A Maneuver for Attacking in the Rear the Japanese New Besieging Port De Arthur-London Receives Reports with Skepticism.

LONDON-Telegrams from differ ent points seem to confirm the rumors that General Kuropatkin is attempting a diversion in the direction of Port Arthur. Russian reinforce sents, according to a dispatch from Tien Tsin, are moving southward from Kaipling toward Wafangtien under General Stalkenberg. They comprise a battery of artillery, four Siberian regiments and a company of Cossacks, aggregating 12,000 men. An-
