New Route For Monroe

The following letter received from Congressman McCarthy will be of interest to the many Journal readers of Monroe:

Ponca, Neb., October 28, 1905.
Mr. Fred Abbott,
Columbus, Neb.

My Dear Mr. Abbott: I have received petition for Rural Free Delivery from Monroe; have endorsed same and requested Department to act upon it as promptly as possible.

With kindest regards and best wishes I am Yours Truly,
J. J. McCarthy.

Judge Reeder, Dr. D. Evans, E. H. Chambers and Major Cecil of Fort Crook started on a hunting trip up Platte river yesterday. They went with complete equipment and with enough ammunition to prevent next spring's flight of water fowl.

Left at brick yard of Karr-Nichols by some unknown party, a lady's bicycle, make "Imperial." Owner can secure same by calling at this office, paying for notice and secure property at brick yard.

The Massillon Engine and Threshing Co., have filed suit in district court to collect a judgment of $1674.15 against John W. Harris, John Kennedy and William Elsdora, obtained in the Eighteenth Judicial District of Louisiana.

H. E. Babcock returned from the east last Sunday morning, wearing the same optimistic expression of countenance which he always wears. He has no news for publication and he will return to the east next Sunday to continue the good work.

Jim Nelson, J. J. Liscko Jack Stovick and Bill Severn went to the sand hills after ducks last week. They got some ducks, but they got more experience. Just as they were nearing their camping place a wheel of their wagon broke down. They were ten miles from civilization. The only remedy in sight was to select their best walkers and start them out for aid. Liscko and Stovick were selected as the victims, but they displayed nerve and returned from their stroll with a wheel on their shoulders which held up the wagon until they returned to Columbus.

One of the most delightful dancing parties ever given in Columbus was the party given by the Misses Lottie Becher, Ethel Elliot and Ella Rasmussen at Orpheus Hall last Friday night to about one hundred of their friends. The ball room was decorated with palms, and pretty cozy corners added a homelike effect. The Orpheus orchestra furnished the music and punch was served during the evening by the Misses Marguerite Becher and Hulda Plath. Sherbert and cake were served during the intermissions by six small boys, Oscar Baker, Harry Hazel, Harley McAllister, Lee Latem, Henry Becher and Fred Lukker, regaled as colored waiters. The out of town guests were Mr. Claude Rife and Miss Richardson of Lincoln.

Sports Indors and Out.

A. Drake can bowl some. W. A. Way played in exceptionally hard luck, drawing fourteen splits in the match game last Thursday night.

The young "fellows" had the "old ones" beaten to a turn until the last game when, by a series of splits and errors they lost their nerve.

Harry A. Graves is assistant engineer at the bowling alley, having accepted a position with Geo. Hagel, commencing his work today.

P. J. Hart is fond of oysters, more especially when they are won in a bowling match. Whether he wins or loses doesn't matter, as long as the oysters are all right.

Following are the high scores of 300 or more, made at the bowling alley last week: Harry Graves, 216 208 315. A. Drake, 200-215-215-200 209-240. W. A. Way, 216 210-217-224-215-210 222 207. J. Cornelis 200. Fred Hurlzer, 234-237. A. P. Wadhams, 204 208 210 244. W. J. Gregorius, 203. L. O. Marks, Omaha, 213. H. Baslin, Omaha, 203. F. W. Taylor, Omaha, 219. C. O. Francis, 211. Geo. Hagel, 208 217 209 231-257-211-232.

"OLD MEN" WON.

The Hagel alleys witnessed a most interesting match game last Thursday night between the "olds" and the "yongs." It was a hot contest from the beginning and it looked as if young blood would tell until Drake began his series of strikes in the finish. In fact the Greek youths of ancient times could not have showed in better form than did Hart, Way, McEver, Drake and Snyder. And the youthful features of Gregorius, Graves, Becher, Hurlzer and Wadhams bore the wrinkles of age before the doughty "old men" got through with them. These wrinkles were all smoothed out however, when the players joined at the banquet table at the Vienna and got outside of several quarts of Corbett's extra select, for which the "yongs" paid as a penalty for their weak arms.

Witnesses of the game and banquet declare that Pat Hart was the happiest man ever seen in Columbus. The score was as follows:

| YONGS. | | | |
|-----------|-----|-----|---------|
| Gregorius | 162 | 175 | 157-459 |
| Graves | 145 | 164 | 170-479 |
| Becher | 157 | 143 | 146-446 |
| Hurlzer | 147 | 150 | 136-432 |
| Wadhams | 160 | 191 | 125-496 |
| Total | | | 2342 |

| OLDS. | | | |
|--------|-----|-----|---------|
| Way | 116 | 141 | 147-404 |
| Hart | 150 | 178 | 171-490 |
| McEver | 141 | 175 | 144-470 |
| Snyder | 139 | 146 | 159-443 |
| Drake | 209 | 178 | 200-584 |

Kearney 18-Columbus 0.

The Kearney Military Academy foot ball eleven played the Columbus high school eleven at Columbus Saturday and won a victory by a score of 18 to 0.

The visitors made all their scores in the first half of the game, after which they were powerless to even have a glimpse of the coveted goal.

Columbus kicked off when Kearney secured the ball and lost it but twice during the first half and scored three touch-downs, and kicked goal three times netting them 18 points.

At the beginning Gray of Columbus was forced from the field by being injured. He suffered a broken ankle. This greatly weakened our line-up and during the remainder of the first half Kearney seemed to walk through our boys at will.

The second half did not prove that way and the game continued to the end one of the prettiest contests ever witnessed on a foot ball field. Columbus went in to score, and from the beginning had Kearney on their staff until they brought the ball within six inches of a touch-down. Here Kearney strengthened and withstood center rushes, one after another for three downs when our boys could not gain an inch. This was the nearest our boys came to scoring. After losing the ball to Kearney the visitors gained a few yards by center rushes; and after being tightly crowded in order to retain the ball before the last down, punted for a short gain and there the work finished with but small results for either side.

Though Columbus lost it was a nery stand by a nery bunch; and had the locals displayed their training qualities in the first half as they did in the last the game would have terminated with a score much different.

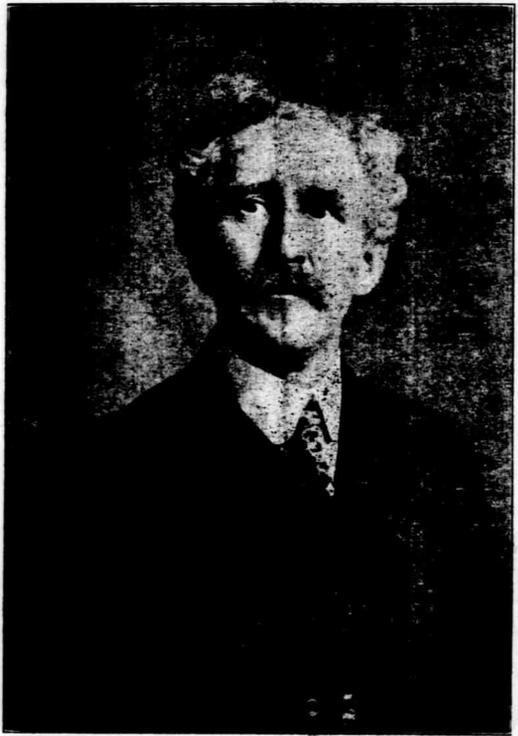

Prof. Graves refereed for Columbus while an attaché of the Kearney Academy acted in the same capacity for Kearney. The day was very cold which affected the attendance although enough were present to more than clear the expense of the visitors from the cotton city.

Mrs. H. Elliott entertained a few of her old-time acquaintances Monday night in honor of her sister, Mrs. C. H. Dillon, of Trinidad, Colo, who left today for her home after a visit of several months.

Mrs. J. J. Macken and Miss Sam Perkinson of Platte Center were the guests of Mrs. Ellen Sheehan and family on Monday.

Republican Candidates

The men to whom Platte county taxpayers, of all parties must look to break the "court house ring" and to apply the rules of law and economy to the transactions of the county's business. Try them one term-If they don't live up to their pledges turn them out. Don't be deceived by the eleventh hour statements of democratic candidates who have not dared publicly to deny the statements made by the Journal from the official records. "A change in the court house and lower taxes" is the watchword.

J. Dayton Stires, Republican Candidate for County Judge.

FROM HIS LETTER OF ACCEPTANCE:
"I regard it an injustice to litigants and an abuse of official prerogative, as well as a corrupting political practice to give the publication of all legal notices and official proceedings to some party paper as a compensation for political services, regardless of the wishes of interested parties or value to the public."

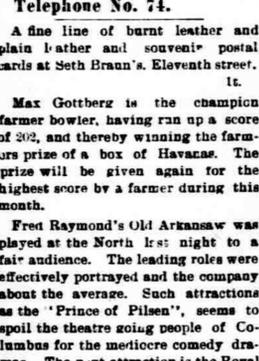

BRUCE WEBB,
Republican candidate for sheriff. Every body knows the popular auctioneer from Creston. As sheriff of Platte county he will be satisfied with legal mileage. The Madison Star-Mail, a democratic paper, says of him: "If he were known in Platte county as he is in Madison, that 800 democratic majority would look like 30 cents." Creston, where he has lived for 18 years, will give him a solid vote.

Elliott, Speice and Co.

W. L. SMITH,
republican candidate for county treasurer. W. L. Smith is in every way qualified for the responsible office of county treasurer. Both as a businessman and farmer he has lived in Monroe for about thirty years. His strongest endorsement is the hearty support he is receiving from people of both parties in his home town. W. L. Smith is honest, competent, safe and is entitled to his party vote.

ED. LUSINSKI.
Republican candidate for county clerk. Ed. Lusinski, though a young man, is qualified by education and business experience for this important office of county clerk. Being of Polish birth he could be of special service to the hundreds of Polish taxpayers of Platte county. Mrs. Kehoe and Mr. Greisen of Platte Center, for whom he has worked, both testified to his business ability. No more can be said.

John Manson of Genoa pays taxes on land in both Platte and Nance counties. The land is similarly situated. He has a tax receipt from the treasurer of Nance county showing that he paid about $21 on 160 acres. On the same kind of land in Platte county he paid $28 on 130 acres. Land is higher in Platte county. Mr. Manson makes full allowance for difference in land valued on opposite sides of the imaginary line. But still he cannot explain why taxes are higher in Platte county. Nance county has not been in the continuous control of one party for twenty years.

ST. EDWARD, Neb., Oct. 28, 1905.
Editor of the Journal,
Columbus, Neb.

Dear Sir:
Please give space for the following in your next week's Journal:
As the only republican member of the present county board of Platte county I take much interest in the outcome of the coming election. Now Platte county has been governed by the democratic party ever since I came to the county twenty-seven years ago, and I believe if a majority of the republican officials could be elected this fall it would benefit the taxpayers. One of the present members of the county board said at the time the investigation committee was at work on the Ernst and Bender matter: "Let them that root go to work."
I believe there ought to be a few more republicans at the court house to "root."

Yours Truly,
JOHN SWANSON.

Hon. J. E. North and John Cox returned Sunday from Nebraska City, where they attended the exercises at the unveiling of the Morton monument. Mr. North was a close friend of J. Sterling Morton during the early history of Nebraska and he spoke with feeling of the eloquent tributes paid to Nebraska's greatest son, by Grover Cleveland and others. He said that thousands of Nebraska citizens honored by their presence, the memory of the man whose love for Nebraska permeated his whole life, and whose name will stand in history close to the top of the list of Nebraska's and the nation's great men.
Mr. and Mrs. John Gadki of this city celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Sunday. About fifty of their old friends were present and brought with them some handsome and expensive gifts in token of their high regard for the couple who have lived happily together for fifty years. A big dinner was served at six o'clock.

Gifts for November's Winsome Brides

Hear the mellow wedding bells,
Golden bells!
What a world of happiness
their harmony foretells.
—Pope.

You are probably made aware of the fact that November rivals June as a month of weddings—by the number of invitations you have received.

Of course you will have to send presents to some of the brides, if not all.

We've now ready an unusual display of suitable things, the latest efforts of the best domestic and foreign makers of china and glass.

Marvellous creations for little money.

We'll hold your selections for next month's delivery.

Genova School Flourishing.
Secretary of State Galusha has returned from a visit to the industrial school for girls at Genova. This institution was established by the state and is supported by state funds, but the late legislature showed a disposition to reduce the appropriation to support it. Secretary of State Galusha was greatly impressed with the methods of Superintendent Lydia McMahon who was formerly matron of the institution. He reports that the girls show evidence of the best of training and he believes genuine reformation will result. The girls on entering the institution are clothed in blue. Later those who show progress are given grey garments and still later allowed to wear a white collar and tie. The girls almost invariably strive with all their might to deserve the whitecollars and ties and other articles of dress that are worn by those in the highest grade. No one is allowed to dress better or richer than the others in her grade.—State Journal.

Potato Kings.

"Bug" and George Turner of our city were busy this season showing up the "big ones" from near Greeley, Colorado, on the potato growing question, and they came next to see high in doing it too. Right near "Good Friday" the boys had all their potato seed under cover of mother earth which included about twenty acres of well prepared soil and now, after most careful culture and earnest labor, are worrying about a place in which to store the fruits of their labor. Temporary relief came Saturday when they received an order to ship a car load at once to the hungry people at Milwaukee. The car was shipped and the boys topped the market. This is but a trial order. It is understood that a special train is being arranged to leave here immediately after election to complete the transportation of the balance of the crop which is now under course of harvesting. Hon. Peter McCaffery, a good judge of the cereal, visited the plantation Sunday and marveled at the growth of the Turner boy's potatoes. He says that he saw potatoes taken from a single "hill" larger than a foot ball and the boys say its a poor year for potatoes too. No more proof is required—the Turners have the belt for "spud" raising, Greeley, Colorado, not excluded from the territory.

The atmosphere in the circles of the city administration is quiet again.

R. W. Saley announces as the next attraction at the North Opera house, November 11, "The Royal Slave," which has had such large audiences in New York, Chicago, and other eastern cities. The Royal Slave is a combination of light opera, drama and comedy, and Columbus is honored by its coming. The opera house should be filled to the last seat for this attraction.
