

C. S. Easton & Co.,

Are not throwing out any bait for Saturday, but you will find us selling you Groceries and Hardware every day in the week just as cheap
as the so called cash stores, and we are willing to grant
all worthy customers a limited credit. We can not do business without a profit, neither can they. It costs money to do business, and do not be deceived by alluring bait which are offered on Saturdays :: :: ::

C. S. EASTON & CO.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

Week's End Sale FRIDAY AND SATURDAY JAN. 15 AND 16.

Our stock of Oyster Shells did not get in time for last week's sale, so we will continue the sale this week Friday and Saturday at same price. Remember these are Atlantic Ocean Oyster Shells, not Mississippi River mussel shells usually sold. Price per 100 lbs..... 70c
Schilling's Baking Powder, a high-grade 50c baking powder, on Friday and Saturday..... 25c
Hunt's Perfect Baking Powder, sold everywhere for 25c, our price Friday and Saturday, per 1 lb. can..... 15c

QUALITY, TOP NOTCH, PRICE, LOW NOTCH.

Here are articles used every day. The price is a little higher than ordinary standard goods. They are full weight. Quality, the highest degree of perfection. For these reasons they are cheaper at these prices.

Monarch Maple Syrup

Comes from far Canada, where the maples grow strongest and sturdiest and where the sap flows year after year with a uniform strength, purity and excellence. No other maple syrup has the merits of Monarch—it is positively the highest grade known. Per quart 35c, per gallon..... $1.25

New England Prepared Buckwheat.

Use no salt yeast nor baking powder with the New England Buckwheat Flour. This Buckwheat is all ready for use with the addition of cold water or milk. A combination of flour, principally New Process Buckwheat, making the finest cake possible to produce. Per pkg..... 12c

Monarch Chow Chow.

Right worthy of the name Monarch Chow Chow. Nearly everybody likes a good chow chow, but the price of the English-made is prohibitive to a good many purses. Here's an article that we want you to compare with what you pay twice or three times as much for. It is actually undeniably better. Price per quart..... 25c

Pillsbury's Best XXXX Flour.

The cost is no more than other brands, as it makes more bread and better bread. Price per sack..... $1.25

Monarch Sweet Orange Marmalade.

Again we have in stock this hot biscuit destroyer—Monarch Sweet Orange Marmalade. A fancy glass jar holding nearly a pint. Price per jar..... 20c

Oriele Seeded Raisins.

There isn't a package that holds a candle to it. NOT ONE. Bold assertion but it's true. If you disagree with us on this (and you have a perfect right to) get a package at our risk and test it. We win a customer right at this point and it is with us to stay. We have every package on the run whenever our Oriole Seeded has been tried. One lb. pkg., full weight..... 12c

Oriele 20-30 Prunes and Oriole Jumbo Peaches.

Why buy pits and skin when you can procure prunes and peaches so immense and fat (pan cake size) that two pieces make a full dish of sauce. Try a small order. Per lb..... 20c

—John P. Walker, formerly of Humphrey and later of Oklahoma, was taken to the hospital for the insane last week, after an examination by the board here, who decided treatment there would be beneficial to him. Mr. Walker is brother of F. T. Walker of this city.

—The art class of Misses Marion Smith and Martha Turner will be held in the public library room Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. This is the first lesson after a two-week vacation and the attendance of the regular pupils and one who wish to join the class, is desired.

—The week of prayer was observed last week by union services in the Baptist, Presbyterian, Methodist, Congregational and United Brethren churches in the order named above. All the services were unusually well attended, larger congregations being present than in past years.

—The public library now has nearly 300 bound volumes of the most valuable magazines, and with the Pool index this makes an exceedingly valuable reference library. From the records of the librarian, Miss Fanny Goe, it appears that each year the number of books taken out is almost double the number read the previous year.

—Back Springs lamp, Back Springs nut, Back Springs block, Jackson Hill, Ohio, And all other good goods for sale this week. 25 WYMAN & NEWMAN.

—There will be an examination held next Saturday in the postoffice to secure a rural mail carrier for the Oonawa route. This route has not yet been established but it is expected that it will be recommended, and Postmaster Kramer was authorized to post notices of the examination.

—C. F. Gleason received word Wednesday of the death on Tuesday of his brother, William Gleason, of Heath, Mass. The message arrived here too late for him to make the trip east for the funeral on Friday. The news came as a surprise to Mr. Gleason, as he had no knowledge of his brother's illness.

—Henry Carrig asks judgment in district court against Dennis Sullivan and Simon Pinton for $277.55 and interest at 10 per cent from January 9, '20. He alleges that the defendants gave him note to the Platte Center bank on which nothing has been paid and which is now in possession of the plaintiff.

—John McPherson and his two sons Lawrence and Kenneth of Haigler, Nebraska, visited in the city from Friday to Sunday on their way home from Omaha. Mr. McPherson is a nephew of Mrs. W. N. Hensley and W. A. McAllister and is well known to many people here. He is a successful merchant in his home town.

—Two young lads, Arthur Gray and Frank Echols were the managers of an amateur theatrical attraction which took place at the Gray home Saturday afternoon. Pina were the admission fee and we are informed by the management that an audience of twenty-five people were present to witness the "Old Mill Stream."

—Mrs. John Cherry who lived near Palestine, died last Thursday, leaving a husband and seven young children to mourn their loss. Mrs. Cherry has been a resident of Platte county for a number of years. Funeral services took place in the Palestine Baptist church Sunday and interment made in the cemetery at that place.

—Policeman Nelson was in Omaha Monday, called by the chief of police there who thought they had captured the First National bank forger, but the call was unnecessary as the man was not the one wanted here. This is the fourth time the police have thought they were on the track of the forger, and have each time been mistaken.

—Attorney Wagner of Columbus was a Monroe caller on Monday. Dr. Voss was called from Columbus on Saturday to see Mrs. Marshall McWilliams. Miss Fannie Weeks visited with Miss Fellers in the country last week, and then Sunday in Columbus, coming up Monday morning to take her place in school.—Monroe Looking Glass.

—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Burke entertained about seventy-five friends at their home on Tenth street Thursday evening. The time was passed in playing high five, at which Mrs. Joseph Ryan and Mr. A. J. Smith won first prizes and Miss Mamie Calto and J. T. Cox the booby prizes. Elegant refreshments were served and the guests returned home at a late hour.

—The art department of the Women's club will meet Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. A. J. Smith when the following program will be rendered: Roll call on art notes; Illustrated talk on Leonardo da Vinci and Raphael. Miss Marie Smith; Michael Angelo, Mrs. J. B. Geitzner. After the program the work of basket weaving will be taken up.

—A personal letter to a friend from Mrs. Rev. Rasmussen tells of their present location in South Alabama, N. Y., where Rev. Rasmussen is pastor of a church. Carl is in Buffalo with an aunt attending school and Miss Margaret is attending school in Chicago. Rev. and Mrs. Rasmussen are well pleased with their new home and say that their work is progressing.

—A. M. Covert is expected home this week from Shenandoah, Iowa, where he has been with his sister Mrs. Snow. Since leaving here four months ago Mr. Covert has been taking massage and electrical treatment for the injuries he received by the accident in the Union Pacific yards here about a year ago, and he writes home that he is improving in health.

—An exchange says that every paper in the state should publish the fact that burnt corn is a cure for hog cholera and add: It was first discovered by a distiller in Peoria, Illinois. It was thrown to the hogs and eaten by them. Before that time a number had been dying each day with cholera but the disease immediately disappeared. It is so simple a remedy that it can easily be tried.

—Dan Echols, who is in Cedar Rapids one of the first to discover the fire Sunday morning at 2 o'clock which destroyed four buildings. Dan and Jay Taylor (at one time a Columbus boy) room in the second story of a building down town, and Mr. Taylor awoke to find flames ascending the window. The fire did not destroy the building they were in, but did considerable damage to it.

—A public meeting has been called for next Friday evening in the Baptist church when a prohibition alliance will be organized for gentlemen and ladies. Mrs. C. G. Beveridge, of Fremont, who is no stranger in Columbus, having been here at various times in the interest of temperance work, will be present and give the principal address. A program of music will also be an attractive feature for the evening.

—On Monday evening R. L. Romler, C. J. Scott and G. W. Turner, representing the grand officers of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, installed the newly elected officers of Columbus lodge 288 of this city at their hall on Thirteenth street. About forty members were present to witness the impressive ceremonies. This order is one of the best bonded and fraternal organizations that we know of as the very large membership in the state jurisdiction fully attests, having nearly reached the 40,000 mark, and is doing good relief work every month in the year. At an opportune time during the evening Oester S. S. Rickly of the Vienna restaurant with his able assistants served a spread of dainty edibles which all present very much enjoyed. Columbus lodge is in fine shape and boasts of a membership of one hundred and fifty.

—Archie Griffin, of Denver, a former Columbus boy, visited friends here last week. He is the son of J. A. Griffin, for many years employed in Friedhof's store and later associated with A. M. Gray in the shoe and clothing business, and is now a resident of Denver. Archie came to Columbus Friday from St. Edward where he visited his aunt, Mrs. D. H. Jennings.

—Ed. Smith, formerly of Hillsdale, Michigan, who years ago frequently visited with the North family, is in the city. He has disposed of his hotel interests in South Dakota, and bought a large tract of land in Colorado, to which he will give his attention in the near future. A daughter of Mr. Smith will make her home here with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. North and attend school.

—C. A. Church has been operating a saw mill the past few weeks, having the camp located in the Olcott Bros. grove south of Columbus. Farmers in the neighborhood have been hauling logs to be sawed up, and say that the lumber is much more satisfactory than that purchased in town. The camp presents quite a business aspect, farmers hauling trees for miles around to be made up for building and fuel purposes.

—Louis Lutzjohann and Henry Labbert attended the Nebraska-Iowa implement dealers' association held in Omaha last week. Mr. Lutzjohann was present as an officer of the association, having been elected one of the directors last year. Mr. Lutzjohann purchased a large bill of goods while in the city. At the meeting one of the important moves was the decision to use efforts to organize county associations throughout the two states.

—The Fremont Tribune says that a meeting of those chiefly interested in financing the power canal proposition was held in Chicago a few days ago, and although there is nothing of a specific and definite nature to give out in connection with the meeting, it is yet understood it was of a satisfactory nature. John Dorn, of Salt Lake City, a wealthy and successful man who has built the largest electric plant in the world, has interested himself in this Fremont enterprise.

—The members of the Presbyterian church enjoyed their annual gathering Wednesday afternoon and evening at the home of L. Gerrard. The ladies met in the afternoon and the gentlemen arrived in time for the supper. The refreshments were bountiful and delicious. About eighty people were present. During the afternoon the ladies elected officers for the Aid society for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. George; vice president, Mrs. Matthews; secretary, Mrs. Naumann and treasurer, Miss Friedhof.

—Clarence Gerrard will return to Downingtown, Wyoming, Tuesday or Wednesday of this week to continue his work as superintendent of a mine there. He has been spending the holidays at home. Downingtown is the nearest postoffice to the camp and Grand Encampment the nearest good market. A number of the business men of Columbus are interested in the Evening Star mine which Clarence is superintending, but the greater amount of stock is owned by Missouri parties. Clarence has been away from home four months.

—Mrs. Tieden, wife of Henry Tieden, in the Graceland neighborhood, died Sunday at her home, after a four month illness from cancer. Besides her husband she leaves four sons and one daughter. Mrs. Tieden was born in Saxony, Germany, sixty-four years ago. She came to America in 1854, first living in St. Louis. The family have lived in the Graceland neighborhood twenty years. Funeral services were held at one o'clock this Tuesday afternoon at the home, Rev. Braun officiating and the remains laid to rest in the neighborhood cemetery.

—Three engagements of much interest were announced at the Catholic church last Sunday, the parties interested being Lizzie Tarnus and John VanDyke; Chas. Bender and Fannie Hittner; John Tarnus and Emma Bender. The wedding, which will be a triple one is scheduled to take place January 19.... H. H. Wolken and family left for Columbus Monday where they will make their future home. Mr. Wolken is a carpenter by trade and will no doubt find more work in his line in a larger place. We hope that Mr. Wolken and family will prosper in their new home.—Humphrey Democrat.

—The Masonic temple craft, constituting nine members of the order, will meet architect J. C. Stipp of Norfolk today, who has been directed to draw plans for the fine new temple. The building to be erected, which will occupy the entire 4x20 feet on the corner lot owned by the Masons north of Friedhof's, will be a three story structure. The first floor will be suitable for store purposes and the second and third floors for lodge rooms and offices. The Masons have had the erection of this building under contemplation for many years, and have a large amount of the money on hand required for its consummation, which will cost between $12,000 and $15,000.

—The Lincoln Star throws a bouquet at Judge Sullivan, in the following words: "Reporters hated to see Chief Justice Sullivan retire from the supreme bench. Throughout his long service Judge Sullivan has been particularly courteous to the newspaper men and he is author of a number of opinions the dramatic literary qualities of which charmed the reporters and gave them delightful stories. Judge Sullivan never wrote a line with a view of publication. He saw the dramatic possibilities of a suit and when he wrote it unconsciously crept in at the right place. Judge Sullivan also announced one political axiom not long ago and it will be remembered by hundreds of the unsuccessful in years to come. There is one office that can not be taken away from an attorney," he remarked. "That is his law office."

—The county board of supervisors were in session from Monday until Saturday of last week. The greater part of their work was in looking over the records of the county officials and installing the new officers. Rudolf C. Mueller who had been appointed by the board to fill the unexpired term of C. J. Carrig as supervisor of the Fifth district, declined to accept and Mahlon E. Clotier of Platte Center was chosen in his place. A petition presented by William Lange and others, asking that a public road be made on the section line north of section
