Home-made Bread

makes American men the tallest and strongest in the world—and no wonder. The most and best of it is baked by their wives and mothers, and raised with the celebrated Yeast Foam. Such bread is light, sweet, nourishing and productive of men of size and strength.

YEAST FOAM

is a compound of the finest malt, hops and corn, made in the cleanest and best-equipped factory in the country. It's always fresh and ready for use. Try it for griddle cakes, buck-wheat cakes, or anything where yeast is used.

The secret is in the yeast. Put up in a neat package containing seven cakes—enough to make 20 loaves of bread—for 5c. Sold by all grocers. Send for book, "How to Make Bread," free.

CORRESPONDENCE

Richland and Vicinity.
Richland, Neb.—(Correspondence.)—Knox and Young started up their thrashing outfit last Friday and have steady work ahead for ten weeks. God bless the good women of Columbus who are doing so much for that city and for the comfort of those who are visiting or trading there. The beautiful fountain which is to adorn Frankfort park will be a joy forever. And now let us all turn our attention to securing that much needed "rest room." Here's to the women's club of Columbus.

James Higgins and Bert Stevenson registered at Bonestell, S. D. last week. While there they met Will Brooker of Columbus and W. B. Brooker, a former teacher of your humble scribbler. Mr. Brooker is making money fast.

The recent rains are making the large fields of corn boom. Most fields are in tassell and consequently draw moisture heavily from mother earth. Mrs. Adolph Kink suffered severely for several hours last week from the entrance of an insect into one of her ears. Dr. Woods of Schuyler relieved her.

Chas Stevenson had hops on the Columbus market Thursday. Thought hops weren't in it—on a strike.

C. K. Burholder of Oelwein has been engaged to wed a girl at the Richland for another year. Mr. Burholder has been ordained a minister of the gospel and his influence will be greatly appreciated out of the school room as well as in it. We welcome this good man to our midst again.

Miss Evelyn Drinnin and Mamie Sheedy of District 44, Platte county, called to see Mrs. Platte Young Sunday afternoon.

Richland is the place you like. Nobody here is on a strike; husbands are busy and wives are too.

Young men counsel, court and woo; An occasional wedding and the like, But nobody here is on a strike.

James Higgins reports a bouncing baby last Thursday and everything lively.

Spring chicks on the skillet and all the news in the Journal.

Corn high as your head; small grain all out and very well filled.

Mr. Davis, the hog buyer of Columbus, visited in these parts last Monday, accompanied by his wife.

Our ball boys met defeat on Shell Creek Sunday where they played a hot game with the Shell Crokers.

There was no service at the M. E. church here last Sunday. Rev. Hutchins will soon leave this charge and make preparations to attend school at Mt. Vernon, Ia.

Sam Drinnin of Columbus visited his sister here Sunday.

Robert and Kim Orsop entertained as their guest Sunday G. W. Drinnin of Platte county.

Star Route.

Columbus, Neb., R. F. D. No. 3.—(Correspondence.)—Miss Louise Brank returned here Saturday after a week's visit with her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brank of Columbus.

Prof. E. H. Karmas has decided not to return and teach the Lutheran school, as last winter. He expects to remain in Chicago.

Mr. J. W. Hinson and Mrs. Ella Lower of North Wales, Pa., who have been visiting the family of E. R. Biston for the past couple of weeks, started home Monday morning, returning by way of the World's Fair.

Max Gottberg started his steam thrasher Saturday, commencing on his own grain first.

The rain of Sunday night put a damper on harvesting, stacking, thrashing and haying. Considerable alfalfa was caught down. A large part of the barley and winter grain was stacked before the soaking. Everything is out now but the later cuts. Some of it is green and is being cut green. Corn is making splendid headway and the farmer as a rule is feeling quite prosperous.

The Standard Bridge Co., who repairs the bridges of Platte county has finally come in sight.

A few days ago while on our trip we met our estimable friend Mr. Brun who is the mayor and main stay of Oldenbush. He was on his way to the Columbus market with a load of mutton and poultry. He is as full of politics as ever, and feels the defeat of his model at St. Louis, keenly. He can not make up his mind as to the outcome. If he votes the democrat ticket he does not know whether he is a democrat or not. He should realize the outcome as Mr. Brun said when asked as to whether Mr. Parker would be elected. "Will Mr. Parker be elected? Will he? He will when the brindle cow spreads her tail and sneers into the empyrean blue like an eagle. When the house cat cats like like a horse and the grub worm chases the rattlesnake." Mr. Brun is according to all reports of him a typical and estimable American gentleman. He has given excellent satisfaction as a gift orator and it was surely hard on Sweet William to have the "crown of thorns" pressed down so hard on his brow at St. Louis.

Harm Humanna, a Russian Baptist missionary, who has been following this work for 10 years along the Vulture river in Russia is here on a vacation and a visit to his brother who lives near Leigh. Mr. Humanna occupies the pulpit of the baptist church in Platte County Sunday morning and at the Shell Creek Baptist church in the evening. There was a large attendance at both places, and the Shell Creek church a collection of $30 was raised without previous announcement and given to Mr. Humanna to send him in his missionary work. We read and hear so much about these men's having trouble in holding their meetings being arrested and the meetings being broken up and complaints made by them saying that they are at times being presented in the work. Mr. Humanna says that the laws of that country are very strict in regard to holding meetings. It being necessary first to procure a permit from the chief of police and that the law is strict in regard to the number that may be admitted to a room of a certain size owing to the unhealthfulness of so many being crowded together in a small room. The breaking of these rules are laws laid down by the government is what has caused so much trouble. Mr. Humanna says that he has always complied with these laws and in the nineteen years of his work there he has never once been molested. He will remain here about two months.

Monroe.

Monroe, Neb.—(Correspondence.)—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Webster and children returned home Friday evening from Mrs. Webster's former home in Bonestell, Neb. They were accompanied by Miss Cole, Mrs. Webster's sister, who will visit here for some time.

Mrs. F. J. Russell and son of Arcadia, who have been visiting friends and relatives here for several weeks, left Monday noon for Schuyler to visit with Mrs. Adam Cankle.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Duck and daughter of Galva, Ill., are visiting relatives here. Mr. Duck is a brother of John Duck.

Robert Wiley is in Monroe again and will spend the summer here attending to property interests and visiting.

Miss Fancett is visiting at the Angell home.

Miss Melvina Lawrence, who was severely shocked by a bolt of lightning which came in over the Columbus line, on the evening of our severe electrical storm, is improving but is still unable to attend to her dress-making and millinery business. She is being assisted by Miss May Gleason.

Bonestell seems to be the Mecca of Monroites. Those who registered there last week were in part: John and William Truelove, E. J. Williams, E. E. Watts, W. W. Frank, H. A. Mansfield, John Reed, John W. Davis, West Adamson, and others. It would be easier to tell who has not registered. We imagine when the drawing is over Monroe will be almost deserted.

Monroe vs Clark (or Silver Creek) ball game was a decided victory for the home team. It was "pulled off" on our grounds Friday, resulting in the score: Monroe 14; Clark 4.

The Old Maid's Convention at the hall Saturday evening was very creditable affair for a home talent production. A neat game was realized by the Ladies' Guild, as the proceeds.

Everett McWilliams transacted business in Columbus on Saturday and Monday.

Mrs. E. O. Morrow, Miss Lawrence's mother from Platte County, who has been in Monroe to wait on Miss Lawrence, returned home Saturday.

C. A. Gerrard and wife of Lindsay spent Sunday in Monroe.

A number of Columbus boys are spending their vacation here on the Shell Creek.

A number from Monroe attended the Platte Center-Hampshire ball game at Hampshire Sunday.

Creston.

Creston, Neb.—(Correspondence.)—Theodore Plegeman and family returned Thursday evening from Columbus where they had been to attend the funeral of Mr. Plegeman's mother who died Saturday, July 10th.

We estimate that 68 have been to Bonestell to register from this community.

Moira Herman Ledotte, Clyde Kilo, and Misses Minnie Weak and Katie Lechtenger drove to Howells Sunday to witness the ball game between Howells and Creston.

This section was visited by a heavy storm Tuesday night. The lightning was very vivid.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bangers the fore part of the week.

Nearly every business man in town has left his autograph at Bonestell.

We shall at least know where each one stands in the drawing for Bonestell land; there is some satisfaction in that.

Perry Brown returned from Dakota yesterday, where he has been for the past two months, camping and looking at the land; we hear he has taken a homestead.

It is remarkably cool weather for this time of the year.

Mr. E. T. Graham returned from Omaha Friday night, where he had been with several cars of cattle.

The result of the ball game on Sunday at Howells was 6 to 4 in favor of the home team.

Katie Lechtenger is expecting her sister Anna Wednesday from Columbus on a visit. Miss Lechtenger, Miss Rastain, Clyde Kilo and Ralph Steiner drove to Medicine Friday night to attend the dance.

Mr. Jones was summoned Monday morning at 2 o'clock to Joe Hammett's, five miles north of town, his little three year old cow being very sick.

Will Puryear returned from Oklahoma Saturday night. He says all his folks are well. He thinks he will stay in Nebraska now.

Hamprey.

Hamprey, Neb.—(Correspondence.)—Hamprey is quiet these days, few farmers in town.

Bonestell patrons here are waiting to see their numbers.

The ball game on the 24th between Hampshire and Platte-Center aces was well attended and a good game as it closed, the score standing 5 to 0 in favor of Hampshire.

Those who were not able or inclined to visit Bonestell had a chance to see some of the attractions in this town last Friday evening. It was a case of two plunking ones, then one plunking three. Fifteen dollars was added to the village treasury and everybody said it was fair.

Another combination was accomplished last week. The McKillip Combine took in the Oklahoma Real Estate office operated by C. H. Swallow. While it swallowed Swallow, it left a vacant building and some employees out of employment.

Tarvon was well represented here Monday, attending the law suit between A. Vols and Charles Burnash, an action for trespass and damages. The judge reserved his decision till Thursday.

The latest from Lindsay is a complaint that a petty larceny has been committed by the stealing of milk from the udder of a red cow belonging to a citizen of that village.

Mrs. F. M. Cookingham was a visitor at Newman Grove last Sunday.

Frank South of Newman Grove is visiting his uncle this week.

Editor Johannes of the Biene was here on business Saturday.

Fred Kohl, wife and daughter who have been visiting Mr. Kohl's brother-in-law, Ned Peterson here, left Tuesday for Danforth, Illinois on a visit to their old home. Mr. Kohl has large land interests here and is now living in California.

W. A. McAllister of Columbus was doing business in town Tuesday.

The Hampshire and Creston ball teams will cross bats at Hampshire on the 21st.

Supervisor Peter Bander was in town Saturday looking over his constituency and explaining the whys and wherefores of the workings of the Board at its next session and other things.

It is reported to your reporter that a farmer arrived in town last Friday and purchased three large water tanks. The farmer says it is not true; he took home only one.

Leop and Platte Valley.

Leop Platte Valley, July 23.—(Correspondence.)—Again the weather has taken a crazy spell. It seems like it is going to make up for lost time and is raining nearly every day. People would like to thrash their wheat but if it keeps up they will have a hard time to get the sheens dry.

Mr. Seth Brown was home with his parents Sunday, accompanied by Miss Olga Egger who visited Mrs. Samboff.

Mr. Henry Tilden and son George were in town last Wednesday and purchased a new hincer, their old one having given out on them.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodell attended the funeral of Mr. Plegeman of Columbus who was the mother of Mr. Woodell. Mr. and Mrs. John Smith also attended the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Harrington, Arthur Engel and Miss Emma and Laura Engel of Dancon were invited to dinner last Sunday with Mr. Taylor of Gardiner.

Mrs. Wagnor of Dancon is confined to her bed with sickness. Dr. Tinsler of Columbus is attending her.

Mr. John Sokol of Dancon is in the hospital to undergo an operation.

The M. E. church of Dancon held their quarterly meeting last Sunday.

The people of this vicinity are happy over the rural free delivery route which has been laid out from Dancon, extending east, north and west of town.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Tolles from Monroe were over to R. Gerber's last Saturday to get some of his horses in Rudy's pasture.

Monroe Route No. 2.

Monroe, R. F. D. No. 2.—(Correspondence.)—Mr. Emerson and son Lowell were in Genoa on Tuesday.

W. H. Pugsley and brother Pierre went to Bonestell, S. D. Friday to register for land.

Miss Elizabeth Williams of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting at John Miller's.

Miller Bros. were thrashing on Tuesday, July 19th, the first thrashing in this neighborhood.

Wm. Welch has a lot of hay ready to stack.

W. O. Pugsley and sons are cutting their second crop of alfalfa.

The road north of John Lawson's was impassable two days last week on account of the heavy rain.

Mrs. Christensen, an aged lady living north of John Vaughn's, was taken seriously ill last week and died Sunday. Funeral services were held in the school house Monday at 2 p. m. Interment was at Friends cemetery.

The Farmers are through harvesting all but late cuts. Quite a number are stacking their grain.

Martin Smith and sisters drove to Fallston Sunday and returned Monday.

Route 4.

Columbus, R. F. D. No. 4.—(Correspondence.)—Small grain is about all harvested except a few fields of late wheat. A few fields of winter wheat have been threshed and the yield fell a little short of what was expected.

Miss Mabel Campbell is on the sick list this week.

L. H. Hitchcock has cut his alfalfa the second time and had the mifortune to get it well soaked.

Road overcrosser Ebnor was doing some much needed road work on Route 4 Saturday.

Louis Schneider has the contract for moving the Oelwein school house and started out with it last Tuesday.

J. H. Orsop and wife of Columbus visited with the Carter's from Friday until Sunday of last week.

Joseph Rothlisler, of Columbus to Anna Schilling, 61, Columbus.

Be Ready For the Summer. Good luck is desirable even when you have done your best to succeed, but remember that the most favorable circumstances or strokes of fortune are of little value unless you have prepared yourself to take advantage of them. Of what advantage would Hayne's Sery speech have been to Daniel Webster if he had not, with the instinct of genius, long before equipped himself for the assault which he repelled with such crushing energy? Had he not previously weighed and refuted in his own mind the charges of his opponent his reply, instead of ranking among the greatest masterpieces of oratory, might have only revealed his own weakness. Thousands of men had seen the prints of a horse's hoof in the soil before Faust discovered by them the art of printing.

August Wagner has been re-appointed referee in bankruptcy by Judge Munger.

F. D. Fales, Mr. McCarthy's private secretary is in Columbus today meeting with R. G. Strother, congressman and committee man and Ed Hoar county chairman.

Hugh Hughes returned last week from the Rosebud district. He thinks that the land in that country is not as good as Nebraska land, but still good farming land.

EXCURSION TO THE REPUBLICAN VALLEY.—Our next half-fare excursion to the famous Republican Valley will leave Columbus over the Burlington Route at 7:30 A. M. Tuesday, August 2, 1904. Now is your chance to get a fine farm at from $5 to $10 per acre.—F. T. Walker, Mgr. Republican Valley Land Co., Columbus, Neb.

Julius Ernst of Dancon, Neb., was down here on business Monday afternoon. Mr. Ernst is one of the most successful and prosperous farmers of that community, but has been somewhat unfortunate during the last four years in being in each of the four years in paths of disastrous hail storms. This year, an eighty-acre field of oats was so despoiled that only four or five acres were fit to cut for the grain, the remainder of the field being out for the straw only.—Schuyler Sun.

Maudie May Burns and Eugene U. Byllesby were united in marriage at ten o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Burns at 17th and Rocky streets. The ring ceremony was read, Miss Fay Schofield acting as ring bearer. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue, and carried roses. Mrs. W. A. McAllister played the Mendelssohn wedding march and Rev. W. E. Halsey performed the marriage ceremony. Only relatives were present. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served and the bride and groom left at 2:35 for Paulina, Iowa, where the parents of Mr. Byllesby reside. They will also visit Lake Okechobi and will return by way of Columbus when they go to their home in Fairbury.

The total registration for homesteads on the Rosebud reservation was 104,324. There are about 3000 quarter sections to be opened to homestead entry, the drawing for which will be under government supervision at Chamberlain, S. D., on August 23. The plan seems to be to draw 10 claims a day until the number is exhausted, ten days being given each allottee in which to make his selection. If selection is not made within that time the negligent allottee loses his turn and has to take his chance with the next 100. Nearly one hundred of Columbus citizens are dreaming of seeing their names called among the first one hundred and are hoping that it will be a Platte county man or woman that will have the opportunity of turning down the $10,000 offer of the northwestern railroad for "number one."

L. F. Rector returned the last of the week from the Rosebud country and tells some interesting stories of the conditions there. The big rush was at Bonestell, although there are three other registration offices. Mr. Rector got a tip from the train crew and registered at Fairfax where there was no rush, and then went out to Bonestell to see the jam from a safe distance. He says that when the crowd got off the train there was a line three or four blocks long before the places each allottee in which to make his selection. An official estimated that the road trip fare paid by candidates for homesteads would average $30. The registration, it was estimated, would be a hundred thousand, which would make the revenue to the railroads amount to something like two million dollars. There were people from New York and all over the country. It is thought by the knowing ones that at least twenty per cent of those registering will never take the trouble to set out whether they draw anything or not, and even if they should be among the lucky ones they will never claim their land. Many of them are travelers who stop and register just for the fun of it and in order to take a look at the country. Others are old roadmen who could not raise the $175 necessary to secure the homestead if they should draw one.
