The Parker White City Amusement company which spent a week in this city closed last Saturday night with the largest attendance of the week. Too much cannot be said in favor of this company. Their performance was better the closing night than at the opening and the people connected with it from management down proved themselves ladies and gentlemen throughout. Any show that beats the Parker stamp could have a liberal patronage in Columbus in the future. The Parker shows should be encouraged because they will force the fakes out of business or cause them to raise their moral standards.

Carriage Painting.

If your old buggy needs painting bring it to H. S. Armstrong, Columbus, Neb. He will give you the best work at the lowest prices.

H. S. Armstrong,
21st and Olive St., Columbus, Neb.
A. J. Mason who has been in St. Mary's hospital four weeks for treatment was able to be out yesterday for the first time.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jackson of Creston spent Sunday in Columbus at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zinnecker.

Mrs. Brugger has received a card from her daughter Miss Elise from Strasburg, where she was met by Mrs. Brugger's sister. The party arrived safe and well and Miss Brugger did not suffer any from sea-sickness.

Henry Gase who has read newspaper reports to the effect that grasshoppers are destroying crops in Minnesota, recalls that in 1874 when grasshoppers "took Nebraska," they preceded their attack here by an onslaught on Minnesota and he rather looks for history to repeat itself.

The ashes of Mrs. Chas. Schroeder of Omaha was buried in Columbus cemetery last Monday. Mrs. Schroeder died in Omaha last Thursday and was taken to Davenport, Ia., to be cremated in accordance with her request. The ashes of Mrs. Schroeder were accompanied here by her husband, Charles Schroeder and by her daughter, Lora and sons William, Louis and Charles and Mrs. Charles Schroeder. The services were held here from the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brodfueher. A large quantity of flowers were sent here from Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schroeder were among the earliest settlers in Columbus, Mr. Schroeder, helping to establish the Columbus Roller Mills. They had lived in Omaha since 1896. G. A. Schroeder, William Schroeder and Louis Schroeder of this city are brothers of Charles Schroeder.

Miss Mabel Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Snyder of this city was married very quietly last Saturday to Mr. Frank Baker of Omaha. They were married by Rev. Munro and were unattended. They left on the first train for Omaha where they will make their future home. Miss Snyder has been a most efficient employee of the Nebraska Telephone company in this city for several years. Mr. Baker is a painter.

The monotonous calm which has prevailed for months in Columbus police circles was broken last Saturday by a telegram to Chief Schack from Fremont ordering him to arrest two tramps who had fought off the crew of Freight No. 7 and were proceeding to ride westward in peaceable possession of a bed on the bumpers. The fellows got off here when the train stopped and proceeded to make their get away. But Mr. Schack, hiding behind a building, stepped out at the right moment to catch one of the fellows as he was trying to lower the ten second record past him, and the other fellow who ran in another direction gave himself up when he found his partner caught. The fellows claimed to be college students who wanted to make a western tour by the bumper route and said they fought off the crew three miles this side of Fremont because they objected to walking back so far to catch another train. They were returned to Fremont Saturday in charge of Dodge county officers to answer the complaint lodged against them by the train crew.
