Doubles Its Population.
Few persons have any idea of the extraordinary manner in which the population of Europe has increased during the last century. According to statistics this population has more than doubled itself from 1850 to 1900. To this increase the Latin nations of the west and southwest contributed the least, and the greatest growth was in the east, where the people have not yet become thoroughly acclimated with the ideas of modern civilization.

Mountain Sickness.
D. W. Freshfield, who ascended Mt. Kinabalu with a party of friends, states that the mountain sickness suffered from mountain sickness were most affected between 15,000 and 16,000 feet, and that there was no increase of symptoms up to 20,000 feet.

Her Whipping Position.
A young woman applicant for a school in a Kansas town was asked to answer the question: "What is your position upon whipping children?" And her reply was: "My usual position is on a chair, with the child bent firmly across my knee, face downward." She got the school.

SAVED CHILD'S LIFE.
Remarkable Cure of Dropsy by Dodd's Kidney Pills.
Sedgewick, Ark., July 11.—The case of W. S. Taylor's little son is looked upon by those interested in medical matters as one of the most wonderful on record. In this connection his father makes the following statement: "Last September my little boy had dropsy; his feet and limbs were swollen to such an extent that he could not walk nor put his shoes on. The treatment that the doctors were giving him seemed to do him no good and two or three people said his days were short, even the doctors, two of the best in the country told me he would not get better. I stopped their medicine and at once sent for Dodd's Kidney Pills. I gave him three Pills a day, one morning, noon and night for eight days. On the eighth day the swelling was all gone, but to give the medicine justice, I gave him eleven more Pills. I used thirty-five Pills in all and he was cured. I consider your medicine saved my child's life. When the thirty-five Pills were given him, he could run, dance and sing, whereas before he was an invalid in his mother's arms from morning until night."

Send Millions to Greece.

WRONG TRACK.
Had To Switch.
Even the most careful person is apt to get on the wrong track regarding food sometimes and has to switch over.

When the right food is selected the host of ailments that come from improper food and drink disappear, even where the trouble has been of lifelong standing.

"From a child I was never strong and had a rickety appetite. I was allowed to eat whatever I fancied—rich cake, highly seasoned food, hot biscuits, etc.—so it was not surprising that my disposition was soon out of order and at the age of twenty-three I was on the verge of nervous prostration. I had no appetite and as I had been losing strength (because I didn't get nourishment in my daily food to repair the wear and tear on body and brain) I had no reserve force to fall back on, but I was determined to make it help me.

"Then it was a wise physician ordered Grape-Nuts and cream, and saw to it that I gave this food (new to me) a proper trial and it showed he knew what he was about, because I was not better by bounds from the very first. That was in the summer and by winter I was in better health than ever before in my life, had gained in flesh and weight and felt like a new person altogether. In mind as well as body, all due to nourishing and completely digestible food, Grape-Nuts.

"This happened three years ago and never since then have I had any but perfect health. For I stick to Grape-Nuts and cream and still think it delicious. I eat it every day. I never tire of this food and I can enjoy a saucer of Grape-Nuts and cream when nothing else satisfies my appetite. It's surprising how completely strong a small saucerful will make one feel for hours." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

"True food that carries one along and there's a reason." Grape-Nuts 10 days' progress. See "The Road to Health" in each pkg.

MIRRORS OUT OF ELEVATORS.
Women Delayed the Progress of a Philadelphia City Hall Car.
The mirrors in the big elevator in the southeast corner of city hall, that filled the entire side of the car, have been ordered removed. Ever since the elevator was installed there, years ago, that car has been used more than any other in the building. The car serves to carry most of the witnesses to the criminal and magistrates' courts on the sixth floor. As the passengers are a large number of women. When the other four elevators in that corner were empty and waiting for passengers, groups of women would stand for five minutes for the big mirror car to arrive. The operator would protest in vain. The car could creep and groan under its heavy load, but the women never forsook it. When they arrived at their desired floor, the operator would call out "Sixth" or "All the way down," but the women would be busily engaged gazing into the glass fixing their frizzes or their bonnets. Sometimes it took three and four minutes to empty the car if there were women on board. Complaints were made of the delay, so the mirrors were ordered out.—Philadelphia special in New York Sun.

KNOW HOW TO TREAT HIM.
Minister Learned Something From Senator Nelson's Object Lesson.
An old friend from Minnesota came down to Washington the other day to visit Senator Nelson. In the room of the committee on commerce they had a good long chat of old times, during which Mr. Nelson told about an experience he once had on the hustings.

"There was a man in my audience," said he, "who insisted on asking questions. I told him to wait. I would answer his question after a little. But he had no more than started again with my speech that he interrupted again. This performance was repeated two or three times. Then I left the stage, walked down to his seat, grabbed him by the throat, and choked him till he signaled that he had had enough.

"Sitting on the platform where I spoke was a minister of the gospel. That fellow," said this minister, as I returned to deliver my speech without further annoyance, "is the same scamp who has frequently interrupted me in my pulpit. I am glad you have 'last September my little boy had dropsy; his feet and limbs were swollen to such an extent that he could not walk nor put his shoes on. The treatment that the doctors were giving him seemed to do him no good and two or three people said his days were short, even the doctors, two of the best in the country told me he would not get better. Springtime.
You can not hear the waters for the wind. The brook that foams and falls, and bubbles in its voice, and ancient sleepies sigh. And bellies moan and crays ghosts complain. In dark courts weep, and shake the shuddering grass. And cry from points of windy pines. How! thro' the bars, and plain among the fates. And shriek and wail like voices of the Fates.

And who is he that drives the mountain side. Swift as a shadow flying from the sun. We have no time for either, or regret, or the constant renewal of an ecstasy of the past. Love is for the springtime of life; in maturity it pales, in the most fortunate cases, into a beautiful friendship, into loyalty rewarded by friendship, which is a more enduring prize than the ill-defined state vaguely described as happiness. Broken hearts are healed by more urgent calls upon the energies, by vaster interests; the inexorable, prosaic daily round, ever widening, is a blessing.

The Wild Ride.
I hear in my heart, I hear in its ominous All day the commotion of stony, mangled horses. All night, from their cells, the important tramping and neighing. Let towards and laggards fall back; but straight, grim and abrupt, vault our weather-worn palloping legion. We were generally dressed of leaving only a tiny white mark.

EXTEND HONOR ROLL.
SUGGESTION FOR MORE GENERAL MEMORIAL DAY.
The writer in Eastern Journal Urges Remembrance of the Heroes of Civil War as Well as Those of the Battle Field.

Every year, as Memorial day passes and the flowers are scattered and the little flags flutter on the soldiers' graves and the speeches are made setting forth their claims to honor and he music wafts fondly of our grief for them, the question recurs, "Were those fighting men our only heroes? Does the country hold only its soldiers worthy of remembrance?"

The soldier is the only servant of his country who, while living, is positioned by her. If he carried a gun a certain number of months in her service, though he never saw the face of battle lower, he is sure when he reaches a certain age of a comfortable support from her bounty. The civil servants of the state, no matter how long or hard their service, neither receive nor ask a pension, nor any recognition in money.

But surely when they are dead we might spare them a flower and a bit of cotton button.

Engineers who died to save the passengers they never saw, firemen who perished in the flames, scholars, inventors, statesmen, who to uplift their fellow-men gave their lives of labor, of self-sacrifice—the men, in short, who made our nation what it is today—sleep neglected under the weedy grass.

The French have a better system than ours.

On one day in the year all France honors the dead. To the gravesites all eyes and all hearts turn. The soldier has his chapel and flag, but so has the dead scholar, the poet, the hero of each village, the beloved one in each house. Not only the great general is honored, but the poor old mother who worked for her children until she dropped by the way. They do not forget to lay the wreath upon her grave.

If the dead can look back and know—and what is the use of our flags and flowers and regimens if they do not know?—are they all except the fighting men to count themselves forgotten?

We are not all fighting men. God forbid that we should be. Let us think of them when another year comes around, but with a new meaning into Decoration day, and let each town and village and family go out to pay love and honor to all the dead who lived nobly here among us.—New York World.

A GOLD-LINED DEATH VALLEY.
Philippine Waste, Guarded by Death-Dealing Gases.
There is a Death valley in the Philippines as well as in the United States. It is situated in the island of Mindanao and although for many years it has been known to contain large quantities of gold the treasure has never been mined because of the refusal of the natives to go after it. At last this famed and feared valley has been compelled to give up the rich treasure which for ages it has successfully guarded by its pall of death-dealing gases. This valley, which true to its name, has dealt death to many a venturesome searcher for the precious metal, is located in the mountain fastnesses of the island and according to the theories of the scientists it is the crater of what was once a great and violent volcano. Volcanic gases of a most poisonous nature still rise from the depths of the valley and hang over it like a pall, never passing away, and many natives who have attempted to go down into the valley from the mountains say that never before has any man ventured into its unknown depths returned to tell of its secrets. The distance across the valley is only a few miles, but the bottom of it is constantly concealed from view by the dense cloud of poisonous vapor overhanging it.

EARLY LESSON IN THRIFT.
Brooklyn Men Even Take Their Babies to Bank.
The other day a man entered a Brooklyn bank and in one hand a deposit book and closely clasped in his other arm was a baby that was perhaps ten or twelve months old. The age may not be exact, but at any rate the young one was old enough to sit up and look round, as if it was conscious of the fact that it was in a "Made in Germany," etc. As many of these goods are of excellent quality and an effort is accordingly being made to have it changed so that goods from the continent shall have merely a label marking them as "Imported."

One of the most interesting exhibits among the many of all kinds at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition in St. Louis is that of the Winchester Repeating Arms Company, of New Haven, Conn., manufacturers of repeating rifles since 1857, and all kinds of small arms. It is the largest exhibit of repeating arms in the world, and the Winchester Repeating Arms Company to show at their exhibit the high development which they have reached in the line of guns and ammunition, and one needs only to see the exhibit to realize how near to perfection that development has come. There can be seen the new automatic repeating rifle, all kinds of shotguns, the modern automatic powder shotgun shells and rifle cartridges. In fact everything that can interest the devotees of hunting and trap and target shooting. It is well worth your while.
