

C. S. Easton & Co.

Are not throwing out any baits for Saturday, but you will find us selling your Groceries and Hardware every day in the week just as cheap as the so called cash stores, and we are willing to grant all worthy customers a limited credit. We can not do business without a profit, neither can they. It costs money to do business, and do not be deceived by alluring baits which are offered on Saturdays :: :: ::

C. S. EASTON & CO.

CORN!

We will pay 33c per bushel, or 3 cents above the market, for corn delivered at the Farmers' and Merchants' Elevator, Columbus, on account or in exchange for goods in all departments.

GROCERY DEPARTMENT

Here are articles used every day. The price is a little higher than ordinary standard goods. They are full weight. Quality, the highest degree of perfection. For these reasons they are cheaper at these prices.

Monarch Maple Syrup

Comes from far Canada, where the maples grow strongest and sturdiest and where the sap flows year after year with a uniform strength, purity and excellence. No other maple syrup has the merits of Monarch—it is positively the highest grade known. Per quart—35c, per gallon—$1.25

New England Prepared Buckwheat.

Use no salt yeast nor baking powder with the New England Buckwheat Flour. This Buckwheat is all ready for use with the addition of cold water or milk. A combination of flour, principally New Process Buckwheat, making the finest cake possible to produce. Per pkg—12c

Monarch Chow Chow.

Right worthy of the name Monarch Chow Chow. Nearly everybody likes a good chow chow, but the price of the English-made is prohibitive to a good many purses. Here's an article that we want you to compare with what you pay twice or three times as much for. It is actually undeniably better. Price per quart—25c

Pillsbury's Best XXXX Flour.

The cost is no more than other brands, as it makes more bread and better bread. Price—$1.25 per sack

Monarch Sweet Orange Marmalade.

Again we have in stock this hot biscuit destroyer—Monarch Sweet Orange Marmalade. A fancy glass jar holding nearly a pint. Price per jar—20c

Orlolo Seeded Raisins.

There isn't a package that holds a candle to it. NOT ONE. Bold assertion but it's true. If you disagree with us on this (and you have a perfect right to) get a package at our risk and test it. We have a customer right at this point and it is with us to stay. We have every package on the run whenever our Orlolo Seeded has been tried. One lb. pkg, full weight—12c

Orlolo 20-30 Prunes and Orlolo Jumbo Peaches.

Why buy pits and skin when you can procure prunes and peaches so immense and fat (pan cake size) that two pieces make a full dish of sauce. Try a small order. Per lb.—20c

GRAYS'

WE OFFER FOR FALL & WINTER SEASON A VERY COMPLETE LINE OF

Men's and Boys' Clothing

—Emil Biess left Monday for Cherry county, where he expects to be employed on a stock ranch owned by Mr. Rothleitner, brother of our townsman, M. M. Rothleitner. Mr. Biess intends to return in two or three months.

—Fred Baker entertained twelve of his friends Saturday evening to a high five party, in celebration of his eighteenth birthday. Fred Flath received a deck of cards and Miss Florence Hage a book, as favors for best playing during the evening.

—The barn to the rear of the old Nebraska house, one of the old landmarks on Eleventh street south of the Union Pacific freight depot, fell to the ground Monday. The place has been unoccupied and the barn had gone to ruin from want of repair.

—Friday evening the Eastern Star observed their twenty-eighth anniversary by having a social evening in their hall, inviting their friends to attend. About seventy people were present. After passing the evening in playing games, elegant refreshments were served.

—Buchanan & Karsenbuecher are running a truly "live and let live" butcher shop, selling meats from 3 to 5 cents a pound cheaper than former prices. You will be convinced of the excellent quality of the meat upon your first purchase, as many others have been.

—The Commercial club met Friday evening, but owing to the small attendance they were unaccomplished.

—The Auditorium Orchestra will give a concert February 1, in North opera house. They will be assisted by local talent. Prof. Ellis is new leader of the orchestra and under his management the musicians are studying good music. The last concert given by the orchestra was on June 9 of last year.

—Reverend services are being held in the Baptist church, the first meeting being held Monday evening. Rev. Dimes is assisted in his work by Rev. Smith of Albion, who is an earnest, enthusiastic speaker. The meetings will begin at 7:45 each evening and will probably be continued for two weeks.

—Pie and Nook speaker of Columbus came over last Saturday to visit relatives around David City for about a week. C. W. Darby has been elected as one of the executive committee of the Nebraska Antiques' Association, which was held in South Omaha the latter part of last week.—David City Banner.

—Arnold Oshlich has contracted with C. J. Scott & Son to put in a plate glass front in the store building on Thirtieth street, now occupied by W. E. Draning as a dry goods store. The new front will be similar to that of the Deak drug store. Work will begin on the improvement about the 1st of next month.

—A Columbus bowling team composed of D. O. Kavanagh, W. J. Gregorin, A. Drake, Dr. C. H. Gistzen and George Hage went to Humphrey last Wednesday and defeated the team of that place in a series of three games by the score of 2,681 to 2,288 pins, this being the second match between the two teams, each scoring a victory.

—Mrs. A. J. Arnold of National City, Calif., arrived here Saturday night, called by the sickness of her son, Dr. H. J. Arnold. The doctor has been very sick for several days but is now much improved and expects to be around as usual in a few days. Mrs. Arnold will remain for a while to visit her relatives, having not been here since she left, ten years ago.

—The stockholders of the Commercial National Bank held their annual meeting for the election of officers last Tuesday, which resulted as follows: C. H. Sheldon, president; H. P. H. Oshlich, vice president; Daniel Sohran, cashier. For directors, Carl Reinke, Jonas Welch, S. C. Gray and Geo. W. Galley. This leaves the officials of the bank the same as last year.

—Arrangements have been made to have two famous temperance lecturers here at an early date. Prof. Chas. Scanslan will lecture the evenings of February 3 and 4, and F. M. Emerson, a candidate at one time for governor of Kansas, will be here seven days, beginning on the 7th inst. The meetings will be divided between the Methodist and Congregational churches.

—Mike Mostek, who escaped from the county jail last August, together with other prisoners, was arrested in his old home at Turner Wednesday and was brought to the county jail by Deputy Sheriff Lecknie. Mostek has since August been working in nearby counties and evidently thought after the lapse of several months, he would be allowed to return home unmolested.

—Invitations have been issued for the marriage, this Tuesday evening, of Miss Hattie E. daughter of Mrs. C. Baker to Mr. Warner Schupbach. Only relatives and a very few friends will be present. Both bride and groom are well known and very popular young people here, and deserving of unlimited happiness during their future life. They will be at home to their friends after February 1.

—Frank Walters, aged 64 years, died Monday noon in the hospital after an illness of four days. On last Thursday he had a slight stroke of paralysis, which was the cause of his death. Mr. Walters has made his home at the hospital for over a year past and was known to his friends as a man of good, sterling qualities. Funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock in the St. Bonaventura church.

—For several months past we have taken many subscriptions for The Journal and the Nebraska Farmer for the low rate of $1.75 one year for both publications. After January 30, this rate will be discontinued and we will offer the two papers for $2.25 a year. Any one wishing to subscribe for the Farmer must come at once, renew their subscription to The Journal and take advantage of the $1.75 rate.

—Miss Olivia Fobes, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Deacon Fobes living northwest of Columbus about four miles, died at her home Thursday night after a lingering illness of consumption, aged 21 years. Miss Fobes had been sick since August. Funeral services were held Saturday noon in the Congregational church, Rev. Munro preaching the sermon, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Columbus cemetery.

—Delegates from the Columbus fire department will attend the 22nd annual meeting in Fremont this week Tuesday to Thursday, and are anticipating a good time. The delegates are: L. F. Gottschalk, chief; Ed. Hagemann, W. Y. Bissell boss team; R. B. McRoy, boss company No. 2; John Stovick, engine company No. 1; Wm. Kramland, Pioneer Hook and Ladder Co. Bert Galley and Sam Gann will also attend the meeting.

—The St. Paul Republicans has the following to say of a former Columbus pastor of the Methodist church which will be read with interest by his friends: "Rev. Yost's manner of conducting a revival exhibition of good taste that has been shown in St. Paul pulpits for many years. Perhaps the crowds are not so large as those that have been attracted out of curiosity by professional evangelists, but those who do attend are there for good purposes. They are impressed by the dignity and sincerity of their home pastor, with whom they are associated every day and whose life is to them an open book. The Republicans has clashed with some of its christian friends on the revival question several times in the past. Now that one is in a better field which meets with our unqualified endorsement we are glad to say so and to lend it all the moral support within our power."
