Judge Ratterman has issued marriage licenses to the following parties during the past week: Francis Lee, of Leigh and Miss Frances Dupsky of Stanton; Michael Jasewitz and Pelagia Buzynski both of Columbus; John Haesler and Berntha Dieke both of Richland. The first named couple were married by Judge Ratterman, the 25th.

Altha Saltz, a young farmer of Meadow Grove, aged twenty-five, was shot and killed by his bird dog three miles north of that place Monday. Starting for a hunt, he sat in the wagon with the barrel of his shotgun poking into his left side. He called the dog and the animal leaped into the wagon, tripping the trigger and sending a load of shot into Saltz's heart which killed him.

Michael Jazewicz and Miss Pelagia Burzynski both of this community were married Sunday morning in the Catholic church at 9 o'clock. The ceremony was unusually pretty, the bride, who was beautifully attired in a white silk and wearing a long veil, was accompanied by eight maids, and the groom was accompanied by the same number of his gentlemen friends. Two little girls, a ring bearer and flower girl, led the procession from the school building to the church. The Polish choir and orchestra furnished music for the occasion, and Father Theobald performed the marriage ceremony. The wedding party went to the home of the brides parents six miles east of town, where festivities were held all day Sunday and Monday.

Miss Geer the librarian, remarked that last week, the first week of the new arrangement, there were visitors to the library every day, many of them being strangers to the city. Besides the home papers, the Omaha Bee, Harpers Weekly Literary Digest, Outlook, and many other magazines may be found free to the public on the tables.

August Boettcher and Dr. Tiesing returned Thursday noon from their European trip. A telegram received by Mr. Brodtfuehrer Thursday morning, signed "Emma," announced the return of these two popular Columbus gentlemen, and a large delegation of friends were at the station to welcome them home. From the signature on the telegram, every one inferred that Dr. Tiesing had been guilty of matrimony during his absence, and they went to the train fully expecting to meet "Emma," whose name they believed had impressed itself on Dr. Tiesing's mind till he signed it to his missives unconsciously. But they met the same good natured bachelor doctor, and he was accompanied only by his good friend August Boettcher.

Tom Czarnick, the young man who got away from the sheriff about six weeks ago, was fined $50 and costs, amounting to $65, in Judge Ratterman's court Monday. It will be remembered that Czarnick, who resides with his parents near Duncan, was found by Game Warden Carter about six weeks ago, with fifteen prairie chickens in his possession. After some difficulty he was arrested and placed in jail, and on account of his innocent appearance and youth, (he is about eighteen years old) he was allowed to walk around the court yard without a guard, and taking advantage of this liberty he skipped out, and only a few days ago was found by Sheriff Carrig working on a farm near Fullerton. Dan Bray, deputy State Warden, represented the state in the suit against Czarnick.
