INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

Short Speech Delivered by Chief Executive After Taking the Oath of Office - Our Duties as a Nation to the World and to Ourselves.

ing the inauguration ceremonies at is inevitably accompanied by a like Washington March 4. President Roose- growth in the problems which are velt delivered the following speech:

My Fellow Citizens: things of the soul duties to ourselves; and we can shirk unbending, unflinching purpose to neither. We have become a great na- solve them aright.

After taking the oath of office dur-, tury and a quarter of its national life ever before every nation that rises to greatness. Power invariably means No people on earth have more both responsibility and danger. Our cause to be thankful than ours, and forefathers faced certain perils which this is said reverently, in no spirit we have outgrown. We now face othof boastfulness in our own strength, er perils the very existence of which but with gratitude to the Giver of it was impossible that they should Good, who has blessed us with the foresee. Modern life is both complex conditions which have enabled us to and intense, and the tremendous achieve so large a measure of well- changes wrought by the extraordinary being and of happiness. To us as a industrial developments of the last neonle it has been granted to lay the half century are felt in every fiber of Loundations of our national life in a our social and political being. Never new continent. We are the heirs of before have men tried so vast and forthe ages, and yet we have had to midable an experiment as that of adpay few of the penalties which in old ministering the affairs of a continent countries are exacted by the dead under the forms of a democratic rehand of a bygone civilization. We public. The conditions which have have not been obliged to fight for told for our marvelous material wellour existence against any alien race; being, which have developed to a very and yet our life has called for the high degree our energy, self-reliance. vigor and effort without which the and individual initiative, have also manlier and hardier virtues wither brought the care and anxiety inseparaway. Under such conditions it able from the accumulation of great would be our own fault if we failed; wealth in industrial centers. Upon and the success which we have had the success of our experiment much in the past, the success which we con- depends; not only as regards our own fidently believe the future will bring, welfare, but as regards the welfare of should cause in us no feeling of vain- mankind. If we fail, the cause of free glory, but rather a deep and abiding self-government throughout the world realization of all which life has of will rock to its foundations; and fered us; a full acknowledgment of therefore our responsibility is heavy. the responsibility which is ours; and to ourselves, to the world as it is toa fixed determination to show that day, and to the generations yet ununder a free government a mighty born. There is no good reason why people can thrive best, alike as re- we should fear the future, but gards the things of the body and the there is every reason why we should face it seriously, neither Much has been given to us, and hiding from ourselves the gravity of much will rightfully be expected from the problems before us nor fearing us. We have duties to others and to approach these problems with the tion, forced by the fact of its great- Yet, after all, though the problems ress into relations with the other na- are new, though the tasks set before tions of the earth; and we must be us differ from the tasks set before have as beseems a people with such our fathers who founded and preresponsibilities. Toward all other served this republic, the spirit in nations, large and small, our attitude which these tasks must be undertak-

Everybody "Practical" Now.

pear."-Philadelphia Record.

Slur on Married Legislators.

they are all afraid to report my bill."

Difference of Opinion.

Intelligencer.

less, hafter all!"

land Leader.

Congressman Adams, the bachelor

"We live in a practical age." re-

PRESIDENT ROCSEVELT.

must be one of cordial and sincere ea and these problems faced, if our friendship. We must show not only duty is to be well done, remains essenin our words but in our deeds that tially unchanged. We know that selfwe are earnestly desirous of secur- government is difficult. We know that ing their good will by acting toward no people needs such high traits of recognition of all their rights. But to govern its affairs aright through justice and generosity in a nation, as the freely expressed will of the freein an individual, count most when men who compose it. But we have shown not by the weak but by the faith that we shall not prove false to strong. While ever careful to refrain the memories of the men of the from wronging others, we must be no mighty past. They did their work. less insistent that we are not wronged they left us the splendid heritage we ourselves. We wish peace; but we now enjoy. We in our turn have an wish the peace of justice, the peace assured confidence that we shall be of righteousness. We wish it because able to leave this heritage unwasted we think it is right and not because and enlarged to our children and our we are afraid. No weak nation that children's children. To do so we must acts manfully and justly should ever show, not merely in great crises, but have cause to fear us, and no strong in the everyday affairs of life, the power should ever be able to single qualities of practical intelligence, of us out as a subject for insolent ag- courage, of hardihood and endurance, and above all the power of devotion Our relations with the other pow- to a lofty ideal, which made great the ets of the world are important; but men who founded this republic in the still more important are our relations days of Washington, which made emong ourselves. Such growth in great the men who preserved this wealth, in population, and in power republic in the days of Abraham Linas this nation has seen during the cen- coln.

"Thinks "Ben-Hur" Great Book. Avad A. Ghazuli, an Egyptian, enraged in the work of the medical de marked a West Philadelphian. "For partment of the University of Cincin- years I've noticed the sign of a man nati, has applied to the publishers of who advertises to do practical horse-Ben-Hut" for permission to translate shoeing. Now, a Woodland Avenue the work into Arabic. Mr. Ghazuli barber has himself down as a practihas translated a number of works, in- cal hair-cutter. Napoleon always childing Spencer's "History of Philes shaved himself. I always thought it thy." It is his opinion that there proved him either over-suspicious or is need for just such a book as "Ben- cowardly; but perhaps it was because Hur," which he describes as "one of these who wielded the razor were not the most instructive and interesting practical in those days. The sign of books of this age," in the Egyptian the practical toothpuller is yet to apchurch of which he is a member.

Royal Women in Feud.

The present czarina and the dowater empress do not merely look askance at one another. They have been the man who introduced a bill for the at open war for years. The latter establishment of a whipping post in found it very hard to surrender first the District of Columbia. The measpire, but of course had to do so. This velt's recommendation on the subject, was especially irritating to the im- but Mr. Adams has small hope of givings. She told her husband that maught for court intrigue and is al- man," says the Pennsylvanian, "and most painfully shy.

Pleasant Surprise for Sailors. On arrival at Bristol, England, with a cargo of fruit, the captain and three mistake for a deer was fined $110. If of the crew of the Spanish vessel Rui he shot a cow moose in mistake for a Peroz were informed recently that man he would have produced $500 for they had won $60,000 in the Spanish the squaring process.-Seattle Post-Mational lottery.

Feminine Curiosity. Mrs. Gayman-What particular folby are you meditating now?

Mr. Gayman (laying the paper .eside).-Well there's no fool like an Capitol.

11:55 a. m.

12:30 p. m.

stand at east front of the Capitol, where President Roosevelt took oath of office and delivered his inaugural address.

fireworks.

dent and Mrs. Roosevelt. Theodore Roosevelt was on March into president through the ballots of banks, accompanied by the secretary Mr. Fairbanks was forthwith ush-

There were waiting for the president when he emerged from the white

Inauguration Ceremonies. stretches east from the national capitol can accommodate an army. For hours Washington poured its own pop- Constitution: "I do solemnly swear decessors, even that of McKinley's ulation and a vast increment of vis. that I will faithfully execute the office second inauguration. Not since the itors into the front yard of the seat of of president of the United States, and review of the Federal army after the Mrs. Roosevelt leading. All festivities enced physician ample evidence of the government. Eight acres of humanity | will to the best of my ability, preserve. Civil war has the Avenue seen so closed sharply at midnight, because it texic or poisonous character of tea. spread fan-shaped from the focus protect and defend the Constitution of many and such variety of soldiers. made by a little covered shelter, open | the United States." at the sides, where the president was A second later he bowed and thirty-five thousand men in line. For to stand. Over toward the imposing pressed his lips upon the open pages three hours the mobilization profacade of the congressional library it of Holy Writ. Again erect, he faced gressed along First street, Pennsylextended, literally a "sea of faces." the people, and for an instant perfect vania avenue, and confluent streets There may have been only 50,000. probably there were nearer 100,000 in fashed from the dome of the capi- Ahead of the parade proper Presi-

ROOSEVELT AND FAIRBANKS TAKE OATH FOR HEALTHY AND LONG LIFE

Thousands of Visitors Throng National Capital to Witness the Ceremony-Procession the Greatest Seen in Washington Since the Close of the Civil War.

ministers of foreign countries.

FRCGRAM.

President left White House for the President pro tem of Senate ad- robes of black, topped with satin skull | The conclusion of the address was | started.

President returned to White Mr. Fairbanks' two sons, students at House. Grand parade followed. Illumination of city and display of Inaugural ball, opened by Presi-president through an assasin's bullet were also white. Vice President Fair- Fifty-ninth congress to order.

Under the shadow of the gray- ators and ex-senators, was next in members of the Inaugural committee domed capitol, gazing into the placid marble features of Greenough's statue of the first president, the twenty-sixth president of the United States swore faithfully to execute the laws and to preserve, protect, and defend the con-

There were represented in the throngs that had journeyed to the capital to greet President Roosevelt men from the North, South, East and West, and from distant islands of the seas; from the Philippines, from Porto Rico, from Hawaii-from every land where floats the emblem of the Republic. In the great parade there rode governors of states, both North and South. The president's old rancher friends, with lariat and chaparejos and wiry bronchos, made strange contrast to the stiff-backed, pouter chested young men from the national military schools. Rough Riders from San Juan Hill, volunteers from Santiago, jackies from Manila bay shared the plaudits of the multitude with modest, everyday soldiers, for whom the title Regular is distinction quite enough Political clubs from East and West, militiamen from North and South heroes of the Spanish-American war, miners from Pennsylvania, the entire legislature of the state of Tennessee, the president's neighbors from Oyster Bay-all contributed to the national character of the splendid pageant.

bouse thirty picked men from the Rough Riders under Gov. Brodie, With the crack squadron A of the First Cavairy, U. S. Army, they formed his escort to the capitol. As they swung around the treasury building into footstens of the aged veterans. A mighty wave of cheers swept along came in sight. Throughout the whole kept bowing in acknowledgment of the greetings. On his arrival at the capitol he was conducted to the president's room, in the rear of the senate chamber, where he began at once the signing of belated bills. At noon he entered the abode of the senate to witness the installation of Senator Fairbanks as vice president. This ceremony cencluded, he proceeded to the the door of the capitol, arm in arm to receive the oath from Chief Justice Fuller and to deliver his inaugural adsion the president was escorted back his white-haired companion came mony. to the white house, where, after lunch- James H. McKinney, clerk of the suing with the officials of the inaugural preme court, bearing a ponderous inaugural parade.

The imposing form of Associate | twenty-one, fired in honor of the newly | Riders and Squadron A, at a brisp Justice John Marshall Harlan, who is inaugurated chief executive. The clip proceeded up the Avenue to the almost heroic in stature, was the first tension was broken, and a roar of White House, where the president, afto catch the eye of the vast crowd. cleers resounded far and wide across | ter his lunch, took position in the Flanked by the marshal of the Su- the plaza. For many minutes the grand reviewing stand, surrounded by President entered Senate cham- preme Court and the marshal of the jangle of sounds continued before the members of his cabinet, the diplomats District of Columbia, Justice Harlan president could find a chance to be- and other rotables. Then, to the ied his colleagues, garbed in flowing | gin his inaugural address.

ministered oath of office to Vice caps, to their seats at the left of the the signal for another ovation, dur-President-elect Fairbanks, who tribune. After a brief pause, Count ing which Mr. Roosevelt chook hands | I leut. Gen. Wade, in command of the of discouraging the trial, the very delivered his inaugural address. Cassini, the Russian ambassador and with most of the notables who pressed entire military section. After him soreness should point out the great dean of the diplomatic corps, mar- about the tribune. Then he was es- came the Fifth band, artillery corps, need of the body. Entire assemblage preceded to shaled forth the ambassadors and corted back to the rotunda of the stationed at Fort Hamilton, New Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Fairbanks | chamber, where he held a brief reception the parade. Sustaining their reputation of the parade. were next escorted to seats just out- tion before leaving for the White tation of being the most perfectly a general feeling of increased vigor. consumption are very rare. The real dren were with Mrs. Roosevelt, and

Vice-President Sworn in.

Mrs. Roosevelt was gowned in a se- marble-faced clocks of the senate who marched immediately behind, ened. verely plain tailored suit of electric chamber registered noon. blue; the round skirt was trimmed At that hour Senator Frye, presiin bands of lighter shade panne veldent pro tem., hammered the marble vet, and the short, modish jacket had desk, and announced in set formula a vest of the panne braided in silver. that the senate of the Fifty-eighth Mrs. Fairbanks wore a beautiful dress | congress was adjourned sine die; transformed from president by of brown velvet, trimmed with chiffon then he immediately called the extrachance into president by choice; from and white ermine. Her hat and gloves ordinary session of the senate of the of the senate and followed by the sen- ered into the chamber, the senate

VICE-PRESIDENT FAIRBANKS.

Inaugurated March 4, 1905.

Pennsylvania avenue a division of the order. Then came Speaker Cannon acting as his escort. He proceeded G. A. R., with Gen. O. O. Howard and | and the house of representatives. The | to the rostrum, where Senator Frye Secretary Hay and other members pray.

of the calcinet were ushered to their Mr. Fairbanks then delivered his flying diagonally across the blue of the avenue as the president's carriage chairs, and at their heels came Adinaugural address, and, at its control the dress, are of varying sizes, from miral Dewey and Lieut. Gen. Chaffee. clusion, he instructed the secretary to two inches between the tips of the route the president, with hat in hand, Billows of cheers greeted Admiral read the president's proclamation wings down to the size of a bee. Dewey, and the hero of Manila bay convening the extraordinary session showed that he was pleased. The governors of states and territories and the other invited guests > followed in indiscriminate fashion, and President Roosevelt advanced from

The broad plaza whose level surface | was easily audible at some distance | sylvania avenue. when he repeated the formal declaration prescribed in article II of the staff in the lead, which had been instant the tall form of the vice president administered the usual oath. The new standing at salute, wheeled into the | dent appeared a swelling cheer burst | vice-president's first official act was | column, while the cavalrymen checked from the crowd. Mr. Fairbanks bowed to call upon the senate's chaplain, the the president's daughter, who selecttheir pace to accommodate the slower repeatedly before taking his chair. Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, to ed the material at the St. Louis fair.

> of the senate. Next the new senaters were called to the secretary's with roses of gold in the natural size cur in a closed than in a wide-open the nervous system, we may trace the desk and took the oath. President Roosevelt was then in a short time all was in readiness escorted back to the executive cham-

for the coming of the chief executive. ber, adjoining the marble room, preparatory to going to the east portico. himself to take the oath of office. The stand on the east front of the capitol with Chief Justice Fuller. Instantly, other distinguished visitors filed out from all parts of the eight acres of of the chamber in the order of official humanity, arose a prolonged, tumultu- precedence, and went to the seats asdress. Immediately upon its conclu- ous shout. Behind the president and signed them for the president's cere-

The Great Parade.

With standards waving, guidions them in a spirit of just and generous character as that people which seeks committee, he took his position on the Eible. When the demonstration ceased, whipping in the breeze, and regi-

that the procession beat all its pre- carpeted and decorated for their recep- common digestive disorders, and the There were between thirty-three and silence held. A signal had been about the Capitol.

sight of the president when he took tol to the navy yard, whence came dent Roosevelt and his escort, this stand in front to review the formal Chief Justice Fuller, his snowy locks, nental colors flaunting, infantry, cavfalling to his shoulders, pronounced alry, and artillery tramped, pranced, the oath. President Roosevelt's voice and rumbled through historic Penn- the president and his party did not classes who have reached middle life, Experienced observers declared outdid anything that ever before has should be taken quickly into a warm pean countries show that the increase been attempted. Walls, columns, win- room for the cold sponge bath. dows and every nook and corner were covered with greens and cut flowers, palms and ferns, flags, banners and bunting, so that the thousands of from the use of tea and coffee are guests might look with interest upon very decidedly manifest to one who something else of beauty than dazzling has given thought to this question, break had to be abandoned.

sion office next week, so that those poisonous character of a drug capawho do not attend the ball may have ble of producing irresistible drowsi-

Simple Rules, the Observance of Which Will Double

To live a natural life is the only Inherited Consumption.

should be used and then burned.

It is not necessary to isolate the pa-power and resist the deadly genus which may be breathed in. The rest of the family being thus fortified, the

Let him study to prevent the germs from being scattered broadcast

When every consumptive intelli-

Stomach.

careful what we swallow, for it becomes brain, heart, limbs, blood; and Foot Prints of Alcohol.

of insanity is parallel with the increase in the consumption of alcohol per cap-

RECIPES.

Cheese Straws.-Roll scraps of puff paste thin, and sprinkle with nut choese, grated; fold, roll out, and sprinkle again, and repeat the pro-ress. Then place on ice to harden.

When cold, roll in rectangular shape one-eighth of an inch thick; place it on a baking pan, and with a pastry cutter dipped in hot water, cut into strips four or five inches long, and ess than a quarter of an inch wide,

Easter Lily Cake. Bake sunshine cake in layer tins not more than one inch thick when done; also bake angel food in the same way. With a fancy pastry cutter of lily design cut-the white cake into small cakes.

Cut the sunshine cake in the same way, and put one of the yellow flowers on top of the white, with a white filling between. Cover the top ming. The cakes might be served accountely with the lify formed from ecing put on the top using white for the petals and yellow for the centers.

Tomato Sauce. - Put half a can of Bake in a moderate oven.

Employers find that those addicted

Some people think that because blare of bugles, the big procession next followed the corps of cadets from Third regiment, led the way. Indiana,

Vice President Fairbanks' home state, had only a company to her credit, state, New York, with the largest quota, three full regiments and several separate bodies, totaling nearly 4,000 line. They seemed to be passing an interminable time, mostly wearing Ohio, which usually manages to

The Spanish war veterans followed about 2,000 all told of these two so-

The Ball.

cial functions that occur in America

The evening's reception at the Pension building exceeded in grandeur its predecessors in the great edifice.

shade of light blue silk with figures of doves in gold tinsel. The shade has been named "Alice blue," in honor of 12,000 persons at the ball.

publican club of Cincinnati.

men, was tenth in order.

sticks.

own band.

Clerks, bookkeepers and thousands of other indoor workers suffer from safeguard against tuberculosis. One the lack of pure air and muscular ex- climate may do as well as another if ercise. If an attempt is made to be only you live out of doors, get plenty gir systematic exercise, or an hour or of cold, fresh air, bathe the body with so is spent in digging or chopping cold water daily, eat simple, nutriwood, undue soreness and fatigue are tious food and take as much exercise produced. This disagreeable result as possible without exhausting the often stops the experiment. Instead body.

If the work were persisted in and their parents died with consumption, Capitol and thence to the executive York. This was first of forty bands gradually increased the stiffness would they are doomed by the same plague. drilled body of troops in the world. The nerves are strengthened and the reason why so many in a family sufbodily activities quickened. The ef- fer from tuberculosis is to be found Senator Charles Warren Fairbanks, the United States military academy. fect is not alone on the muscles used, elsewhere than in heredity. Yale, and his daughter, Mrs. Adelaide of Indiana, became vice-president of Naturally they divided honors with but upon each organ. The blood is The afflicted member does not know Timmons, were with Mrs. Fairbanks. the United States shortly after the the future admirals from Annapolis, purified and the digestion strength- the necessity for personal cleanliness, for religiously collecting and burning dressed in natty suits of navy blue. The effects of a prolonged sedentary all matter spit up. The use of the the jolly jack-tar spirit fairly shinlife are overcome only by working off ordinary pocket handkerchief and the ing in their boyish faces. Then came the accumulated poisons and creating washing of it in the family laundry the regulars, real enlisted men, five an appetite for new pure food. This is is a constant source of danger. -Rice hundred of the Second batallion of built up in the body, and thus the paper handkerchiefs or old linen engineers swinging along behind their whole man is renewed.

Exercise must be carefully increased | The person himself is almost harm-Then came the state troops. To the and adapted to the individual muscu- less. It is only the lack of care in number of 14,000 they occupied nearly lar strength. The weakest muscles scattering the genus that makes him two hours in passing a given point. In must be brought up to the standard a dangerous companion. These bad order to prevent disputes as to pre- of the others. cedence each state contingent came practices are usually due to ignorance. For feeble persons who are not in alphabetical order, so that Ala- able to do the desired work, massage, tient for the protection of the family. bama, with a single company of her Swedish movements and mechanical Each person not affected should exercises should be employed. breathe fresh air, exercise out of

For more robust persons, walking, doors, eat simple food, bathe daily horseback riding, rowing, bicycle rid- and sleep eight hours each night. sixth in line, while the president's ing and especially swimming are to be This will increase the body's vital recommended.

How to Have a Clear Head.

The man who desires to have a clear patient should co-operate in the pro-Although soldiery was the chief feahead, a brain keeply a ive to the tection. subtle influences of the universe about ture, the civilian organizations formhim, alert to respond to every call ing the second section of the parade made upon it by the bodily organs un- through the house. Then let all coshowed up strong in numbers. Marching in the open order affected by po- der its supervision-ready to receive operate in the fresh air cure of the litical clubs, they spread all over the impressions from the infinite Source patient, and he may live in peace and avenue. There were about 15,000 in of universal thought, and capable of pleasure, gradually fighting his way thinking the high thoughts of God back to health, and in no way danafter Him, must live simply, abstemi- gerous to his friends. top hats and twirling fragile walking ously, naturally, and must avoid every harmful and inferior food. He will gently co-operates with the family select the choicest foodstuffs. These and physician, the day of "inherited make her presence felt, kept up her consist of fruits, nuts, dextrinized consumption" will be passed. reputation. She had in line the fa- grains-that is, well toasted grain mous Rail-splitters of the Toledo Lin- preparations, toasted bread, toasted coln club, the Tippecance club of wheat flakes, etc. He will eat spar- The majority of people never stop Cleveland, the famous singing organ- ingly, never to repletion. He will to think that the stomach is anything izations of Columbus, the Buckeye and exercise out of doors at least two or more than a receptacle for things that Republican glee clubs, the Knights of three hours daily, living as much of have been chewed. They get hold of the time as possible in the open air. something that tastes good and swal-He will sleep eight hours at night. low it into the stomach to get it out He will take a vigorous cold bath of the way, so there will be room for the G. A. R. veterans, there being every morning on rising, and will take something more. That might be all at least two or three times a week, right if the stomach were a garbage a warm, cleansing bath, just before box that could be carried off and going to bed at night. He will con- emptied; but nature intends the stom-Inaugural balls are the biggest so- serve for useful work every energy ach for another purpose. We are of mind and body. He will endeavor constructed of what we eat. We should to live righteously in the largest sense stop to think of that. We should be

Night Air and Consumption.

if we are to have good blood, clear There were in the neighborhood of The old fallacy that night air is a brains, sound minds, sturdy legs and dangerous miasm it not yet dead. strong arms, we must eat food that Mrs. Roosevelt's ball gown was Much has been said about fresh air, is capable of making that sort of tismade of a special weave of a new outdoor life and sunshine for tubercu- | sue, losis. Many victims have experienced the healing power in these natural agencies. But too often the consumptive, after a day in the sunshine or to the use of alcoholic heverages are in the cold, crisp winter air, retires not to be depended on. Even if they The doves, which are represented as for a night's sleep in a dark, stuffy, are always at their work the characairtight room. Don't be afraid of ter of it suffers just in proportion to their indulgence. Now this condition

Open the bedroom to all the sun is only a sign of disease in certain conpossible during the day. The room trolling centers in the nervous sys-Mrs. Fairbanks were a gown of will then be dry, though cold. Damp- tem. In this simple condition, as well white satin duchesse, embroidered ness is dangerous and more apt to oc as in a multitude of other diseases of of the flower. The lace trimming was room. Keep at least one window in foot-prints of alcohol. Here we have of Brussels point d'applique, with a the bedroom open day and night, sum- an explanation of the overcrowded indesign of bow-knots and marguerites mer and winter. The door should shut sane asylums of to-day, to say nothing the chamber off from the rest of the of the army of sufferers at large. Sta-The decorations of the ball-room house. In the morning the patient tistics from France and other Euro-

Insidious Poisons. The poisonous effects resulting and has made careful observations in The doors of the Pension building relation to it. The sallow complexion, were thrown open at 8 o'clock, but common among women of the higher arrive until 9 o'clock. They went im- the almost universal nervousness mediately to rooms specially prepared, among American women, and many tion, and a half hour later the grand increasing prevalence of nervous or march commenced. President and sick headaches, afford to the experiwas believed best to trespass no Sab- coffee, and the allied beverages, cocoa bath principles. Thus the usual pract and checolate. The well-known eftice of the presidents scaving at fect of these drugs in producing wakemidnight and turning the hall over fulness, banishing as if by magic the to the populace to dance until day- sensation of fatigue, affords sufficient evidence of their poisonous character Concerts will be given at the Pen. No one would doubt for a moment the > equally evidence of its poisonous char- cover the white with a yellow tinted The Only Safeguard Against Tubercu-Tuberculosis is a low-level disease. People are not subject to it until their | tomatoes over the fire in a stewpan,

The power of a drug to produce wake-bodies have become weakened and with a cuerter of a mincel onion, a their whole constitution undermined. Bittle parsley, a bay leaf and half a It used to be thought that one could | teaspoonful of salt. Boil about twenty not have tuberculosis if only he ex- minutes. Remove from the fire and ercised his lungs. A man who had strain through a sieve. Melt in anthis disease went to a professor in other pan a tablespoonful of cocoanut Vienna for advice. The professor or dairy butter and as it melts, sprinsaid, "You had better get a horn and kle in a tablespoonful of flour; stir earn to play it, to exercise your until it browns a little. Mix with the lungs." "Alas, professor," answered tomato pulp and it is ready for use.

fulness in a person strongly inclined of the sunshine layer with white icing, to sleep as the result of fatigue, is or if the white flower comes on top,

The absence from Wall street of their interests while away. Fifteen conductor that Judge Swayne was acwhenever a powerful operator went tain railroad. "I do not mean to raise away or took sick and often broke the question of Judge Swayne's right violently on rumors of his death. That to ride on a pass," explained Mr. Oimhas all changed now owing to the elab- sted as the witness was disappearing rich men to protect their holdings lobby, "but I consider it an important "Decorate the soldiers' graves," said when they die and prevent hasty sell- bit of testimony when the government ing by trustees or executors. Most is asked to pay the transportation." Wall street men nowadays make it "I should hardly expect the gentleman conditional upon joining forces with to question that right around here," any group of operators that each mem- observed ex-Senator Thurston quietber should make specific provision in ly, but the laughter that ensued was his will for the protection of the in- confined to the galleries.

and are always lived up to.

STEPS TO PREVENT PANICS. I NOT ENJOYED BY SENATORS.

gretted that severe hoarseness made Elaborate Precautions Taken by Lead- Only Galleries Amused by Repartee as to Bailroad Fasses.

There were moments of fun at the half a dozen prominent financiers, Swayne trial. Mr. Olmsted was queswith the announcement that several tioning a witness as to what furniture years ago the market became nervous customed to ride on a pass over a cer-"What do you do on Decoration orate arrangements made by most through the glass doors to the rear

A self-made man is seldom capable of Her Husband. She is a club woman with a sense of humor, but the other day when she in another town she had some misried you might telegraph."

WITH A WOMAN'S ANSWER.

Difference in Hunter's Fines. In the evening of her second day A Maine hunter who shot a man in away she did worry and sent this telegram to her husband: "How are the children." The messerger boy came with the dispatch just as the man was about to retire. He read it, smiled and then penned this answer: "They're all right. Why?" The Briton-"Well, 'ugging is "arm-"I guess that will hold her for awhile," he said to himself, and then The Yankee-"You're wrong, friend he went to bed. huggin' is arm-full, b'gosh."-Clevereply that he laughed to himself, forgetting for the time being the old representative from Pennsylvania, is Wife Responded to Humorous Inquiry adage: "He laughs best who laughs For Once Famous Raconteur Found

It was 3 o'clock in the morning Her reply was in one word:

"Because."—Exchange. Diamonds and Cowhide Boots.

used to wear cowhide boots while in just come in will pardon me if I have congress years ago, has been on a trespassed on his domain. I plead visit to Washington, where old friends | guilty to theft of his latest story, but were glad to see that he sticks to the I am sure he will agree with me that same kind of foot covering. An un- it was too good to keep." wonted addition to his makeup was Then Mr. Littleton sat down. The seen in the shape of two huge dis-mond studs. It has been hinted that also. It was really all he could de "Well, sir, why is it?" e went to bed.

He felt so good over what he conthe boots and gems do not exactly har the bad no manns of knowing the boots and gems do not exactly har the bad no manns of knowing the bad already leads of his steeler had already le sidered to be the shrewdness of his monize.

GOOD JOKE ON A WIT. He Had Nothing to Say.

It was once given to Borough Presiwhen he was aroused by the violent | dent Littleton to take the wind out of place among the women of the em- ure is in line with President Roose- decided to attend a federation session ringing of his door bell. Slipping into the sails of a man who is famed far bath robe and slippers he went to the and wide as an after dinner speaker. door and admitted a young Mercury | Every good story one hears is tagged guessed they would be all right, then in his message to his wife impressed wholly serious and had not an anec- closing I said: remarked, jocosely: "If you get wor- itself upon his sleepy consciousness. dote in it. He was almost at the end of it when the famous raconteur entered the room. Mr. Littleton bowed

> "I trust," said Mr. Littleton, "that Ex-Gov. Dockery of Missouri, who the distinguished gentlemen who has

Was Very Much Alive.

imparted to the audience. He merely waved his hand gracefully and re-company.-New York Press.

When visiting one of the primary others intend to depart soon on ex- or other effects Judge Swayne brought schools some years ago, the day be- tended trips, has excited interest in with him to Florida. One of his quesperious downger, irasmuch as the wo- favorable action by the house judi- she was possessed of a premonition who handed out a yellow envelope. It with the gentleman's name, and on fore Memorial day, or Decortion day, the discussion respecting the power tions was: "Did he bring any effects than who displaced her hates every- ciary committee. "Every last mem- of evil and cautioned him to be espe- was torn open quickly, read, and then more generally called, of very rich operators in the market other than what he had in his (pause) the way of display, cares ber of that committee is a married cially careful of the children. He the husband kicked himself back to speak directly after Mr. Littleton at a I, as usual, as a member of the school and arrangements by them to protect carpetbag?" Then he proved by a merely laughed and said that he bed as a recollection of his question banquet. Mr. Littleton's speech was board, addressed the pupils. When "Well, children, you have a holiday to-morrow. What day is it?" "Decoration day!" from all in uni-all together again. "Why do you decorate their graves any more than others!" This was a sticker, but finally one it impossible for him to address the ing Financiers.

terests of his associates in event of death. These agreements are binding