 Supervisor John Swanson passed through Columbus last night with a car load of fat cattle for the South Omaha market.
 Ebe Morehead of Fremont, an expert for the International Harvesting Machine Company is spending a week in Columbus territory.
 Mr. Gerring, of the firm of Gerring & Currey, attended a horse sale at Grand Island yesterday, and purchased three extra fine drivers which will be added to their already excellent lot of livery horses.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Daek returned this noon from Southlight, where they have recently completed a large hotel. Mrs. H. A. Hansen returned with them. They will probably spend the summer in Columbus.

John Dugan of Papillion who is managing a force of tree salesmen in this county, has been in Columbus several days. He will close his work at Columbus this week. Mr. Dugan covers his territory in an automobile.

Seasons change, men and women die, others take their places. But Peter Schmitt's flour occupies the same warm place in the hearts of Platte county house-wives. It is the same yesterday, to-day and forever. tt

L. F. Phillips has sold the Dr. Hohen property across the street west of the court house and it is understood he will replace the present buildings with a residence some time in the future. The buildings of Dr. Hohen were among the first built in Columbus.

Prof. W. Kern and W. W. Waters left this morning for the meeting of the Normal Educational Association at Asbury Park, N. Y. Prof. Kern is honored with a place on the program at this meeting. They will be gone about ten days. Their itinerary includes Niagara Falls, a trip down the Hudson to New York and a trip to Washington.

The Carlton Daily has the following to say of W. W. Ogden who was formerly a Columbus young man and his wife was formerly Miss Christa Kipple. "W. W. Ogden, who has been conducting the Griffith Hotel for about two years, finds that his business is so rapidly increasing that he will have to have more room. Accordingly he has rented the old Burlington Hotel, owned by the Hale estate. His new quarters has 27 sleeping rooms as well as a large office and dining hall. The kitchen is in the basement. The hotel will be repaired and painted throughout and an entrance made to the office at the corner. The building will also be equipped with hot and cold baths and will be otherwise improved. When completed this will be one of the best hotels in this part of the State. Mr. Ogden has made many friends here during his residence. He is careful to look after the wishes of his patrons and sets a fine table. He will move into his new quarters about the first of July and we wish him success in his new home."

F. T. Walker returned last week from a trip through Wisconsin, Illinois and Iowa says that Nebraska farmers have no cause to complain at crop conditions. He says that Nebraska corn is far ahead of any he saw in his travels over three states, both as to stand and size.

The value of Journal advertising is demonstrated every day in the week. A few days ago a lady advertised for a lost pocket book. The ad was read that night in the Daily Journal by a lady who knew where the missing pocket book was. The same day a man advertised a house for sale and two inquiries came to the Journal office the next morning.

The Columbus second base ball team went to Schuyler Wednesday and report that the run up against the first team of Schuyler. At any rate they struck a Waterloo, the score standing 9 to 1 in favor of the Schuyler team. On the way home some of the boys took shipping on a freight train which broke down a mile or so the other side of Richland. One of the boys walked to Richland and telephoned home for a relief expedition. The others walked all the way home.

P. E. McKillip was in the city yesterday enroute to Lincoln. Speaking of real estate conditions in Nebraska Mr. McKillip said "Business is unusually active in Nebraska lands. Prices are higher than they have ever been. But in spite of that fact there has been an active and increasing demand. We thought our Nebraska business would be quiet this summer and we accordingly bought some cheaper lands in Kansas, but we were mistaken. It has been difficult for us to keep up with the demand right at home."

 Judge Reeder and Carl Kramer were in Omaha yesterday. While the Judge does not take seriously the talk of his nomination to the supreme bench, his friends in the district which he serves will not forget him when the right time comes and there are hundreds of us Platte county people who will stand ready to give hearty endorsement to the words of County Attorney Kemp in a published interview in the Lincoln Evening News a few days ago when he said that "Judge Reeder is the choice of the people in my county for the supreme bench."

Last evening at six o'clock the U. P. gang quit work on the main line track leaving the Olive street crossing in an impassable condition. The foreman of the gang was straightway cornered by Chief of Police August Schack and informed that the obstructions must be removed and the crossing made passable at once. The railroad man said that he could not get his men to work after six, and offered to put up signal lights, but the valiant chief suggested that if the crossing was not immediately opened the foreman might prepare himself for a visit to the lock-up. With this prospect before him, he got busy and the crossing was cleared.

Mrs. Ludwig Michelson of Odessa, Wash. accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Julius Michelson and little girl arrived in Columbus last night over the Burlington. They left their Colfax county home about eight years ago for California where they resided until last year when they went to Odessa for the health of their youngest son. At Odessa Will Michelson has a large general mercantile business which employs his four younger brothers. The Michelsons are old settlers in this part of the state. Mr. Michelson was a personal friend of M. K. Turner. George Michelson still lives near Creston. Mrs. Michelson will visit here for some time. While in Columbus Mrs. Michelson called at the Journal office and left enough Washington money to keep the Journal going till 1907.
