Mrs. Charles Morgan, assisted by Miss Ida Kaufman, conducted a very agreeable surprise on Mr. Morgan Monday evening. The time was spent in playing progressive highfive after which a very dainty repast was served. Those present were John Schram and wife, Julius Schram and wife, William J. Newman and wife, George Galley and wife, Harry Lohr and Miss Gussie Kaufman of Columbus and Mr. Spiker. Mrs. Julius Schram carried off the ladies prize, while Mr. Newman secured the gentlemen prize. A jolly good time was had by all.

Father Karzer officiating. The bride is from Fremont and is but slightly acquainted here, but she is spoken of very highly, by those who know her. Mathew, the three-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Fuchs, died Friday evening last, after a weeks illness with cholera morbus, thought to have been caused by partaking of poisonous matter in some article of food. The other members of the family who were also quite ill with the same trouble are now considered out of danger and it is thought no more serious results will follow. None of the family or the attending physicians can account for the presence of poisonous matter in the food, but the younger members of the family seem to have been most seriously affected by it. The funeral of little Mathew took place Sunday afternoon at four o'clock and the remains were laid to rest in St. Francis cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all in their afflictions.

In 1883 he was united in marriage to Miss Eva Smith, of St. Bernard, who with four children, one son and three daughters are left to mourn the loss of a kind husband and indulgent father.

The remains arrived here Monday, on the noon passenger. The funeral was held Wednesday from the German Lutheran church northwest of town, conducted by Rev. He is survived by his wife who has the sympathy of hosts of friends.
