Snow to the depth of eight inches fell in Georgia and Alabama one day last week.

In 1895 coal oil sold for $1 a gallon and flour from $6 to $8 a sack in Nebraska City.

It is said that 250 conventions, with an attendance varying from 100 to 30,000 will be held in St. Louis during the World's Fair.

W. J. Bryan has said that he will support none of the democrats who voted for Palmer and Buckner, and there were 133,424 of them.

ARNOLD COMPTON, son of the president of Switzerland, committed suicide in Dijon, France, Thursday by shooting. He had been suffering from cerebral derangement resulting from malaria fever.

The scarlet carnation has been made the state flower of Ohio. This was a favorite flower of the late President McKinley, and is adopted as a token of love and reverence of the people of Ohio for him.

A FIRE in Tyndall, a small town just north of Niobrara, Thursday, destroyed four business houses, causing a loss of $25,000. The blaze broke out in a photograph gallery at 4 o'clock in the morning. The insurance amounts to $7,300.

The 36th annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage association will be held in National Bitter Army hall, Washington, D. C., February 11th to 17th inclusive. Congressional hearings will be given woman suffrage on the morning of the 16th.

The Rosebud reservation containing 416,000 acres of choice farm land, is to be thrown open to homestead settlement this coming summer. This will afford many people an opportunity to secure an excellent farm that are unable to buy at the present price of land. This land will be opened under the lottery plan, similar to the Oklahoma opening in 1901.

ANOTHER of Polk county's pioneers, Dr. Holly M. Mills, died Thursday. The doctor was the first physician in Polk county and has lived there continuously since. He had had an attack of paralysis and it is thought that he might have had a stroke when he fell on his porch Thursday. He never returned to consciousness and died within an hour. He was about 69 years old.

J. L. McBRIDE, the present deputy state superintendent of schools, is being strongly pressed by his friends to resign his name before the people as a candidate on the republican ticket for superintendent to succeed Sup'r Fowler. Mr. McBride has been Mr. Fowler's deputy for the past four years, and should be well acquainted with the needs of the state in educational lines. If he can accomplish half as much as Mr. Fowler, he will make a competent officer.

Miss NANNIE BRYAN, sister of Hon. W. J. Bryan, whose life hung by a thread for two days, breathed her last at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon before the arrival of Mr. Bryan who had been lecturing in the east. All that physicians could do was to prolong life at least until the arrival of her brother. She was affected with peritonitis. The dead woman was 34 years of age and came to Nebraska in 1898 from her home in Salem, Illinois, for the benefit of her health, and since that time she has lived with her sister, Mrs. Allen.

President Roosevelt is nominated by the republicans and Mr. Bryan continues in control of the democratic party. It is probable that the Wall street magazine will be compelled to look to a third party for an opportunity to capture the executive office, reasons the Norfolk News. It is believed by politicians of all parties that Mr. Bryan would no more consent to receive dictations from Wall street than would President Roosevelt. They will first try to down Roosevelt and if they don't succeed they will undoubtedly try to relieve Bryan of his leadership.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT Friday signed an executive order restoring to the public domain what is commonly known as the "extension strip" in the north part of Sheridan county, Nebraska, and located on the boundary line between South Dakota and Nebraska. This strip, which is ten miles long and five miles wide and adjacent to the Pine Ridge agency in South Dakota, was by executive order set apart as a "dead line" a number of years ago. It was taken from the public domain and placed at the disposal of the Sioux Indians. During the last fifteen years Nebraska's delegations in congress have endeavored to have this strip returned to the public domain, but without result.

An associated press dispatch from Omaha Friday stated that the situation in this state had taken a new turn when word came from Lincoln that William Randolph Hearst's representatives have quietly commenced an organization in the state and influenced capital city politicians that a delegation will be chosen from that district pledged to Hearst. The move is accepted as having Bryan's endorsement. Ex-Gov. Boyd, the only democratic governor Nebraska ever had, and Carl C. Wright, city attorney, voiced the sentiments of the old-line democrats when they said: "We like Bryan personally and would not make a fight against the Kansas City platform at this time, believing those principles will do a natural death, but we can't stand for Hearst."

THE State Board of Agriculture has reorganized for the coming year, J. B. Dinwiddie, of Sutton, for many years president of the association, being defeated in a close race by W. E. Mott, of Loup City. Secretary R. W. Furness of Brownville, and treasurer F. Moltisay of Seward, were re-elected by acclamation. W. A. Apperson, Johnson county; Joseph Roberts, Dodge; R. M. Wolcott, Morrill; E. Q. Russell, Washington, and Cyrus Horton, Furness, are newly elected members of the board. It was decided that there are sufficient funds available to justify the erection of a large brick administration building and lay several hundred feet of brick walks, the intention being to ultimately lay walks on all parts of the grounds and perhaps pave the principal streets. A capacious stock pen and additions to the grand stand are other improvements contemplated. Secretary Furness' salary of $2,000 per year was decided to be sufficient to pay all clerk hire excepting extra help employed at fair time, and a motion to appropriate $500 per year for clerk hire was passed with the understanding that the fund should be disbursed only upon order of the board and should not be used to cover ordinary office expenditures.

A Query.

MONROE, Feb. 2, '06.

ED. JOURNAL.—Reading in your last week's issue an item to the effect that the Columbus Journal, Platte County Signal, Humphrey Democrat and the Lindsay Post were let the county printing and each is to receive one-fourth the legal rate, and the Columbus Bione will also be given an extra one-fourth legal rate for printing the proceedings, I would like to ask this question: Have the supervisors, who are elected to represent all the people, the right to vote money out of the people's pocket by paying for the county printing a sum more than the law allows? We all know that taxes in this county are already high enough without raising them to a higher notch for no other reason than I can see than to throw crumbs, few though they be, to political party favorites.

There is no doubt in my mind that Platte county could save money by doing as other counties do—allowing all the newspapers of the county a chance to bid on the work to be done, thus securing their work for a half or two-thirds legal rate instead of having to pay a full rate plus one-fourth. What is a supervisor for anyway if not to protect the people's interests?

Yours for justice, J. A. S.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

The Auditorium orchestra concert Monday evening was fairly well attended and the music was highly appreciated by those present. The program was well arranged to please any audience and the director, Prof. Sika, has given much careful attention to the orchestra which has kept up a high standard in the musical organizations of the city. The orchestra was assisted in their special numbers by Messrs. Adams, drummer, and Hawk, clarinetist, both from Fallerton. Those assisting in the entertainment with special numbers aside from the orchestra selection were: Madeline Garlow and Geo. piano duet; Gae Falsburg, vocal solo; violin and piano, Miss Elsie F. H. and Prof. Sika; vocal solo, Mrs. E. H. Chambers; piano solo, Prof. Frank; trombone solo, John Stovick. The program throughout was well received by the audience.

The Fremont Tribune recently published an article written by the secretary of the Commercial club concerning the future development of that town, in which he says, in speaking of the canal project: "The Platte below the Loop and the Loup itself are capable of the development of several such power plants, and the demonstration of the one at Fremont will lead at no distant date to the construction of another or others, and Fremont will be very central to them all. There will be power enough generated to supply amply Omaha, Lincoln and Columbus, and leave plenty for Fremont. Each such different water power with its reservoir will be a help to the other, conserving and making more constant the flow of water to all. There will be developed here from Columbus to Omaha and from Fremont to Lincoln a Nebraska manufacturing district like that in southeastern Wisconsin. Our nearest to Omaha will then, as a manufacturing center, be no handicapped to us but rather a help, affording additional nearby distributing facilities for our products, as in the case of Rockford, Racine, and other cities in their relation to Chicago."

Mrs. Louise Jessup, wife of Wilbur Jessup, died Wednesday morning at their home in this city. Six weeks ago a daughter was born to Mrs. Jessup, since which time she has been very ill, and death came as a relief to her suffering. She leaves besides the infant daughter, one daughter Helen, aged two years. Mrs. Jessup, who was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Schram, was born in Columbus, March 14, 1862. She was married August 8, 1891, to Wilbur Jessup and through her happy disposition and bright life, she had made a pleasant home. Mrs. Jessup was a young woman who made many warm and lasting friends, who was attended in many ways during her last sickness and at the time of death. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the home and 12:30 in the German Lutheran church, Rev. Miesler officiating. The pall bearers, who were former schoolmates of the deceased, were: Will Zimmerman, Otto Hagel, Henry Hagel, Jr., Adolf Leese, Richard Schreiber and Walter Galley. Besides her husband and children, Mrs. Jessup leaves her two sons, relative her parents and brothers Will and Frank, and sisters Mrs. Jena of Humphrey and Miss Jennie Schram, to mourn her departure.

...GOING OUT OF BUSINESS...

WE ARE determined to close out our entire stock and go out of business, and that at once. We expected to sell out in bulk and avoid the annoyance and delay of retailing it, but we find this is not possible, so without more delay we shall go at it with a determination to wind it up in a short time. This will be a great opportunity to supply your needs at real bargain prices. Nothing will be sold above cost, and generally much less than cost. Take notice, this is not a "fake" sale, with low prices on a few things but a real closing-out sale on everything. Our prices have always been below our competitors, but you will see a greater difference now. Our stock is known to be first-class and up-to-date in every particular. Thousands of dollars worth of new spring goods have arrived, bought before the advance in cotton but there will be no reserve, everything at cost or less will be our motto, while it lasts. Everything can't be marked at once, nor prices quoted here, but our clerks will have our cost mark and you will get the goods at right prices. : : : : :

Sale Began Sat., Jan. 30.

Be on hand early and get the choice before being picked over. The Munsing and our celebrated Jackson Muslin Underwear go at cost in this sale. Better supply yourself, they have no equal. : : : : :

College News.

Among the new students in the Business college who have entered for work this month are: Otto Henning, Ed. Schreiber, Lottie Becker, George Scott, Jr., Carl Schubert and Byrdie Smith all of Columbus, and John McGowan, Rising City; Philip Smith, Bellwood; Roy Roe and Leslie Hall of Plattsmouth; and Ed. Branigan of Shelby. Chris Gruen is also taking night instruction.

Considerable interest has been manifested in the school in the "spelling down" contests which are indulged in each Friday afternoon by the commercial against the shorthand department, so far, Miss Rosetta Wiseman carries off the honors of the school and Miss Daisy Cash stands next best.

Farmers' Institute.

The program of the farmers' institute held in Mannerhor hall here Friday and Saturday of last week was carried out in full as printed in last week's JOURNAL. The average attendance during all the meetings was about one hundred, and on Saturday afternoon there was standing room only. This shows a remarkable growth of interest in this work since last year, when scarcely twenty attended the meetings.

C. M. Lovell of Beaver City, Neb., was the first on the program and he spoke on the subject "Economic Farm Production." He stated that no farm product was more profitable than hogs and it gave attention to breeding and feeding in taken the profit will be made still greater. With proper care hogs can be marketed in from eight months to a year. The greatest profit is in the quickest market. Illustrations of the original wild hog and the modern highly bred Berkshire hog were compared and contrasted. His advice to hog raisers is to get the very best stock to begin with, then breed those toward the ideal which they have in view. Long and mature stock will raise larger litters than short hogs. Both sows should be like in size, as like breeds like, and the poor qualities in one parent are sure to leave a trace in the offspring. In buying breeding stock select those with good feet and legs, the frame should be capable of carrying a large amount of flesh. The back should be straight or slightly arched and the heart and lungs should have ample room. The shape of the ribs should not be overlooked; they should be well sprung, making the back appear flat or even hollow in the middle. This one quality may save a person many dollars in one chosen case into the neighborhood as they are nearly always in a marketable condition and can be turned into money at any time.

"Principles and Practices of Feeding" discussed by H. P. Miller, of Ohio, was interesting and profitable to all who heard him. In the evening of Friday, Mr. Lovell spoke on the "Care and Management of Poultry" and Mr. Miller on "Factors in Soil Fertility." These talks were enjoyed by a number from the city as well as from the country. Affairs culture which is now interesting the farmers in this vicinity was the subject of Mr. Lovell's talk Saturday morning. F. G. Ferguson, of Beaver Crossing, set forth some of his ideas in raising and marketing potatoes, learned from his own experience.

"Breeding and Selection of Seed Corn" was the topic for discussion by D. P. Ashburn, of Gibson, Neb. It was ably handled and will undoubtedly cause a number of the more progressive farmers of this vicinity to experiment in raising fine corn.

C. H. Bernard, of Table Rock, gave methods by which to grow hardy fruits in Nebraska. He is a man who has had wide experience in this line and his talk was valuable to those who are raising fruit in this locality.

In connection with the institute a corn show was held. The winners of prizes in this exhibition were as follows: Wm. J. Newman, highest scoring corn, his exhibit being of the White Salomander variety. Mark Liney, second highest scoring corn was of the Calico variety. Louis Nansenburg, first on yellow corn Golden Row variety. J. B. Lachnit of Platte Center second on yellow corn, Yellow Dent variety. Bargmann Bros. third on yellow corn, Golden Row variety. Wm. J. Newman first on white corn, Salamander variety. Henry Hickert second on white corn. All the corn which won prizes will be sent to the St. Louis exposition.

A Former Platte County Boy Secures a Good Position.

The following, taken from the Sandpoint (Idaho) News, is of much interest to the friends of Mr. Deffenbach, who was a former Platte county boy. Mr. Deffenbach was formerly Miss Wm. and was here a few weeks this winter, called home by the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary Wm.

"Byron S. Deffenbach of the firm of the Northern Mercantile company, and former assistant postmaster at Spokane, has decided to accept an advantageous offer from the postoffice department and will leave the middle of February for Manila, where he will become an assistant to C. M. Ostermole, director of posts for the Philippines.

Mr. Deffenbach had been for many years connected with the postoffice railway mail service before he was assistant postmaster at Spokane, a position which he resigned in March last to embark in the mercantile business in Sandpoint. Mr. Deffenbach and Mr. Ostermole were in the railway mail service together and since Mr. Ostermole has reached his high position he has been active in his endeavors to secure Mr. Deffenbach's assistance. Several weeks ago Mr. Deffenbach was communicated with by the department and an offer made him to go into the Philippine service, but this offer was declined, only to be met with another one and with a raise to the salary offered. Finally this week Mr. Deffenbach decided to comply with the terms granted by the postoffice department and wind his acceptance of the position. His compensation will include his fare and board from the time he leaves Sandpoint until he arrives at Manila. Mr. Deffenbach expects to leave his family here for a month after his departure, at the expiration of which time they will follow him to his new post of duty.

Mr. Deffenbach, since heading the company which last spring bought the mercantile business of Frank Ewing and changed the name of the business to the Northern Mercantile company, has made a big success of his business and it is with feelings of regret that he leaves Sandpoint. Said he when discussing his new position and the fact that it takes him from a field of duty and opportunity in Sandpoint, "I believe Sandpoint is a good town to grow up with and I do not like to leave it. However, I am not going to give up my connections entirely, for I shall continue to be one of the firm and shall leave my stock in the company undisturbed. If I find that the climate or other conditions in the Philippines are such that I cannot live advantageously there I will return to Sandpoint and take charge of the business again. I feel, however, that the opportunity to high executive life is one which I cannot overlook."

Mr. Deffenbach was assistant postmaster of Spokane for four years and was immediately succeeded in his position by Mayor Boyd, who resigned that post after a few weeks' service upon his election to the mayoralty.

The appointment comes as a fine testimonial to the high esteem in which Mr. Deffenbach is held by the postoffice department.

Notice.

Charles Kelley has fitted up his store building, east of Williams & Clark's, and will open a stock of general merchandise inside of ten days.

Talk about young people being gay! Well, some of the young folks ought to have seen their elders last Wednesday when they congregated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Keeler to celebrate Mr. Keeler's 70th birthday. All sorts and kinds of all kinds were thrown to the four winds, and for the time being were staid and prim examples were once more children, playing pranks the young folks of today would hardly think of.

J. P. Fogarty, special agent for the rural free delivery, was here Wednesday and inspected route No. 3 from Monroe. This route runs east from town, and as the roads are good, will probably be established. The applicants for carriers were not named at this time, so under the new ruling carriers will be held at the county seat at a time designated by the department. Notice of such time and place will be announced later and all applicants notified.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE NECESSARY MAGAZINE IN THE PRESIDENTIAL YEAR

The Review of Reviews is often called a necessity, in recognition of its usefulness in keeping readers "up with the times."

In Presidential election years the REVIEW OF REVIEWS is more than ever "the necessary magazine." Everybody wants to be truly and quickly informed about this or that public question that has forged to the front; to know about the new candidates and personal factors in politics, to have a complete picture at hand of the current movement of history.

In Dr. Shaw's editorial, in its authentic and timely contributions, in its brilliant character sketches, in its condensed and reviews of all the important articles of other magazines, and in its hundred a month of valuable pictures, witty cartoons, and interesting views, the REVIEW OF REVIEWS gives the most desired news of the world and our own progress. "The World under a Field-glass" is the way our subscribers describe it. Here in public life, the President Theodore Roosevelt, the members of Congress, and the great captains of industry, who are kept "up with the times," intelligent men and women all over America, have decided it is "indispensable."
