MRS. JOHN A. LOGAN.

Miss Clara Barton resigned from thanks for such honored trust. the presidency of the American Red "But once and for all, most honored Cross May 14, and was immediately officers and friends, I tender my resigsucceeded by Mrs. John A. Logan, nation as president of the American widow of the famous general of the National Red Cross, which resignscivil war. Prior to the retirement of tion, being absolute, calls for ac-Miss Barton, Mrs. Logan was vice ceptance. president of the society.

The resignation of Miss Barton sation, this resignation is made to marks the close of a long period of your honored board of trustees and exbickering over the post she held. In ecutive committee, and it is an unfact, it was finally conceded that the speakable joy to me that the toil-worn, only hope for the restoration of peace | weary mantle that drops from mine in the organization lay in the retire- falls upon the shoulders of my vice ment of Miss Barton, against whom president, the woman so cherished in charges have been pending for some our own country and honored and time. The controversy over her man- trusted in others. agement began soon after the close of "I would not have one day's delay the war with Spain, and had grown to for this little change by which all are such dimensions as to cause a serious benefited, and the organisation, I

In her letter of resignation, ad- in its long-disturbed elements, so weldressed to the board of trustees. Miss come to it, to us, and to the country." Barton says:

by the express desire of President said in part: Garfield, on the eve of martyrdom, I "We deeply regret the circumaccepted the presidency of the organi- stances and conditions which render zation over which you have the honor it expedient that you should take this to preside, and the duties of which step and retire from a position which Until that moment the American Red | torily filled." Cross had no existence. It stood before the country an anomaly. Its very dency, said in part: name was unknown. There are those | "I shall be governed by the wisdom in your present body whose young and counsel of the executive commitmanhood then received its first les- tee and endeavor to the utmost of my sons, little dreaming of the vicinsitudes that faith and faithfulness eration to each member of the society. would lead them through.

you of the years and the occasions in as far as it is possible to do so. The which your weary president has executive committee shall be advised sought to lay her burdens down. Year of every step taken for the promotion after year she has framed and offered of the welfare of the society and the her resignation. This has been reso- preservation or its assets and good lutely met by appointments for life. | name, and a full report will be made "I can find no fitting words by to the next meeting of the American which to express my appreciation of National Red Cross Society, to whom and gratitude for the courtesy thus the executive committee and myself extended to me. I am poor even in are responsible."

Replying to Miss Barton's letter, the "It is now twenty-three years since executive committee of the society trust, will find that peace and quiet

"By the laws governing our organiyou have the kindness to administer. you have so long ably and satisfac-Mrs. Logan, in accepting the presi ability to give most respectful consid-"Every interest of the American

"It is a waste of time to remind National Red Cross shall be protected

Two Compliments the Disting English Actor Valued.

Sir Henry Irving cherishes the memory of two compliments that were paid him, saying they gave him more pleasure than all the other pleasant whom he hated.

Had to Pay His Fare.

When George Roberts was president of the Pennsylvania railway he chided a conductor who went by him without looking at his pass. "No matter if you do know who I am," said Mr. Roberts in reply to the conductor's excuse. "I am entitled to a free ride only when I am traveling with that pass. You don't know whether I have it or not." The conductor, a little nettled, is a white marble tablet recording his methods. then demanded to see the pass. "That's right!" exclaimed the president. "Here—why—where—well, I de- poor and shallow is the cutting of this clare! I must have left it at my office." "Then you'll have to pay your fare," said the conductor firmly. And ting out the victories of Egyptian typographical error in an article about umes; he was one of the best in-Mr. Roberts did. His lecture cost him kings, are many hieroglyphics almost Verestchagin Fated to Die. A St. Petersburg journal relates that Gen. Kuropatkin had urged the having just sufficed to pay his debts. entered the classroom.

Proposed Appendixless Club. Hamlet A. Rye, a business man of dixless club. Mr. Rye has called a meeting of all who have lost their vermiforms and purposes a permarent organization "It will be something like a G. A. R.," Mr. Rye said. "We can talk our wounds and our battles within the prison walls of the hos-

Man of Many Attainments Prof. Bowden, who was 61 years old on May 3, has spent more than half his life as professor of English literature in the University of Dublin. He has been besides a most interesting critic, a poet on his own account. Shakespearean expert and the historian of French literature. Premoted for Her Proyect Miss Stella Sayder, a Missouri school teacher, was recently sued for $1,000 damages for whipping one of her pupils. She won the case and as alt of the publicity attending the trial she has secured an appointment year-old hirsute appendage began to in the state reform school for girls sprout when he was 16 years old.

PLEASED SIR HENRY IRVING. | POINT SHE HAD OVERLOOKED. Nearly Caught in Milliner's

Clever Trap. New York papers speak guardedly of the embarrassing position in which a fashionable woman found herself recently. She was invited to a swell things said to him. One evening he wedding, but did not think either of was hurrying out of the theater at the her spring hats was good enough for close of a performance when he heard | the occasion. So she visited her mila nice looking old lady say: "What a liner's and had an exceedingly costly shame that he is an actor and sold to affair sent home on trial. She wore it the devil. He would have made a fine at the wedding and next day drove to preacher." Another tribute paid to his | the milliner's and returned it, saying genius was that of a London newsboy | it did not suit. It happened that the who insisted on sending him the hatmaker, who quite understood the Times free for a week because he situation, had been similarly tried sevthought Sir Henry's Shylock was a eral times of late. "Did you wear this up the law for literature. Five years sisted that his remittance was $3 perfect imitation of a business rival hat at the Blank wedding yesterday?" later he became the editor of the short. Some correspondence ensued she asked, bluntly. Taken by sur- Wochenblatt, a paper famous at the and at length Mr. Sparks journeyed prise, the society woman owned up. time. Next he became editor of the to Washington by stage and through but asked: "How did you know?" "Oh. it was quite easy. I see several grains his life. After a few years, however, United States senator from Illinois. of rice in the folds of the lace."

Ancient and Modern Workmanship. Rider Haggard, who is writing letters from Egypt for the London Mail. notes that "on the face of one of the to journalism. His novels generally temples of Abon Simbel, just above display the seamy side of life, but he the solitary grave of a British officer. was a humorist as well as a realist in Gen. Grenfell's victory over the forces of the mahdi at Toski in 1889. So read. Within a few yards of it, set- a very uncomfortable situation by a the contents of a library of 66,000 vol- sixty years. as fresh, after 2,000 years, as the day pers. Among other things the inter- continental politics, especially the latthe sculptor left them.

President Eliot Talks to Studen President Charles W. Eliot of Harlate Verestchagin not to go to the vard university, for the first time in seat of war at the beginning, but to thirty-five years, delivered a lecture in wait till it was well under way. But a regular college course the other day. the painter was eager to witness the The course was one in philosophy, expected assault on Port Arthur, and President Eliot, acting in the absence thus met his death. He was hard up of Prof. Francis G. Peabody, the regulation of the names mentioned. There Robert Bruce Her Ancesto Dr. Rebecca Lee Dorsey, who Sioux City, Iowa, is organizing a so- claims lineal descent from Robert regularly at the college for trained of the city.

> Student of the Aberigines. The greatest living authority on the aborigines of Australia is W. Howitt. He has sailed from Melbourne for London to see through the press an elaborate work embodying the results of all his recent researches in aboriginal ethnology.

> Smokers in Glass Cage. There have been placed in service between Chicago and New York nome new coaches that are unique in that the smoking room is a glass-inclosed compartment in the center of the car.

Senator Never Shaved. Senator Stewart of Nevada bas

PATHETIC SCENE DURING GILLESPIE MURDER TRIAL AT RISING SUN. INDIANA

Details of the alleged family feud to which the prosecution in the Gillespie murder trial at Rising Sun, Ind., hoped to trace the death of Elisabeth Gillespie will be perhaps never

Mrs. Margaret Gillespie, the state's chief witness, who promised to tell everything she knew of the affair under oath, broke down on the witness stand after answering the third question of the defense, and was led weeping from the stand by her son, James, who is charged with the murder of his sister, whose life she was expected to swear away.

No testimony that would tend to unravel the deep mystery that surrounds the assassination of the young woman in her own home escaped the mother's lips, and unless her condition will permit she will probably be unable to again take the stand.

Fond of Music in Oklahoma. Walter Damrosch says that during his tour of the country none of his audiences was so enthusiastic as that which he found in Oklahoma City. The theater there is the most costly for its size he ever saw and when the lights are all turned on the place is as respiendent as a fairy palace. Mr. Damrosch was much astonished to find that many of the audience were in full dress and that their appreciation of good music was quite equal to their enthusiasm over the performance.

PRINCIPALS IN THE GILLESPIE TRAGEDY.

weeping as she testified against her son and two daughters. Below her the portrait of James Gillespie, accused of the murder of his sister, Elizabeth. The woman to the left is Mrs. Myron Barbour, jointly charged with her brother with the commission of the crime. The picture below shows in Buda-Pesth on May 5, was born at Louis a few days ago, was registrar Komorn, Hungary, April 19, 1825. In of public lands at Edwardsville III.

1844 he went to Pesth and was arti- in early days. When his final report cled to an advocate, but speedily gave was sent to Washington a clerk in-him printed widely in the western pa- formed men of his time on home and

PROVED HIS ACCOUNT CORRECT.

Time and Expense No Bar Where Principle Was Concerned.

who died suddenly at his home in St.

the $3 originally demanded.

lord in waiting to the queen.

American King of Island.

matter.

Morton and Roosevelt. Van Buren wife reign in kindly fashion over 100 went to the presidency by election im- natives, dusky people who are just as mediately afterward and Fillmore, loyal as if they knew several words

Arthur and Roosevelt attained that of English instead of not a word. The

William Andrew Jackson Sparks,

how Miss Gillespie was slain.

JOKAI A PROLIFIC AUTHOR.

Famous Hungarian's Writings Numbered by the Hundreds.

garian patriot and novelist, who died fiction and published hundreds of nov-elettes and scores of romances, besides writing several plays. Later in life Jokai again turned his attention

Embarrassing Typographical Error.

Elderly Statesmen Still Active.

Both will be delegates from West Vir-is also twenty years since he passed

New York Statesmer

Thus far New York has contributed only two presidents by election-Van Buren and Cleveland. New York has contributed nine vice presidents, however-Burr, Clinton, Tompkins, Van beyond it by fourteen years.

It is a standing bet among their "Filipino wife."

Albert Sounichsen, author of 'Deep

Maurus Jo Jokai, the famous Hun-

The upper sketch shows Mrs. Margaret Gillespie on the witness stand and not in our race."

Kansas Man Had Never Been Abroad

MADE THE HONORS EVEN.

But He Knew Omaha. Frank Everest of Atchison, Kan., i good deal of an American, having small admiration left for foreign lands or people. Not long ago he went to Europe on business. During the voyage he and other passengers were much annoyed by a Bostonian who talked a great deal about the number of times he had been abroad. He laid great stress on the fact that he went over twice a year. "Have you ever been abroad?" he asked Everest Everest admitted he was making his first trip. "I go over twice a year," said the Bostonian. "Oh, do you," re plied Everest, and he added, "Have you ever been in Omaha?" The Bos tonian said he hadn't. "Well," said Everest, "I go there twice a week."

ONCE WHITE HOUSE MISTRESS Daughter of President Tyler Rules Sixty Years Ago.

Mrs. Letitia Tyler Semple, second daughter of President Tyler, during whose administration she was mis Abendblatter and soon had to flee for the influence of Judge Breese, then tress of the White House, celebrated the eighty-fourth anniversary of her he settled in Pesth, betook himself to obtained a hearing before the land | birthday at the Louise home, where commissioner. His report was found for nearly a quarter of a century she to be exactly correct and but for his has lived. During her eventful life at intercession the clerk would have the capital half a century ago she was been dismissed. Mr. Sparks then re- the friend of the most famous statesturned to Illinois well satisfied, though | men and public men the country had he had spent a great deal more than produced and her mind, still active

George W. Jefferson is a colored viewer said he found Mr. Sonnichsen ter. German, French and Italian were justice of the peace in Camden, N. J "smoking fat cigars which his Filipino as serviceable to him as his native One morning last week John Johns wife had taught him to like." Mr. | language. Gladstone was his intimate sowestl. Andrew Ronstonviski, Paul Sonnichsen's friends believed him a friend from the middle '60's. Earl Rosantoti and John Szoplutikizi were bachelor and this was astonishing Granville was his stepfather, and Lord arraigned in his court charged with news. Mr. Sonnichsen's father wrote Acton was anxious to serve his coun- assaulting Anthony Urboezeski. The regretting that his son had not con- try. Yet, as brought out in Herbert first witness called was Mrs. Nicolina fided in him and the author of "Deep | Paul's recently published memoir, all | Gulifuskizi, and his honor listened to Sea Vagabonds" spends hours each the public employment that could be | testimony in which she made frequent history at Cambridge (1895-1900) was Justice Jefferson adjourned court a went home sick.

Fewer Veterans Each Year. 'Bilse to Write Another Novel. Gen. E. Burd Grubb of Burlington. Lieut, Bilse, who has finished serv constituents down in West Virginia N. J., once minister to Spain, where ing a six months' sentence in Berlir ciety which is to be called the Appen- Bruce, is practicing medicine in Los that two of the briskest boys at the his gorgeous uniform of a Philadel- for "libeling his superior and com Angeles, Cal. Besides attending to St. Louis convention will be ex-Sen- phia militia troop was the wonder of manding officers" in his novel called her patients she delivers lectures ator Camden and Henry G. Davis. the diplomatic circle, keeps in touch in English "A Little Garrison," is busy with his comrades of the civil war. preparing to fight three duels, which nurses and at the several hospitals ginia. Ex-Senator Camden is 76 years | Every year the survivors of the have been waiting for him, and, hav old and Mr. Davis is 82. It is twenty Twenty-third New Jersey regiment ing worked them off his hands, prom fered Moore his gold watch as a a Masonic apron, Mr. Valleau would years since Mr. Davis finished his celebrate the anniversary of the bat- ises to write another novel, telling token of gratitude, but Moore did not like to return to Col. McKee or to his twelve years' term of service in the tle of Salem Church, Va., at the gen- more secrets of German garrison and want any reward. He had merely United States senate and he has taken eral's home at Edgewater park. It army life. He has received about $5, hold of politics with a fresh grip. It was the forty-first reunion which was | 000 from the sale of his first novel. observed last week by "Grabb's the recently established official age Game Chickens," as this regiment was Has Undertaken Huge Task. limit of usefulness. Mr. Camden is familiarly known. It has now 120 sur-

One Herr Schweigerhousen is earn vivors and each year these gatherings ing a certain notoriety in Europe by a give him his name, so that he might secome more pathetic, as do all the vast wager of his own invention. He become more pathetic, as do all the vast wager of his own invention. He remember his benefactor. Moore saw is the signal for the men to file in he cured a long standing case of indigeshe is to come in contact with three kings, to kill a wild animal in seci country, to write 100 articles, take An American named Gay is practi-1,000 photographs and deliver 100 lec cally king of an island of 70,000 acres Buren, Fillmore, Wheeler, Arthur, in the Hawatian group. He and his

Has Earned a Rest. After conducting a bible class is Laura Hard has been compelled Under Orders.

I stumble up at the cry "To arms!"
I hurry to where The Commander lies
And Present—Arms! to still his cries, "Halt! Beware!
Who goes there?"
"Thy father's spirit, doomed, at sight,
For a certain time to walk the night."

shift!
Attention—father!" Steady and swift,
I hasten to heed his every whim
And Carry—Arms! and likewise him,
"Halt! Take care!
Who goes there?"
I send my song across the dark:
"Tis the nightnigale and not the lark. In fatigue dress, flowing loose and white I drill through the crawling hours of

I drill through the crawing hours on night.

I "Forward—march!" I "Charge!"

"Wheel!"

I "Double—quick!" but still I feel
The Commander, all unmollified, Conceives me still unqualified?

"Who goes there?

Stand and swear!"

"How sharper than a serpent's tooth
To have a sleepless child, forsooth!"

—Saturday Evening Post.

Wartime Incidents. "Things happened queerly in the army," said Sergeant Sam Grimshaw. When Carlin's division was driven back at Bentonville, N. C., our brigade (the Third of the Second division) was thrown out to check the rebel advance. The underbrush being heavy, we ran into the rebs unawares and got in the first volley to our advantage. We had fired six or eight volleys when the brigade commander ordered us to cease firing. This gave the rebs a chance to notice that both our wings were in the air and they proceeded to take advantage of the

"When the brigade fell back, I took to a tree, and Comrade Giles took another to my right. We felt pretty se- hazardous exploit, nor did they heat on and up the mighty chasm until cure, as we had seen rebels only in tate, when necessary, to plant the they beheld the superb fall, which is front, but I had fired only once and Union flag in the most conspicuous said to be not less than 3,000 feet high. cap when a Johnny who had gotter in spot on the field of battle. on my left flank took a shot at mie, tearing thirteen big holes in my folded or rolled blanket. This convinced me that he had my range and that I was outflanked, and I hiked for a more congenial clime. I came across Col. Clancey and we traveled together to office of commander-in-chief. He was where the regiment was in line along a trooper of the Fifteenth Pennsyl known that nature, because of the a fence. I had been with my com- vania cavalry, a lieutenant in the First height of its eyes from the ground, an old colored man who was having pany only a few minutes when I regreat success catching crabs. He had ceived a musket ball that put me out in eastern and western armies; was a tremendous box more than half full of the fight for the day.

biggest and best crabs were crawling Michigan and a rebel regiment both mauga, Wauhatchie, Chattanooga, the out and would escape. The old man regot lost from their brigades and had Shenandoah Valley campaign of 1864, plied: "Thankee, sir, much obleeged, but I ain't goin' to lose no crabs. I'se which the Fourteenth whipped the Court House to Appomattox, and was a crabologist, I is, and I knows all rebs and captured their flag. One of promoted captain by Custer on the bout de crab nature. I don't need to the boys of company G was sent back field of Five Forks for conspicuous watch 'em, 'tall. When de big crab after a box of ammunition, and, the gallantry, which was subsequently fur fight up to top, and when he's gettin' lines changing, he walked, on his re- ther recognized by the medal of honor. out, de little crabs catch him by de turn, into the rebel lines. The rebels A few years after the war he was an laig and pull him back. He can't git thought it was a great joke, relieved pointed judge advocate general on the out nohow." And then Booker Wash- him of his ammunition and gun, and staff of the governor of Massachuington says: "My friends, I have been started him to their rear without a setts, in which position he served ten informed that there is something of guard. He made a flank movement, years, under four administrations. He crab nature in human nature, but it got around their line and came back has been a working member of the must be altogether among white folk to the company in three hours.

"That is one illustration of the re sourcefulness of the American soldier. Here is another. When our regiment the Fifty-second Ohio, made the march to Knoxville after the battle of Missionary Ridge, we camped for one night near Cleveland. Our quarters were in the timber, and for tenting purposes McLaughlin, Hastings, Roe and myself had joined forces, so that supper, smoked our pipes, and retired great contentment. "We were just going off to dream of was cooking a twenty-pound turkey which McLaughlin had confiscated. when I was awakened by a cry of fire like others, built a fire in front of our tent. The leaves between our tent were asleep. McLaughlin was a good tion. He quickly and firmly replied: soldier, but inclined to be a little slow. to action so promptly that we saved our tent and bedding, and we had our ment, with his sword above him, the feast of turkey the next morning."-Chicago Inter Ocean.

$10,000 for a Drink of Water. There was no harder fighting, when the men had once gathered the idea that discipline was of importance and that the first duty of a soldier was not to save his own life, than in the American civil war, 1861-1864, says an English military journal, the V. C. In and vigorous, recalls the stirring inci one of the many desperate fights the dents and events of the Whig and Federals had charged up to the Con-Democratic struggles in which her federate works, only to be repulsed England is not in every case the father's administration was conduct in confusion, leaving the ground covbest market for talent and ability. ed. As mistress of the White House ered with their dead and wounded marble that already it is difficult to Sea Vagabonds," was recently put in The late Lord Acton was master of she antedated Mrs. Roosevelt some Among the latter was an officer very badly hit Everyone knows, or least knows of, the terrible thirst caused by physical injury. The one appeal that rises from the battlefield is for water. The officer's moans reached the ears of one Moore, of Burke county, South Carolina, who was lying in comparative safety behind an embankment. He was in safety, the officer was an enemy, but he was suffering and wanted water, and water he should have. So said Moore. His comrades thought otherwise. They were very happy on their side of the embankment. To go to the other was for money, too, the sum which he had lar lecturer. The president was loudly married and that the author of the years in the regius chair of modern were half a dozen more witnesses, but to walk into a hall of lead and other ket street. Philadelphia, Pa., writes long ago. She says: missiles, in fact to court almost certain disablement, if not death. They pointed out to Moore that the idea was foolhardy, and the risk quite unnecessary, especially on account of an

Moore did not talk much. He just picked up a canteen, jumped over the breastworks, walked to where his wounded foe was lying, and gave him a drink. The grateful Federal ofdone what he considered right, and now that the Federal was easier, there was no object in staying to get shot, so he prepared to move back. The officer called to him at least to remember his benefactor. Moore saw dinner. At the tinkle of the bell that for me besides having completely walked back to his post.

Subsequently Moore himself was hit others, for the wound had been a se- slightest commotion or confusion. vere one and necessitated the amoutation of his leg. There he lived in Chester, Pa., for forty-two years. Mis. anything but affluence, until one day from the Federal officer to whom he by the court en banc.

given the water, announcing that he had settled on Moore the sum of $10,000, to be paid in four annual in pills, which have restored thousands stalments of $2,500 each. Now, $10, of suffering women to health and 000 is a high price to pay for a drink, but not very much to pay for one's

Up to three years ago 2,525 medals f honor had been issued, of which 489 went to the regular army, 236 to vania, 127 to Ohio, and 90 to Illinois. Maine had a record of 888, but this included the notorious 864 of the Twenty-seventh Maine infantry.

Distributed by grades the medals issued were as follows to volunteers: Major generals, 3; brigadier generals 9: colonels, 38: lieutenant colonels 18; majors, 30; surgeons, 4; assistant surgeons, 7; captains, 94; lieutenants 139; chaplains, 4; sergeant major, 17; sergeants, 274; corporals, 156; and privates, 382.

In the regular army 179 privates, 65 corporals, 136 sergeants, 1 hospital Get Red Cross Ball Blue, the best Ball Blue, steward, 3 sergeant majors, 53 lieutenants, 15 captains, 2 assistant surgeons, 1 surgeon, and 2 majors received medals.

daring and gallant conduct.

ors. Men were never wanting for this With much difficulty the party pushed

For Commander-in-Chief. Comrade Wilmon W. Blackmar is presented by unanimous vote of the Encampment of the Department of engaged in twenty-two actions, among "In the same fight the Fourteeth them Antietam, Stone River, Chicka-Grand Army of the Republic for thirtysix years, Post Commander, Judge Advocate four terms, Department Commander, and has twice served on the National Council of Administration. He is a lawyer of high rank.—New York Press.

Presentiment Was Correct. In his autobiography Gen. John R. Gordon tells several stories of prewe might splice pup tents to the best sentiments which came to Confeder advantage. There being plenty of ate soldiers before battles. He says: leaves, we made a fine bed, ate our "My young brother, Augustus Gordon. captain and later lieutenant-colonel. to what the boys called our 'downy' in furnished another illustration of this remarkable foresight of approaching death. Brave and lovable, a modest what a fine feast we would have the though brilliant soldier, he was rapidnext morning, as Sergeant Withrow ly winning his way to distinction. A youth, scarcely 21 years of age, he was in command of the Sixth regi- an actor named Maurice Pike was ment of Alabama. Before going into and other cries which suggested that the fight in the Wilderness he quietly was an interested party. We had, said: 'My hour has come.' I joked and chided him. I told him that he must not permit such impressions to and the fire were in flames, and we affect or take hold upon his imagina-You need not doubt me. I will be at On this occasion, however, he went in- my post. But this is our last meeting.' Riding at the head of his regicheer for his men on his lips, the > manly heart." For New Soldiers' Home. A strong effort is being made by the comrades and other citizens of Washington, to have the government acquire an old park out toward Bladensburg as a site for a home for ex-volunteer soldiers of the civil war. There is a sort of temporary home now in Washington, where stranded veterans can be cared for a few days at a time, but it is altogether inadequate for the purpose, and besides it is necessary to have a home where the veterans can stay while in the city trying to get their pensions through. Hundreds of such veterans go to Washington each year filled with hope, but having very little money with them. in a few weeks hope and money are both gone, and they have to be cared for by the local Grand Army posts. which is a very severe drain on the resources of a small department.

fatal grape-shot plunged through his

Seeks Owner of War Relics.

J. M. Valleau of "R" 931 New Mar- interesting incident that occurred not mission of William Augustus McKee as adjutant of the Thirteenth regi- all cereal foods in my family, young ment, N. G., S. N. Y., dated January 15, 1862, signed by Horatio Seymour, Governor of New York, and John T. at breakfast my little boy said: Sprague, adjutant general; also the "'Mamma, does the King eat Grane commission of said McKee, as lieutenant colonel of the same regiment, dated August 1, 1863. These commissions, with some tintypes, letters and family or heirs.

Effect of Military Discipline. A Brockton man visited the Soldiers' home in Togus, Me., recently and was just in season to see the in the little book in each package it veterans file into the dining room to is proving to be a great nerve food flashed his watch. Within three min- tion." Name given by Postum Co. utes every man was seated at the Battle Creek, Mich. in an engagement in Virginia and re- table, and at the lowest possible estiturned to his home, practically a mate the number could not have been cripple, relying much on the help of less than 1,200. Nor was there the Record to Be Proud Of. Judge Peters, who died in Maine the he received a very unexpected and other day at 82, had written 598 opinoffice througa the death of the elected Gay industry is sheep-raising, and it give up the work on account of ill gratifying communication. It was ions and only one was ever rejected

Mrs. William Wallace, of 18 Capitol tife. Only, payments of that description are generally made in advance the early stages of Bright's Disease, and were it not for Doan's Kidney Pills, I would not be living to-day. Pain in the back was so intense that at night I had to get out of bed until the paroxysm of pain passed away. 1 was languid and tired and hadn't the New York volunteers, 152 to Pennsyl strength to lift a kettle of water. I > Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me, and two boxes absolutely cured me." A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Wallace will be mailed to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box.

could not work, but a few doses of Vocace rue down

cting the kidneys. Kidney backsche out and you are

Can't be well until the kidneys are well.

Use Doan's Kidney

Pinanciering is often another name for "Find the robber."

The Highest Waterfall.

For a long time the highest known The courage displayed by some of waterfall in the world was Cerosola the men rewarded with the medal of cascade, in the Alps, having a drop honor seems almost incredible. The of 2,400 feet. But a waterfall in the roll is filled with recitals of deeds of San Cuayatan canyon, in the state of Durango, Mexico, now claims first Officers risked their lives to save place. It was discovered by some wounded enlisted men and private prospectors ten years ago in the great soldiers faced almost certain death to barranca district which is called the save their officers. There are many Tierras Desconocidas. While searchinstances in which medals were ing for the famous lost mine. Narangranted for capturing the enemy's col jal, a great roar of water was heard.

The Original "Rubberneck." Giraffes are the most difficult of all animals to take by surprise. No matter from what direction you may approach, the giraffe is sure to decover Massachusetts as a candidate for the you. It has been called the original "rubberneck." It is not generally > Never trust one who wears a con tinual "I've-eaten-the-capary" smile.

A Farmer Found It. Mount Pleasant, Utah, May 23.-To find a medicine that will cure every ailment due to diseased or disordered Kidneys has been the aim of many physicians and chemists.

Mr. C. E. Peterson, a farmer of this place says he has found such a remedy and that he has tried it with success in his own case. Mr. Peterson says the remedy is Dodd's Kidney Pills, a medicine introduced here about seven months ago.

"I am glad to be allowed to testify to what good things Dodd's Kidney Pills have done for me. I used this remedy for Kidney trouble and it cured me completely.

"I can heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all who suffer with any kind of Kidney trouble."

Mr. Peterson's case is only one of many just as convincing that have been reported recently. This new remedy seems to have conquered Rheumatism completely, not a single case having been reported where Dodd's Kidney Pills have failed to cure perfectly and permanently.

Played with Booth; Now Starving. There was a rather fine bit of sentiment developed the other day when dragged before a New York magistrate charged with vagrancy. The poor old fellow is 65 years of age, and he told the judge that he had often appeared in the support of Edwin Booth. It happened that the judge, who is himself an old man, remembered the actor, and he asked him if he did not play Cassio to Booth's Othello in the year 1872. Poor old Maurice Pike satisfied the court that he was the guilty fire of battle in his eye and words of party, and the magistrate refused to pass a sentence. In fact, he told the old actor that he would see that he was provided for until the time when he could communicate with the Actors' Fund Society.

> Valuable Clay Deposit Found. On the Peabody estate in North Tarrytown, N. 1., a clay deposit has been found worth, it is declared, millions of dollars. The land was in the market for two years at $40,000, with no purchaser. '1.e discovery was made by a civil engineer who was surveying the land. Borings have been made to a depth of seventy-five feet and the bottom of the deposit has not been reach-

Extravagant speeches are often very conomical with the truth.

Only a fool's tomorrow ruins today. WHAT THE KING EATS.

What's Fit for Him. A Mass. lady who has been through the mill with the trials of the usual housekeeper and mother relates an "I can with all truthfulness say that Grape-Nuts is the most beneficial of as well as old. It is food and medicine both to us. A few mornings ago Nuts every morning?"

"I smiled and told him I did not know, but that I thought Grape-Nuts certainly made a delicious dish, fit for a King." (It's a fact that the King of England and the German Emperor both eat Grape-Nuts.)

"I find that by the constant use of Grape-Nuts not only as a morning coreal but also in puddings, salada, etc. made after the delicious recipes found

There is no doubt Grape-Nuts in the most scientific food in the world. Ten days' trial of this proper food in place of improper food will show in steady, stronger nerves, sharper brain and the power to "go" longer and further and accomplish more. There's

Look in each pkg. for the falittle book, "The Road to Wellville."