The Value of a Suit ..of Clothes..

Depends to a great extent on the manner in which it is MADE and TRIMMED. Almost any reliable house can be depended upon for HONESTY so far as fabrics are concerned. FIT, STYLE and TAILORING require ABILITY, SKILL. You want fabrics of QUALITY to be sure, but, you must have these other things too. You should not judge clothes ONLY by the fabrics. We'd like to show you OUR IDEA OF VALUE—you would better understand our argument.

An unusually strong class of new members was received into the Methodist Episcopal church last Sunday. Of the thirty-nine composing the class twenty were men, including four only who were under twenty years of age, twelve were women and young women and seven were little girls. Mayor Phillips, the First National Bank and the editor of the Journal are among the donors who sustained the bait of a missionary grafter one day last week and added a dollar each to the exchequer of the pious looking gentleman to help him on to the next town. The grafter's stock in trade consisted of the countenance and vocabulary of a Christian minister and a few subscription blanks purporting to be from some Home Missionary society. Mayor Phillips was suspicious of the fellow because he seemed to lack all knowledge of the institution he pretended to represent, and Jonas Welch refused to contribute to the good cause because of the same display of ignorance. The missionaries of the city were not called on and they declare the fellow must be a fake.

Joe Carter and Jan Greig of St. Edward, were in Columbus last Thursday returning from Chicago where they in company with Charlie Bapp, Victor Reed and Ben Barnick, had taken a train load of cattle. Mr. Carter made a short visit at his home in Illinois and Mr. Greig spent a few days in Michigan visiting relatives. Mr. Carter did not learn until he reached Columbus that his barn had been burned down in his absence. He said that their train made the trip from Omaha to Chicago in about twenty-four hours, getting their cattle to market in good condition.

Several Columbus men and women who attended entertainments at the North Opera house during the past two weeks made complaint to the Journal about the crowd of boys and young men who line up on the walk outside the door and "rubber" at the people as they pass, often making insulting remarks and sometimes blowing cigarette smoke in the faces of ladies. The Journal records these complaints that they may be referred to the manager of the opera house and chief of police. A quiet entreaty to "move on" from the lips of Chief Schack would remove the cause of the complaint.

Judge Hensley is growing in popularity as a holiday orator. He delivered the Decoration day oration at Leigh and has been engaged to deliver the Fourth of July oration at Platte Center. The Leigh-World said of Judge Hensley's Decoration day address: "Chairman W. I. Willing then introduced the speaker of the day, Judge W. N. Hensley of Columbus, who entertained for half an hour with a well prepared speech. Mr. Hensley is an old resident of Nebraska and told some interesting things of pioneer life. He paid a pretty tribute to Nebraska and especially the country tributary to Leigh."
