Many Years Ago.

(From files of Journal, June 7, 1871.)

The Constitutional convention met at Lincoln, June 13th.

There are 41,000 children in Nebraska between the ages of 5 and 21 years.

The insurance companies have offered to pay the state $2,000, or to rebuild the insane asylum.

The Pacific house has changed hands. The new proprietor is E. H. Clark.

Jacob Schram has opened a ready made clothing store in the Holman building on twelfth street.

The Polk county bridge across the south channel of the Platte was completed Saturday last.

Samuel Batty of Clarksville was in town Saturday. Mr. Batty has been nearly all his life engaged in the manufacture of woollen fabrics and gives it as his opinion that on any of our water courses there is abundance of fall for power to run a factory.

Bids for furnishing the Pawnee Reservation with lumber were opened Friday, Harris & Foster bidding the lowest, $2,956.63 and Hoagland & Son bidding the highest, $4,194.27.

Died, at his residence in Clay county Mo., May 26, of typhoid fever, Peter Callaway, aged forty-four years.

School News.

The maroon and white satin high school tanner is in the care of the seniors for this month. They received the high average of low standings for the month of September. The gymnasium suits for the High School girls will be ordered this week. It is expected that the gymnasium will be ready for use by next Monday.

Dorothy Post and Marcia Perkins returned Sunday from Omaha where they had attended the Ak-Sar-Bon.

Miss Graham was in Lincoln Saturday making arrangements for gymnasium suits.

Miss Ruby Rickie visited schools in Omaha Friday of last week and Monday of this week.

Next Saturday at Kearney, our football will play against the Kearney Military Academy.

Kelley-Kramer.

Miss Vera Kramer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kramer of this city, and Mr. M. J. Kelley of Chicago, were united in marriage this morning at ten o'clock at the Stratford hotel in Chicago. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon and a hat. She was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Kramer, who was also gowned in white. The groom was attended by his cousin, Mr. Ed. Curran. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at half past eleven. No guests were invited. Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, who are stopping at the Stratford, will return to Columbus next week and Mrs. Kelley will accompany her husband on this fall trip for the wholesale firm which he represents. Miss Florence Kramer will return home Saturday.

THE HOUSE CLEANERS.

The Journal takes pride in presenting the republican candidates to the voters of Platte county. They are a group of men to inspire confidence. They are pledged to destroy the spoils system, which working chiefly through the offices of county judge and sheriff and county clerk has been stealing away the property owner's money in high taxes. Voters are all agreed that a "house cleaning" is needed at the court house. Here are the men pledged to do it. Give them a trial.

W. L. SMITH.

W. L. Smith of Monroe, the republican candidate for county treasurer, was born in Ohio in the fifties and came to Platte county nearly thirty years ago. He received a good common school education in the east and has had considerable business experience, having been engaged in the mercantile business and the grain business in Monroe for several years. At the present time he is farming. Mr. Smith has the best endorsement that any man can have, namely the endorsement of the people among whom he has lived so many years. Mr. Smith is amply qualified to perform the duties of treasurer.

J. D. STIRES.

J. Dayton Stires, the republican candidate for county judge, was born in New Jersey in 1853. His early education was received in the common schools and an academy in New Jersey. In the seventies he came west, studied law in Iowa University, graduating from that institution in 1882, first in his class obtaining a prize for his marked scholarship. He practiced law and was engaged successfully in the banking business at Cedar Rapids, Neb., for several years, coming to Columbus seventeen years ago, since which time he has practiced law successfully in Platte county. Besides having the legal qualifications without which no man is qualified to perform the important legal duties of county judge, Mr. Stires' reputation for strict honesty, his high moral ideals and his even agreeable temperament peculiarly fit him to look after the complex probate matters which come to that office from the hands of the widows and orphans.

Dr. H. G. MORRIS.

Dr. H. G. Morris of Creston, republican candidate for coronor is practically a Platte county product and he has all the qualities of a sure winner. All he needs is to meet the voters. They will do the rest. He came to Creston at the age of eleven with his father who had been county surveyor of Frontier county. He graduated from the Creston high school, attended the Chicago medical college one year and then entered the Omaha medical college from which he graduated with honors three years later. Dr. Morris is a young man who has pushed his own way to the front. He is as popular where he is known as he is modest. He is a favorite with the base ball boys throughout this part of the state, where he is known as one of the best pitchers in Nebraska. Dr. Morris, like his popular young running mate Bruce Webb, will draw practically a solid vote from the north end of the county, not only for himself but for the rest of the republican ticket for which he is willing to vouch.

BRUCE WEBB.

Bruce Webb, republican candidate for sheriff, was cut out to win in anything he cares to go after, and he is as sure to be elected sheriff as the democratic press of Platte county is to fail to publish the record on which the democratic candidates claim to stand. Bruce Webb is one of a large family of boys, who for thirty-six years, practically all his life, has lived in Nebraska. He has a good common school education, backed by wide experience in the real estate and sale business, and directed by one of the most generous, honest and good natured dispositions that ever graced any man. Wherever Bruce Webb is known he is a favorite. The Madison county people came to Platte county to coax him to act as marshal of the day at the Madison county fair, simply because they liked him after his long residence in Madison. Every young man becomes his fast friend upon meeting him once, and his bright, courageous face inspires the confidence at once of older men. Bruce is farming near Creston, but his sale business has reached such proportions that he doesn't have time for the farm. In fact no auctioneer in Nebraska is covering a larger territory.

ED. LUSIENSKI.

Ed. Lusienksi, republican candidate for county clerk, will bring as many qualifications to this office as any other man on the ticket. Though a young man, he has had training which peculiarly fits him for the office. Being of Polish birth, he could serve the large

CLOCKS.

DID YOU EVER SEE SO MANY CLOCKS?

All kinds, from the gilt or gun metal diminutive, small enough to carry in your vest pocket, to the huge, towering, massive Grandfather Clocks for hall or library.

It's a worthy stock—beauty, utility, economy—and never fails to inspire the appreciation that is so compensating to honest and successful endeavor.

Polish population of Platte county by interpreting their wants to all the other county officers. Besides his educational and business qualifications are exceptionally good. Graduating from the Parochial school in Platte Center, he attended the Sister's school in Omaha for two years. In business he has had experience as clerk for four years in the general merchandise store of Ripp & Greison of Platte Center and as manager of an elevator at Tarnov for Mrs. Kehoe. His integrity has never been questioned, and he has a quick, keen mind that will readily master the details of the county clerk's office. No voter who wants to break the printing trust in Platte county will fail to vote for Ed. Lusienksi.

O. H. SMITH.

O. H. Smith, the republican candidate for county superintendent has every qualification for the office to which he aspires. A graduate of Lee Normal college in Illinois, and a special student of the Lincoln Normal, he has had twenty years of experience as a teacher from the country school up and he has always pleased his patrons being now on his third year at Lindsay. Aside from his educational qualifications, Mr. Smith is a man of culture and high moral ideals who believes that a superintendent is elected to serve the schools and not to act as an agent for a book trust or a desk trust in his own interest. Mr. Smith will lift the office of superintendent out of the mire of graft into which it has fallen.

ORA SHANNON.

Everybody knows Ora Shannon and Ora Shannon knows everybody. That's all there is to it. Ora Shannon will be the next surveyor of Platte county.

City Council

The city council met last Friday night and transacted some routine business.

The official reports of the chief of police and police judge for August were approved and the reports for September read and referred to the proper committees.

Next Friday night the council will hold a special assessment meeting to determine the value of property abutting which sidewalks are to be built by the city because of the failure of property owners to build them as ordered.

Next Monday the council will meet in adjourned session to let contracts for the building of the walks above referred to.

Mayor Dickinson is taking steps to enforce the dog tax.

Joe Flynn as special dog catcher, is canvassing the city with a list of those who have paid their dog tax, and taking down the names of dog owners, who have not paid the tax.

He then turns over the list to the chief of police who serves warrants on the offenders and marches them before the police judge. Last Monday Herman Oehlrich and Chris Abts were the first to be brought on the carpet in the office of the police judge. Herman Oehlrich handed over $5.50 to pay for his negligence and Chris Abts paid $8.50 because he denied that he owned a dog.

Seventy were on Joe Flynn's list and they will all have to dance to the music, for not reading the warning published in the Columbus papers many times.

Miss Elizabeth Farley returned Thursday from a visit to relatives in Humphrey.

Marriage Licenses.

Judge Ratterman issued marriage licenses last week as follows: Joseph Novicki and Katherine Binder, Duncan; Gustav Larson, St. Edward, and Anna Person, Lindsay; Herman Kluck, Richland and Dora Kirkman, Columbus; George Carlow and Victoria Koperkpi, Columbus.

E. A. Brodboll Dead.

Erio A. Brodboll of Lindsay died at a hospital in Galesburg, Ill., to which he was taken for treatment for a nerve disease, several weeks ago, on October 6, of embolism, disease of the brain. No members of the family were at his death bed, his death being entirely unexpected. Mr. Brodboll had been under great nervous strain for several months but he was thought to be recovering until a very short time before the end came.

Mr. Brodboll was about forty-five years old and a native of Sweden. By his own efforts Mr. Brodboll had made a good sized fortune. He had been cashier of the State Bank at Lindsay for the past fifteen years and had acquired considerable outside property. He was one of the best known men in Platte county, having always taken an active part in the local affairs of Lindsay.

The funeral was held today at Wahoo, the former home of the deceased.

Woman's Club.

The Shakespeare department will meet with Mrs. L. R. Latham on Tuesday the 17th, at 8 o'clock, p. m.

The Literary department will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Douglas, Saturday, Oct. 14th, at 3 p. m.

There is no ice famine in Columbus as reported in some of the Columbus papers. O. L. Baker is getting ice from Albion and the Union Pacific is furnishing some. Swift and Company have not been out of ice as reported.

Little Mary Bonham celebrated her seventh birthday last Friday. Seven of her little friends spent the afternoon and took tea with her. The principal feature of the tea was a great Jack Horner pie, containing a little gift for each guest with ribbons attached. When the ribbons were pulled, the children drew out the gifts from the pie. The little ones all had a good time.

The remains of J. E. Williams who died of yellow fever in Panama last month passed through Columbus last Saturday being taken to St. Edward for interment. K. F. Williams the father of the deceased, as soon as he was apprised of his son's death, took up the matter direct with President Roosevelt who personally assumed the responsibility of having the body brought home without a moment's delay. Jay Williams was drawing a salary of $2100 at the time of his death having been twice promoted within three months. He was a student at West Point for two years.

The officers of the Woman's club, who held office last year were re-elected for the year. They are as follows: Mrs. Garlow, president; Mrs. McAllister, vice-president; Mrs. Post, second vice president; Miss Sheehan, secretary; Mrs. Mary Kramer, secretary; and Mrs. Geitzen, treasurer. In the musical department Miss Effie White was elected leader, Mrs. Julius Nichols assistant leader. Mrs. McAllister was re-elected secretary. Several new names were proposed for membership in all departments. The ladies of the club are making efforts to secure Mr. Carl Steckleberg of Lincoln in the near future for a concert to add to the fountain fund. Steckleberg is one of the finest violinists of the west and has only just returned from a trip of two years abroad where he has been studying under the same master that trained Kubelik. Mr. Steckleberg was once a resident of Columbus living in the family of August Boettcher, when a child.

The republicans in Supervisor district 6 and 7 of Platte county, are called to meet at the council chamber in Columbus, Saturday, October 14, 1905, at 2 p. m., to nominate a candidate for supervisor for said district.

Dr. C. V. CAMPBELL Dentist

Begs to announce to the people of Columbus and Platte county that he has opened his dental office in the rooms long occupied by Dr. H. J. Arnold, on Olive St., four doors south of the Niewohner blk.

His practice has been in connection with the most skilled dental operators in the west and his services to patients are guaranteed.

Mrs. J. C. Echols spent two days in Omaha last week.

Twin girls were born last Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geiser.

Miss Hazel Richardson of Lincoln is the guest of M. C. N. Roney this week.

Rev. and Mr. Boude of Oconto were guests last Sunday of Mrs. J. R. Welch.

Miss Marguerite Becher spent Sunday with the family of her uncle, Frank Wake, in Genoa.

The fire department was called out today to extinguish a fire in a haystack in south Columbus.

Miss Vera Slater is going tomorrow for a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Byllesly at Fairbury.

Miss Vida Jernberg of Genoa is stopping with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Willard for a month while attending dressmaking school.

Mrs. Mary G. Flory, mother of O. H. Flory of St. Edward and Mrs. Frank Wait of the same place were brought to St. Mary's Hospital this week.

Bert Galley received a letter Monday from his father, J. H. Galley from Denver. Mr. and Mrs. Galley will return home the latter part of this week.

Mrs. E. P. Swain of Lincoln is here for a visit of one week at the home of her son, Lloyd Swain and to make acquaintance of her first grand-child.—Columbus Telegram.

Mrs. George Mohde and daughter, Miss Gertrude of Norfolk, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rohde, departed Wednesday for Ohio on their future home.

Tim Hogan who took a week from his duties as city carrier to attend Ak-Sar-Bon festivities is back on his route this week. William Small substituted for him.

Miss Emma Wake returned home from Shelby Saturday. She was accompanied by Dr. Allenburger of Shelby who will enter a partnership with Dr. D. T. Martyn, Jr. in this city next month.

The fire department was called to the home of O. N. Roney yesterday to put out a blaze which had started under the floor from a loose joint in a pipe leading from the furnace room. By prompt action Mrs. Roney had extinguished the fire before the fire boys arrived.

Mrs. Jessie Henry of this city and Mr. E. O. Carrick of Leavitt were quietly married at Fremont last Thursday. Mrs. Henry is the daughter of A. Dussell of this city and the groom is a brother of Mrs. H. G. Fricke. Mr. Carrick is a manager in the best sugar factory at Leavitt with excellent prospects.

Wednesday Ed. Adams and Mrs. Lydia J. Wilson went to Columbus, procured a marriage license of the county judge and then went to the Episcopal church and were married by the rector, Rev. Cash.

Mr. Adams is a young farmer of means with a home near Gardner, and Mrs. Wilson is a widow of the Spanish-American war and daughter of Z. Cox who lives southeast of town.—Silver Creek Sand.

Dan Bray is having the time of his life at the shooting tournaments this week. Mrs. Bray received a letter from her husband Monday morning from Alliance the contents of which she communicated to the Journal. She said: "Mr. Bray is having a fine time but he says the weather has been too windy for good scores. At Broken Bow and Hyannis he was highman and at Alliance third man. Gus Schroeder left Monday to join him at Alliance and to go with him to the shoot at Sheridan."

F. T. Walker returned Monday from a two weeks trip to Red Willow county where he sold 3,600 acres of land within a few miles of Indianola. Such was the invasion of land seekers of Indianola last week that a correspondent from that place to the State Journal was moved to speak to protect his fellow citizens from the invasion of land agents. The hotels were overcrowded. Mr. Walker says that No. 2, on which he returned carried 1200 land buyers from eastern Nebraska and western Iowa.

More than a hundred people left their work and assembled at the U. P. depot last Monday to see the distinguished personage, and some crowded to the car for an opportunity to shake his hand. Was it the president of the United States? No, it was that notorious criminal the Hon. Pat Crowe, in charge of the officers being returned to Omaha for trial in the charge of kidnapping Eddie Cudshy. Pat smiled as he nodded his gratitude to the crowd who paid him homage. And many young boys of Columbus will cherish in memory this sight of Pat Crowe who has been elevated as a little god before the public by the yellow journals of the country, and prepared for a successful stage career. The women of Columbus, be it said to their honor, did not shudder the desperado with flowers. The crowd would have been larger had provision been made for a second car bearing the Hon. Tom Dennison.

Everything depends upon it. The difference between success and failure. A banks success means the success of its customers. Watch the plan of those who conduct the bank that you patronize. We will be glad to have you examine ours.

Bucking the Line.

Last Thursday evening after school, occurred a hot game of foot ball between the grades 6th and 7th of the city school. The game was fought to a finish and the way the young students bucked the line would make some old heads sorry that they didn't begin the game earlier in life.

The star players for the sixth graders were Drawbaugh, Ernst and Galley, while Baker, Zinnecker, Neils Nelson, Whaley and Westbrook did the big business for the winners. No bones were broken but several shins and peeled noses are visible among the players.

Ed Gluck was time keeper and referee and after the skirmish had ended, the score stood 23 to 2 in favor of the seventh graders. Below is the line up of players:

6th	7th
Wisconsin	Zinnecker
Neater	Baker
Drawbaugh	Whaley
Steve Oaffery	Westbrook
Mills	N Nelson
Webb	Lat Nelson
Ernst	Lawrey
Murphy	Halsey
Galley	Glur
Yern	Freyding
McMullen	Manro

Columbus Foot Ball Team.

Thirteen as husky boys as is ever grouped together have formed a club to be known as the Columbus City foot ball team and are out on the gridiron every night bucking the line and using every exercise possible to harden their muscles for the season work. Its tame business for the most of the eleven to roll out of bed at 4 in the morning, run ten miles and eat a railroad spike before breakfast. They are now in pink trim to play, and their first game will be played Saturday at David City. The boys have tackled a hard proposition for their initial tryout, but they have the nerve and goods to come out victorious.

Married.

At the Catholic church last Sunday morning at 9:30, Rev. Father Theobald spoke the words which united in marriage Mr. George Solo and Miss Vic Kopacki. A number of relatives and friends attended the ceremony, after which the young wedded couple were at home to their friends in south Columbus. A host of friends joined the happy pair in celebrating the event, music, dancing and refreshments being liberally indulged. The Journal extends congratulations.

Change Name.

The little station this side of Norfolk on the U. P. branch known as Wernerville, will have a change of name this week besides a new location. The depot and all the other belongings to the present village of Wernerville is being moved four miles north from its present site and when once settled will be known in the future as Neola. The change will not create any bloodshed as in earlier days, and is considered a business move on the part of the U. P. officials.
