first class wild hay land that is very heavy—spring water on place, frame house, hog house, all fenced and cross fenced, Jones State farm, and nothing to beat it in Nebraska. This is the kind of a farm that will make you a grand home, do not fail to see it. Price only $40.00 per acre, will carry $10,000 for ten years at 6 per cent on this place.

Acres, all in one body, 8 miles southeast of North Platte, with plenty of alfalfa, wild hay, living spring water, plenty of timber, good buildings of all kinds, 800 acres best valley land in state, on Telephone and R. F. D. line, main traveled valley road to town. Possession March 1, '08. Reasonable terms can be had and this place is offered at $22.50 per acre. There is nothing in Nebraska that can compare with it for the price. Just the kind of a farm for a man with plenty of help. Don't forget this place.

These lands are owned and contracted by me and are priced away below any other lands of the same quality and location in that part of the state. The rush is on now for lands at North Platte and Ogalalla, so do not delay looking these over—Only six hours ride from Columbus. Only one day lost to see any of them. Call around and get all information.

Yours truly,

T. F. WALKER & CO

LEIGH.

From the World.
Mrs. Caroline Hall died at the home of her son, Albert Hall, near Verdigris, Knox Co., Saturday morning July 18th 1907 at half past four, aged 69 years, 11 months and 23 days.

Last Sunday afternoon while shooting at various things in a pasture Alvin Harnopp was shot through the lower part of the right thigh, by the accidental discharge of a 22-caliber Winchester rifle in the hands of a hired man. Dr. Lowery was immediately called and dressed the wound and the young man is doing as well as could be expected.

ST. EDWARD.

From the Advance.
Miss Maude Woosley of Columbus returned home Tuesday after a brief visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taylor.

Tuesday night Geo. Musgrove's new house was struck by lightning and was damaged to the extent of about $200. The bolt struck the roof and went to the cellar, damaging the floor and partitions badly. The house was almost ready for occupancy. The loss was fully covered by insurance.

Tuesday night lightning struck John Peterson's barn and burned it to the ground. Mr. Peterson's loss is reported to be very heavy, including the barn, granary and corn cribs, farm machinery, about 1,000 bushels of grain and some live stock.

From the Sun.

While pumping water one day this week E. G. Walker slipped and had a couple ribs put out of business.

Mrs. A. D. Himan and daughter, Miss Maude are visiting at the Willard home in Columbus this week.

A. V. Crosthwait received a bad cut on his right eye-ball yesterday morning with a pair of scissors while "shooting" out flies. He went to Omaha over the Northwestern to receive medical treatment and believes no permanent injury will result.

PLATTE CENTER

From the Signal.

T. S. Hoare has rented D. D. Roberts building next door to the restaurant, and it is being over hauled and fitted up, and when completed Tom will move his family into it so as to be near their business. Roberts retains the front room for his office.

A large delegation of Platte Center people went down to Columbus last Sunday to witness the double-header ball game. Our people took an unusual interest in these games because Platte Center's battery, Dolan and Lauenaki, and shortstop Iflan played with Columbusans.

One night last week Garret Labbin, a farmer living about ten miles north west of here was driving home from town, and when opposite the Bloodorn cemetery his team became frightened at a bunch of weeds and grass that had been piled in the track and ran into a barb wire fence, cutting one of them so badly that it was worthless and had to be killed. Ed Arndt had been at work in the cemetery and had piled the weeds and grass in a low place in the road, thinking it the best way to dispose of them, and at the same time fill up the hole. We learn that Mr. Arndt has made a satisfactory settlement with Mr. Labbin for the loss of the horse.

Mr. Geo. Schaidel, sr., was most agreeably surprised yesterday morning when a number of her most intimate friends from Columbus walked in unannounced and took possession of her home. The ladies all came up on the morning freight, returning in the evening. They report having had very pleasant time, and promise to return in the near future. The following named ladies constituted the party: Mesdames Emma Hirschbrunner, John Graf, Rudolph Gieson, David Schappach, Rev. Neunmarker, Albert Giger, Henry Gass, John Seipp, Wm. Schroeder and Louis Field.

HUMPHREY.

From the Leader.
A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. William Leist, Tuesday.

A few over thirty tickets were sold from Humphrey to Columbus last Sunday to base all enthusiasts.

Olyde Ely and Buster Brown visited with friends at Columbus this week.

H. J. Backes left Tuesday for Spaulding, this state, in the interest of his nurseries. He was accompanied as far as Columbus by Mrs. Backes, his daughter and Clara Herbes, who returned the same evening.

J. R. Clarke is the new agent for the Union Pacific at this place and took possession of his new duties Tuesday, filling the vacancy made by the removal of Mr. Brown. Mr. Clarke comes from Central City and will move his family down here as soon as convenient arrangements can be made.

CRESTON.

From the Statesman.
H. O. Studley went to Columbus last Saturday, returning Monday with Mrs. Studley who underwent an operation at St. Mary's Hospital several weeks ago. Mrs. Studley speaks very highly of Dr. Allenberger who performed the operation, and also of the nurses and the cleanliness of the hospital in general.

Wm. C. Kalweit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kalweit, and husband of Mrs. Nellie Latimer-Kalweit, was born on July 12, 1878. Died on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, July 17, 1907, as a direct result of a sudden attack of appendicitis on the 4th day of July, aged 29 years 5 days.

MONROE.

From Republican.
Mrs. Wm. Truelove of Columbus was visiting in Monroe this week.

Mrs. F. A. Mattson of Madison arrived here Wednesday to attend the funeral of Geo. S. Truman.

Born, on Tuesday, July 23, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McWilliams of Genoa, a daughter.

R. R. James and family left Monday for Alliance, Neb., where they will make their future home, and Mr. James will work at his trade.

J. E. Monroff, a former resident of this county and for several years a teacher, at Westville, and later county superintendent, died at his home in Grand Island last Friday and was buried Sunday.

George Truman, a pioneer of this locality, died at his home, west of Monroe, Monday morning from old age. He had been in poor health for some time and his death was not unexpected, as he was almost ninety years of age. Mr. Truman settled on the home farm during the seventies and saw the country develop from a wilderness. He also established the first weather station in this locality, and it was due to his energy that many valuable records were obtained. The funeral was held Wednesday from the Friends church, and the interment was in the Friends cemetery.

MADISON.

Star Mail.
Will Griffin and wife were presented with a fine baby boy last Sunday.

A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Vom Tuesday evening, and lived but a few hours.

During the storm of Thursday the steeple of the Catholic church of Lindsay was struck and destroyed. No other damage was done.

During the storm of Tuesday evening a small tornado struck two and one-half miles southwest of this city. Noboy was hurt or killed but buildings were torn to pieces and crops damaged.

The funeral of R. A. Malony was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the home. Rev. Bothwell officiating. The remains were then taken to the Olmstead cemetery where they were laid to rest with the beautiful Masonic burial services. At the close of the service O. E. Pines sounded "taps", Mr. Malony having requested this several years ago and a brave soldier has gone to his last home. The Grand Army attended in a body. Beautiful floral pieces were sent by the Masons, Eastern Star, Odd Fellows, Methodist Aid society, and others. The funeral was a very large one, the yard being completely occupied by sympathizing friends.

GENOA.

From the Times.
The funeral of the late Mrs. W. O. Pagsley was held at the country home of the family last Friday afternoon. Rev. J. Parker, pastor of the Congregational church, conducted the services. Interment was in the Genoa cemetery.

The fellow who went to W. E. Reitzel's place east of town, known as the Battles farm on the night of July 5 and stole a storm apron and lap robe from his buggy was certainly not acquainted with Reitzel's methods of chastising petty thieves. While living near Bellwood, Reitzel fired six charges of shot at a man who was robbing his hen house. The fellow went home with fifty shot imbedded in his back, and the next day a Columbus physician got a job of lead picking. Reitzel now has his shotgun loaded and the next thief that comes sneaking around his place will receive a warm reception.

From the Times.

The oft repeated assertion that "lightning never strikes twice in the same place," has been disproved. Three years ago the 5th of the coming month a bolt of lightning shattered the steeple of the Presbyterian church. Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock the lightning got in its work again damaging the spire to a slight extent.

Last year the assessed valuation of Genoa township was $362,000; this year the figures have been increased, the amount being about $401,000. The assessed valuation of railway property has increased from $72,500 in 1906 to $101,000 in 1907; of this amount $17,000 is in the village of Genoa and $84,000 in the balance of the township. The personal property valuation, exclusive of railways, in the village of Genoa in 1906 amounted to about $70,900, and this year a trifle over $83,000. The personal valuation outside of Genoa in the township, exclusive of railways, is $44,000.

PASTIME GRINS

A small Kansas boy was called in to view his new born baby brother. He looked it over with dissatisfaction, and finally asked: "Mamma, where did this thing come from?" "An angel brought it Jimmie," "Was you awake when he came?" "Certainly Jimmie" "Well, then mamma, all that I have got to say, is that you are dead easy. I'd like to see an old angel put off such a looking thing on me. But I reckon we are stuck unless I kin work Johnny Green to trade it right unces for one of his spotted pups."

Monument to Bill Nye
The Press Humorists' association is talking of erecting an expensive monument to Bill Nye. It is suggested that each member contribute one day's income for that purpose.

From Bottom to Top.

A. A. Robinson, president of the Mexican Central railroad, began his career as an axman in an engineering corps of the St. Joseph & Denver City railroad.

To Treat Superfluous Hair.

The constant use of toilet pumice with a lather of toilet soap will keep the growth of superfluous hair invisible, but it will not permanently remove it.

Output of Autos Increased.

In the last five years the value of the annual output of the automobile factories of Germany has increased more than tenfold, or over 1,000 per cent.

Longest Meal on Record.

"Yes," remarked the old boarder, "I've been eating here for ten years." "Ten years! And haven't you got filled up yet?"
