R. G. Strother of Monroe was in the city the first of the week on business.
Druggist Charles H. Dack is advertising that he will cure catarrh for $1. Ask him how he does it.

Shell Clark and Frank Kiernan of St. Edward were among the faithful who attended the democratic banquet last week.
Half the housekeepers worry comes from not having good flour. Use Shell Creek Creek valley flour and do away with all worry. Made by Peter Schmitt.

John R. Kelley of Florence, Neb., was visiting last week with D. F. Donoghue of route 4. He stopped in and engaged the Journal for a year to get the history of Platte county.

For sale or rent 80 acres in Colfax county seat. Good improved buildings. For further particulars inquire of F. V. Stibal, owner Gr-tina, Neb., or Joseph Zerzan, agent Scouyler, Neb. 41 p

It will pay you to read Journal ads this week. The Journal is proud of its advertising patronage and proud of its Platte county readers, who after all are responsible for the advertising.

Pure bred R. C. B. Leghorns, won third pen at Platte County Poultry show. Fine cockerels for sale at $1 each. Mrs. Roy Clark, R. F. D. No. 3, St. Edward, Nebraska. Neb. Telephone Q 90. 45 5t

A good many people are using Hyomei these days. It is the only guaranteed cure for catarrh, where you get your money back unless it cures. Druggist Charles H. Dack the local agency.

Nels Hasselbach and George Sowards, two of St. Edwards leading merchants were in this city this week enroute to Omaha. Mr. Hasselbach went to help Albert Rasmussen select his goods for his new store at Lindsay.

George Galley calls attention to a mistake made in the Journal last week. His trip up the Platte valley was made in 1851 instead of 1855 as stated in the Journal. Mr. Galley the Journal is sorry to state has had to consult a physician this week.

Will B. Dale has been suffering for about a week from a bronchial trouble which finally forced him to go to the hospital last Saturday for treatment. He very soon recovered however, and returned to his rooms in the Clither hotel contrary to his physician's order. It was feared that his illness might prove to be serious on account of his age but his remarkable constitution seems again to have rescued him from a very tight place. Mr. Dale is one of the landmark marks in the development of Columbus.

Does Journal advertising pay? Ask the man who offered a farm for sale in the Journal and a few days later received a letter of inquiry from Chicago enclosing the ad clipped from the Journal. Or ask the young man who advertised for a lost brooch. A Journal reader saw the party pick up the brooch on the street. As soon as he saw the ad in the Journal he associated the two and the brooch is now in the hands of the owner. Try one yourself if you are still not convinced that the Journal is the best advertising medium in Platte county. Why shouldn't it be with by far the largest circulation of any paper in the county?

It is now clearly up to the people of Columbus whether they will have a first class ball team or whether they will have none. When it was figured out in the Journal office at the last meeting of the committee that it would require at least $600 a month to support a salaried team and the pledges on the subscription paper only amounted to $250, the most of the boys were ready to throw up their hands and say it couldn't be done. However the atmosphere has cleared a little. Corbett and Welch seeing that so many of the business men were really anxious to have a team and for that reason believing that they could count on liberal gate receipts, have decided to take a part of the responsibility upon themselves and stay provided the subscriptions can be raised to $400 a month. The boys believe this mark can be reached when the business men are assured that they will have a winning team, play clean ball and have from one to three-week-day games a week to which excursions will be run, bringing crowds of people to the city. Will the business men and others raise the $400?

Wednesday evening March 14, Leola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Alcock, and David McWilliams were united in marriage at the home of the bride, Rev. J. W. Angell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performing the ceremony. Only the immediate relatives of the couple were present, the wedding being a quiet one. Mr. and Mrs. McWilliams are Monroe young people and number their friends by the score, and have the well wishes of all. They will go to housekeeping in the house formerly occupied by F. S. Croshaw, east of town. —Monroe Republican.

Lanesen & Rasmussen, two hustling young business men from St. Edward, have leased the store building now occupied by Paul Greve, and will take possession April 1 with a big stock of new merchandise. Mr. Greve's stock is practically gone, and at the price he is maintaining he will have no difficulty in selling the small remainder before April 1. Lanesen & Rasmussen come highly recommended, have ample business experience, and will no doubt occupy a prominent place in Lindsay's commercial affairs. They have purchased Mr. Greve's store-furniture and fixtures. —Lindsay Opinion.

Democratic Convention.
The democrats of Columbus met in delegate convention Monday night and named the following city ticket: G. W. Phillips, mayor; Gus Spetoe, treasurer; John Becker, clerk, Dick Roemer, engineer; J. H. Johannes, councilman first ward; A. W. Clark, councilman second ward; M. Rothblatter, councilman third ward; Wm. O'Brien, police judge.

G. W. Phillips made the following platform for himself: "The democrats of Columbus in convention assembled for the purpose of defining the position of the party upon some of the issues which have been injected into this campaign unqualifiedly declare that we favor the enforcement of all laws and ordinances that will insure to the peace dignity and welfare of the city and to that end we pledge the enforcement of the Slocum liquor law as regards Sunday closing.

We insist that the sale of intoxicating liquors by licensed druggists shall be restricted to the purposes named in their permits.

The social evil problem is one which the minds of the best men of all political views have been unable to solve to the satisfaction of all. The question of suppressing these evil houses and scattering their inmates, or the question of placing the evil under strict police control, are problems which baffle the heads of all municipalists, but we pledge in our administration an earnest effort to eradicate the same.
