Norfolk Interested in Road. NORFOLK - Norfolk and northern Nebraska are intensely interested in the newly projected Yankton-Gulf line of railroad in which United States Senator Robert J. Gamble of South Dakota is interested. It is believed here that if the road is built it will pass through Norfolk on the old projected Yankton, Norfolk & Southwestera grade. This old grade was built ten years ago when the line between Yankton and Norfolk was first planned. It passes straight north from orfolk, touching the edge of Pierce, and then goes to the Missouri river through a virgin territory.

> POSSE KILLS NEGRO FUGITIVE Black Who Murdered Five Men Dies Fighting to the Last.

Asheville, N. C. - Fighting with all the desperation of a man at bay. Will Harris, the five-times murderer, fell Thursday riddled with bullets from the rifles of officers and citizens in the woods near Fletcher. He died giving shot for shot until his last cartridge was expended.

At seven o'clock in the morning report reached the city that bloodhounds had followed the scent to Buena Vista, eight miles from Asheville and that the animals had lost it there. Three posses of citizens and officers immediately set for Buena Vista and the negro was sighted in a wood.

The posses quickly closed in and a fusiliade of shots from the woods ten minutes later told the inhabitants that justice had been done and that the murder of two policemen and three innocent negroes had been avenged.
