A large crowd from Columbus and Platte county accompanied the Columbus team ball team to Humphrey last Sunday where the home team defeated the crack Lindsay team by a score of 16 to 5. It was a good game and the spectators got their money's worth. The game was all features so far as the home team was concerned. The boys played ball just as if they had practiced although none of them had seen a ball this summer. They were assisted by two Indians from Genoa. Dr. M. T. McMahon umpired the game to the entire satisfaction of both sides. The prize fight that was to be pulled off between Carrig and Deery was omitted because both men were disabled in the democratic convention last week. A return game will be played in Columbus in about two weeks. The Columbus line-up was Dehn, Grover, Max, Eliza, Corbett, Lehr, Getzmer, Taylor, Wines and Kerr.

I want to thank the piano buyers of Columbus for the confidence they have shown in their home-dealers by their liberal patronage of my special manufacturer's piano sale. Yesterday I sold two pianos and have delivered two today. Till August 7 the factory agent will be with me and I want to urge my friends to call while he is here as I can offer you pianos now at factory prices.—R. W. Soley.

Judge Saunders notes that out of the 143 delegates selected to attend the Farmers' congress soon to be held at Rock Island Ill., not a blessed one hails from Platte county, all of which leads the judge to believe that Governor Mickey holds little respect for the republican farmers in Platte especially in point of numbers.—Columbus Telegram. What is the matter with Roy Clark, doesn't he live in Platte county?—St. Edward Sun.

A number of our people are planning to camp at the Fullerton Chautauqua which opens August 24th, and lasts till September 3rd. An unusually fine list of talent has been engaged, the grounds splendidly equipped and everything possible done to make the ten days outing one of complete comfort and pleasure. One of their handsome souvenir programs may be obtained by writing the secretary.

Don't forget the handsome souvenir offer to paid in advance subscribers.

An Ideal Bath.
 An ideal combination is to soap the body all over, using tepid water before plunging into a cold bath. But there are many good folks who cannot face a cold bath daily and who after taking one are apt to be cold and shivering all the day through. For these the best plan is, after a warm bath, to sponge the throat and chest with cold water, which is most stimulating and especially so where the sufferer has chronic cold. To insist on a cold bath is just as unwise as to have a bath that is too warm and to remain in it too long. That is the more general mistake.

Her Word of Honor.
 "Don't you love me?"
 "Yes, dear, but I'm already engaged."
 "Break your engagement?"
 "Oh, George, that wouldn't be honorable! An engagement is a sacred thing, not lightly to be entered into or broken off. Besides—"
 "Well?"
 "Well, I'm engaged to two men, and that makes it even worse."—Cleveland Leader.

Stabbed.
 "Whew! That's the first time I ever made a speech. I felt like I had forgotten all I had ever learned."
 "You appeared to be talking just as you felt."—Houston Post.

A Snob.
 Thackeray designated a snob as a being on a ladder who is quite as ready to kick the feet of him who is above him as to kick the head of him who is below.

Nothing sharpens the arrow of sarcasm so keenly as the courtesy that polishes it. No reproach is like that we clothe with a smile and present with a bow.—Chesterfield.

The Only Way.
 A person of little tact once remarked to the octogenarian Auber, "What a sad thing it is, this old business!"
 "Yes," agreed the old musician, "it is sad; but," he added, with witty philosophy, "up to the present time no surer way has been discovered to live a long time."

A Centenarian's Dream.
 "Dearest, with you by my side, I would willingly give up all I possess—wealth, position, parents—everything."
 "I know, George, but in that case what would there be left for me?"—Milwaukee Sentinel.

Humphrey people in general were deeply grieved this week to learn of the death of Mart Ryan which occurred at the home of his parents in Los Angeles, California, Sunday evening of this week. A little over a year ago Mart was called to Los Angeles to bury his brother Charley. He returned and a few months later it was necessary for him to seek a milder climate because he had become afflicted with the same disease consumption, which carried his brother over the divide. Less than three years ago Mart and Charley Ryan were models of health and physical strength and nothing was further from the minds of their friends and relatives than that they would ever fall victims to this dreadful disease. These two young men were the only children of Mr. and Mrs. Ryan and to the same extent any true father and mother would view the future of the children did this now heart-broken couple cherish the fondest hopes for their future happiness and success in life. Mart was the younger of the two boys and was born at Oulbertson, this state in 1881. When quite young he accompanied his parents to California where he was given all the advantages possible of educational institutions, and after becoming proficient as a stenographer, he came to Humphrey and accepted a position in the Bank of Otis & Murphy with his uncle P. E. McKillip. For six years, until his health failed him, he rendered valuable and worthy services to this institution. He was highly thought of by both employers and patrons. He was a favorite among all his acquaintances and his acquaintance extended over a large portion of this part of the state. He left Humphrey last September and tried living in various places in California in the hope of finding a climate that would prove beneficial to his health. At last he was taken to Arizona, but it was soon necessary for him to return to his California home that he might pass his few remaining days among friends and acquaintances.—Humphrey Democrat.

Columbus will be the home of the marksmen of the Nebraska National Guards for two weeks beginning August 14. Columbus was decided upon by the Adjutant General after Lieutenant Malloway of Albion had looked over the field here and in other Nebraska towns. The ground decided upon is in the Barnum pasture about two miles southwest of the city. The targets will be arranged on the banks of the Platte which will leave a distance of about one mile in which the dead bullets may spend their force. The distance of the targets will be 200, 300, 400, 500, 600, 800 and 1000 yards. The practice will take place mornings and evenings for two weeks. The marksmen at this shoot will be those selected from the several companies of National Guard in the state that are equipped for target practice. Last year Columbus sent seven men from Company K to Kearney who had qualified as marksmen and will have five this year. Last year it will be remembered that Durward Davies of this city and E. H. Malloway of Albion, present inspector of small arms practice, were the only two who qualified as sea girls as expert riflemen. Captain Wagner estimates that about 100 men will be here for the state contest. The Columbus men who will represent Company K in the contest are: Lieut. John E. Brock, Sergeants A. O. Boone and Bert J. Brian, Musicians Roy R. Young and Captain Wagner. The team to represent Nebraska in the National shoot at Sea Gort next September will be selected at this shoot. Company K will leave in a body on August 3 for the campment at Fort Riley, Kan., and immediately upon their return the target practice will begin here.

The body of Elmer C. Smith, brother of Mrs. J. G. Reeder, reached here Monday night from Panama and funeral services were held from the home of Judge and Mrs. Reeder this forenoon at 10:30. The service at the home was conducted by Rev. Munro and the Masons of Columbus took charge of the service at the cemetery. A large number of Columbus people attended the services to give testimony to the high place which this excellent young man occupies in their esteem.
