That "Jewel" Gasoline Stoves

have been made for twenty-five years is a fact of some interest to us but of the greatest importance to the public, for the excellence of the Jewel Stoves is the result of twenty-five years of honest effort to make them the best in the world. You cannot afford to buy a poor gasoline stove. Fortunately, you do not need to pay a high price to get a good one, but it must be good. A poor one is dear even as a gift. Jewels are thoroughly good. Let us show and demonstrate this line to you before buying a stove. Jewel Gasoline Stoves are constructed according to the safety requirements of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Price $2.75 and up.

Gasoline

We can furnish you now with Gasoline. Telephone us your orders and we will deliver promptly.

Jap-a-lac

Have you used JAP-A-LAC on your floors? Nothing better made.

Perhaps the largest and most difficult piece of job work ever turned out in a Columbus printing office was finished last week in the Columbus Printing and Specialty House under the management of Richard Ramey and B. B. Green. It was a book of proceedings of the last meeting of the Interstate National Guards association of which Col. Carrol D. Evans is secretary. The book contains 140 pages and the mechanical work was done by Will H. King who has been with the Journal nearly two years.

Tuesday night fire destroyed one of the large barns and implement houses on the Pierson D. Smith ranch, one mile west of St. Edward. Two valuable thoroughbred mares, Ida C and Virginia May, five head of Hereford cows, eight or nine calves, an immense amount of farm machinery, a half ton of paint and about $1500 worth of fine finishing lumber besides numerous miscellaneous articles were also lost in the flames. The total loss is estimated at about $5000, none of which was covered by insurance. The fire was supposed to have started by spontaneous combustion. The fire was first seen at 9:00 o'clock and had then reached such proportions that there was no hope of saving the building. Some of the live stock, including several valuable stallions, were hustled from the barn, but it was impossible to reach all the stock. Boone County Advance.
