SOME PAINT FACTS—

- 1. Pure Linseed Oil is the foundation of all Paint Durability.
2. The general practice against Ready-Mixed Paints is based on the fact that most of them are adulterated with inferior oil.
3. All paint in first grade must be a THICK PASTE, and the Ready-Mixed paint must be thicker than any other grade of paint.

WHEREVER WE HAVE NO AGENT, YOUR OWN DEALER WILL GET "KINLOOH" FOR YOU, IF SHOWN BY WRITING DIRECT TO KINLOOH PAINT COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, MO.

AT GRAYS

the interest of his 730 acres of land which he desires to rent the coming year.

While returning home from Schuyler last Saturday night, the team of Jas. Higgins, Sr. became unmanageable and after breaking the buggy tongue, broke loose and left James unconscious on the ground.

Mr. Higgins was found by his boys and after an hour he came to and is alright save a few bruises and a severe headache.

Creston. This weather surpasses any thing we have ever seen for this time of the year.

The eleven month old daughter of S. Eastman and wife is gaining slowly. She has been sick for over six weeks and at times her life was despaired of.

Mr. Black has sold his stock of merchandise to the Alb Palmateer and Company.

By the looks of the Creston Pharmacy one should say that Santa Claus had taken up his headquarters there for the holidays.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hamling died last Monday of membranous croup. The child was buried Wednesday.

The Peterson sisters, accompanied by Sidney Lantow were here November 19, as scheduled. It is seldom our citizens are treated to such superb music as was rendered Saturday night.

There was a rough house in Ingram's saloon last Saturday night. Aside from the breaking of a few chairs no injury was done.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meyer were callers in this office one day last week. Mrs. Meyer was the second woman who came to Columbus, Mrs. Wolfe, lately deceased, being the first.

Thursday last we visited the farm of Guy C. Barum south of the Loop. On our way back Mr. Barum told us that in the years before the U. P. R. R. was built, during the season of emigration there was not a day passed but the "bottom" near the Loop was literally full of prairie schooners, herds of cattle, besides men, woman and children.

Married, Miss Cybilias Hoesley and Mr. Willie Wenk, last Wednesday, at the Evangelist Church at Grand Prairie. There were few guests present outside of the family circle.

The ceremony was performed at six o'clock, after which a supper was served at the home of the bride's parents.

The little boy of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Stevens who has been suffering from rheumatism for three weeks is a little better. He will be taken to Arkansas this week by his grandmother, Mrs. S. I. Clark, to remain till his health is restored.

Vic Palmateer who has secured the rural route, will move to town shortly. He has bought the Ed Hake property, consideration, $625.

C. F. Bahman has built a store room between his store and the harness shop.

S. Eastman received a letter from his sister in England saying that she had been seriously ill from hemorrhage of the lungs. She visited here about two years ago.

Dr. Jones has moved his family into the rooms in the rear of Black's store. Houses for rent are at a premium in Creston.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Englebert, last Saturday, a son.

Mrs. Morris, mother of Mrs. E. T. Graham has been ill since last Sunday. Miss Katie Luchinger is visiting friends and relatives here at Wayne soon.

A special deputy of the Highlanders is here working for new members.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Hart have returned from a most pleasant trip to England.

Miss Leona Harbert is in the contest for the beautiful Journal piano.

The large number of Columbus contestants indicates that the piano must be of unusual value.

Miss Harbert's chances all the better. Creston people will rally to Miss Harbert's support and get the piano for her if possible.

Happy Years Ago.

(From files of Journal May 31, 1871.) Kelly & Wilson have completed a dwelling for A. C. Turner in the north part of town.

Col. Jan. Rieky has removed his grocery from the old stand to his new building on the corner of Ninth and Washington avenue.

Jacob Lewis, one of the first settlers of Columbus, was in town on Monday, celebrating the birthday of Columbus.

Fifteen years ago, May 29, 1856, Columbus was laid out, and the following named persons were among the first settlers: Vincent Kammer, our present county treasurer, Jacob Lewis, Chas. Reinko, Fred Gottschalk, Jacob Guter, John Hfer, John Held, Henry Laesche, Adam Denk and Michel Smith.

Mr. Lewis' farm which joins Columbus on the east was homesteaded by him in 1856.

We call attention to the new advertisements of Major Troth for lumber, John Eason for plaster and brick layer, H. P. Coolidge and Sutton and Winterbotham, furniture and hardware.

(From files of Journal, May 17, 1871.) Married, at the court house in Columbus last Wednesday, by Elder H. J. Hudson, Charles Dettboerner and Miss Anna Bohm.

Hon. Leander Gerrard was last Friday admitted at Omaha, to practice in the United States courts.

J. P. Becker began work in his brick yard on Tuesday last week. Thos. Flynn is in command and expects to burn some 400,000 good bricks before the season closes.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meyer were callers in this office one day last week. Mrs. Meyer was the second woman who came to Columbus, Mrs. Wolfe, lately deceased, being the first.
