

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Thursday's Daily Journal.

Dr. Paul, dentist.
Prof. Pool, violinist. Phone 65.
Dr. Vallier, Osteopath, Barber block.
Miss Vesta Sater went to Bellwood today.

August Wagner went to Omaha this morning.

Mr. Newman and Mr. Gluck went to Tarnov today.

A. D. Crouch of Primrose is in Columbus today.

Judge and Mrs. L. L. Albert went to Omaha this morning.

Margaret Adomian of Albion is visiting Mrs. Fred Curtis.

Miss H. Kaufman, the dressmaker has moved to 114, 11th St.

Miss Mabel Becroft is visiting friends in this city this week.

One of Seth Braun's hammocks is a cure cure for that tired feeling.

Mrs. A. R. Waeter, Park City, Utah is visiting Mrs. Howard Geer a few days.

Dr. Louis, the Albion ball player, was in the city today enroute to Norfolk.

Attorney C. F. Critchfield of Fulerton was in the city today on legal business.

Mrs. E. F. Folds of Schuyler who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Speier returned home today.

Mrs. A. K. Wadron and daughter Mabel of Schuyler are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Raney.

Mrs. Varley of Omaha has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. A. J. and E. H. Smith. She returned home yesterday.

Mrs. George Winslow left this morning for Stuart, Nebr., where she will visit relatives for about three weeks.

Miss Julia Galbraith of Albion and Miss Helen Hall of Omaha were among the visitors who spent the Fourth in Columbus.

Mrs. Chas. Elias and daughter Pauline spent the Fourth in Grand Island with Mrs. Elias' daughter, Mrs. Jessie Wiles. They returned today.

The fireworks display which was interrupted by rain on the evening of the Fourth will be resumed tomorrow.

evening. A large and beautiful assortment of fireworks remains to be used, and if the weather permits tomorrow evening the display will be worth seeing. Everybody is urged to come out and see it.

Misses Winnie and Nellie Hill of Albert Lee, Minn., arrived here Tuesday for a visit of two weeks. They are nieces of Mrs. J. G. Echois.

Miss Anna Douglas and Miss Alta Stryker, who spent the Fourth in Columbus visiting friends, left this morning for Benedict, Nebr., their home.

Procrastination is the thief of time. Don't put it off. Have your house insured now. Have your accounts collected before they are outlaw. Call on C. N. McElfresh. wif.

Seasons change, men and women die, others take their places. But Peter Schmitt's flour occupies the same warm place in the hearts of Plate county house-wives. It is the same yesterday, to-day and forever. If

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragatz, Jr., returned the Fourth from their wedding trip. While their place of residence is in course of preparation they will reside with Mr. Ragatz's parents.

R. C. Lange, an old Plate county settler who at one time published a German paper here, visited friends a few hours between trains yesterday. He sent a telegram from Fremont to F. Broduske announcing his coming.

Mrs. S. C. Raney who has been in Lincoln with her husband since his accident on the Fourth, returned home last night. She says that the surgeons have been unable thus far to locate the bullet in Mr. Raney's heel and that they have decided to allow him to rest a few days before again probing for it. Mr. Raney, she says, is resting easy, but will be confined to the hospital for some time. Search for the fellow who did the shooting is in progress. It is believed that he is in Havelock and that it is only a question of a short time when he will be located.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragatz, Jr., office three doors north of Friedhof's store.

Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Dickinson are entertaining this afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Luth.

Mrs. Susanna Thomas has gone on a visit to Buffalo, N. Y., expecting to be gone about a month.

Rev. G. A. Munro has been spending several days in the country with members of his congregation.

Mrs. Harriet Sherman, of Schuyler, an old time resident of Columbus is visiting old friends in the city this week.

E. Gill and son Amos of St. Edward were in the city last night returning from Idaho where they have taken irrigated homesteads.

Mrs. Julia Olsen of Omaha daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karr spent the Fourth in Columbus. She expects to remain about two weeks.

Miss Kelso, the milliner, has decided to close her store at 6:30 o'clock every evening. This is a move in the right direction and one that should be emulated by other stores in the city.

Jno. Eisemann of Gruenert brought a sack of new potatoes to the Journal office this morning. They were the largest new potatoes we have seen and were of excellent shape and quality.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert this morning a bright bouncing girl baby. This makes Carl's family number nine children, seven girls and two boys. Carl is happy and the mother and little infant are doing nicely.

A. O. Kulloch, known to the boys on the road as "Dad," has resumed his old place as clerk at the Meridian hotel. There is no more popular hotel clerk in the state than "Dad" Kulloch. The boys all like him and are glad to see him back.

Work has recommenced on the new bank building after considerable delay on account of the non-arrival of material. The much wanted staff arrived yesterday and a full force of workmen will be employed Monday and push the building to completion as rapidly as possible.

Miss Winquist left this week for Holdrege where she will visit with her parents for a week or so before going to the large millinery centers of the east to absorb new ideas in headgear for the fall trade. She will return to Columbus about the first of September and will be employed again by Miss Kelso.

WANTED—By Chicago manufacturing house, person of trust worthiness and somewhat familiar with local territory as assistant in branch office. Salary $18 paid weekly. Permanent position. No investment required. Business established. Previous experience not essential to engaging. Address, Manager Branches, 333 Dearborn St. Chicago.

Miss Florence Whitmoyer went to Bellwood this morning to give her regular course of lessons to her piano class at that place, but returned on the afternoon freight, having found all of her pupils laid up from the effects of Fourth of July festivities. She thinks that if the same rate of casualties held throughout the entire town as among her music pupils, the village of Bellwood is depopulated.

In the trial of a case yesterday in Justice O'Brien's court Attorneys Garlow and Lightner made a few remarks relating to their respective mental capabilities and knowledge of legal procedure. Mr. Garlow closed by ex-

Dr. J. W. Terry

OF OMAHA

EYE SPECIALIST

EXPERT OPTICIAN

who for the past eight years has been making regular visits to Columbus, has opened one of the Best Equipped Optical Offices in the front rooms over Pollock & Co.'s Drug Store. Will be in Columbus offices Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of each week. Spectacles and eyeglasses scientifically fitted and repaired. Eye Glasses adjusted to any nose.

IN THE WEST

CONSULTATION FREE

Col. M. Whitmoyer is putting a new coat of paint on his residence.

FOR RENT good clean rooms Mrs. Oushing 404 11th St. Reasonable prices.

John Smith, Chas. Kelly and Ed Watts of Monroe are Columbus visitors today.

Drs. Martyn, Evans, Evans & Martyn Jr., office three doors north of Friedhof's store.

Mrs. Babcock and Mrs. Dickinson are entertaining this afternoon in honor of Miss Alice Luth.

Mrs. Susanna Thomas has gone on a visit to Buffalo, N. Y., expecting to be gone about a month.

Rev. G. A. Munro has been spending several days in the country with members of his congregation.

Mrs. Harriet Sherman, of Schuyler, an old time resident of Columbus is visiting old friends in the city this week.

E. Gill and son Amos of St. Edward were in the city last night returning from Idaho where they have taken irrigated homesteads.

Mrs. Julia Olsen of Omaha daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Karr spent the Fourth in Columbus. She expects to remain about two weeks.

Miss Kelso, the milliner, has decided to close her store at 6:30 o'clock every evening. This is a move in the right direction and one that should be emulated by other stores in the city.

Jno. Eisemann of Gruenert brought a sack of new potatoes to the Journal office this morning. They were the largest new potatoes we have seen and were of excellent shape and quality.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert this morning a bright bouncing girl baby. This makes Carl's family number nine children, seven girls and two boys. Carl is happy and the mother and little infant are doing nicely.

A. O. Kulloch, known to the boys on the road as "Dad," has resumed his old place as clerk at the Meridian hotel. There is no more popular hotel clerk in the state than "Dad" Kulloch. The boys all like him and are glad to see him back.

Work has recommenced on the new bank building after considerable delay on account of the non-arrival of material. The much wanted staff arrived yesterday and a full force of workmen will be employed Monday and push the building to completion as rapidly as possible.

Miss Winquist left this week for Holdrege where she will visit with her parents for a week or so before going to the large millinery centers of the east to absorb new ideas in headgear for the fall trade. She will return to Columbus about the first of September and will be employed again by Miss Kelso.

WANTED—By Chicago manufacturing house, person of trust worthiness and somewhat familiar with local territory as assistant in branch office. Salary $18 paid weekly. Permanent position. No investment required. Business established. Previous experience not essential to engaging. Address, Manager Branches, 333 Dearborn St. Chicago.

Miss Florence Whitmoyer went to Bellwood this morning to give her regular course of lessons to her piano class at that place, but returned on the afternoon freight, having found all of her pupils laid up from the effects of Fourth of July festivities. She thinks that if the same rate of casualties held throughout the entire town as among her music pupils, the village of Bellwood is depopulated.

In the trial of a case yesterday in Justice O'Brien's court Attorneys Garlow and Lightner made a few remarks relating to their respective mental capabilities and knowledge of legal procedure. Mr. Garlow closed by expressing a hope that his opponent might come to know more as the years pass, and Mr. Lightner opined that in the light of Mr. Garlow's progress he had not much hope. The engagement was at long range and there was no mortality.

The man Odell from Creston who was brought back from the Pacific coast by Sheriff Carrig had his preliminary hearing yesterday before Justice O'Brien, and was held to the district court in the sum of $3000 on the charge of criminal abortion. An accomplice by the name of Early was secured as a witness and testified to the effect that he was present at the time of the commission of the crime and himself buried the abortive child. Drs. Metz and McKinley testified as to the condition of the woman after the delivery.

Saturday's Daily Journal.

Chas. Segelko went to Clarks this morning.

Frank Clother was down from the Center today.

Homer Robinson was a passenger on this noon.

Dr. Flory of St. Edward was in the city this afternoon.

Homer Robinson returned from the west on No. 12 this morning.

Roy Hall went to Fullerton this week to visit his cousin there.

H. C. Newman went to Tarnov this morning to attend a bankruptcy sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Burrus have gone to Silver Creek for a visit of a few days.

Dave Newman went to Genoa this morning to look after some of the farms of I. Gluck.

P. E. McMillip, of Humphrey was in the city a short time last evening on his way home from the east.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carter left last night for a week's visit with friends and relatives at Norfolk and Creighton.

Carl Schubert has put electric lights in his gun store. Another case of locking the barn door after the horse is stolen.

Conductor G. S. Raney is reported to be improving nicely from his recent accident and will be out in a few days.

Wilbur and Edith Barnes of Route 4, Columbus, left the first of the week for a two weeks visit at Broken Bow and Denver.

Earl Nickerson of St. Edward has been appointed manager for Swift & Co., but has not yet been assigned to a location.

Lee Jenkins and Basil Gietzen left this morning for Looper City, equipped with guns and dogs and other necessities for hunting.

R. F. Williams of St. Edward returned this morning from a three weeks trip to the North Platte country where he has been looking into real estate investments.

W. L. Rowley, local manager for Swift & Co., has gone to York for a week's vacation. His place will be filled during his absence by Thos. Piley who is foreman.

Mrs. Waite, who is employed on the Stanton Register, after spending a few days visiting friends in Columbus went this morning to her home in Central City for a vacation.

Misses Nellie Langen and Josie Clother and Mr. Albert Thurman, of Plate Center were in our city last evening to see the grand display of fireworks and attended the dance. They returned home early this morning.

Gio. Hall, carrier on Route 4, reports an interesting celebration at Henry Hobbs' grove on the Fourth. About fifty members of the German Baptist church were present. Rev. Hyde and Wm. Bloodorn delivered addresses and an interesting children's program was given.

Mrs. L. L. Gray, and Mrs. G. M. Douglas accompanied by their mother Mrs. A. M. Mahaffey left this morning for Gresham, Nebr., to be present at the unveiling ceremonies tomorrow of a monument erected by the Old Fellows in honor of Mrs. Mahaffey's son who died here this spring.

Miss Ethel Hurd, formerly manager of the Postal Telegraph Co. here, and lately in charge of the company's office in Grand Island, has resigned her position and will return to her home in Des Moines, Ia., after visiting over Sunday in Columbus.

Chris Grunther returned today from a western trip. He reports that the wheat crop of himself and brother at Wheatland, Wyo., was completely wiped out by hail. The ground was covered with hail to a depth of eight inches and hail stones went through roofs of houses.

Swift and Company will erect a substantial building for their business in Columbus as soon as they can find a suitable lot upon which to build. The local manager, W. L. Rowley, told a Journal reporter today that plans had practically been completed for closing a deal for lots when it was found that the title to the same was imperfect, and their plans were delayed accordingly. Mr. Rowley would not commit himself but he left the impression that the plant would be a credit to Columbus.

Dr. J. W. Terry, Optician.

Consult Dr. Terry about your eyes.

The supervisors met this afternoon.

Jas. Novels was in Omaha yesterday.

G. R. Proib, painting and paper hanging.

Att'y Frank Rose is in the city this afternoon.

Blake Maher of Plate Center is in the city today.

Miss Ethel Wing left Saturday for Malvern, Ia., to visit her mother for two or three weeks.

Seth Braun and Wm. Swachter are in Tarnov today on business.

GROUND BONE & BEEF SCRAPS for chickens at Ernst & Brock's. Phone 98.

Editor Stockwell of the Genoa Times was in Columbus a few hours this afternoon.

Private boarding house. Will take table boarders. Call at 1608 Plate St.

Jno. Kennedy of Genoa was in the city today. He was returning from a pleasant trip to Omaha.

D. M. Newman went to Omaha this morning. From there he will go to Lincoln for two or three days.

Fireman Rector returned to his home in Grand Island this noon, after a few days visit in Columbus with his parents.

Now is the time to insure your property against loss by lightning.

Loss every day. Why be the loser when a small premium may save you hundreds of dollars.

Lightning insurance written by Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers insures.

Police officer Jack Sullivan drove up to Plate Center Sunday and spent the day with a sick brother. This was his first trip into the country this season and the great fields of grain along the road were a complete surprise.

Instead of the corn crop being poor as reported he says it is fine and above the average. Small grain he claims will be a corker crop.