The republican county ticket is made up of good, clean men. Vote it straight.

The Telegram speaks of Edwin Hoare of Lost Creek township, the chairman of the republican county central committee...

The time set for our annual state fair in September at Lincoln is unquestionably better than the time for holding the Akarben festival in Omaha...

When it comes to a newspaper controversy, the Columbus Telegram is always long on misstatements and short on actual facts.

Because the Journal advises its readers to let well enough alone when it comes to the election of president...

The selection of the chairman of the republican state central committee is not pleasing to the Omaha World-Herald...

BORAH'S ACQUITTAL. The acquittal of Senator Borah of Idaho, is almost as pleasing to the country at large as it was to his friends...

THE KEEP OF THE INSANE. The Bee recently reprinted from the Chicago Tribune an editorial discussing the cost of maintenance of insane wards of the state...

When it comes to a newspaper controversy, the Columbus Telegram is always long on misstatements and short on actual facts.

patients who are well-to-do, or come from families in easy circumstances, who yet permit the state not only to house them and furnish medical and other attendance...

The Bee hopes this investigation may be made before the next legislative convenes and lead up to a thorough revision of our laws governing admission to our insane asylums.

ROCKEFELLER'S INCOME. An eastern statistician has great fun with figures when he ventures upon an analysis of John D. Rockefeller's fortune and income.

Taking the all-the-time basis, the Standard gave Mr. Rockefeller $1,144 an hour, or $19 a minute, night and day, Sundays and holidays...

J. G. Martin's Plea. To the citizens of the Sixth Judicial District of Nebraska: Gentlemen:—As no political party has adopted a platform for this judicial district...

Not Too Simple. John Simple, 14 years old, of Dadeville, Ala., is not as simple as you might think from his name.

The Worm Turns. His wife having spoken her mind to him for the fifty thousandth time, and having ordered him as he valued his life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness...

Unfortunate Choice of Words. The named reformer, after much personal effort, had rounded up an audience of hoboes, and mounted the platform to address them.

THE PLASTER HAND

Grace Drew was not a pretty girl, but she was lovable and charming. Her hands made a strong point for her—they were so white and soft and appealing.

FIGHT FOR FRANCE

SOLDIERS OF FOREIGN LEGION HAVE GLORIOUS RECORDS. All Nationalities and Types Serve Under the Tricolor Flag in the Colonies of the Great European Republic.
