It is the best in the world.

For all baking purposes.

Keeps in tin.

Prepared by the Calumet Baking Powder Co., Chicago, Ill.

Byrnes and Diedrich Bocher, that he and his kind have won out in the state convention, we will prove that his democracy is not our kind by defeating the candidates and program which he put up on the state ticket."

Hugh Hughes was renominated for state senator by the republicans of Platte and Colfax counties last Saturday.

FRED HOARE SHOULD NOT BE RENOMINATED.

The Journal is informed unofficially that the float representative convention for Platte and Nance counties will be held at Monroe next Tuesday. From the same source it is announced that Fred Hoare will be a candidate for renomination. The Journal's opposition to Fred Hoare's nomination is known to all the republicans of Platte county who have followed the editorial comment of this paper both before and since the last county convention.

Since this is the last issue of the Journal before the convention we would like to repeat our opposition to this nomination in no uncertain terms. In doing so, we desire to explain to the republicans of Platte and Nance counties that our opposition is not based on personal grounds and that the Journal would be glad to support Fred Hoare to the limit of its influence for any county or other office requiring industry, clerical ability, and tact, all of which qualities Fred Hoare possesses to a high degree.

We oppose Fred Hoare's nomination simply because, at least up to the time of the state convention, he has been out of sympathy with all the important issues of the state republican platform.

It may be that Fred Hoare was right, at least we do not question his honesty in standing out in the Platte county convention against resolutions which incorporated the same principles adopted by the state convention on the railroad issue. But his position on the railroad question was diametrically opposed to the position taken by the republican party on the same question. If he has changed his mind on this paramount issue since the state convention his conversion will be considered too sudden to be serious by most republicans and they will fear that he might backslide before the termination of the probationary period.

We are convinced, therefore, that it would be foolish for the republicans of Platte and Nance counties to renominate a man whose sympathies, honest as they may be, are not in harmony with the views of the party.

This is no time for mingling words or juggling facts and the people will not stand for it. The republican party will go on record at Lincoln next winter on the railroad problem and no man with known railroad sympathies should be sent there to represent the party.
