barnes in order to make the fusion ticket go down with the voters. It is never good politics to abuse good men.—Bixby.

—One of the dramatic events of the current season which will come to the North opera house next Tuesday is Lincoln J. Carter's "Her Only Sin." It is one of the few emotional plays produced within late years that has found immediate favor with critics and public alike.

—There will be no church services next Sunday in the Methodist church, Rev. Luce being absent at Fremont to attend the annual North Nebraska conference which will meet in that city seven days, beginning with today, Tuesday. Bishop Andrews of New York will preside at this conference.

—Homer Martyn entertained twenty-four of his young lady and gentlemen friends Wednesday, to a 6 o'clock dinner. The occasion was in the way of a farewell gathering for Homer as he has since gone to Lincoln to attend the state university. After the dinner the evening was passed in playing dimes.

—Wm. Burgess of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, was in the city between trains Saturday on his way east. Friends of Mr. Burgess who knew him as one of the old settlers of this city, and he seemed in excellent health and spirits. He served as U. S. Indian agent for the Pawnee and also edited for some time the Columbus Gazette.

—WANTED, Live agents to sell Dr. White's Electric Comb, patented Jan. 1, '20. Care dandruff, hair falling out, sick and nervous headaches, yet cost no more than ordinary comb. Sells on sight. Agents are wild with success. Send 5c for sample (half price). Write quick. The Dr. White Electric Comb Co., Decatur, Ill.

—A Haight started Wednesday for a visit to friends in Bogota, Wyoming. He went to Rawlins, from which place he would ride overland eighty miles to reach his destination. Mr. Haight expects to be gone from home several weeks and will spend his time hunting and fishing. He will be the guest of a nephew of E. M. Sparhawk.

—Mrs. Mabel Conklin of New York, the noted speaker who began her series of lectures here Sunday afternoon, greatly pleased her audience and a large number of people will probably meet her during the week. Season tickets can be obtained for 75c, single admission 10c. The first three days lectures have been held in the Congregational church and the Wednesday, Thursday and Friday meetings in the Methodist church. Mrs. Conklin is a niece of Helen M. Conner, the noted temperance worker.

—Last week's Fullerton Post notes that Lou Smith was over from the south side of the Leap-Tuesday with a wagon load of home grown peaches. They were of fine quality and were an example of what can be raised in this section of Nebraska. He sold them at $1.50 per bushel.

—Fremont experienced considerable annoyance from pickpockets who followed the big circus there last Wednesday. Nine empty pocket books were found in out of way places about town. The police made several arrests but no evidence could be produced against the parties so they were released.

—Francis Walker invited a few of his young friends to a party Sunday afternoon to help him celebrate his ninth birthday. The little folks enjoyed themselves at ball and other games. Lunch and ice cream were served, and the boys and girls all went home happy, wishing Francis many more pleasant birthdays.

—Thomas Howard, republican candidate for county clerk, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Howard has been a grain dealer in Lindsay for fifteen years and has a wide acquaintance of friends in that section of the county and will make a good run at the polls on coming election. He was accompanied here by his daughter.

—The City Band have arranged to give two park concerts this week, weather permitting, the first this (Tuesday) evening, the other on Friday evening. This is done in order to make good the dates missed by inclement weather earlier in the season. The open air concerts for the summer will probably be finished with next week's dates.

—Nebraska can be depended on for a corn crop of some kind, every year. Nature provides for that grain in this state in wonderful ways. The early planted corn, which is now considered out of danger from frost, will be an extra heavy yield, and it is now thought that the late corn will be much better than anticipated two weeks ago.

—Clyde, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Frazell of this city, will be married Monday September 28, to Miss Esther Edman of St. Joseph, Mo. The bride's family have been acquaintances of the Frazells for many years. Clyde is engaged with the Nebraska Telephone company in Omaha where the young couple will begin house keeping soon after they are married.

—The many friends of Mrs. Katharine Wermuth of Downers Grove, near Chicago, will be sorry to learn of her serious illness. Monday of last week she suffered a stroke of apoplexy which affected the left side, the effects from which she has not yet recovered completely. Mrs. Wermuth is a sister of Editor W. B. Dale. The latter left Monday for Downers Grove.

—We learn from the Genoa Times that the Monroe Independent Telephone company stretched their wire into Genoa Wednesday, and the work of putting in phones will soon commence. It is the intention of the company to extend their system, and connect with the Seward and Fullerton independent lines. By the first of October the Monroe company will have 100 phones in use.

—On complaint of County Attorney Latham, Joseph Wells was arrested on a charge of assault with attempt to do great bodily injury. It seems that Joe Wells of this city and Ira Baker of Madison got mixed up over a game of cards at Herchenhan's saloon on September 10th, and in settling the difficulty, Wells shot Baker in the left foot. The case is called for the 25th of this month.

—H. F. Mienzen has entered into a contract whereby he will sell his photograph gallery to Mrs. E. A. McAllister of Joplin, Missouri, who was here Friday transacting business, and is now in Genoa. Several years ago Mrs. McAllister was a resident of Columbus and conducted a photograph gallery. She has since been in Joplin, but wishes to be nearer relatives, who reside in Genoa.

—Platte county for the best corn. The Madison Chronicle says: "J. J. Kemper came home from Kansas and Missouri last Friday. In a conversation he stated that the best corn he saw on the entire trip was between here and Columbus. He says that the average of the corn in Missouri and Kansas, where he visited, is not as good as the poorest of our corn and not as nearly matured."

—That Chicago is fast taking its place as a theatrical center equal to New York is shown by the list of successful plays produced there this last spring. The most notable of these were "The Tenderfoot" at the Dearborn Theatre, "The Babes in Toyland" at the Grand Opera House, and Lincoln J. Carter's "Her Only Sin" at the Criterion. This latter piece will be given at North opera house Tuesday evening, Sept. 29.

—Walter M. Benson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Benson of this city, was married last Wednesday to Miss Lulu L. Poegeat, daughter of Mrs. G. C. Shepard of Silver Creek. Rev. Lohr of North Star performed the ceremony and was assisted by Rev. McVicar of Fullerton. They were the recipients of many presents. Mr. and Mrs. Benson visited with the groom's parents Thursday and Friday, going from here to their future home eight miles west of Fullerton.

—Miss Anna Gietzen entertained Friday and Saturday evening at her home in the west part of the city. Friday evening the young people gathered in honor of Miss Nellie Harris and Eva Walker, and the Saturday evening function was in honor of Miss Hannah Harris. Military salute was the amusement of both evenings. Misses Vera Kramer, Mamie Sheehan, Eva Walker and Mr. Ed. Fitzpatrick were winners of favors on Friday evening, and Mr. and Mrs. Hart, Mrs. Sullivan and Mrs. Roberts were the successful ones on Saturday evening.

—The Monroe Looking Glass in its account of the meeting last Tuesday of the democratic county central committee says: "Among those present were James Welch, chairman of the committee, Chris Green, secretary, Editor Johannes of the Blade, Edgar Howard of the Telegram, John Graft, Mr. Drinnin, L. H. Leary, Judge Ratterman, Dennis Roberts of Shell creek, Mr. Maher of Platte Center, Frank Kierman of Woodville and Thomas Gleason of Monroe. The committee fixed the representation on the average vote on the county and judicial ticket. All the members spoke highly of our little village. Come again."

—At the meeting of the presbytery of the Presbyterian church here last week, it was decided to unite the Monroe and Genoa churches by engaging the same minister for the two charges. Rev. Wilson, a missionary to India for nine years, gave an exceedingly interesting talk upon the habits and customs of that country on Tuesday evening. The presbytery adjourned Wednesday morning.

—One of our exchange says: "Mrs. Higgins-Sullivan, a former resident of Columbus and author of 'Out of the West,' is now at Omaha with her mother, but will spend the winter in California. She has written another story that will soon be brought out by the Harpers. It is called 'The Purple Shadows,' being a picture of life in a western city which she says will be recognized as Grand Island."

—Casper, Wyoming, is making a big fight for the permanent location of the state capital at that place. The seat of government of the state is now located, temporarily, at Cheyenne and there are many reasons why the change would be to the advantage of the majority of people in the state. Mr. and Mrs. Henry who are acquainted here, reside near Casper. Mrs. Henry was formerly Miss Anna Hamer.

—Joe Flynn, Joe Roche and Sherman Gilmore were before Justice Wagner Friday charged with burglary. Thirty-five chickens and ten geese were found missing from the coops of John Palmer, a Union Pacific employee who resides in the west part of town, and the three men above mentioned are charged with having taken the fowls on the night of September 12. A continuance of the case was taken to the 23d.

—In Seward the city council are putting in many street crossings, the material used being brick, and the Blade of that place is of the opinion that they are a decided improvement over the old board crossings and many think that they will prove more satisfactory than concrete. Columbus is also adding valuable improvements in that line and the cement work done by Jacob Ginn and his able helpers, we think, could not possibly be improved upon for looks and durability.

—The Monroe Looking Glass says that Mrs. John Keeler was in town Monday arranging to have Wm. Webster investigate the matter of the estate that comes to her through property willed to her father, Mr. Bacon, by Senator Wright of New York. We hope they may be able to secure all the good things in store for those who are born lucky; that Ed. Chambers of the firm of Becker, Hockenberger & Chambers was on our streets last Friday.

—Thursday afternoon Mrs. W. H. Benham and Mrs. Homer Robinson entertained thirty ladies to a 5 o'clock tea. After the lunch a great deal of amusement was caused by those present drawing a likeness of one of the guests. Mrs. Chambers posed as the model. Mrs. Frank Schram received the prize, a china plate, for the best production, and Miss Ababel of Omaha, who is visiting in the city, was given the consolation prize, a child's drawing book.

—On Saturday John Hoffman sold his meat market to C. H. Boeschmann who takes charge of the place today. Tuesday, Mr. Hoffman will leave next Monday for Sparta, Wisconsin, his old home, where he has made arrangements to purchase the butcher shop of his brother. The Hoffman family have been Columbus residents for many years and the news of their leaving this vicinity will be regretted by many. The family will not move until a few months later.

—Last Saturday Lee Bennett was brought before Justice Wagner on complaint of Samuel Kavich, charging him with indecent exposure of person on September 14th. He was given a continuance until next Saturday. About 3 o'clock Monday, on complaint of the same party, Bennett was brought before Judge O'Brien to answer to a similar charge, the deed committed on September 4th. Bennett made the excuse that he wished to secure an attorney and was allowed to leave the court and has not yet put in an appearance.

—A prominent citizen, who says he doesn't want to be classed as a "kicker" or "knocker," would have us call attention of railroad men to the fact that nearly every day the crossings of the city are blocked with trains away beyond the time limit, much to the discomfort and inconvenience of the public. He says he held his watch on a train recently and it was fifty-five minutes before waiting women and children were able to move along. As THE JOURNAL understands the city ordinance the police officers of the city after the time limit of ten minutes, should see to it that the main traveled street crossings are cleared of trains without having to wait for complaints to be made by citizens.

—Theatre goers of the last generation will remember Thos. W. Keene's thrilling portrayal of the role of a drunkard in an adaptation from the French play of "L'Assommoir," entitled "Drink." The nearest approach to such a character is a master creation of the dramatists to be found in Lincoln J. Carter's "Her Only Sin" which visits North opera house, Tuesday, Sept. 29. Though this character is only in the first act of the play, its sinister influence remains to govern events of later development. It is not interjected to preach a sermon, or to call forth canting phrases from other characters of the play. It is given for what it is worth, a realistic portrayal from real life.

—Telegraphic news from New York dated September 15, intending to mislead the public in regard to the Columbus and Fremont power canal, reads as follows: "It was stated on Wall street that a syndicate of capitalists was being organized for the purpose of financing a project for building and developing a mammoth electric power plant on the Platte river near Fremont—that another route to the Platte river for the proposed canal to run near Columbus had been surveyed, but was not thought feasible at this time." The item also says "that the experts have not yet completed the working plans for the power plant." The whole article shows that it had been dictated by the Fremont projectors, and no significance is placed in the truth of the item here.

How to Care for Photographs Taken During the Summer

The amateur photographer will find much valuable information in regard to housing his pictures in the really unique idea advanced in the October DESIGNER.

The outlay of 10 cents for a copy of the magazine may save him many dollars in the preservation of his plates, and the scheme calls for very little outlay of either time or money.

The DESIGNER may be had at our Standard Pattern Department, 10 cents each number. We send the paper.

J. H. GALLEY, Agent.

FALL OPENING

We beg to announce a special display of pattern and millinery novelties

Sept. 25 and 26,

To which a cordial invitation is extended to all the ladies. Remember the place, where you get one hundred cents on the dollar and a full yard in measure.

J. C. FILLMAN'S

—The opening last Wednesday of the fine new dry goods, clothing and millinery departments of the Gray store was a success in every way. It was estimated that 2,500 people visited the place during the day and evening. Each person who registered received a souvenir, either a piece of china or a photograph frame. All day and evening the clerks were kept busy displaying and selling goods. In the evening the Auditorium orchestra delighted the visitors with music. The clerks in this new department are W. L. Cnenoweth, manager, Miss Bertha Stauffer, cashier, Mrs. Maggie Murphy, Mrs. A. M. Covert, Miss Lizzie Moerser, Miss Emma Kersenbrock and Mr. Otis Green. The last named gentleman is from Indiana. In the millinery department Miss Meelan and Miss Stribbling both from Gates Bros., of Chicago, have charge. The Gray store is in every way an up-to-date structure and is built so that at any time the second story may be utilized for their merchandise. The opening Wednesday was a success beyond the expectations of the proprietors.

—The city council met Friday evening in regular session. A number of sidewalks were ordered built adjoining residences. The bill of J. E. Kaufman for lumber, amounting to $124.47 was allowed and warrant ordered for the payment. The council were informed that there were thirty-eight gentlemen of the city who had failed to pay their poll tax and the city officials will now take stronger means to collect their dues. The council accepted the bid of W. L. Baker for grading of the Meridian road from Seventh to Nineteenth street. Mr. Baker will be allowed 32 cents per yard for the grading and will be given sixty days in which to complete his work. The committee on streets and grades have purchased, at a cost of $100, 223 cubic yards of the earth embankment on the north part of the Arnold fish pond for the grading of the Meridian road. The council will endeavor to enforce the railroad companies to make proper drainage in order to protect the property of the Karr-Nichols brick yard plant. Mrs. Anna Motiva complains to the city that she has been damaged to the extent of about $90 on account of improper drainage of surface water.
