

RENEWALS—The date opposite your name on your paper, or wrapper shows to what time your subscription is paid. This Journal shows that payment has been received up to Jan. 1, 1904. Should you not receive your paper, or should you not wish the Journal continued for another year after the time paid for has expired, you should previously notify us to discontinue it.

CHANGE IN ADDRESS—When ordering a change in the address, subscribers should be sure to give their old as well as their new address.

Republican Ticket.

NATIONAL.

President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
Vice-President—CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS.

Presidential Electors—

F. A. BARTON, Pawnee.
A. C. SMITH, Douglas.
A. C. ARBETT, Dodge.
T. L. NORVAL, Seward.
W. P. HALL, Phelps.
M. A. BROWN, Buffalo.
H. H. WILSON, Lancaster.
J. C. ROBINSON, Douglas.

STATE.

United States Senator—ELMER J. BURKETT.
Governor—J. H. MICKEY.

Lieutenant Governor—E. G. MCGILTON.
Secretary of State—A. GALUSHA.

Auditor—E. M. SEARLE, JR.
Treasurer—PETER MORTENSEN.

Superintendent—J. L. MCBRIEN.
Attorney General—NORRIS BROWN.

Land Commissioner—H. M. EATON.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Congressman, Third District—J. J. MCARTHY.

RECORD OF FUSION.

During the two years that Poynter was governor our state debt increased in round numbers, $343,000.

During the next four years of republican rule our state debt increased $168,000.

During the last two years of democratic rule in Platte county, the county's expenses have been more than could have been raised under the old revenue law.

Tax-payers, do you want any more fusion in state government?

Do you want any more democracy in county government?

Every vote for McKillop or Bander is a vote against Roosevelt.

Please send us a few more democratic voters; we need a few more republican votes.

Now that the Nebraska is afloat with some of those 13-inch guns, we feel safer.

To be elected to congress, a man must convince somehow to be taken seriously. This is one particular in which Mr. McKillop so far is lacking.

It is about time now for the caresses of the democratic team to pull off some of the candidates who have not shown sufficient speed, and fill out the line with some faster and heavier men.

We are prepared to gamble that they can't beat O. Shannon with a club. They have tried it many times and they haven't done it yet. This is Roosevelt year besides and O. C. is growing more strenuous every day.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

Good schools are the best advertisement any city can have. They attract the most desirable citizenship. Columbus people have come to be proud of her excellent schools. Some cities in Nebraska have a better library and laboratory equipment than Columbus, but none has a stronger teaching force and a wiser management.

The Board of Education and Superintendent Kern are to be complimented on their determination to enforce the compulsory education law in Columbus.

The law is a good one. It requires the continuous attendance, from the beginning of the term for at least six months, of every child between the ages seven and fifteen. Every one knows that in our graded school system, a child who loses a part of the work of his grade, especially the first part, is handicapped in all his future work.

If the parent fails to recognize the importance of this fact, the community through its proper officers, the Board of Education and trustee officer, should step in. The community has the same right to demand the proper education of the child that it has to interfere to prevent a man from brutally beating his child. It is simply a question of public policy.

THE RING.

Will the democratic candidates for the board of supervisors say before election that they will let all contracts for work and supplies to the lowest responsible bidder?

Do democrats believe in economy in county as well as state government? If they do, do they consider it economy to pay twice as much for certain work as is necessary?

Now is the time for candidates to declare themselves. The people of Platte county who pay the taxes want to know a few things about how their money is expended. The democratic county board ring is on the defensive.

Whenever one party—or, as in this case, one faction of one party—is in complete control of a municipal or county government for a long term of years, the same condition of affairs invariably comes about. They hand themselves together for mutual protection. They become a "ring" such as the country has seen exposed in New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis.

When taxpayers are paying the freight, the burden falls upon all alike. The just and the unjust contribute their share without regard to their politics. It is just as much to the interest of the democratic voter as it is to the interest of the republican voter that we should have economy in county government.

If the democratic county board has been paying more for certain services than was necessary, and more than it would have cost if bids had been asked if they have been economical? If they have been paying even more than they should have paid, have they regarded their oath of office? Do they deserve re-election? Should they not be compelled to put it back?

There is nothing deep or complicated about these questions. They can be answered without any particular mental exertion, though possibly some moral effort might be required.

The Journal has never said anything about a political opponent that is not intended to be true, and it does not intend to do so. If in the next few days we publish any facts and figures from the county records, they will be such as can be verified by any man who can read. Since, as we have said, the burden of extravagant and unlawful expenditures falls upon all citizens alike, the matter can hardly be called political.

TELL THE TRUTH.

If P. E. McKillop would take the voters of the third district into his confidence and tell them honestly his position on the three platforms which he is trying to cover, he would make a public declaration something like the following: "My foremost desire is to go to Congress. That is why my friends and I worked for fusion. I really have no pronounced view on the tariff or the money question or the trust question. Of course, if elected I will vote with the democrats against every measure for tariff revision or trust regulation or reciprocity urged by President Roosevelt. And if Parker should be elected I would of course vote with the democrats for another Cleveland tariff bill which I know the land I now own would not now be worth half its present value had the Cleveland tariff remained in force. To be honest, I do not believe in free silver and I am talking about government ownership of railroads just to attract the popular vote. Of course I know that there is no ghost of a chance of passing a bill for government ownership through Congress, no more than I would have of consolidating all the mercantile establishments in heaven.

I have not read much history but I know that the republican party has the only real solution of the railroad question, and that is by extending the power of the interstate commerce commission. But I must not favor that policy for Roosevelt favors that policy, and besides, the railroads that are furnishing money for the democratic campaign would not contribute money if we appoint for congressional honor should talk about the interstate commerce commission, through which body alone the railroads can be controlled. In short, in order to get votes, I must promise to do everything that everybody wants in order to defeat that man McCarthy who has become very strong in the third district. Everybody knows that McCarthy stands squarely with Roosevelt for tariff revision, when revision is necessary; for strict enforcement of the anti-trust laws; and for the rapid extension of rural free delivery, the system inaugurated by the republican party, a system that has added millions of dollars to the value of Nebraska farms, and that moves to raise the standards of rural life than all other legislation combined for the last fifty years.

I realize that if elected on a democratic ticket, I could do nothing to improve my condition. But friends, really I do not believe there will be enough democrats in Congress to hurt you. Therefore I ask you to vote for me. I am a citizen of Platte county. I have prospered under republican times until I have banks and stores galore. My success has made me ambitious for greater honors. And my republican friends, I am going to spend $10,000 which I made under republican administration, to get your votes. Don't ask me to explain how I can be honest and run on three platforms. I'm a "good fellow", that's all, and I want your votes."

You are a "good fellow", brother McKillop, but you can't get 'em.

TO MR. BERGE.

1. How will you refute the statement of Judge J. J. Sullivan, which appears on this page, in regard to the revenue law? As you are no doubt aware, J. J. Sullivan is the most able party in this section of the state. The above is a deliberate and straightforward expression from him on this much discussed law.

2. Has any official act of Governor Mickey, in connection with the Standard Oil company, been different from what you yourself would have done had you been governor of Nebraska?

3. Will you say that you believe Governor Mickey is the tool of the Oil company or of any railroad corporation or of any other corporation?

You All Know Him.

"As a whole we believe the law to be a good one, and to have been framed with the object of reaching all property in the state and to impose upon all taxable property its due share of the public burden. That it may fail in some instances does not require us to condemn it as a whole."—CHIEF JUSTICE JOHN J. SULLIVAN OF COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA ON THE REPUBLICAN REVENUE LAW.

HERE IS A REAL POP.

Mr. Bryan.
My friends, is this sound from the north a delusion?
And am I deceived by the noises I hear?
Is Bryan on stamping for Parker and fusion,
Or is it the roar of a bug in my ear?
Methinks I can hear him extolling the beauty
And wisdom of him who is keeping so still;
How easy to glorify "Parker and duty"
And not say a word about David E. Hill.
The gold standard views of the men nominated
He knows, but he cares not to mention aloud;
He does not revert to the facts we have stated,
That Belmont and Morgan are lacking the crowd.
The statesman who talks and the writer who scribbles
Are wondering wildly and questioning us,
"Why don't Bryan battle for Watson and Tibbles
Who stand for the things he upheld long ago?"
The sharp crown of thorns on the bald brow of labor
Is being pressed down with a great deal of force;
The crown of gold is so many, old neighbors,
So many in number, and grievous, of course.
The leaders, like Hill, are so mottled and spotted,
So full of deceit and so full of de-sires;
They stand for the very same things that we awaited
When you were the leader and pope were in line.
Are all the grand issues for which we contended
More fanciful to serve for the time? nothing more?
If not, let's keep quiet—now don't be offended—
Let's take to the woods till the battle is o'er.
Let's march go forth like an army with banners,
Proclaiming the creed of the new democracy.
We'll stay in our tent, which is very good manners,
While Hildebrand whoops it up south of the Platte.
—Birby in State Journal.

Mr. Bryan.
I have just received your letter. I feel about fusion just as I did at the close of the convention. There was never a more silly thing attempted in politics than to try to force fusion with Parker democrats. I want to see them killed forever. But because our friends did not attend primaries and county conventions, the office seekers and lawyers got the best of us in the state convention. These chaps know the force of primaries and county conventions and the hard working populists do not.

As it is now the only thing for us to do now is to try and organize clubs as we proposed and hereafter see to it that our conventions are in the hands of the people who furnish the votes and not in those who expect office. "Mentime let us try" to poll as many votes as we can, especially for the national ticket which has no fusion about it. As to the state ticket, Berge is a true populist and there is a prospect of his election on account of the feeling against Mickey and that may pull the rest of the ticket through. He should get as many men into the legislature as possible who will never vote for senator for any man who supported Parker.

There is a great outbreak of populism in the eastern states and every one of them denounce with the utmost bitterness any man who supports Parker. There many men of character and wealth among them and their object is to build up a great third party which will organize independent and separate from the two old parties. To do that seems to be the only rational course to pursue. I am overwhelmed with work. My correspondence is from many different states. I have the paper to edit and must make a few speeches. So you will see that it is impossible for me to do much of detail work in the state. I want to thank you and all the noble men who came to the Capital Hotel meeting. Do what you can to get such men as they in the republican party in Nebraska. Then we will be able to down the office seekers, the office seekers, the pass takers and take things into our own hands. In that way we will put in practice the old principles with which we started out in regard to office holding.

Yours truly,
J. H. Sullivan

EXTRAVAGANCE.

The Lincoln Star calls attention to the fact that the fusion members were practically unanimous in voting for every one of the appropriation bills passed by the last legislature. These appropriation bills represent about 90 per cent of the total amount expended by the legislature.

Many of these fusion members are now candidates for re-election and are forced by their party position to support the "extravagance" of the last legislature. It is just another example of the supreme inconsistency which marks the campaign policy of every party which has no real issue. The fact that more republicans than fusionists voted for these appropriations does not lessen the fact that each fusion member did all in his power to make the appropriations. He voted for the bills. Angels could do no more.

To the credit of these fusion members be it said that they supported these bills, every one of which was necessary and right. And to their discredit be it said that now, as candidates, they allow themselves to be forced into standing on such a platform of inconsistency and self-condemnation as this cry about extravagance. Truth is mighty.

COLUMBIANS.

Only four weeks more of foolishness about this election business, and then we can settle down to straight football.

It is funny how those people who are opposed to railroad revenue always having passed through upon them. We wish to remark right now that any blasted magazine is taking considerable chances any time he offers this child a pass.

Mr. Berge made a speech which before a woman's club would not have been pronounced a corker. It was gentlemanly, free from stories introducing profanity, and guaranteed "just what the doctor ordered." It set forth many of the principles of elementary political science which nobody has ever departed. As a sewing circle orator, Mr. Berge can have our unqualified endorsement any time he wants it.

I want to hear my old friend Berge tell how this people might despair from out the deep and dark despair. "Things are not what they used to be," said Mr. Berge. "I plainly see a glimmer on every hand."
"Feel this dark, tempestuous sea."
"The common people have, I 'low, 'No more rights than a jaybird now."
"And yet," says Mr. Berge, "hold on!"
"Who knows but I might see you gone."
"Methinks I now perceive a way—"
"One tiny, microscopic ray—"
"Of hope which yet perchance may save"
"The state from this destroying wave."
"Of tyrant arms and sworded pelf—"
"Just one hope left, and that's myself!"
"Just yet me at the helm," says he, "I know this dark, tempestuous sea."
"Shall plim testotally submerge"
"The ship of state," says Mr. Berge.
"But if you let this chance go by."
"Who knows but I might see you die"
"Or move out to some other star."
"And leave you to your mortal fate."
Thus speaks this modest candidate.

And when I heard that dreadful one, I guessed out 'er that lurch. Of mortals on whose bones are long The birds of prey would perch; And bless me, not a blooming one Had every fit old mother's son And every fit old mother's son.

Democracy's effort to show that times have not been good under Roosevelt's administration is a ludicrous performance. The compilation of all the strikes which have taken place in the last three years, instead of showing lack of prosperity, indicates the country has been unusually prosperous. Strikes are a rarity in bad times. Workingmen demand higher wages only when business is good. They are dumb enough to know that every strike stands in the way of getting what they want when factories are flooded with orders than when they are running on short time.

CORRUPTED BY THE GOW.

The new Revenue Law must be the creature of the cow-owners of Columbus! The cow-owners of Columbus must have bought the legislature that passed the law. Why? Because the owners of cows in Platte county will pay only 51 cents in 1904 while the land owners will pay $1.55 and the railroads 97 cents where they paid a dollar in 1903. It is time for patriots to rise! The cow-owners will put the railroads out of business in Platte county!

Mr. Bryan.
My friends, is this sound from the north a delusion?
And am I deceived by the noises I hear?
Is Bryan on stamping for Parker and fusion,
Or is it the roar of a bug in my ear?
Methinks I can hear him extolling the beauty
And wisdom of him who is keeping so still;
How easy to glorify "Parker and duty"
And not say a word about David E. Hill.
The gold standard views of the men nominated
He knows, but he cares not to mention aloud;
He does not revert to the facts we have stated,
That Belmont and Morgan are lacking the crowd.
The statesman who talks and the writer who scribbles
Are wondering wildly and questioning us,
"Why don't Bryan battle for Watson and Tibbles
Who stand for the things he upheld long ago?"
The sharp crown of thorns on the bald brow of labor
Is being pressed down with a great deal of force;
The crown of gold is so many, old neighbors,
So many in number, and grievous, of course.
The leaders, like Hill, are so mottled and spotted,
So full of deceit and so full of de-sires;
They stand for the very same things that we awaited
When you were the leader and pope were in line.
Are all the grand issues for which we contended
More fanciful to serve for the time? nothing more?
If not, let's keep quiet—now don't be offended—
Let's take to the woods till the battle is o'er.
Let's march go forth like an army with banners,
Proclaiming the creed of the new democracy.
We'll stay in our tent, which is very good manners,
While Hildebrand whoops it up south of the Platte.
—Birby in State Journal.

Mr. Bryan.
I have just received your letter. I feel about fusion just as I did at the close of the convention. There was never a more silly thing attempted in politics than to try to force fusion with Parker democrats. I want to see them killed forever. But because our friends did not attend primaries and county conventions, the office seekers and lawyers got the best of us in the state convention. These chaps know the force of primaries and county conventions and the hard working populists do not.

As it is now the only thing for us to do now is to try and organize clubs as we proposed and hereafter see to it that our conventions are in the hands of the people who furnish the votes and not in those who expect office. "Mentime let us try" to poll as many votes as we can, especially for the national ticket which has no fusion about it. As to the state ticket, Berge is a true populist and there is a prospect of his election on account of the feeling against Mickey and that may pull the rest of the ticket through. He should get as many men into the legislature as possible who will never vote for senator for any man who supported Parker.

There is a great outbreak of populism in the eastern states and every one of them denounce with the utmost bitterness any man who supports Parker. There many men of character and wealth among them and their object is to build up a great third party which will organize independent and separate from the two old parties. To do that seems to be the only rational course to pursue. I am overwhelmed with work. My correspondence is from many different states. I have the paper to edit and must make a few speeches. So you will see that it is impossible for me to do much of detail work in the state. I want to thank you and all the noble men who came to the Capital Hotel meeting. Do what you can to get such men as they in the republican party in Nebraska. Then we will be able to down the office seekers, the office seekers, the pass takers and take things into our own hands. In that way we will put in practice the old principles with which we started out in regard to office holding.

Yours truly,
J. H. Sullivan

EXTRAVAGANCE.

The Lincoln Star calls attention to the fact that the fusion members were practically unanimous in voting for every one of the appropriation bills passed by the last legislature. These appropriation bills represent about 90 per cent of the total amount expended by the legislature.

Many of these fusion members are now candidates for re-election and are forced by their party position to support the "extravagance" of the last legislature. It is just another example of the supreme inconsistency which marks the campaign policy of every party which has no real issue. The fact that more republicans than fusionists voted for these appropriations does not lessen the fact that each fusion member did all in his power to make the appropriations. He voted for the bills. Angels could do no more.

To the credit of these fusion members be it said that they supported these bills, every one of which was necessary and right. And to their discredit be it said that now, as candidates, they allow themselves to be forced into standing on such a platform of inconsistency and self-condemnation as this cry about extravagance. Truth is mighty.

COLUMBIANS.

Only four weeks more of foolishness about this election business, and then we can settle down to straight football.

It is funny how those people who are opposed to railroad revenue always having passed through upon them. We wish to remark right now that any blasted magazine is taking considerable chances any time he offers this child a pass.

Mr. Berge made a speech which before a woman's club would not have been pronounced a corker. It was gentlemanly, free from stories introducing profanity, and guaranteed "just what the doctor ordered." It set forth many of the principles of elementary political science which nobody has ever departed. As a sewing circle orator, Mr. Berge can have our unqualified endorsement any time he wants it.

I want to hear my old friend Berge tell how this people might despair from out the deep and dark despair. "Things are not what they used to be," said Mr. Berge. "I plainly see a glimmer on every hand."
"Feel this dark, tempestuous sea."
"The common people have, I 'low, 'No more rights than a jaybird now."
"And yet," says Mr. Berge, "hold on!"
"Who knows but I might see you gone."
"Methinks I now perceive a way—"
"One tiny, microscopic ray—"
"Of hope which yet perchance may save"
"The state from this destroying wave."
"Of tyrant arms and sworded pelf—"
"Just one hope left, and that's myself!"
"Just yet me at the helm," says he, "I know this dark, tempestuous sea."
"Shall plim testotally submerge"
"The ship of state," says Mr. Berge.
"But if you let this chance go by."
"Who knows but I might see you die"
"Or move out to some other star."
"And leave you to your mortal fate."
Thus speaks this modest candidate.

And when I heard that dreadful one, I guessed out 'er that lurch. Of mortals on whose bones are long The birds of prey would perch; And bless me, not a blooming one Had every fit old mother's son And every fit old mother's son.

Democracy's effort to show that times have not been good under Roosevelt's administration is a ludicrous performance. The compilation of all the strikes which have taken place in the last three years, instead of showing lack of prosperity, indicates the country has been unusually prosperous. Strikes are a rarity in bad times. Workingmen demand higher wages only when business is good. They are dumb enough to know that every strike stands in the way of getting what they want when factories are flooded with orders than when they are running on short time.

Announcement

We are making a specialty of Ladies' ready-to-wear garments, and still retain the agency and exclusive sale of the most reliable makes.

We are now receiving the latest styles in Suits and Jackets. We fit you perfectly,—no "hand-me-down" appearance to our suits. Very few know how to make the little alterations often necessary to adapt a garment to the figure, without spoiling the effect, but we have a competent dress-maker, skilled in that line, and you will not be annoyed by unfavorable criticisms about the fit of your garments if bought of us.

F. H. Lamb & Co.

ECONOMY IS WEALTH—BUY "THE BEST"

The Radiant Home Base Burner

UNEQUALED

Acknowledged to be the Finest Finished and Most Economical Hard Coal Stove ever made, giving largest amount of heat for the quantity of fuel consumed. Quick in action and always under perfect control.

Rothleitner & Co.

Everyone Should Know

the great advantages offered by a Through Car Service on a journey east. If you can take a car at your home town and not be disturbed until you reach Chicago, it is an advantage worth your while considering. This can be done by asking for tickets via the ## Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway.

No missing connections—no disagreeable changing of cars, but comfort and ease. The trains on this line are brilliantly lighted by electricity, are steam heated, solid vestibuled, and equipped with every modern safety device known to railway service, and the cost for tickets via this line is no more than via other lines. For special rates, time-tables, etc., write

F. A. HASH, Gen'l Western Agent, 1524 Farnam St. OMAHA, NEBRASKA.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT.

The following proposed amendment to, and convention for the revision of, the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is submitted to the voters of the State of Nebraska, to vote upon at the general election to be held Tuesday, November 8, A. D. 1904. (SENATE FILE NO. 114.)

A Bill for a Joint Resolution recommending to the voters of the state to vote at the next election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as recited by Section 2, Article IX, of the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

1. That it is deemed necessary to call a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

2. That the electors are recommended to vote at the next election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska.

3. That at such next election of members of the Legislature on the ballot of each elector voting at such election, shall be printed or written in such manner that the elector can indicate his preference under the law the words: "FOR calling a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska," and "AGAINST calling a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska," and if a majority voting electors shall vote for a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, as at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

4. That the Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and providing for the election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is a true and correct copy of the original as submitted to the Legislature at its next session, and that the same shall be printed and published by the State of Nebraska, as at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

5. That the Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and providing for the election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is a true and correct copy of the original as submitted to the Legislature at its next session, and that the same shall be printed and published by the State of Nebraska, as at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

6. That the Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and providing for the election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is a true and correct copy of the original as submitted to the Legislature at its next session, and that the same shall be printed and published by the State of Nebraska, as at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

7. That the Secretary of State of the State of Nebraska, do hereby certify that the foregoing proposed amendment to the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, and providing for the election of members of the Legislature for or against a convention to revise, amend and change the Constitution of the State of Nebraska, is a true and correct copy of the original as submitted to the Legislature at its next session, and that the same shall be printed and published by the State of Nebraska, as at its next session, provide by law for calling the same.

BLACK DRAUGHT STOCK & POULTRY MEDICINE

This great stock medicine is a money saver for stock raisers. It is a medicine, not a cheap food or condition powder. Though put up in coarse form than Thorndyke's Black-Draught, renowned for the cure of the digestion troubles of persons, it has the same qualities of invigorating digestion, stirring up the hepatic liver and loosening the constipated bowels for all stock and poultry. It is carefully prepared and its action is so beneficial that stock grow and thrive with an occasional dose in their food. It cures hog cholera and makes hogs grow fat. It cures chicken cholera and roup and makes hens lay. It cures constipation, distemper and colds in horses, murrain in cattle, and makes a draught animal do more work for the food consumed. It gives animals and fowls of all kinds new life. Every farmer and raiser should certainly give it a trial.

It costs 25c. a can and saves ten times its price in profit.

Prepared, Kas., March 25, 1904.
I have been using your Black-Draught Stock and Poultry Medicine on my stock for some time. It has saved me a great deal of stock but I have found that yours is the best for my purpose.
J. S. HASSON.