Eight Big Loaves! That's Your Profit! That's Your Gain!

Where Pillsbury's Best XXXX Flour is used.

It has been demonstrated time after time—proven conclusively—that Pillsbury's Best Flour makes from 8 to 10 loaves of bread more to the sack than other flours. That's quite a saving, and it will do it too. A trial sack convinces—then trial users become steady customers.

—The Methodist congregation of the Duncan church will give an entertainment Tuesday, February 16, in their church in Duncan. A program of music, recitations, etc., is being prepared, and the committee making the arrangements hope to realize a neat sum from the proceeds, which will be used for the purchase of a new carpet.

—George Hengler, who lives ten miles northeast of town on Shell creek, finished filling his new ice house last Saturday. He is fortunate in having a spring on his farm and has made a pond from which he gets his ice, which he says is of excellent quality this year and sixteen inches thick. He put up about twenty-five tons which will be enough to do him until next winter.

—The carpenters and lumber dealers say that the greater part of the building improvements this spring will be done in the country. A number of farmers are figuring on new homes; among them are Rudolf Korte living about ten miles north of town and Henry Hake about eight miles north. The former will put up a house costing in the neighborhood of $1,500 and the latter a residence valued at about $1,000.

—Charles Scoulon, of Minneapolis, who lectured Wednesday and Thursday evenings in the Methodist church on the subject of temperance, was one of the most brilliant speakers on that subject that has been before a Columbus audience. Each evening an orchestra under the leadership of Prof. Pool and a chorus of singers numbering twenty, led the music and the church was crowded to the doors by an interested audience.

—Word from Fremont states that three-fourths of the money needed for the financing of the power canal has been pledged and those interested claim that substantial progress is being made. The negotiations, it is understood, are being conducted on a somewhat different basis from those mapped out at the time the Fremont route was given preference. The financial stringency in the east, they claim, makes it difficult to interest capital.

—The M street case between the City of Columbus and the Union Pacific railroad company was to have been argued before the federal court last Thursday in Omaha, but on account of the sickness of Mr. Rich, attorney for the Union Pacific, Judge Manger continued it to Friday of this week when the U. P. attorneys promise to submit their briefs as well also the attorney for Columbus, and then something definite may be looked for by the Columbus people who have been watching for a settlement. City Attorney Cummings was in Omaha Thursday, as was also I. Clark and his attorney J. D. Dixon and J. J. Sullivan, all interested in this street case.
