We are always open for business and are constantly looking for new business, at the same time taking just as solicitous care of the old. Our constant growth shows well the fact that we succeed in taking good care of both the new and the old.

Emma M. Ragatz.

The people of this city were shocked this morning by the announcement of the death of Miss Emma Ragatz, one of the most generally loved and respected young women of Columbus.

For two years Miss Ragatz had been in poor health. Her condition during the past year had been such that it baffled the best medical skill, and it was resolved last week as a last resort to perform an operation.

Her trouble was obstruction of the bowels with fecal impaction. The operation was successfully performed last Monday. Death came at eight o'clock this morning.

Emma M. Ragatz was born in Columbus, March 13th, 1883, graduated from the city high school and has spent her whole life here. She was an active worker in the Methodist church, of which she was a member, and every one who knew her was her friend.

Miss Ragatz was the youngest of the five children of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ragatz. She leaves besides her parents, three brothers, W. B., Henry and Ed and one sister Lillian.

The funeral will be held from the Methodist church Friday morning at ten o'clock.

Medical Association Meets

The fifth annual meeting of the Platte County Medical Society held last night at the Armory was one of the most interesting in the history of the society. Dr. C. D. Evans, president of the society, delivered an excellent address, speaking especially of the laws bearing on contagious diseases.

Carefully prepared papers on technical medical subjects were read by Dr. H. G. Morris of Creston, Dr. L. C. Voss of this city, Dr. G. F. Pugh of Platte Center and Dr. W. S. Evans of this city. C. N. McElfresh, Lloyd Swain and F. H. Abbott, the only guests of the physicians, also read papers.

Officers for the coming year were elected as follows:

Dr. J. C. McKinley, president; Dr. W. S. Evans, vice-president; Dr. H. G. Morris, Secretary; Dr. P. H. Metz, treasurer. Dr. C. D. Evans, Dr. L. C. Voss and Dr. T. Martyn, Jr. were elected on the board of censors.

The doctors took up the question of extending the territorial limits of their society to include six counties.

At the close of the business session the doctors and their guests repaired to Wisenstien's Cafe where one of the best and most elaborate banquets ever prepared in this city was spread. It was two o'clock when the doctors left the banquet room. Dr. Lueschen and Dr. W. R. Cornelius of this city were the only doctors present whose names have not been mentioned above.

Mayor Phillips Makes Appointments

At a meeting of the city council last Friday night Mayor Phillips named the appointive officers of the city for the ensuing year as follows: Louis F. Ligatner, city attorney; Dr. C. H. Platz, city physician; J. L. Branken, water commissioner; Henry Luers, overseer of streets; August Schack, chief of police; Mark Burke and James Nelson, night police. Of these appointees, Dr. Platz, August Schack, James Nelson and Henry Luers held the same positions under Mayor Dickinson. Thus Mayor Phillips follows the precedent set by Mayor Dickinson, Boettcher and possibly other mayors, of taking, at least a part of the appointive offices out of politics.

The council also disposed of the petitions for an electric light on the Niewohner corner. It was denied on the recommendation of the committee. Three or four other petitions for electric lights were presented and referred to committee.

The contract for street sprinkling for the coming year was let to W. W. Whittaker.

Resolutions

The following resolutions were passed by Tent No. 55, K. O. T. M. at their regular meeting April 24th, 1906.

The Union Evangelistic Meetings

The series of meetings under the leadership of Rev. Milford H. Lyon, assisted by James W. Patterson, baritone soloist and director of the choir, began on schedule time last Sunday. The Congregational, Methodist, Episcopal and Baptist churches dispensed with all services except Sunday school at their respective places of worship and met at eleven o'clock at the great tabernacle for union meeting. A chorus of about seventy-five voices has been organized the preceding evening by Mr. Patterson and the music by the chorus from the new book 'Revival Songs' just from the press was a very important feature of the service. Mr. Patterson is a very skillful director of the chorus and no less able a baritone soloist. His voice is deep and rich and under perfect control. The selection 'Only a Sinner' at the morning service afforded a real treat. He will sing at each service during the series.

The sermon by M. Lyon was an able, scholarly address and was highly appreciated by the large audience present. At the opening of the service Mr. Lyon spoke by way of introduction of the importance and necessity of special meetings. He said he came with no peculiar message, his theme would be to urge men to quit sin and to obey Christ. The purpose of the work was to make bad men good and good men better. He wanted to proclaim the truth plainly and fearlessly but with love. 'As far as we go' said the Evangelist, 'we want to build solid and sure.' We see the importance of revival in everything else, in agriculture, in business, in education and in politics. There has never been a time when special religious efforts were needed any more than in our day. Lives crowded so full of business, study, society and pleasure that the tendency is for Christ and the spiritual life to be neglected. The church of Christ was born in a revival. It has been built up largely by revivals. Over seventy-five per cent of the pastors of one of the most conservative denominations have reported that they began the Christian life during special meetings. All he said he asked in coming into the community was fair play. It would be wrong to condemn all evangelists for the mistakes of some, any more than all lawyers or merchants or farmers. He asked not for the sake of the evangelists or the pastors or the churches, but for the sake of our Lord and Master that the people cancel all social engagements and be willing to sacrifice time and thought and strength for the great work before us. 'These meetings,' said the evangelist, 'will be just what you are willing to make them.'

On Sunday evening about a thousand people were present. The stirring music of the song service could be heard for blocks. Mr. Patterson sang very effectively 'Only a Sinner.' The subject of Mr. Lyon's discourse was 'The Value of a Soul.' A professional man in our city remarked at its close that it was one of the ablest addresses he had ever listened to. There will be no afternoon services. This week but a meeting every evening except Saturday at eight o'clock.

A juvenile case was filed in the district court this week. The defendants are Peter Hoffman, John Maslonka and Herbert Lowery, all about fourteen years of age. V. A. John Linder has filed an attachment proceeding against Albert Mix.

Columbus to the Rescue.

The citizens of Columbus made for themselves a proud record in their speedy action to add their mite for the relief of the San Francisco sufferers.

At 4:15 on Friday, seventy-five Columbus business men were called to order in the council chambers by Mayor Phillips and at 5:45, just one hour and thirty minutes later, a car load of flour stood on the siding waiting for the special Union Pacific relief train from Omaha, which at 10 o'clock went speeding through Columbus on its mission of charity. At noon on Saturday, $1145 had been subscribed and a car load of flour and provisions was sent westward to feed the homeless families of the stricken city.

The people of Columbus were only a handful out of hundreds of thousands throughout the entire country who got together last Friday, moved by the one common impulse of sympathy, and they acted much as the citizens of other cities acted. There was no oratory, no fine speaking. Every man knew what he was there for. It was simply a question of how and what. Whether it should be money, clothing or food and how it could be despatched the quickest.

Flour was selected as the most generally useful article as well as the quickest to get ready and an equal amount from the two Columbus mills was ordered, a special price of $1.90 being made. In the second car were included $300 worth of groceries also furnished at reduced prices.

The citizens meeting which raised this donation was presided over by Hon. J. E. North, J. H. Johannes acting as secretary. The soliciting committee for the North side was Carl Kramer, Jonas Welch and Gus Spellic. For the south side, I. Gluck, Jacob Greisen and Judge Hensley.

We, the undersigned, do hereby subscribe the amounts set opposite our respective names for the relief of the suffering people of San Francisco, and other California points, who were made destitute by the recent horrible earthquake disaster.
