his ankle so that he has been confined to his bed since.

Little Ferdinand Rip, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rip, after a sickness of four months duration, died at five o'clock Wednesday evening. The child was taken with whooping cough which later developed into pneumonia, and some four weeks ago was taken to St. Mary's hospital at Columbus, in the hopes of a betterment, but the physicians informed the parents that there was no hope for a recovery and Saturday evening they brought him home. He was born on Christmas morning, 1904, making him one year and two days old. The funeral was conducted from St. Joseph's church this morning.

Miss Nellie Fahy, well known to many of the Signal readers, arrived here from Kinshar, Okla., Wednesday evening for a visit with relatives. It has been eleven years since Miss Fahy left here but she says she recalls many faces and many pleasant days. She has been a teacher at Kinshar for a number of years, but is now taking a much needed rest. She reports their family all well and doing well with the exception of her father, Patrick Fahy, who has been confined to his bed by illness for the past eleven months. They formerly lived on the farm now owned by Maurice Langen, northwest of town. Miss Fahy will remain here several weeks.

Misses Hetty Considine and Anna Nelson arrived here last Friday from their South Dakota homesteads for a few weeks' visit. They have lived on their homesteads since the first of last May, and they will be compelled to live there six months longer before being permitted to prove up and get a deed. Heretofore homesteaders have been allowed to prove up at the end of fourteen months and were required to remain on the land continuously but eight months of that time, but the land office is enforcing a new rule and in order to get the benefit of this they must begin the eight months residence within six months of the time of entry. As none of the homesteaders from here have done this they must live on the land continuously for the entire fourteen months before they can acquire a title.

St. Elwa rd.

In a letter received by F. J. Powell from Fitzgerald and Guy Green, it is stated that the boys are working on the steel gang on the extension of the C. & N. W. railroad west from Pierre, S. D. The river has been bridged and work is progressing rapidly.

Manford Blacketer left last Saturday for Lexington where he will visit a week. From there he will visit a week. From there he will go to Longmont, Colo., where he expects to make his home for at least a year.

J. R. Thomazin sold his farm south of St. Edward this week to John Roberts for a consideration of $5,300. Mr. and Mrs. Thomazin will move to some city where they can give their daughter, Miss Mariel, the advantage of a good musical education. Mr. and Mrs. Thomazin are among our very best citizens and it is with regret that our readers will learn of their departure.

John H. Wheeler was fatally injured in a runaway accident Thursday afternoon. He was driving in from the farm with a load of poultry for the market, and it seems that the team became frightened near the Beaver bridge just west of town. They ran toward the mill and as Mr. Wheeler turned them at the corner by the Gosman church, the wagon was overturned and he was thrown violently to the ground. He sustained a fracture of the skull, and when carried to Dr. C. A. Britell's rooms an examination showed that his injuries would result fatally. However, in the hope that a surgical operation might give relief, he was taken to Columbus on the evening train, where he underwent an operation at St. Mary's hospital—several pieces of bone and a large blood clot being removed from the brain,—from which he did not rally, and died at midnight. Mr. Wheeler was thirty-five years of age, was an old resident of this community a well-to-do farmer, and universally respected. He leaves in St. Edward, a brother and sister, J. L. Wheeler, and Mrs. C. Britell.

Woodville

Mrs. J. O. Fisher and Mrs. Nate Vanderhoff ate dinner Friday with Mrs. J. W. Currier.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ellis entertained friends Friday evening. Several of the young people attended the Christmas exercises held at the Sneed church Tuesday evening. They decided that probably they were excellent, but having neglected to learn Sweed they were hardly fair judges.

Mr. and Mrs. G. I. Clark are on the sick list this week. Mrs. Clark suffering from a severe cold and Mr. Clark an attack of rheumatism.

The following are those who entertained friends and relatives Christmas day: Mr. and Mrs. Alf. Potter, Mr. and Mrs. John Finch, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Currier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Batler.

The program given at the school house Saturday evening was one of the best ever rendered and much credit is due Miss Thompson. The house was finely decorated and the Christmas tree well filled.

Miss Edna Seltzer of Omaha, and Miss Jessie Seltzer of Fallerton are spending the holidays visiting friends at Woodville.

Mr. and Mrs. August Smolinski were Columbus visitors this week.

Pete Corber, Billie Smolinski and George Lindans all went to Idaho this week. George has a brother there that he will visit before returning. Mrs. T. Y. Lingle entertained the young people of the neighborhood Thursday evening in honor of the Misses Seltzer.

GENOA.

(From the Leader.) Miss Mabel Thurston returned from Omaha the last of the week to accept a position as "Hello" girl in the Nebraska Telephone office.

Jake Hill, at one time a resident of Genoa, was in the city this week calling on his old friends. He has been living up in Knox county and was on his way to Kansas where he goes to locate.

Harry Hinman resigned his position as bookkeeper at the First National bank and accepted a similar position in a bank at Oakdale. His place will be taken in the bank here by Oakley Adams of Lincoln.

As we announced last week, Mrs. Dick Bart and daughter, Pearl were thrown from a buggy last Wednesday and Mrs. Bart was seriously injured. The team they were driving became frightened and ran. Miss Pearl escaped with but slight injury but Mrs. Bart was badly injured about the head and face and one of her ears nearly torn from her head. Dick was in town Tuesday and said she was getting along nicely however. It was a very narrow escape.

Our citizens were aroused on Saturday night last at about 11:30 o'clock by the clanging of the fire bell. The fire was discovered to be the residence of W. M. Long in the south western part of the village. When discovered the building was put a-ving and Mr. Long and family, who were sleeping in the upper story, were compelled to escape through a window, and were able to save nothing (except a little clothing). The cause of the fire, which started in the kitchen, is unknown. The family attended the Christmas exercises at the Presbyterian church and returned home at about ten o'clock, passing through the kitchen on entering the house. The smell of smoke was the first indication Long had of the fire and at that time the south end of the building was all in flames. The loss brings to our knowledge many choice bits of farming property—both improved and unimproved—whose owners are looking for buyers. That's the class of property for a man to purchase if he is looking for low prices and good returns. The prices of these bits within our knowledge are right, and the properties well worth any man's investigation. Look us up and we'll repay your time.
