Tuesday afternoon a party of twelve lady friends surprised Mrs. Breed, the occasion being her birthday. The guests gathered at the home of Chas. Johnson. A very pleasant time was spent until 6:30. A dainty luncheon was served in four courses, and several presents were given Mrs. Breed. She was made many years younger by the event. Decorations were of ferns and sweet peas.
Andrew Hansen and John Lund and son of Joliet were in the city today. With them was Peter Jensen who came down to take out his first papers of citizenship. These gentlemen, who are among the numerous new subscribers to the Journal in Joliet township, made the Journal office a pleasant call while they were in the city. They believe that the politics of Platte county will change this fall provided the republicans put up the right men.

A sister of A. Dussell who has been visiting here returned today to her home in Iowa. She was accompanied by Miss Ida Graves who will visit relatives a short time.

We are in receipt of the Swen City Herald, Hubert Burruss paper, at Swen City Iowa. It is a neat five column quarto containing plenty of advertising to make it look profitable.

The Misses Kaufmann left last evening for a visit in Colorado Springs. They were accompanied as far as Grand Island by Harry Lohr who however enters a general denial to all rumors.

Mrs. F. H. Abbott entertained about twenty five ladies yesterday afternoon at six hand euchre, in honor of her sisters, the Misses Sarah and Mabel Muir of Lincoln. Miss Alreda Post won the prize.

The rain last night put the carnival company out of business temporarily but they are in full blast again today. Reports of those who have attended are to the effect that the attractions are all clean and worth seeing.

Miss Frances Maynard, of the Journal force, and who operates the typesetting machine, left today for her home in Schuyler, where she will be joined by her mother and go to Iowa Falls, Iowa on a visit to relatives for two weeks.

J. H. Little of Fullerton is in Columbus today looking after the advertising of the Fullerton chautauqua which is to be held next month. He reports the outlook first class for a successful meeting and a record-breaking attendance.

The Journal omitted to mention the departure of Rev. and Mrs. Munro last Tuesday for their six-weeks vacation. They went west on the Burlington. They will visit the Portland fair and spend a part of the time with relatives of Mr. Munro.

Everett M. Swain, brother of Lloyd Swain of this city, is in Columbus for a short visit with his brother's family. Mr. Swain is an old Nebraska boy and a graduate of our state university. He is now a practicing attorney in Chicago, connected with a leading firm and with bright prospects in his profession.

Nance county has three contestants in the seed corn prize contest opened by the department of education of Nebraska. Five hundred boys and girls throughout the state are now tending the corn under the rules adopted by the department. Those in the race from Nance county are Herbert Gardner and Carl Hensen of Genoa and J. E. Downing of Fullerton.—Fullerton News Journal.

A jolly party of young people drove to McPherson's this morning to spend the day. They took a goodly number of fat lunch baskets and a suspicion of fishing tackle. The party consisted of the Misses Ola Bell Hervey of Omaha, Mary Fals also of Omaha, Marcia Perkins and Lillian Adams; and Messrs. Ned Post, George Reeder, John Elliott and Will Hockenberger.

F. M. Weitzel, assistant cashier of the First National Bank at Albion, at one time Deputy Internal Revenue Collector in this state, read a paper before the last meeting of the State Bankers' Association at Fremont on the subject of the "adding and listing machine," which possessed so much literary as well as commercial merit, that the Burroughs Adding Machine Company of Detroit, had the paper published in a handsome little pamphlet for distribution among the banks of the world. And so popular was the pamphlet, that it has passed to its second edition. Everybody who knows Fred Weitzel is his lasting friend, and Fred numbers friends legion in Nebraska who rejoice at this compliment paid to his abilities.

Prohibitionist Convention.
The Prohibitionists of Platte County are called to meet in convention in Monroe Hall on August 3 at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of electing ten delegates to the state convention which meets at the auditorium in Lincoln Nebraska August 8th at 10 o'clock a. m., and to transact such other business as may properly come before it.

Hensley, Jr. arrived home this forenoon for a month's visit with his parents and friends. The young officer looks every inch a soldier.

Large crowds are attending the Carnival today. The dog and pony show and the moving pictures illustrating Russian life are really educational and the best people of Columbus are attending and taking their children.

The Democratic county central committee met at the court house yesterday afternoon and set September 7 as the date of the democratic county convention. The democratic political camp is showing signs of considerable activity.

Captain Harry Lohr returned from his trip to Grand Island yesterday. All rumors concerning his short vacation from home have been exploded and from now on the Journal will believe nothing about the Captain unless the rumor is accompanied by papers direct from the Magistrate himself.

Through the careless stringing of a barbed wire by a neighbor, the little five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schubert was last evening severely cut about the left eye. The child was making an errand delivering milk, and it being a little late in the evening collided with the sharp points of the wire and barely escaped with her natural vision. The wounds are very painful.

Dr. C. D. Evans has received another honor in the form of the presidency of the Platte county medical Association. He was elected to this position at the meeting of the Association at Humphrey last Tuesday. Dr. Berthold Tiesing was honored with the office of vice president. The next meeting of the association will be held in Columbus on the last Tuesday in April 1906.

Saturday last Mrs. C. J. Garlow and daughter, Miss Gwendolyn, of Columbus, came up on a visit and remained until Wednesday as the guests of Mrs. D. F. Davis. Monday evening Mrs. Davis entertained the Ladies Musical in their honor, and those present were entertained in turn by Mrs. and Miss Garlow, who delighted them with some excellent music, both vocal and instrumental.—Silver Creek Band.

On complaint of Dr. A. Heintz, Alvin Heintz was taken before the insanity board and adjudged a dipomaniac. He will be taken to Lincoln for treatment next Monday. On request of Dr. Heintz, the young man will be committed under the name of Morris Kerns, although one member of the board objected. This is the second commitment from Platte county under the new law.

Sheriff Carrig was busy today "releasing" prisoners. He released Mary Smith, the colored girl held on a complaint of "picking" Wm. Bell's pocket. The complaint was withdrawn. Mary paid the costs and she was turned over to an Omaha officer who wanted her for some reason which the Journal was unable to learn. He also released Ed Powers who had lived out the time which had been imposed upon him for fighting in Smagacz saloon a few days ago.

The finding of a nugget of gold in a duck's craw may not be in itself a fortune, but the possibility that there may be other nuggets where the duck found the first is what has set the people of Columbus and vicinity on the tip-toe of expectation and anticipation. Other towns and vicinities may have cause to feel jealous if Columbus does succeed in uncovering a gold mine of fabulous value, but at the present time they can afford to wish Columbus every success in uncovering a real find.—Norfolk News.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. McKillip are delightfully entertaining about twenty out of town guests this week at a home party. Those in attendance are Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Stewart, of Manilla, P. I. J. M. Gondring arrived in the city last night from San Jose, California. He is already hoarse from explaining to the numerous and curious friends, the wonders of the state which he may choose for his home. Mr. Gondring has rented a home for his family in San Jose where his daughters have entered the state normal school from which they expect to graduate. Mr. Gondring says that while he is highly pleased with California, he will not buy property there for a permanent home until he gives the climate a trial of at least one year. Meanwhile, with his family happily situated in the most famous fruit valley in California, thirty miles from the coast, he will continue his residence and his law practice in Columbus. Mr. Gondring numbers his friends by the score and they are all glad to see him back.
