Big all Over the Month of August

T is house-cleaning time for us. We must get rid of what still remains of Summer stocks in Men's Clothing and Furnishings before the incoming of Fall stocks. Every day in August means a day of opportunity to you to buy clothing and the accessories of dress at greatly reduced prices. It would pay you to buy now and put away when you consider that the prices we quote here mean a saving of anywhere from a third to a half of regular prices. But that isn't the best of it-there are two months of Summer weather ahead in which you can get the full value in wear of what we ask you to pay now.
