

WANT MORE MEN

WHAT THE CHIEF OF ARTILLERY HAS TO OFFER.

NOT SATISFIED WITH DEFENSES

He Would Have the Field Artillery Organized on the Basis of Not Less Than Six Batteries to a Regiment.

WASHINGTON—General Samuel M. Mills, chief of artillery, says that for manning the coast defenses of the United States a force consisting of 1,754 officers and 41,833 enlisted men is needed, while the corps has at present only 525 officers and 13,744 men. He also estimated that the cost of installation of fire control equipment for coast artillery will be $7,000,000. Following the advice contained in a letter of President Roosevelt to the secretary of war, dated March 13, 1905, in which the president designated nine specific subjects relative to the organization and training of the artillery arm of the service, the annual report of General Mills makes the following recommendations:

The separation of the coast and field artillery; provision for automobile mine defense; an increase of the coast artillery for gun defense; the proper organization of the coast artillery; adequate pay for technically skilled enlisted men of the artillery; an increase of the field artillery; the proper organization for promotion of artillery officers of all grades; increased appropriations for target practice by both branches of the artillery.

General Mills says that of the 126 companies of coast artillery, forty-seven are without captains and thirty-one without the prescribed lieutenants. These officers are absent on various duties. He says that it is important that the coast artillery companies should be commanded by captains.

General Mills refers to the joint exercises of the army and navy which were held in Chesapeake bay last summer and says that the value and interest was greatly increased by reason of the fact that they gave an opportunity to test the methods of fire control and other systems adopted by the coast artillery. He recommends that joint exercises be recommended for the year 1907, because such exercises afford the only opportunity that the artillery has for drilling and practicing "with complete units" higher than a battery. The joint exercises, he says, emphasized the inappropriateness of the present company organization of the coast artillery, and he recommends that the present company organization be abolished and that the present coast artillery be made to consist of specified officers and enlisted men. He also recommends the separation of the field artillery be organized in regiments of six batteries each, with an increase of eighteen in the present number of field batteries.

THE "SQUARE DEAL" PHRASE BEING WORKED VIGOROUSLY

WASHINGTON—The words of the president, "square deal," are being worked vigorously by many persons who have old claims or requests upon the government. Many of the cases which are known in the departments as "old slugs," because of the many times they have been considered and rejected, have again been presented with a demand for a "square deal." An officer of the navy, to whom all such cases in the war department are referred for report, says that all these claims for reinstatement in the service or for advanced retiral rank, or claims for property taken, all of which have heretofore been passed upon and decided adversely to the claimant, set out that what they ask now is a "square deal," and many of them insist that their requests be presented to the president.

KNOW NOTHING OF A CANAL.

Project of Great Britain and Japan in Doubt.

WASHINGTON—There is a complete absence of knowledge at the state department, the British embassy and the Japanese legation of the existence of the agreement reported from Mexico between Great Britain and Japan to build a ship canal by the Nicaragua route in opposition to the projected Panama canal.

Grangers to Back President.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—A movement to throw the entire organized farming interests of the country to the support of President Roosevelt in his efforts for an adjustment of railroad tariffs began at today's session of the National Grange. Patrons of Husbandry. Three resolutions, all of them introduced with the idea of unifying the agricultural strength, were introduced, and after spirited discussions were referred to committees for revision and amendment.

Not a Trace of Two Men.

PHILADELPHIA—During the inquest held in the cases of John Fortin and Joseph Garcia, laborers, who were killed at the Midvale Steel Works, it was testified that the two men had entered a pit and that 80,000 pounds of hot metal poured from a leak and completely absorbed them. Not a trace of the bodies was discovered. The steel company has decided to take about 8,000 pounds from the place where the men were last seen and have it buried out of respect for the dead men.

Chauffeur to be Reinstated.

WASHINGTON—Walker Eldridge, the chauffeur who was dismissed from the government service for misconduct which came under the personal observation of President Roosevelt, will be reinstated in his old position at the end of two months from the date of his dismissal. The exercise of leniency by President Roosevelt is due to Eldridge's excellent record in the Philippines, to the fact that his father was a veteran of the civil war and to the additional fact that his wife is an invalid.

SEA LEVEL CANAL FAVORED.

No Positive Decision Reached as to Type of Waterway.

WASHINGTON—The full board of consulting engineers of the Panama canal had an all-day session and continued work on the different types of canal. There seems to be a general impression that a large number of engineers at present favor a sea level canal, but an intimation has been made that there might be a compromise upon a low level lock canal, which would be very satisfactory to the canal commission and the administration.

The officers who accompanied Secretary Taft to Panama to investigate the matter of fortifications for the canal have not yet made a report and will not until a type of canal is determined. Upon the type of canal will depend the location of the mouths of the canal, and no definite plans for fortifications will be feasible until the places where the protection will be needed can be definitely known.

THE RAILROAD BANDITS ARE FARMER BOYS

PATTONSBURG, Mo.—The sheriffs of Davies, Harrison and Gentry counties, attended by posses from each of these counties, are guarding the woods around the little village of Bridgeport, in the northern part of this county, where it is supposed the four men who held up the passengers and night agent at the Gallatin station Monday are in hiding. It is not believed that the fugitives will make a fight and the officers do not consider them professionals. It is believed that the robbers are farmer boys whose minds have been poisoned by trashy novels.

CONDEMN KILLING OF JEWS.

Merchants' Exchange of St. Louis Adopts Resolutions.

ST. LOUIS—Several hundred members of the Merchants' Exchange and representative business and professional men of St. Louis assembled on the floor of the exchange and adopted resolutions condemning the massacre of the Jews in Russia. It was the sense of the meeting that the indignation of the financial men of the country should be expressed, so that Russia, looking for markets for her loans, may know the feeling she will encounter. Brief addresses were made by former Governor D. R. Francis, Rabbi Harrison and others. No attempt was made to start subscriptions, but two contributions amounting to $1,250 were received for the suffering Russian Jews.

CIVIL PLACE FOR GILLETTE.

City of Philadelphia Wants Services of Army Engineer.

PHILADELPHIA—Major Cassius E. Gillette of the engineer corps, U. S. A., was appointed chief engineer of the bureau of filtration by Mayor Weaver, subject to the approval of the president of the United States congress authorizing Major Gillette to accept the place. Major Gillette succeeded John W. Hill, who is awaiting trial on charges of fraud and falsifying the records of his office in connection with the letting of contracts. The position pays $17,000 a year.

Much Less Public Printing.

WASHINGTON—Acting Public Printer Ricketts in an interview says: "Judging from the volume of work now being turned out at the government printing office economy has struck the government departments hard. We are now printing about as much stuff as we did five or six years ago. The amount has fallen off greatly within the last three months, and during my connection with the office has never been at so low a point as now."

MANY LIVES LOST

ONE HUNDRED OR MORE ARE DROWNED.

SHIP WRECKED ON THE ROCKS

Details of Disaster Are Meager, but It is Known that There Has Been Great Loss of Life—Only Five Known to Be Saved.

LONDON—The Southwestern railway's cross channel steamer Hilda was wrecked Sunday morning off St. Malo, on the north coast of France, and it is believed that one hundred or more of its passengers and crew were drowned. The Hilda left Southampton Friday night for St. Malo with considerable more than one hundred souls on board. Its passage was greatly delayed by a fog in the channel, and when nearing St. Malo it ran into a severe snow storm, apparently missed its course and foundered on the rocks off Jardin lighthouse, three miles from St. Malo.

The company's steamer Ada, outward bound from St. Malo, rescued five of the passengers and one of the crew. There are now on the way to Southampton. There is an unconfirmed report that seventy had been saved.

The crew numbered twenty-six, and there were about one hundred passengers, all Frenchmen, the majority being onion dealers from St. Brieux and neighborhood.

A telegram from St. Servan, adjoining the town of St. Malo, gives the few particulars yet available. The Hilda was near St. Malo Saturday morning. It struck the rocks at 4 o'clock Sunday morning in the roadstead off the island of Cezembre, having missed the tide, owing to bad weather and fog.

The majority of the crew and passengers were asleep at the time. Two boats were lowered, one of which, containing five men, arrived at St. Servan. The second boat was picked up empty at St. Cast, where thirteen bodies were washed ashore. The top of the Hilda's funnel and its mast are visible at low tide, according to the telegram from St. Servan.

The Southwestern Railway company is yet unable to give a list of the Hilda's passengers, but they say that a score booked passage at stations between London and Southampton, and that to the best of their knowledge ninety-nine were drowned and only six saved.

MANY MEN AFTER JOB OF PAYMASTER

WASHINGTON—Within two days after the announcement was made from the navy department that a competitive examination will be held for applicants to vacancies in the pay corps, 135 applications came to the department from young men in twenty-one different states in the union. Pennsylvania and Illinois furnished the longest lists of young men who are ambitious to secure a paymaster's commission. Judging by the number already received, the department expects to be deluged with letters from those seeking to enter the corps. As there are but twelve vacancies, the department will have ample material to draw from.

MANY PERISH IN FIRE.

Thirty-Nine Lives Lost in a Cheap Lodging House at Glasgow.

GLASGOW—The most terrible fire that has occurred in Great Britain for many years broke out today in a cheap lodging house for men, in Watson street, and resulted in the loss of thirty-nine lives and the severe injury of many others. The flames were first noticed at 6 o'clock this morning on the fourth floor of the building, which was occupied by 330 men. An alarm was raised and the firemen responded quickly, but flames and smoke were then issuing from most of the windows on the fourth floor.

An extraordinary scene was created by a procession of almost naked men rushing out of the entrance to the building, and against their frantic efforts to escape the firemen had actually to fight for admission. Reaching the upper floors the firemen found that the narrow passages were becoming congested with men who had dropped to the floors overcome by smoke. The fire, however, was confined to the fourth floor, and as soon as the firemen were able to get to work it was speedily extinguished.

The damage is estimated at $25,000,000. Soldiers from Harbin are reported to have joined the rioters.

AN ARMY OF UNEMPLOYED.

Return of Japanese Troops Cause for Uneasiness.

TOKIO—The number of unemployed, following the return of the troops from the field, estimated at 700,000 men, is causing uneasiness, in view of the industrial depression now prevailing, and the unlikelihood of a revival in business in the near future. It is authoritatively stated that it had not yet been decided whether Vice Admiral Togo will visit England or not.

Palma Thanks Roosevelt.

HAVANA—In reply to a message of sympathy from the United States President Palma cabled as follows: "A thousand thanks for the sentiments expressed in your cablegram. The Cuban people have not unfrequently the noble moral, trustworthy people of the United States with the speculators who, under the claim of American citizenship, consider themselves authorized to carry into effect regarding Cuba whatever comes to their minds, when impelled by motives of selfishness and personal interest."

TRIES TO BLACKMAIL ARMOUR

Former Employee of Packer Steals Letters from Files.

CHICAGO—William S. McSwain and W. S. Cole, his brother-in-law, were arrested today, charged with attempting to blackmail J. Osgood Armour and other members of Armour & Co. for $40,000 in connection with the Beef trust examination, with letters they are alleged to have stolen from the files of the company. McSwain was employed by Armour & Co. for four years as a stenographer and in that way had access to part of the mail of the packing company. Since the recent beef investigation was begun it is charged he has taken letters from the files of the concern. Three weeks ago, it is alleged, he approached Mr. Armour and threatened to turn the letters over to the federal authorities unless he was paid $40,000. Mr. Armour refused to listen to the man, and McSwain, it is said, made similar demands on other members of the company. Both men are now under arrest.

CUTS IT IN TWO.

President of Mutual Reduces His Own Salary.

NEW YORK—At a special meeting of the board of trustees of the Mutual Life Insurance Company in this city, at which a preliminary report of the recently appointed special investigating committee was submitted, President Richard A. McCurdy caused a stir by announcing that, at his own request, his salary had been cut in half, from $150,000 to $75,000 a year. This action was taken at a meeting of the finance committee, and Mr. McCurdy said it was the first step in reducing the expenses of the company.

Salaries of the other executive officers of the company also have been reduced, the saving amounting in all to between $145,000 and $150,000 per annum.

TREATY IS SENT FOR FINAL RATIFICATION

WASHINGTON—The peace treaty engendered at Tokyo, which is to be formally exchanged for the elaborately inscribed vellum copy of the Portsmouth convention has been received at the Japanese legation here. It is intended that the state department will be the scene of the final exchange of the ratifications, which probably will occur within a few days.

NEBRASKA'S YIELD OF CORN.

Crop of 1905 Above the Record Established for Ten-Year.

OMAHA—Last week the Associated Press dispatches brought from Washington the report of the Department of Agriculture on the corn crop for the current year. In this Nebraska was credited with a yield per acre of 32.8 bushels and a ten-year average of 36.4 bushels. This last figure is patently wrong and an effort was made, without success, to get it corrected at the time. The printed report of the Department of Agriculture for November is now at hand and brings the corrected figures. The Nebraska corn yield for 1905 is estimated at 32.8 bushels against a ten-year average of 26.4, which places a much different complexion on the condition. This shows the yield of corn to be 6.4 bushels an acre for 1905 above, instead of 3.6 bushels below the ten-year average.

RUNNING A GROCERY AS CHRIST WOULD DO

SIoux CITY, Ia.—Running a grocery as Christ would run it has not proved a success in the case of Rev. W. M. Hoare, for his grocery closed its doors. Two years ago Rev. Mr. Hoare left the ministry to engage in the grocery business. He firmly believed the principles of Christ could be applied to the grocery to the satisfaction even of Rev. Charles M. Sheldon. However, after two years, he found he could not compete with the more worldly men who were running the other groceries, and he decided to give up the attempt.

Grangers Roast Grafting.

Patrons of Husbandry Say Men of Influence Should Be Punished.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Illegitimate profits formed the leading theme of the report of the executive committee of the National Grange. Patrons of Husbandry which was presented at Friday's session of the convention. "This evil," the report states, "has invaded even the homes in the form of adulterated foods and has become so formidable that government action must be taken to curb its growth."

The report also cures dishonesty in politics saying:

Do not imagine the graft evil curbed or the public appeased by sending a few postoffice looters to prison while grafters of millions occupy positions of trust, or hold down seats in the United States senate, making grafting the surest road to prosperity and fame. No man, because he is stronger than another in body and mind, has any right to take from another.

Interested in Wei Hai Wei.

WASHINGTON—In diplomatic circles keen interest is felt in the ultimate disposition of Wei Hai Wei, the English naval station in China. When China, ceded Port Arthur to Russia for a term of years it made an agreement with England ceding Wei Hai Wei for the same length of time that Port Arthur should remain in Russian hands. Since the Russo-Japanese war Port Arthur is no longer a Russian possession and the question now is whether the agreement made with England holds good any longer.

AS TO VENEZUELA

SECRETARY ROOT INVESTIGATING CRITCHFIELD CASE.

TESTIMONY OF THE PROMOTERS

Critchfield, Rocky, Attorney Clark and Others Hear—What Is Alleged by the Owners of the Asphalt Mine Owners.

WASHINGTON—In his consideration of the whole general question of the relations between America and Venezuela with special reference to the presentation of claims of American citizens against the government of Venezuela which were not adjusted by the Venezuela arbitration tribunals, Secretary Root has reached the Critchfield claim and Friday he devoted several hours to the subject.

George Washington Critchfield, the original promoter; R. S. Rocky, president of the United States and Venezuela company, and R. Floyd Clarke, attorney for the corporation, appeared at the state department and explained to Secretary Root at great length the details of the case. From their narrative it appeared that several years ago, when Castro was dictator of Venezuela, Critchfield purchased an asphalt mine in the interior. It was necessary in order to market the asphalt that a tramway be constructed to the coast. Critchfield secured from Castro formal permission for the construction of this tramway and also the right to export the asphalt free of any export duty. About a year and a half ago, the company asserts, the Venezuelan government, in violation of this contract, began to impose export duties on the asphalt and increased the tax to a point that made it impossible to operate the mine profitably. Consequently, after vainly appealing to President Castro to adhere to his original agreement, the United States and Venezuela company, which operated the mine and the railroad, went out of business, closed up the works and appealed to the state department for redress.

Secretary Root listened with much interest to the presentation of this case, which he will make the basis of fresh and strong instructions to Minister Russell.

Wilson Talks to Chemists.

Secretary Wilson of the department of agriculture Friday emphasized the necessity of a national pure food law in an address before the annual convention of the official chemists in session here. He complimented the chemists on their accomplishment in abolishing food adulteration. While there are a few people, he said, who do not want to know what they eat is pure, and who may be importing congress not to pass a pure food law, the secretary told the chemists he was sure the great majority of the American people were heartily in favor of the purity of the market basket.

FOR FEDERAL SUPERVISION OF LIFE INSURANCE

WASHINGTON—Senator Dryden of New Jersey, who is president of one of the largest life insurance companies in the country, had a talk with the president on the subject of insurance, which the president will discuss freely in his forthcoming message to congress. Senator Dryden will introduce at the approaching session a bill providing for federal supervision of life insurance. It will differ in some respects from the measure Mr. Dryden introduced in the last congress, but the principle will be the same. He indicated, in response to inquiries, that the supreme court had never passed on the constitutionality of a federal law regulating insurance, although it had held, in the consideration of cases involving purely state laws, that interstate insurance was not interstate commerce.

GRANGERS ROAST GRAFTING.

Patrons of Husbandry Say Men of Influence Should Be Punished.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—Illegitimate profits formed the leading theme of the report of the executive committee of the National Grange. Patrons of Husbandry which was presented at Friday's session of the convention. "This evil," the report states, "has invaded even the homes in the form of adulterated foods and has become so formidable that government action must be taken to curb its growth."

The report also cures dishonesty in politics saying:

Do not imagine the graft evil curbed or the public appeased by sending a few postoffice looters to prison while grafters of millions occupy positions of trust, or hold down seats in the United States senate, making grafting the surest road to prosperity and fame. No man, because he is stronger than another in body and mind, has any right to take from another.

Henderson's New Treatment.

DUBUQUE, Ia.—With his aged brother as a nurse, heroic measures are being taken to prolong the life of ex-speaker David Henderson. A C. Under the law pensions can only be paid by agents stationed in the United States. It is proposed, however, to divide the foreign list, aggregating about 4,500 pensioners, and give to each representative of the United States the names and addresses of pensioners in the country where such consul is stationed.

FEAR LOWER WAGES.

Railroad Employees Protest to the President.

WASHINGTON—An earnest protest was made to the president against proposed freight rate legislation. The protest was filed by representatives of the five great labor organizations connected with railroading—the engineers, firemen, conductors, switchmen and trainmen. The members of the delegation which called on the president represented the several organizations. They pointed out to him that railroad rate legislation logically meant the lowering of rates. This, they contended, will be followed by a lessening of the earning power of railroads and consequently by reduction eventually of the wages of railroad employees.

The delegation which called on the president came from twelve different states and represented all the larger systems of railroads.

ANTI-AMERICAN BOYCOTT IS GETTING SERIOUS

WASHINGTON—Cable advices to the state department from Singapore Straits settlements bring the news that the anti-American boycott in that quarter, which was thought to be practically suppressed, has, on the contrary, taken on a decidedly serious aspect.

The state department finds it very difficult to deal with the phase of the boycott for the reason that it exists, not in China proper, but in a British dependency, which can scarcely be called to account, as was the Chinese government by Minister Roskhill.

WILL SUPPORT ADAMS BILL.

Agricultural Colleges Favor Larger Federal Appropriations.

WASHINGTON—The Association of Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations today pledged its support of what is known as the Adams bill in congress, making larger federal appropriations for agricultural education at the experiment stations in the several states; also to the Mondell bill, creating a government school of mines and mining. ### GOOD PLACE FOR HINSHAW.

Congressman from Fourth Wants on Appropriation Committee.

WASHINGTON—The Nebraska delegation will support Representative Hinshaw for a place on the appropriations committee of the house. In addition to the united support of his associates from Nebraska Mr. Hinshaw will have considerable outside backing, including members from Pennsylvania, Indiana, Ohio and Iowa. Speaker Cannon, while noncommittal, is believed to look upon Nebraska as having a right to the place vacant on the appropriations committee by the transfer of E. J. Burke to the senate, and appreciates the efforts that are being made to retain it for the state.

Representative Kinkaid, it is understood, would like to have a place on military affairs. Judge Norris will be satisfied with his present assignment at public buildings and grounds. Representative Pollard would like to go on ways and means, interstate and foreign commerce and judiciary, but it is believed he will be satisfied with any one of these assignments.

Report of Animal Industry.

WASHINGTON—The principal report of the Department of Agriculture on farm animals will be made for January 1. In this department the report will estimate the number of horses, mules, milch cows, other cattle, sheep and swine, and also give the local prices received by farmers for these animals.

BOYCOTT NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR KILLING MISSIONARIES

WASHINGTON—No boycott, no race feeling, but a mere personal quarrel was the cause of the death of the five American Presbyterian missionaries recently at Lienchow, in China, according to the report made to Secretary Root by Sir Chen Tung Liang, the Chinese minister here. The minister had with him when he came to the state department a copy of a long cablegram from the viceroy of Kwang Tung and Kwangsi bearing on this subject. The viceroy reported that Dr. Machie and Miss Patterson, two of the missionaries who escaped massacre by reason of their temporary absence from Lienchow, had just reached Canton under a strong Chinese guard. According to Dr. Machie, and his investigations were shared by the American consul's agent, the anti-American boycott had nothing to do with the tragedy.

FLED BEFORE WOMAN'S PISTOL.

How Mrs. Reader Put Stop to Impudence of Peruvian.

In her story of "Ella Rawls Reader, Financier," contributed in Everybody's, Juliet Wilbur Tompkins tells the following incident of a struggle of Mrs. Reader's in Peru:

"After eight months of useless struggle she went to out Callao, which is about half an hour by rail from Lima, with her Peruvian lawyer, Scotch interpreter, and American engineer, and forced the manager to open the warehouses and let her make an inspection of the machinery. The manager had met her with his lawyers, and the hour for argument before she gained her point had been something of a strain. During the whole process a Peruvian on the Haggins side had been standing close to Mrs. Reader, his little, narrowed eyes staring with that deliberate insolence only Latins can accomplish. The company went out into the warehouse where the machinery lay and the difficult business of a hurried inspection went forward, but still the bullying stare never ceased. After about two hours of it, the fine edge of that hidden temper of hers suddenly sprang up. She whirled on him with a blaze of words that needed no interpreter, and all at once his stare was being returned by a fierce little pistol held in a strong white hand and quite ready for business.

"The gentleman of Peru neither apologized nor retracted; he inconspicuously fled. And he was not the only one. Like shadows the men flitting out of the dusky warehouse, leaving the dangerous woman a clear field. When she looked about there was no one in sight but two Irish porters, and in their eyes were sympathetic twinkles, meeting which, Mrs. Reader could only sink down helpless with laughter and put up her pistol."

The Dentist and the Alligator.

Roy Farrell Greene, the president of the American Society of Curio Collectors, told at a dinner of dentists an appropriate story.

"A dentist," he said, "was once traveling in the East, and in the Ganges his boat overturned and he was obliged to strike out for the shore.

"As the dentist swam sturdily through the muddy water an enormous alligator suddenly rose up before him. The alligator opened its enormous jaws, and the next instant would have been the dentist's last, only—just in time—the man happened to notice the great reptile's sharp, white teeth, and an idea struck him.

"He drew a probe from his pocket, and, pressing it into the alligator's gums, he said:

"Does this hurt you?"

"The alligator screamed with pain, and the dentist, amid its great agony, made good his escape."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Wall Street Honesty.

John Alexander Dowie, before he set out for his Mexican colony, talked about Wall street honesty. In conclusion he said:

"Yes, my friend, the honesty of these financiers reminds me of that of the tramp who found a purse.
