THE MERGER DECISION.

ers have made the "merger decision" the text of some editorials that will make valuable contributions to Rocseve campaign literature. Their criticism that Roosevelt has been a failure as a "trust buster" and that he has been careful not to prosecute criminally the promoters of the Northern Securities company, will have little weight with those who have followed the history of trust legislation in the United States.

Thousands of democrats will vote for Rocevelt because he had the courage to bring an action under the Sherman law. the constitutionality of which a demo cratic president and attorney general denied and refused to test. These same democrate, knowing that the three democratic judges of the supreme court voted with the Morgan interests in the Northern Securities decision, will commend Roosevelt for bringing a civil action which won, instead of a criminal action which would have failed had one man on the jury belonged to the same school as the three distinguished democratic

The people whom the Hearst satellites strive to prejudice against Roosevelt by saying that his trust program has not benefited the public, will not fail to remember that the federal anti-trust law is a republican measure; and that in 1900 the democrate in congress defeated a resolution to amend the constitution of the United States so as to enlarge the power of congress in the matter of trust

It may be that the "merger decision will not benefit the public by reducing railroad rates. But would a criminal conviction by a jury have accomplished more in this direction for the public As a matter of fact most people doubt the efficiency of the Sherman law in the matter of rate control. The Sherman law as interpreted in the "merger decision" prevents a single company from holding the stocks of two competing railroad systems, so called, on the ground that such a holding of stocks prevents competition. But it can not force these same railroads into cut-throat compenature of things transportation monopo Attorney Frank D. Williams of Albion merce commission or by an enlargement

It must be conclusive therefore that even if the Sherman law, as enforced by and friends. Mr. Williams has always President Roosevelt, does not afford the proper relief to the public, the demoremedy. Norfolk seems to be peculiarly struck with noteworthy people just at present and to cap the climax which was begun by Bixby, Maupin and Paul Gilmore, Mayor Carter H. Harrison is westward bound for a hunting trip. Following in the footsteps of Grover the gunner, the official head of Chicago is going out into the western part of Nebruska where the oily-feathered birds grow in bunches to be shot at. The season opens on April 1 and that's one reason why Carter H.

the Boyd county settlers who are at legislature selling the lands to them at $7 an acre and another to reimburse them for trouble in perfecting title at $7 an acre. This would get around the constitutional provision against giving away the state school lands and virtually would give the lands to the settlers for
