A NEW GROCERY

One of the large retail grocery houses of the city having been destroyed by fire, and Mr. Dunham having announced that he will not engage in the same line of business again in Columbus, we are led to the conclusion that there is room in this city for another grocery. Accordingly we have secured the Sperry building on East Eleventh street, and on Saturday, January 14th, we will display a new and select stock of staple and fancy groceries, and we respectfully ask a share of your patronage.

During many years we have stood behind the counters of the best grocery houses in Columbus, and long experience and wide acquaintance places us in a position to know the wants of the trade in the city and vicinity. Our stock will be clean and fresh, and our prices fair and right. Come and give us a chance to treat you as well in our own name as we have tried to do in the names of our former employers.

Dunham's Big Grocery Store BURNED.

We have arranged to take all of E. B. Dunham's outstanding checks and coupon books and redeem them in merchandise at their full face value. We have added to our force and are prepared to accommodate Mr. Dunham's patrons in addition to our own. We can guarantee absolute satisfaction to our rapidly increasing trade.

Many Years Ago.

(From files of Journal July 12 1871)
J. P. Becker has sold within the last four days, twenty-four wagons. The county is indebted to J. O. Shannon county superintendent for copies of school laws, maps etc.
John Held, who lives about nine miles north east of town tells that on August 25, the hail storm did much damage in his neighborhood, stones falling as large as a man's fist. One man with his family protected themselves under a beam in their house, the stone having riddled the roof. The crops of John Brock, Jacob Held, Henry Mueller, Mr. Engenhaus, Mr. Englobat, and M. Bienbock were considerably injured by the storm.
M. M. Pomeroy, familiarly known as "Buck" Pomeroy, arrived at Columbus Tuesday evening on his journey across the continent. On his bridal tour, Mr. Pomeroy and wife are accompanied by his private secretary, and the party are visiting business with pleasure. Mr. Pomeroy is proprietor of two newspapers, the La Crosse, Wisconsin, Democrat and Pomeroy's Democrat at New York City and on his journey is taking in the places of note and interest for the benefit of the numerous readers of his journals. He intends to publish a book upon his observations. . . . Two days of Mr. Pomeroy's valuable time devoted to our little town, shows the importance he attaches to it as a place of growing consequences. Wednesday the famous editor gave at the court house, one of his characteristic speeches.
(From files of July 19, 1847).
Before many weeks through tickets for the trip around the world will be for sale in all the large cities of this country and of Europe. The price for the round trip has been fixed at $1,500 in our currency at present rates. The distance is 23,500 miles; time, eight-days.

M. K. Turner offers to donate twenty acres of land lying on the bluffs north of Columbus as a site for a college. The population of the United States is 38,744,463. Last year 33,739 immigrants arrived.

NOTICE.
To John A. Johnson, non-resident defendant: You are hereby notified that on the 23rd day of December, 1904, Lena Mary Johnson, plaintiff, filed a petition against you in the District Court of Platte County, Nebraska, the object and purpose of which is to obtain a divorce from you on the grounds that you have wilfully abandoned the plaintiff for more than two years last past without a reasonable or just cause, that for more than two years last past, though of sufficient ability to provide suitable maintenance and support for plaintiff, you have grossly, wantonly and cruelly neglected to do so, and that you have become an habitual drunkard. Plaintiff also asks for the restoration of her maiden name, Lena Mary Anderson. You are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 23rd day of January, 1905.

SOME PAINT FACTS—

1. Pure Linseed Oil is the foundation of all Paints.
2. The general prejudice against Lead Paint is based on the fact that most of them are adulterated with inferior oil.
3. All paint is first ground into a THICK PASTE, and the Ready-Mixed paint is made by mixing every gallon of this paste with a gallon of "oil"—you have to take his word for it.
4. When you buy Ready-Mixed Paint, you pay the Ready-Mixed price for the brush, pure raw oil in your local dealer's barrel.
5. There is a point where you should STOP, when the paint is completely mixed with the brush, and the pure raw oil, both being separately from the barrel. Ready-Mixed paint is sold in a quantity of 10 or 20 gallons, and you have to buy an absolutely pure "High Grade" Ready-Mixed Paint, at least 25¢ per gallon, and you have to buy your own personal knowledge of its purity and durability.
6. This point is Kinkoch House Paint, which is made in a full line of standard, popular and DURABLE colors. It is not a patent paint—it's just the good old time-tested paint material, ground together ready for you to mix down with the pure raw oil.

WHEREVER WE HAVE NO AGENT, YOUR OWN DEALER WILL GET "KINKOCH" FOR YOU, IF SHOWN THIS AD. BY WRITING DIRECT TO KINKOCH PAINT COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, MO.

LA GRIPPE—PNEUMONIA

So many people who have apparently recovered from an attack of La Grippe are stricken with Pneumonia. This is due to the fact that the Bronchial Tubes and Lungs are left weakened and unable to resist disease.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR

not only cures La Grippe Coughs, and prevents Pneumonia, but strengthens the Lungs so they will not be susceptible to the development of serious lung troubles. Do not take chances with some unknown preparation that may contain some harmful drug when FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR costs you no more and is safe and sure. Contains no opiates.

I had a bad case of La Grippe about ten years ago which left my Lungs so weak that I have been troubled more or less every winter since until I used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, which cured me completely and my Lungs no longer trouble me.—J. H. BROWNING, D.D.S., Orick, Mo.

G. VACHER, 157 Osgood St., Chicago, says: "My wife had a very severe case of La Grippe, and it left her with a very bad cough. She tried a bottle of FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR and it gave immediate relief."

Three size—25c, 50c, $1.00. The 50-cent size contains two and one half times as much as the small size and the 1.00 bottle almost six times as much. Refuse Substitutes.
