Nothing helped me, until cussed at a conference of his business deal confiscating the beer and march- I took Dr. Kings New Discovery for associates here, among them being representatives of several Kansas City, Topeka and Chicago banks. The purpose of the conference was to discuss the transfer of Mr. Devlin's properties from him individually to the corporation formed here Saturday to handle them. To make this transfer possible and to keep the twenty-six different Devlin companies running, it was announced at the conference it will be necessary for the interested banks to advance a large sum of money. According to announcements holdings are worth between $6,000,000 have been placed at over $3,000,000.

Heavy Rains in Missouri and Kansas. Kansas City, July 3.—Soaking rains have fallen in western Missouri and Kansas during the past forty-eight hours and several small Kansas streams are out of their banks. The fall of rain in this part of the southwest averaged over three inches. In eight hours over three inches of water fell at Kansas City, three inches at Leavenworth, four inches at Hutchinson, over four inches at Ellis and nearly six inches at Eldorado. At Eldorado the fall amounted almost to a cloudburst, washing out tracks on the Missouri Pacific and Santa Fe rallways, flooding thousands of acres of streams to rise rapidly. A portion of Hutchinson is threatened with being flooded by the overflow of Cow creek.

Flood Along Republican River. Oxford, Neb., July 3,-The heavy rainfall of the past three days has transformed the placid Republican river here to a flood, a mile and a half wide and twenty feet deep at the river bridge south of here. Hundreds of acres of fine crops are under water, the loss to live stock being heavy. The unusual height of the water has forced many families to the neighboring hills. Through railroad traffic is interrupted, a condition general in all directions from this place and unprecedented for this section.

Two Inches of Rain at St. Joseph. St. Joseph, Mo., July 3.-A steady rain has continued without intermission for fourteen hours. Two inches of water has fallen in that time. Railway train schedules have been interfered with. There is a very large acreage of unreaped wheat in this section that should have been harvested several days ago. All such crops will suffer heavily and many in bottom lands will be lost owing to the wheat being down or inability of reaping machines to work on account of the water.

REBEL BATTLESHIP IS CRUISING AROUND IN BLACK SEA.

QUICK CHANGE IN SITUATION

Mutineers Reinforced by Crew of the Georgi Pobledonosetz, Who Later Surrender Conditionally-No Dan ger Feared at Odessa.

St. Petersburg, July 3.-The unprecedented spectacle of a powerful modern battleship cruising around in the Black sea in the hands of a crew, who, under the rules of international law, cannot be regarded as other than pirates, and of the admiral in command of the rest of the Euxino fleet frankly confessing his inability to cope with the situation and ordering the fires of his warships to be drawn, has stupefied the Russian admiralty. The whereabouts of the errant battleship Kniaz Potemkine is unknown here. No plans for capturing her have been devised and the policy of noninterference seems to be at present in vogue. The situation would furnish a libretto for a comic opera were not the elements of the plot so serious. Dispatches from Odessa and Sevastopol, which are confirmed by the admirally, clear up fully the present situation. The Kniaz Petemkine has sailed from Odessa and is now at large, and her crew, reinforced by sympathizers from shore, is still in control of the vessel. On the Georgi Pobledonosetz, which east in its fortunes with the Kninz Potemkine after its arrival at Odessa and landed its officers, the more loyal or more timorous portion of the crew again gained the upper hand and agreed to surrender and disarm the ship. The rest of the squadron returned to Sevastopol without venturing to take up the gauntlet thrown down by the mutinous crew of the Kniaz Potemkine, and Admiral Kruger, after a council of war, finding that he could not depend on his crews, ordered the fires drawn beneath the boilers of his ships and gave permission to all the disaffected officers and railors to quit the vessels and go ashere. The sailors of the Ekaterina II were known to be so mutinous that the battleship was left behind when the squadron started for Odessa, the whole crew dismissed and the ship disarmed.

The proclamation attached to the dead body of the Kninz Potemkine's saflor Omiltchuk at Odessa confirms the statement of the authorities that the revolt was engineered by social revolutionists. The proclamation terthat have been made Mr. Devlin's minated with the slogan of the party, "One for all and all for one." This and $7,000,000, while his liabilities makes the situation more serious than would have been the matter of simple disaffection, and gives rise to the greatest apprehension that the revolutionary organization may have conducted an equally successful propaganda among the soldiers, the results of which will be suddenly manifested when the army is called upon in some internal emergency.

DISAFFECTION IS SERIOUS

Reports Emanating From Russian Sources Viewed With Suspicion. London, July 3.-The dispatch from Sevastopol telling of the action of Vice Admiral Kruger, after a council of admirals and captains of the Black corn in the bottoms and causing sea fleet, in authorizing his officers and men to go ashore, is regarded by the London morning papers as a full explanation of the mystery surrounding the recent occurrences at Odessa. It is held that there is no longer any doubt that Russia is confronted with serious disaffection in the remnant of her navy and that this knowledge actnated Admiral Kruger in refraining from any attempt to suppress the mutiny on the Kniaz Potemkine. The question is asked how far the same state of affairs may exist in the army should occasion arise to employ the troops against a serious uprising.

Though for the moment, the outbreak threatened at Odessa itself has been averted, it is considered that the situation could hardly be blacker. The history of the past few days inclines the public here to regard with suspicion most of the reports emanating from Russia and the tendency is to believe the condition of affairs at Odesen, Libau, Cronstadt and elsewher is much worse than has been represented and no surprise will be expressed should the alleged surrender of the Georgi Pobledonosetz turn out to be no better founded than was the reported surrender of the Kniaz Potemkine.

According to the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Odessa, the Georgi Politicionosetz entered the harbor Saturday afternoon. Her boatswain, who had been netting as captain, entered a boat with ten men and started to come ashore. A force of troops was sent to capture them. The local authorities spoke with them, and the boatswain, according to the dispatch. declared that they desired to surrender and yield up four ringleaders. After a long parley three tugboats filled with troops and with orders to shoot if the mutineers resisted, were about to start for the warship. At that very minute a staff officer rushed up with orders from the commander in chief, telling them not to proceed. Soon afterwards the governor general, with 2,000 troops, arrived and there was of the erew of the battleship declined | Senator Alitchell case.

to surrender in fear of being shot and said they wanted pardon. Eventually the governor general went on board and the satiors promised they would serve faithfully if the officers returned but they would decline to quit the ship without the emperor's full pardon. According to other special dispatches from Odessa several of the officers of the Georgi Pobledonosets were murdered.

Kniaz Potemkine at Kustenji.

London, July 2 .- Lloyd's agent at Kustenji, Roumania, says the Kniaz Potemkine and a torpedo boat are anchored off that port. The commander of the Roumanian fleet boarded the Kniaz Potemkine and gave her permission to take water and provisions pending instructions from Bucharest. The Russian gunboat Psezoupa is also there, but has not communicated with the Kniaz Potemkine.

STRIKE FUNDS EXHAUSTED

Two Thousand Chicago Teamsters Clamor in Vain for "Benefits."

Chicago, July 8 .- Because of a lack of funds and confronted with secessions from the ranks of the strikers, the teamsters' joint council has called a special meeting of that body for tonight to decide whether the strike, which has been in progress for nearly three months, shall be continued, and if so to devise means of raising money to pay strike benefits.

Strike benefits for 2,000 of the railway express drivers were due yesterday, but there was no money in the treasury of the union to meet these claims. This lack of funds caused great dissatisfaction among the express drivers, and it was freely predicted that many of these men would apply to the express companies for work. The department store drivers also threaten to mutiny.

The numerous city express companies will become involved in the strike today. Injunctions issued by Judge Holdon compelling these companies to make deliveries to all business houses regardless of their connection with the present struggle were served on all these companies.

When the 2,300 wood workmen go on strike today for an increase in wages from 28 cents to 30 cents an hour all the factories in which these workmen have been employed will be closed down for an indefinite period. This was decided upon at a meeting of the employers.

The Cook county grand jury made a report arraigning corrupt employers and labor leaders and returned thirty indictments charging conspiracy and assaults. A new indictment was found against President Shea of the teamsters' union.

Tires Supporting Wife; Kills Her. Cleveland, July 3.—That he had become tired of supporting his old wife. who had become an invalid, was the excuse for killing her which August Otto, a sixty-eight-year-old German. gave the police when he confessed committing the crime. Otto walked into an undertaker's shop, requesting that proper attention be given the body of his wife, who, he said, had fallen down stairs and killed herself The woman's head was almost backed to pieces and blood stains led to a hatchet found in the barn.

Loomis Arrives in Paris.

Paris, July 8.—Francis B. Loomis, assistant secretary of state and special ambassador to take over the body of Admiral John Paul Jones from the senior special ambassador, General Horace Porter, arrived here. He was met at the depot by a number of officials, French and American, who accompanied him to the hotel, where Rear Admiral Sigsbee and the officers of the American squadron are already quartered.
