

Bigger, Better, Brighter Bargains For the Last Ten Days of Our July Clean Sweep Sale

The record-breaking success which our July Clean Sweep Sale of Reliable Merchandise is achieving proves that the People of Platte County fully appreciate the Better than Usual opportunity to make their Summer purchase. Notwithstanding the fact that our prices are admittedly the lowest in the city, we could never have commanded such satisfactory business as we have since the Sale started had not every article advertised come up to the customer's expectation.

For the last week of the Clean Sweep Sale we have brought forward Hundreds of the Best Bargains ever offered here—elsewhere—anywhere. Read carefully the List of Bargains for the Last Week of the Clean Sweep Sale and come early and often.

Saturday night a reception was held at the home of Mrs. C. T. Terry for members of the local Ben Hur order, in honor of Mrs. Terry's mother Mrs. Hanzie who is quite prominent in Ben Hur work in Omaha. An enjoyable time is reported by all who attended. Games were played and lunch served.

Arthur Bradshaw had the misfortune to fall and break his right arm last, Thursday evening. We are glad to report the little fellow getting nicely.

Saturday night two of our young sporting men went to Platte Center to celebrate some event (we did not learn what). They proceeded to look upon the sparkling amber fluid (which made Platte Center famous) for a goodly length of time, when they at length decided that the time was propitious for them to demonstrate to the world that they were "Bad men from Bitter Creek" they proceeded to do so by "shooting up" the town. It appears that the inhabitants of our neighboring town did not take kindly to the too free use of fire arms and resented the free "Bad Man Show" to the extent the village marshal was called upon to arrest the "bad men" but they thought otherwise and started for home with the Platte Center marshal

"running also." After a hot chase to within 1 mile of there the boys were far enough ahead to elude the marshal who came on to town and arrested them here about midnight. The boys were released on bail to appear in a justice court on Friday to answer a charge of disturbing the peace.

E. R. Black and Wm. Webster started for Carter, Neb., on Sunday evening where Mr. Webster's automobile has been "catching its breath" for the last three weeks. They are expected home tomorrow.

Contractor Seeley of Fremont is working a good sized force of men preparing for the new elevator he will build for the Omaha Elevator Co., here. It is the intention of the company to have the new building completed in time to handle the crop of grain which is so near ready for market.

Nelson and Read disposed of the steam thrasher they have had in stock for the last two months to Mr. Moore of Genoa Monday.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek of Concord Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies with a sore on my upper lip so painful sometimes that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else I cured it with Backlen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns cuts and wounds. At Chas. Dacks drug store only 25 cents.

Route 3

D. J. Lueschen went to Hot Springs, South Dakota this week for his health.

A son was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Menche.
