PAIN IN THE JOINTS

Rheumatic Tortures Cease When Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make New Blood.

The first sign of rheumatism is frequently a pain and swelling in one of the joints. If not combated in the blood, which is the seat of the disease, the poison spreads, affecting other joints and tissues. Sometimes rheumatism attacks the heart and is quickly fatal.

The one remedy that has cured rheumatism so that it stays cured is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. These pills expel the poison from the blood and restore the system, so that the poisonous matter is passed off as nature intended.

Mrs. I. T. Pitcher, of No. 130 Monmouth street, Newark, N. J., suffered for about three years from rheumatism before she found this cure. She says: "It began with a queer feeling in my fingers. In a little time it seemed as though the finger joints had lumps on them and I could not get my gloves on."

"Then it grew worse and spread to my knees. I could not stand up and I could not sleep nights. My suffering was more than I can describe. I took a great deal of medicine, but nothing even gave me relief until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

"I read an account of a cure in a case that was exactly like mine and my husband got me some of the pills. I took them for three weeks before I really felt better but they finally cured me."

Mr. Fitcher, who is a veteran and a member of E. D. Morgan Post, No. 307 of New York, substantiates his wife's statement and says that she now walks without difficulty, whereas a year ago he was compelled to push her about in a wheeled chair. Both Mr. and Mrs. Fitcher are enthusiastic in their praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

CONCERNING COMMON SENSE. The man who knows when not to talk, possesses judgment of a high order. People everywhere are displaying good judgment by eating Pillsbury's Vitos for breakfast. It's a mighty good thing to be outside of; try it.

A Good Heart. A good heart makes a good face—perhaps not beautiful or classic, but fine, sincere and noble. The face will shine with oil behind it. There are some faces that are quiet even today that at times seem to have a glow upon them. There are faces that are quiet and uninteresting in repose that light up amazingly with the animation of talking. There are some who can never get a good photograph, because the camera cannot catch the subtle sparkle of the eye, in which the whole individuality lies. There are some whom you would not at first call handsome, whose faces grow on you with the constant acquaintance until they become beautiful to you. For you see the soul shining; you see the splendor of a noble character glorifying every feature. A true beauty in the soul will come out in the sweetness, the brightness, the quiet glory of the face.

Real Elixir of Life. Contentment is the real elixir of life. It is the real fountain from which flows the waters of perennial youth. Sometimes it costs an effort, a tremendous effort, to say it is all right, but the man or woman who can say it is much better off for thus looking at the sunny side of the world than the person who harbors grievances against all mankind and walks through the world burdened with the somber thoughts of his disappointments. The discontented perhaps never stop to think how much worse off they could be; that, no matter how few their pleasures, there are those in the world who have few or none at all; that given health and strength and the full possession of the senses, they are advantaged and blessed in the race of existence.

THE LITTLE WIDOW. A Mighty Good Sort of Neighbor to Have. "A little widow, a neighbor of mine, persuaded me to try Grape-Nuts when my stomach was so weak that it would not retain food of any other kind," writes a grateful woman, from San Bernardino Co., Cal.

"I had been ill and confined to my bed with fever and nervous prostration for three long months after the birth of my second boy. We were in despair until the little widow's advice brought relief.

"I liked Grape-Nuts food from the beginning, and in an incredibly short time it gave me such strength that I was able to leave my bed and enjoy my three good meals a day. In two months my weight increased from 95 to 113 pounds, my nerves had steadied down and I felt ready for anything. My neighbors were amazed to see me gain so rapidly and still more so when they heard that Grape-Nuts alone had brought the change.

"My 4-year-old boy had eczema, very bad, last spring and lost his appetite entirely, which made him cross and peevish. I put him on a diet of Grape-Nuts, which he relished at once. He improved from the beginning, the eczema disappeared and now he is fat and rosy, with a delightfully soft, clear skin. The Grape-Nuts diet did it. I will willingly answer all inquiries." TURBINES FOR OCEAN LINERS. NAVAL MISHAPS TOO FREQUENT

Furnish Ideal Power for High Speed at Sea. Popular judgment will be suspended until a naval court of inquiry shall have placed the responsibility for the mishap that overtook Admiral Evans' battleship squadron while making its way out of New York harbor. A pilot was aboard the flagship and the others were following in close formation. The pilot knew his business, for his vessel went through unscathed, and it remains to be seen why the four others could not follow their leader. A long and continuous list of accidents to naval vessels, any one of which would have ended the career of a captain in the merchant service, more than suggests that too many naval officers are incompetent or negligent and that these frequent evidences of shortcomings come to public notice so often because proper examples are not made of those who have been found at fault.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Geronimo Takes Eighth Wife. Geronimo, the famous Apache warrior, 76 years of age, believing life too strenuous without a helpmate, has for the eighth time become a benedict. This proved startling news to his tribesmen at Lawton, Oklahoma, for they were not informed of his wooing. Two years ago Geronimo's seventh wife died, and since then he has been converted and become a Christian. His latest bride was Mrs. Mary Loto, an Apache widow, aged 58. The wedding occurred during the Christmas holidays, but only became known a day or two ago.

Bread and Water for Toppers. Mayor Scherff, new reform executive of Marion, Ohio, proposes to punish habitual toppers by putting them on a diet of bread and water for forty-eight hours or more whenever they are arrested. In the past all typical "soaks" were kept in durance vile until sober and were then released. Mayor Scherff, before his election, was a workman in one of the local factories. With the first day of his administration Marion has changed from a wide-open town to a strictly law-abiding municipality.

Bad Spelling. Bad spelling, says Benjamin Franklin in one of his letters, is generally the best, as conforming to the sounds of the letters and words. To give you an instance. A gentleman received a letter in which were these words: "Not finding Brown at home, I delivered your message to his yf." The gentleman, finding it bad spelling and, therefore, not very intelligible, called his lady to help him to read it. Between them they picked out the meaning of all but the yf, which they could not understand. The lady proposed to call her chambermaid, because "Betty," says she "has the best knack of reading bad spelling of any one I know." Betty was surprised that they could not tell who yf was. "Why," says she, "yf spells wife, what else can it spell?"
