Relatives of Mr. Kelley have made inquiries to ascertain the truth of the statement, which has not been confirmed. In a letter to Charles Avey of Beatrice from his brother, William Avey, meager details of the reported tragedy are given, which indicate that Kelley came to his death under rather peculiar circumstances after the killing of another man at Kelley's home.

The cadets of the State university will hold their annual encampment in York on May 24 to 28, in the beautiful York park. Mount Booker Washington.

Mrs. Hill, an artist of Tacoma, Wash., has been commissioned by one of the Western railroad trunk lines to execute for the Louisiana Purchase exposition several canvases ilustrative of the scenery of Washington state. One of the pictures represents a lofty mountain, which for some reason had never received a name. The artist suggested that the mountain be christened Mount Booker Washington. in honor of the principal of the Tuskegee institute. Her suggestion was confirmed by the United States geological survey, and the name, Mount Booker Washington, is now in use. The picture will be exhibited at St. Louis this summer.
