Geo. D. Meiklejohn is in town today. Carl Rohle is fighting an attack of the grip. Roy Johnson of Omaha is visiting his brother Carl this week. Dr. Chas. H. Platz, homeopathic physician and surgeon, possible influenza. A special train of empty stock cars was sent up the line to Fullerton today. Ed Smith of Rockdale, Wyoming, is visiting his sister, Mrs. N. D. Wilson, of this city. C. J. Carlisle is suffering with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism in both his hands. Dr. Martyn, Evans, Evans & Martyn, Jr., office three doors north of First Street. Theo. Friedrich returned from Chicago Saturday noon, where he has been buying merchandise. Mrs. Will H. King came up Friday evening from Superior to spend Sunday with her husband returning this morning. Mrs. Chas. H. Fick with her son Harry, arrived in Columbus yesterday evening for a visit of a week with her son, Prof. A. E. Fick. The setting of several heavy cars of coal on the U. P. switch by Fick's coal yard this morning caused the track to sink five or six inches in the soft ground. The Postal Telegraph company opened an office in Superior today, as announced some time ago. Frank Schroder, formerly Union Pacific agent at that place, will have charge. Spring vacation has not as yet been decided on owing to the fact that Easter comes so late in April, but the school children need not worry for they will have it sooner or later. Mr. James Askel of Omaha has been visiting the past week at the home of his aunt Mrs. Julie Rasmussen. He is on his way to the California coast where he is to make his home. He departs today. Division Superintendent Bignell of the Burlington had his special observation train transferred to the Union Pacific track from here to Grand Island, at which point he will continue his inspection of the Burlington road-bed. He was accompanied by other B.&N. officials. Yesterday afternoon at the gun club grounds north of the city Captain A. H. Hardy, rifle and revolver champion of the United States, gave an exhibition of fancy shooting. He did numerous stunts with a rifle that ordinary people wish they could do with a shot gun, such as breaking marbles in the air, hitting an orange two or three times before it can fall twenty feet, etc. He finished by cutting out a profile of Uncle Sam with a .22 calibre rifle on a white cardboard ten steps away. A good crowd turned out to see the exhibition. A member of the junior class of the high school furnishes us the following account of a class party Saturday night: "A grand and salubrious time was enjoyed by the class of '06 last Saturday night at the home of Miss N. Rose Rasmussen. The game consisted of sketching the hand and then shaking them all together and guessing to whom the hand belonged. This proved a very interesting game and Miss Hedwig Jaszai won a prize. Other games together with a short program and lots of music rendered the evening a pleasant

A friendly collision between two competitors injured Customer M. J. ... Mrs. Flora Palmer of New York City will deliver an address on Home Missions at the Presbyterian church, Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. There will be music and no admission fee. Everybody is invited. Clerk, Miss Beattie Sheldon; deacon, J. A. Douglas, pastor's assistant committee, Mesdames Bronger, Brindley and Douglas. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the church and a pleasant social time was combined with the business of the evening. Editor Burrage of the Argus is confined to his bed with grip today. A Schroeder was in Clark's Thursday and brought home a nice bag of lunks. Leo Gierzen left yesterday for a few days stock hunting in the sand hill country. St. Patrick's day passed off quietly in our city and the green was everywhere in abundant evidence. Born on Wednesday, March 15th 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ryan, of Superior, twins, a boy and girl. Our Senator, Hon. Hugo Hoebes, came up from Lincoln last night and will remain over Sunday at home. Miss Martha Turner returned from a three weeks visit at Chicago, last night. She reports an excellent time. Ed Hoare is home from the Capital where he has spent several days in and around the halls of the legislature. YOU NEED NOT have all teeth extracted in order to have new ones. The sound may remain. Consult Dr. Naumann, the dentist. The bishop of the diocese of Nebraska will preach at the Episcopal church tomorrow. A class will be confirmed in the morning service. The suit of Lena Mary Johnson for divorce from John A. Johnson is before Judge Reader this afternoon. Attorney Nichols of Madison is here in behalf of the plaintiff. Capt. E. H. Hardy, rifle champion of America, will give an exhibition of his wonderful skill as a marksman at the gun club grounds, northeast of the high school, tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. No admission will be charged as Mr. Hardy is demonstrating for an eastern ammunition house. Capt. Hardy is well known in this section of the state and a large crowd will undoubtedly be present to witness his remarkably accurate as a rifle and revolver shot. There will be a union meeting of the Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational churches tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Methodist church. This will be a meeting for workers, and is preliminary to the series of revival meetings which will commence tomorrow evening. The revival services will be conducted by the pastors of the four churches every evening except Saturday, all meetings being held in the Methodist church on the following Sunday Rev. William Hardcastle of Lincoln is expected to arrive here to conduct the union service and the meetings will be continued for several weeks, each evening except Sunday. Rev. Hardcastle is an experienced evangelist and the churches are expecting much good to result from the revival. Every one is urged to attend the meeting tomorrow evening. The preaching will be by one of the pastors, and there will be a union choir led by Rev. Ulmer.
