Mr. Roy Bowser and Miss Luella Coffin were married at the home of the bride in this city Wednesday afternoon. A large number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony and wish the couple God speed. Both the bride and groom are too well known to need an introduction to our people. The bride being the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Coffin and the groom a young man of sterling worth. They will begin housekeeping at Lincoln where the groom is engaged in the contracting business.

Earl Willard while visitng with his sister at Columbus last week had an experience that he will probably remember for a long time. He found Barclay Jones' gun, which was in a closet in the upper story of the house. The magazine of the gun was loaded and while fooling with the gun he accidently threw a shell into the barrel and the gun "Went off". The charge went down through the floor into the room below and into a leather bottom chair, which fortunately was the only damage done.

Mrs. Mary G. Flory died Tuesday afternoon at 7:25 o'clock at St. Mary's hospital at Columbus. She had been taken to the hospital on Thursday of last week to undergo an operation for gall stones. Only to her children and her attending physicians was it known that her condition was so grave. She had been under the care of Dr. Britell while here and he had repeatedly called in consultation Drs. Martyn and Evans of Cotumbus. Upon her arrival at the hospital, Dr. Evans asked that Dr Jonas, the Union Pacific surgeon of Omaha, be called to assist in the operation which was performed early Tuesday afternoon It was discovered at once that there was a cancerous affection of the liver of the most malignant form, and all hope of her recovery was abandoned. Burial services were held fromthe Presbyterian church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. F. E. Thompson again. officiatig. A large concourse of family freinds followed the remains to the scene of interment at Evergreen cometery. Mary G. Sturgis was born the 16th of January, 1850, in Bond county, Ill. She was married to Dr. William I. Flory in 1867 at Goshen, Ind. She lived in Scuth Bend, Ind., until 1883, when she come to Nebraska. Her husband died December 1st, 1898 since which time she has divided her time between , Nebraska, Colorado and California. Her health has been failing for the last year, but not until the last four months did her condition become alarming. During her long residence in this community, Mrs. Flory had become endeared to the people. Her husband's practice here in the early days brought her close to many families, -as that was before the trained nurse had come to this country. Beller & Weidner's acetylene gas machine arrived this week and was installed Wednesday afternoon. On Monday evening the village trustees agree to grant a franchise permitting bracks Experiment Station have just and regulating the operation of the enterprise and the only question now is whether or not Beller & Weidner will be able to install the lights in them. Vrzal & Jostes and Pat Sweeney have already been accommodated, and the pipes will be extended to others as fast as possible.

At the meeting of the village trus tees this week a letter from the railroad company was read vigorously protesting against the habit Lindsay boys have of jumping on the trains and occasionally stealing a ride to Cornica or Newman Grove. The trustees promptly passed an ordinance making such acts misdemeauors subject to fines of from $1 to $10.

Mrs. Rev. Hedwg Weber was the only daughter of Mr. Friedrich Schoepfin and his wife Dorothea, nee Polenske. She was born in Kalamazoo, Madison county, Nebraska, September, 1874. On October 10, 1894. she was married to Rev. J. Waber, pastor at Ruskin Neb Two years later, in 1896 her husband was called by the German Lutheran congregations at Kalamazoo as their pastor, so she came back to her old home where she nad lived ever since. Her health had been poor for many years. She was troubled with asthma, ca tarrh and general weakness and had therefore much to suffer, but bore it all with patience and resignation. A week ago she had been afflicted with measles, which caused her death by a premature child-birth. She died on Wednesday, December 6, at five o'clock p. m. The funeral was held Friday at 2 p. m., the services being conducted by Rev. F. W. Gabre, from Glenville, Neb. Interment was made in the parochial cemetery.
