Great Britain Gets Reply to Representation.

ST. PETERSBURG.—The Russian reply to Great Britain's representation on the subject of the British steamer, the Knight Commander, sunk by the Vladivostok squadron, while en route to the Russian port, does not recede from the Russian position as set forth in the prize regulations in regard to the exercise of the right to destroy neutral vessels carrying contraband in cases of emergency, reserving the question for discussion after the war.

At the same time Russia assures Great Britain that the extreme resource of sinking neutral vessels, as announced, will not be resorted to unless circumstances render it impossible to take them to a prize court.

Great Britain's proposal that the British steamer, the Alton, captured June 15 by the Vladivostok squadron, be liberated upon the deposit of security, has not been accepted.

The correspondent of the Associated Press learned that nothing was confiscated in the cargo of the Arabia which was not designated as contraband in the Russian declaration.

The Russian reply in the case of the Knight Commander points out that the prize regulations under which Russia is acting were promulgated nine years ago, and that Great Britain did not enter a protest until after the present war began.

JUDGE PARKER CALLED UPON. Committee Notifies Him of His Nomination at St. Louis.

EBOPUS, N. Y.—The worst rain of the summer marked the advent of the day on which Judge Parker was to be notified of his nomination to the presidency by the democrats.

The streets were deluged before daylight. From the tops of the hills, where Rosemont is situated, the water poured in torrent. Rain was still falling steadily at 11 o'clock.

Judge Parker was keenly disappointed, as he had hoped for a fine day.

One thousand hopes were on the ground when the judge's employees began the decoration of the speakers' stand.

Judge Parker's family was escorted from the house to seats of honor by a committee composed of National Chairman Taggart and State Chairman...

Judge Parker was greeted with applause at every period in his speech. He was given the most respectful attention.
