A. Haight has sold his residence property, now occupied by M. D. Karr, to C. S. Raney. Mr. Haight is in love with the mild climate of San Diego, and is getting his business matters in shape to go there to make his permanent home as soon as possible. Mr. and Mrs. Haight number friends here by the score who regret to see them go.

Judge Post's family horse, while frisking in the barnyard yesterday, slipped and broke one of its legs. The fracture was one of the small bones near the ankle joint where it could not be treated by the veterinarian; it was necessary therefore to shoot the horse. By some inexplicable mixing of notes yesterday, the Journal said that it was Dr. Martyn's horse.

Now is the time to be thinking of New Harness. We have the finest line of our own make ever shown in Columbus. It will pay you to come twenty-five miles to get a set of our harness, as the price and quality will make your trip pay you well.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Iowa, cheated death. He says: "Two years ago had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble, and keep them constantly on hand, since, as I find they have no equal." Chas. H. Beck, druggist, Bear Grove, Iowa.
